Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” - Jn 14:6
Did you know that the RCIA process belongs to the whole parish?
(Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

Every year adults, children, and teens are Initiated into the Catholic Community through RCIA. It is a learning and loving process in which conversion of the heart brings individuals to Jesus Christ.

Maybe you have been curious about what the RCIA process is all about.
Maybe you have a memory of being involved in the RCIA process and want to give back to this ministry.
Maybe you have wanted to get involved for awhile. If so...

We invite you to join us as we un-wrap the RCIA process for you.

Tuesday May 30th
7:00 – 9:00 PM
Parish Ministry Center Clubroom

Join our new pastor, Fr. Mike Scherschel, Fr. Rizzo, and the RCIA Team:
• We will give you an overview of the RCIA process.
• We will help you to explore your own baptismal spirituality.
• We will share with you the many roles and ministries within the RCIA process.

We encourage everyone to attend this initiation gathering to:
❖ Learn more and leave knowing what the RCIA process is all about.
❖ Become a person who makes a difference in the life of another.

For more information, contact Marie Staffa at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

The first 50 people who attend will receive a complimentary chicken sandwich from Chic-Fil-A.

5th Sunday of Easter

"Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do." What were the works that Jesus did? Miracles, sometimes, but what were the essence of these miracles? Caring for the sick, comforting the sorrowful, feeding the hungry... much of Jesus' ministry was spent in carrying out what we call the works of mercy. But he did more than that; he also preached and publicly shared the good news, he fostered fellowship and community, and he prayed. All of this makes a kind of plan of action for us as Christians. As Jesus says today, if we truly believe in him, we will follow in his footsteps and do these same things.

What this all suggests is that belief itself--having faith, being Christian--is only part of the picture. Jesus expects us to take this faith and put it into concrete, practical action. Apparently this goes hand in hand with real faith. If actions don't follow, then faith is not being lived to its fullest.

This of course presents a real challenge. Our lives are busy and our plates are full, just with the tasks and demands of daily existence. It can seem like a burden to serve others, to share the Gospel, to be actively involved in a faith community, to find time to pray. But these are meant to be priorities for true disciples of Christ. And as many will testify, when we sincerely ask God to help us get our priorities in order, he has a way of miraculously multiplying our time. Somehow, we find the opportunities right before us to follow God's will and bring our faith to life. That simple prayer of asking for help may be where we need to start. The first step is not so much to fill our calendar as to fill our hearts, or just to pray that God will fill our hearts, with the desire to "do the works" of Jesus.

Mother's Day Blessing

The Synod on the Family was last October, and we now wait for Pope Francis to release his statement on what to do to strengthen the family in the twenty-first century. Many say that the family is under attack and we need to focus more intently on family values. One thing we may all agree on is the centrality of the figure of the mother in all families. It is that primary and central role of mother that draws family together. The mother is the glue that binds all families together. As we celebrate the tradition of Mother's Day, let us pray for our mothers, both living and deceased.

Let us pray...

Good and gracious God, creator of all good things in the universe, your Son, Jesus Christ, loved his Mother and modeled for us how we should love our mothers.

Bless all the women in our lives who model for us the love of a mother. Protect them and encourage them to love as you have loved us.

Bless and protect those men in families who have no female partners and give them courage and strength to love their children in the absence of a mother.

We ask all this in your name. Amen.

CHILDREN’S MINISTRY OF INITIATION

RITE OF WELCOME 2017

May 21 at the 9:00 AM Mass

Over the past several months, a number of children with their families have become a part of Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI). On Sunday, May 21 at the 9:00 AM Mass Anthony and Alexia Trejo, who are unbaptized, will make public their intention to the Church that they want to be a fully-initiated members of the Catholic faith. In celebrating this Rite of Welcoming, from this point on, they will be called a catechumens.

Five children in CMI are baptized Catholics and they are preparing for the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. They are Alex Christian, Michael Chudzik, Dustin Pasia, Jaikimo Plaza, and Sebastian Reivera. They will make public their intention to continue sacramental preparation in CMI. From this point on these children, who are already baptized, will be called candidates.

As part of our mission, the entire community is called upon to welcome and support these children in their formation and discernment. It will be our duty to pray for them and with them throughout the year in the liturgy — especially in the Rite of Sending for Election and Continuing Conversion, in the early spring of 2018, and during the Rites of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil in 2018. We will be asked to help them learn about our faith in the traditions of our Church. Thanks for joining us in prayer as they make this important step on their journey of faith.

If you have an unbaptized child over the age of seven, or an uncatechized child over the age of 8 who is interested in receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Eucharistic Ministers

8th Annual Gayle Photikarm Memorial Blood Drive

St. Hubert is sponsoring the 8th Annual Gayle Photikarm Memorial Blood Drive on Sunday, June 4, from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM in the lower level of the church.

Gayle had a kind heart and a warm, giving spirit. She was a loving wife, devoted mother of two sons, and a special, understanding teacher at St. Hubert School.

Gayle received multiple transfusions during her battle with cancer. It is in Gayle’s memory that her family and friends ask you to join them in saving lives by donating blood.

To obtain further information or to schedule an appointment, please contact Nate Photikarm at 847-899-8008 or Vince Wroblewski at 847-891-2821 or call LifeSource at 877-543-3768 or register online at www.lifesource.org and use code STO2. APPOINTMENTS RECOMMENDED and WALK-INS are welcome.

NEW EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TRAINING

A training session for anyone interested in becoming a Eucharistic Minister is set for Thursday, June 1st from 7:00—8:30 PM in the church building. This session is required for all who distribute the Eucharist at Mass and to the homebound or hospitalized on a regular basis.

The Church requires that Ministers of Eucharist be fully Initiated (have received Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist) and in good standing with the Catholic Church. The Archdiocese of Chicago strongly recommends that ministers be at least 16 years old; we maintain this policy at St. Hubert.

If you have any questions, please contact the Liturgy Office, y.cassa@sainthubert.org, or 847-885-7700, ext. 107.

There is no need to register before the session.

5th Sunday of Easter

Today's Gospel reading ends with a very astounding verse: "Whoever believes in me will do the works I do, and greater far than these." What does he mean? How can we do the same — and greater — miracles that Jesus himself did?

The answer is found in the context of the entire chapter. Jesus is explaining his close relationship with the Father. Remember, Jesus was (and still is) both human and divine. We need to look at these verses with that in mind. How did he serve the Father as the Son of Man? And how did he serve the Father as the Son of God?

The "works I do" come from his human nature: He loved, he taught, he conversed with a listening heart; he dined with others, he worked hard at his job, he took his ministry very seriously. "Whoever believes in me will do the works I do" — he is our example of what it means to be a holy human. We will love others as he loves them, teach the faith to others, listen to those who need someone to understand them, work hard at our jobs, offer a helping hand when we see a need, etc. There's nothing supernatural about it. It's being who we are: human children of a loving Father.

The "greater" works come from his divine nature: He did the supernatural works of his Father. "Whoever believes in me will do the works of the Father." We are called to be the Father's conduits of miracles in our world today.

When Jesus united himself to us as a human, he showed us how to rise above our human limitations. Now, through the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation, we are united to Christ's divine nature so that we can continue the works of the Father. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, any disunity is removed. We can love the unlovable after they've pushed us past our human limits. We can be conduits of the supernatural. We can do everything that God asks of us, despite our inadequacies.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Make a list of your gifts and talents. Then reflect on how each of these are the human works of Jesus for the world today. How has the Father also worked through you supernaturally?

2. Name some of the good works being done in your parish or group: How do these reflect the human nature of Jesus?

3. Name some of the ways that your parish or group shows the Father's supernatural nature to the world.

4. How can we become better able to do the "greater works" of the Father?
Daniel Berrigan was once asked: “Where does your faith reside, where’s its real seat?” His answer is wonderful, both in color and insight: “Your faith is rarely where your head is at and rarely where your heart is at. Your faith is where your ass is at! Inside what commitments are you sitting? Within what reality do you anchor yourself?”

Faith, in his view, is not anchored in the head or the heart. But how is that possible? If it isn’t in the head or the heart, where is it?

From Aristotle, through Thomas Aquinas, through contemporary philosophy and psychology, analysts have generally agreed that, as human beings, we have three major spiritual faculties: HEAD, HEART, and GUT, each with a special function. In our heads, we think. In our hearts, we feel. What happens in the gut? In the gut, we know, just simply know, in a way beyond thoughts and feelings. The gut has to do with intuition, it lets us know what we “have to do”. It’s there that we experience the categorical imperatives within our lives.

With that as a background, we can begin to understand the wisdom of Berrigan’s answer: To use just one example: There are times when each of us in the most important commitments within our lives (faith, family, church, morality) find ourselves in a situation where our heads aren’t in it, our hearts aren’t in it, but we are in it! Against the more spontaneous wisdom of our heads and against the more natural feelings of our hearts, we are anchored by another kind of thought and feeling which perhaps we can’t explain to anyone, even to ourselves, but which keeps us sitting, standing, and walking solidly inside of a certain commitment. We are doing what “we have to do” because at some deep level we simply “know” that this is what we need to do, that this is what is right. That’s faith.

Faith is manifest in our decisions, our commitments, and our life-choices, more than in any intellectual beliefs or passionate feelings. It shows itself in decisions, in choosing certain commitments and in remaining within them. It’s helpful to know this.

How do I know whether my faith is weak or strong? By checking where my ass is at! Why am I inside certain commitments? Why am I remaining there? That, ultimately, is the criterion. The same holds true for assessment of others’ faith. What’s to be said of those among our own children, siblings, neighbors, and friends, who no longer go to church and seem, on the surface at least, to be rather cavalier about the faith?

How we assess their faith may not be based upon where their heads and hearts are at, but rather upon where they are at. Do they radiate charity, graciousness, respect, hospitality, honesty, generosity, moral integrity, concern for justice? To what are they giving their lives? What commitments are they sitting and walking within and why? Faith is judged by these things, not only by how someone thinks, feels, or expresses herself explicitly in the area of faith.

God, as Jesus makes clear, is a self-emptying God, and we live in the wonder and grace of that kenosis. God, it seems, is self-secure enough so as to not need to be always the centre of conscious attention, the acknowledged life of the party.

We see then that there is a real difference between the idea of faith and its reality. Too often we confuse these.

Faith is also an idea and that idea can sometimes be very stimulating intellectually. As well, the idea of faith can stir and inflame the heart. The reverse is also true. As a notion, faith can sometimes seem intellectually stifling and can feel emotionally crippling. Feelings and thoughts run a wide gamut and so we must be careful to not mistake how we think and feel about God on any given day for the reality of faith. Thoughts and feelings about God are not necessarily faith, as we all-too-quickly learn when our faith is challenged; either by the distractions of everyday life, the scandals in the church, or, more deeply, by personal tragedy, when we are cut down at our roots by terminal illness, the loss of health through aging, and other irreversible losses. It’s then that we find out, only too quickly, that the idea of faith, as distinct from the reality of faith, lacks the substance to truly let us believe in a deeper life than what the world can give us now.

C.S. Lewis, in recounting his own journey to faith, tells us that it was not, in the end, his thoughts or feelings that led him to faith. Rather it was God’s grip on him, an inchoate brand in his soul that wouldn’t go away, a nagging burn in his gut. As he puts it: “The harshness of God is softer than the kindness of men and God’s compulsion is our liberation.”

18th Annual Senior Day
Sponsored by Vicariate 1DEF Ministry Commission

“Freedom from Guilt, Fear, and Shame...BE JOYFUL”

Presented by Father Fred Licciardi, C.PP.S.
Associate Pastor at St. Hubert in Hoffman Estates

Guilt, Fear, and Shame are the 3 most difficult blocks to our Spiritual Life, to our Inner Peace, to our general happiness. Father will show us how we can overcome these three obstacles and achieve a real balance in our spiritual life and find that our true spiritual DNA is God’s incredible love for all of us. We will then realize how we are unconditionally loved by God, and that we are precious in His sight.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
