Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 16, 2017
Dear Friends,

There will be many bittersweet moments during the next few months. It is my 12th, and last, Easter with you as your Pastor. Transitions can be difficult if we have a fear of letting go and think that we are alone, and/or abandoned.

The Easter season gives us reason to have hope. The resurrected Lord helps us see beyond the present, while recognizing that He is in our midst walking with us.

Jesus reminds His disciples and all of us, “Do not be afraid… I am with you.”

Below is the Easter letter from Cardinal Cupich. He helps remind us that the Church is larger than St. Hubert Parish. We are part of the Catholic Church.

During this Easter Season we pray not only for ourselves, but especially for those who live in trouble spots around the globe, and have a daily occurrence of violence.

Happy Easter to all of you.

Easter Sunday 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord,

This year’s Easter gospel comes to us from Saint Matthew. He describes Easter morning. Women go to the tomb at dawn on the first day of the week. An angel appears and speaks to them: “Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples.”

In these words, we find the essential Easter message directed to each one of us today in our uncertain world and amid the painful burdens we carry: do not be afraid, come and see, go and tell.

Easter eases our fear when we come to know God’s triumph in the resurrection of Jesus. Easter invites us to come and see with fresh eyes what God has done in conquering sin and death. Easter summons us to go and share our faith and hope with others.

When we hear this message and recognize Jesus Christ as the Risen Lord of life, how can we not praise and thank God? How can we not walk together with new confidence and hope? In a time when violence and death-dealing forces seem rampant in the world and even in our own neighborhoods, we truly need new confidence and hope. And when we listen to the Lord, as we have been trying to do in the Archdiocese of Chicago, to seek directions for the renewal of our local Church, we surely need new confidence and hope.

Pray with me that we may all truly hear the words—do not be afraid, come and see, go and tell—and so draw new life from them for our loved ones, our world, our city and metropolitan area, our Church, and our very selves.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich Archbishop of Chicago

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord  3
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

"Then they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed." The two Marys were in for a surprise. They had come, as usual, to do the ritual anointing of their dead friend's body. But on their arrival, not only was there an earthquake, there was also an angel whose "appearance was like lightning" and whose "clothing was white as snow." The brave guards were so scared they "became like dead men," but the women managed to stay on their feet and hear the words of the angel. Guess what! Jesus isn't here. He's been raised from the dead. Now go share the good news!

No wonder these women were feeling a mixture of emotions! They were frightened by these incredible supernatural events, but overjoyed that Jesus was alive again. Just imagine their joy when "Jesus met them on their way," and they were able to embrace him and worship him. What a day!

Now, we too join in the celebration of this day of all days. Every Easter, we recall these glorious events, but we do more than just remember. We also rejoice that our Lord is alive right now, that death and sin have been conquered forever, that the gates of heaven are open for us. The joy of Easter is not a nostalgic kind of happiness that only looks backwards. It is instead a call to rejoice in the gifts that we can enjoy today and in eternity.

We may not have seen the angel, felt the earthquake, or kissed the feet of the risen Lord, but we are nonetheless the beneficiaries of this momentous event. We are an Easter people, a people in the hands of a loving God whose power can overcome all the terrible threats and trials of existence with the amazing gift of eternal life.

RCIA NEEDS YOUR HELP!
WILL YOU ANSWER THE CALL?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process in which an adult individual becomes Catholic and receives the sacraments of Initiation—Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This journey takes place through catechesis, experience of the parish community and commitment to the life of the Catholic faithful. Our RCIA community is in desperate need of several individuals to serve as volunteers in our ministry. If you are feeling the call to share your time, we invite you to consider becoming a volunteer.

See if one or more of these statements fits you:
- I enjoy talking about my Faith and the Catholic Church, but not in large groups.
- I enjoy having people over for dinner or meeting for coffee to discuss my Faith.
- I have experience teaching about my Faith and the Catholic Church.
- I don’t have much experience, but I would love to learn more about my Faith and the Catholic Church.
- I don’t have a lot of knowledge about the doctrine, but I would like to share my faith journey and experiences with others.
- I would consider being a sponsor — someone to help the Catechumens and answer their questions throughout their journey.
- I enjoy organizing events that are both community oriented, yet spiritually based.
- I would like to be someone who prays for the people in the RCIA.
- I would like to help with the details of the program to create a welcoming environment for inquirers, e.g. refreshments, clean-up, preparing prayer, setting, etc.

If you are interested, please contact Marie Staffa at mstaffa@sainthubert.org or 847-885-7700, ext. 124. Many thanks for your prayerful consideration to serve our RCIA community.
Thanks and Remembering

How wonderful it was to celebrate Holy Week and Triduum. As Holy Week and Easter approached, I thought about this being my favorite time of the Church year and the wonderful rites of processing with palms, washing each other’s feet, adoring the cross, baptizing adults and older children, and bringing new family members into the faith I so love.

I am always especially moved by the parishioners who fill the worship space, opening themselves to God’s grace, expressing their thankfulness for the beauty and power of these liturgies.

With mixed emotions, I was aware this would be the last Holy Week that I would serve as the Parish Liturgy Coordinator. It is with deepest gratitude that you have entrusted me with preparing the liturgies of these days, for they reveal and define who we are as Catholic Christians. In every decision, every imagined possibility for how to carry out a rite, I tried to consider those who pray these liturgies—here in this parish at this time. I pray this consideration has helped each of you to enter these holiest of days and, in some way, has deepened your faith, and enlivened your relationship with God. For this is the desire of most of us when we come to worship—to meet God and praise and petition Him, the One who has promised to be with us always. For some, I am aware, it is the only place of peace and solitude, of feeling you belong somewhere, of family. I pray that these days have given you that experience and will continue to be what you look forward to each year forward.

Thank you… to all who allowed me to kneel and wash your feet or extended the invitation to me; to all who witnessed before me the reverence you hold for Jesus on the cross, and the deeply moving way you assisted in bringing others to veneration…to all our neophytes who were willing to accept my guidance on their way to baptism and the Easter sacraments…to the amazing crowds on Easter who reminded me how grateful we are for what God has done for us. Truly we are a people of the Resurrection!

As I celebrate Holy Week with a new community, you will for always be in my prayers and heart. Thank you for the privilege of preparing the Triduum liturgies with and for the people of St. Hubert.

I also thought about the many ministers who serve the Church’s prayer and its people. More than 20 liturgies were celebrated from Passion/Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday. This took an enormous amount of people serving with patience and respect for one another and the community. Many come back each day, unscheduled, simply because they are needed and are so dedicated to these sacred days. They are too many in number to mention. Thank you to each of you in every ministry who were gracious and attentive to our liturgies and the last minute changes.

St. Hubert is also rich in blessings, given the pastor and deacons who lead us in prayer, truly happy to be in God’s service, and to be here with us over these holiest days.

We all owe much to the Catechumenate—those who journeyed to the Easter sacraments and those alongside them. To those who returned to the Church, we are grateful for your courage to be welcomed back.

Lastly, but of great importance, I thank our Mass Coordinators who held things together over many liturgies. Without them, these liturgies would be hectic instead of prayerful opportunities to be with God and each other. For any large or small act of service over these days done by anyone—I offer thanksgiving.

The RCIA/CMI Team would like to thank the sponsors, parish companions, Godparents, and family members who accompanied our new members on their faith journey. Your devotion has guided and supported them in their preparation.

A big thanks to all those who helped in forming and catechizing our new members. We appreciate you giving us new insights into our Catholic Faith.

And to you, St. Hubert Parishioners, who prayed for our new members on their journey to the Easter Sacraments and who participated with them in the rituals of the RCIA, THANK YOU and GOD BLESS YOU. We rejoice and are glad in this EASTER Day!

If you helped in anyway, no task is too small for our THANKS!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the Sacraments of initiation - Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct phases over a period of time suitable for the participant, through weekly learning sessions, meeting the parish community, attending Mass and gaining an understanding of the moral life of the Catholic faithful. The RCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the Apostles.

Who is RCIA for?
1. Persons in need of baptism
2. Persons baptized in another Christian tradition who desire to become Catholic
3. Persons baptized Catholic in need of First Communion and Confirmation

How long is the RCIA process?
The time varies and is dependent on each individual, but is rarely shorter than six months or longer than two years. The Church greatly respects the time each person needs for conversion and decision.

What do you learn in RCIA?
We cover a number of topics on the Catholic faith, from the very basics to moral and social situations. Participants will learn about Jesus Christ and why we follow him. This is a great opportunity to come ask questions and learn in a comfortable, friendly setting. The RCIA team represents a diverse group of Catholic faithful who are honored to share their love of the faith.

Midwives of Hope

It’s no accident that when Jesus rose from the dead he appeared first to women. Why? During his pre-resurrection ministry, at least so it seems, he called mainly men to be the principal actors. Why a certain reversal at the resurrection?

We can only speculate, but one reason might be that women are midwives. Something new is being born in the resurrection and women are the ones who attend to birth.

That’s a metaphor worth reflecting on, not just in terms of the importance of women in ministry, but especially in terms of how we are all, women and men alike, called to respond to the resurrection, namely, by becoming midwives of hope and trust.

And it’s a needed vocation because all of us, perpetually, are in the agony of struggling to give birth to trust. Why?

Because we’ve all been wounded by betrayal, abuse, broken promises, broken relationships, and empty words. By the time we reach adulthood there is enough disillusionment in us to make it natural to say: “Why should I trust you? Why should I believe this? Why is anything different this time? I know how empty words can be!” The older we get, the harder it is to trust and the easier it is to become skeptical and cynical.

Yet none of us wants to be this way. Something inside us wants to trust, to hope, to believe in the goodness of things, to again feel that trustful enthusiasm we once had as a child, when we were innocent (and “innocent” means “unwounded”), when we could still take another’s hand in trust. No one wants to be outside the circle of trust.

But it’s a struggle, an agony of sorts, as we know. We’d like to trust, but often we can’t. It’s where a midwife can be helpful.

When a baby is born, normally the head pushes its way through the birth canal first, opening the way for the body to follow. A good midwife can be very helpful at this time, doing everything from giving support, through giving reassurance, through giving instruction, through teaching us how to breathe, through actively helping to pull the new life through the birth canal. Her help can sometimes mean the difference between life and death, and it always makes the birth easier and healthier.

That’s true too for trust and hope. A good midwife can be helpful in bringing these to birth. What can she bring that’s helpful? Insight, support, reassurance, certain spiritual “breathing exercises”, and experienced hands that can, if necessary, help pull the new child through the birth canal.

And one of the things a midwife of hope needs to do is what Jesus did when he met people, women and men alike, after his resurrection. He sent them back to “Galilee” where he promised they would re-find their hope and trust. What is “Galilee”?

In the gospels, “Galilee” is more than a geographical place. It’s a place of the heart: the place of falling in love, of first fervor, of being inflamed with high ideals, of walking on water because one is naive and trustful enough to believe that this is possible. “Galilee” is the place we were before our hearts and ideals got crucified, the place inside us where trust and hope are gestated.

A good midwife of hope, like Jesus on the morning of the resurrection, invites people to “Galilee”. How? Here’s an example: The famed American educator, Allan Bloom, tells a story of how a particular distasteful incident in a classroom once helped change forever the way he teaches.

Sitting in a lecture hall as an undergraduate, he felt assaulted by a professor who began his class with these words: “You come here with your small-town, parochial biases, your naiveté; well, I’m going to bathe you in great truth and set you free!”

Bloom remarks how this reminded him of a boy who had very solemnly informed him when he was seven that there was no Santa Claus or Easter Bunny. This was no great truth, just an invitation to cynicism, like the professor’s comment. Reflecting on this, Bloom resolved to forever teach in exactly the opposite way. He would begin his classes this way: “You come here with your many experiences and your sophistication; well, I respect that, but I’m going to try to teach you how to believe in Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny again – and then maybe you’ll have some chance to be happy!”

The resurrection of Jesus is about more than believing in Santa and the Easter Bunny, but, even so, Bloom’s pedagogy tells us something about what it means to go back to “Galilee” and give birth to trust in our lives.

Somewhere in life we lose the child in us and lose too the trust and hope that go with that. It’s a painful struggle to give birth to trust again and, in that struggle, a midwife of hope, someone who believes in the resurrection, can indeed be a wonderful friend.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
