TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

AUGUST 6, 2017
Mountain Climbing

Today we celebrate the great feast of the Transfiguration—the moment the fully human Jesus also reveals himself as fully divine.

And he took Peter, James and John up the mountain to experience it. Of course, they had no idea what was in store for them when they set out or even where they were headed. As disciples they were simply accompanying Jesus on the way.

So Peter, James and John’s experience actually becomes a good metaphor for the spiritual life. As followers of Christ, we’re in the midst of a journey we call our everyday lives. We’re meant to discover that it’s Jesus who accompanies us each day, and if we let him, he can even lead us to see something we’re meant to see.

Sometimes we’ll have Transfiguration moments—moments of experiencing the divine at work and present to us. Other times, we find we have to pick up our cross and head into the depths of a passion—experiencing the humanness of suffering, whatever form it takes. Life is full of ups and downs.

But we don’t travel the mountain path alone. Every mountain climber has something to hold onto so they don’t fall. In the spiritual journey, it’s our faith in Jesus Christ. We have someone to hold onto, and like a skilled expedition leader, he will keep us on sturdy ground. But to do that, like Jesus often says, we need to keep our eyes and ears open.

Nothing can replace prayer, or the openness to discovering where God is leading us. We all have the ability to experience it. We are moments away from a discovery.

Some Good Discoveries:

One of the great things I discovered last week is the goodness and kindness of the St. Hubert community. Thank you for the warm welcome. I enjoyed meeting many of you last Sunday, and look forward to meeting more and more of you as time goes on.

One of the other things I am discovering is that the parish loves a good party and a good picnic! And this month, there are a couple opportunities.

Please come out for the Sharing Parish Picnic next Saturday, August 12 from 11:30am-4pm right here at St. Hubert. It will be great to meet our friends from St. Aloysius and to have this time to socialize and get to know each other.

Then, the following Saturday, join us for the School Family Picnic on August 19 beginning with Mass at 4:30pm. You’ll have the opportunity to meet Ms. Kelly Bourrell, our new principal, as we welcome in a new school year.

There’s nothing better than a picnic in summertime—baseball, hot dogs, apple pie and St. Hubert. (Sorry...I still have a little bit of the advertising business in me!) I hope to see you there!

Transfiguration of the Lord
"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." Oh, to be on that mountain! What a priceless experience for Peter, James, and John. If they had ever doubted, if they wondered whether Jesus was really who he said he was, their confidence surely got a boost on the day of the Transfiguration. Before their very eyes, Jesus' divine beauty radiated gloriously while the two ancient prophets also appeared in miraculous manner. And to top it off, the voice of God the Father spoke from the heavens and confirmed that it was all true: Jesus really is the Son of God!

Why did Jesus reveal himself in such a remarkable way to these men? Perhaps we have an answer in today's epistle. Peter writes, "We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain." Peter mentions this fact in order to confirm his credibility as a preacher as he goes on to say, "We possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it." Because of the mission that Peter had to help shape and nurture the Church in its earliest days, his position as an "eyewitness" to the Transfiguration helped to gain the attention, and the faith, of his hearers.

So although we were not there during this holy apparition, we have the benefit of it. We, and the faithful through the ages, have heard the testimony that Jesus is truly our God from those who saw in person that it was for real. In this way, the Transfiguration is able to bolster the faith of many, not just the three men who were there that day. May we have the grace to allow the feast we celebrate today to truly deepen our faith.

Sharing the Gospel
Previews give us a quick peek at a movie, in hopes that we will want to see more. In today's Gospel, we celebrate Jesus' Transfiguration. That's when God gave Peter, James and John a preview of the risen Jesus, the Jesus they would see again one day. Jesus glowed brightly. Moses and Elijah came to talk with Jesus. Then a great cloud covered everyone, and God said Jesus was his Son. Jesus was the Savior that God's people had been waiting for.

Prayer
Dear God, thank you for showing us through your Word that Jesus is our Savior. Amen.

Mission for the Week
Read today's Gospel with your family. What would have surprised you most about seeing Jesus like that on top of the mountain?

Children's Ministry of Initiation CMI
Some of our children may be new to the parish and for a variety of reasons may need to receive sacraments other than at the designated grade levels. Children's Ministry of Initiation (CMI) is a process for children 7 years of age or older. CMI is a vibrant part of the parish's welcoming and evangelical efforts for families wishing to learn more about becoming a Catholic Christian or reconnecting to the church. CMI provides families with the opportunities for religious education, prayer, service, and reception of the sacraments (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist). The children involved in this process of Religious Education receive their sacraments at the Easter Vigil in the second year of participation in CMI.

Immediate preparations are now underway for our CMI sessions to begin in October. Parents and grandparents, if you are interested in enrolling your child, teen, or grandchild, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?
Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

St. Hubert invites non-Catholics interested in learning more about the Catholic Church to join R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process by which non-Catholic adults learn about the Catholic Church and gradually become full members. Every year adults are welcomed into the Catholic Community through RCIA. It is a learning and loving process in which conversion of the heart brings you to Jesus Christ, who is our Lord and Savior.

This process will present the Catholic faith journey in an open and comfortable environment.” Participants in past RCIA classes have come from many different backgrounds, yet all have a common interest in learning about the Catholic Faith. Classes are held year-round on Sunday mornings.

The RCIA is a tour of faith:
• through the initial stages of asking and seeking,
• through beginning involvement with Christian/Catholic people,
• through hearing the Gospel proclaimed and by faithful reflection and prayer on this Word of God,
• through study and discussion about the Catholic experience,
• through doubts and hesitations,
• through discernment of God’s call for them as individuals,
• through the steps of commitment,
• through the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist)

The RCIA is for adults who:
• are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church.
• have never celebrated Baptism.
• have celebrated Baptism in another faith and are interested in the Catholic Church.
• are baptized Catholics who have not yet received Eucharist or Confirmation.
• are married to a Catholic and attend Mass, but just don’t know what the next step is to become one of the Catholic faithful.

Transfiguration of the Lord

Atop Mount Tabor in Israel is where the pure light of Christ — the uncreated light of his true identity — was first revealed to the world. Not at his birth, not at his baptism, nor as he preached and healed. Although the Light of the World came to us in those momentous events, it was not revealed so clearly, so powerfully, so dramatically as when he let Peter, John, and James witness it on the mountaintop, as seen in today’s Gospel passage.

The highest experience of faith was, and still is what happens when the Father says, “This is my beloved Son; listen to him.” The transfiguration of Christ occurs again and again every time we listen to him and our faith is enlightened. It happens every time we have a breakthrough from blindness to understanding, from sinfulness to holiness, from doubt to trust. However, now we are transfigured with Jesus!

Whenever we let his uncreated light consume the darkness within us, the people around us see Christ’s true identity in us. We shine with him. Therefore, it’s vitally important that we give Jesus the areas of darkness that still linger within us and let him expose the truth in his light. By repenting (which means we change), we’re transformed into our true identity. What is our true identity? It’s our innermost being that was created in the image of God. It’s our sainthood!

Listen. Can you hear God’s voice saying about you what he said about Jesus on Mount Tabor? “This is my beloved child; listen to him/her.” He is saying this to others as you do the work to which he’s called you. Some folks will hear him, some won’t, but our yes to his calling is not based on how many people will heed his voice. We serve God because we have been transfigured. Our holiness impels us to go where we can do the greatest good.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What sins do you still try to hide or deny?

2. Why are you afraid to let Jesus shine his light into these areas of darkness? Are you afraid he’ll stop loving you?

3. What do you do that reveals your sainthood?

4. Describe a time when you listened to Jesus and the truth you learned from him transformed you. How did it help you become a true child of God more fully? How did it reveal your true identity more accurately?
On the Feast of the Transfiguration in 1923, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin found himself alone at sunrise in the Ordos desert in China, watching the sun spread its orange and red light across the horizon. He was deeply moved, humanly and religiously. What he most wanted to do in response was to celebrate mass, to somehow consecrate the whole world to God. But he had no altar, no bread, and no wine. So he resolved to make the world itself his altar and what was happening in the world the bread and the wine for his mass. Here, in paraphrase, is the prayer he prayed over the world, awakening to the sun that morning in China.

O God, since I have neither bread, nor wine, nor altar, I will raise myself beyond these symbols and make the whole earth my altar and on it will offer to you all the labors and sufferings of the world.

As the rising sun moves as a sheet of fire across the horizon the earth wakes, trembles, and begins its daily tasks. I will place on my paten, O God, the harvest to be won by this renewal of labor. Into my chalice I will pour all the sap which is to be pressed out this day from the earth’s fruits. My paten and my chalice are the depths of a soul laid widely open to all the forces which in a moment will rise up from every corner of the earth and converge upon the Spirit.

Grant me, Lord, to remember and make mystically present all those whom the light is now awakening to this new day. As I call these to mind, I remember first those who have shared life with me: family, community, friends, and colleagues. And I remember as well, more vaguely but all-inclusively, the whole of humanity, living and dead, and, not least, the physical earth itself, as I stand before you, O God, as a piece of this earth, as that place where the earth opens and closes to you.

And so, O God, over every living thing which is to spring up, to grow, to flower, to ripen during this day, I say again the words: “This is my body.” And over every death-force which waits in readiness to corrode, to wither, to cut down, I speak again your words which express the supreme mystery of faith: “This is my blood.” On my paten, I hold all who will live this day in vitality, the young, the strong, the healthy, the joy-filled; and in my chalice, I hold all that will be crushed and broken today as that vitality draws its life. I offer you on this all-embracing altar everything that is in our world, everything that is rising and everything that is dying, and ask you to bless it.

And our communion with you will not be complete, will not be Christian, if, together with the gains which this new day brings, we do not also accept, in our own name and in the name of the world, those processes, hidden or manifest, of enfeeblement, of aging, and of death, which unceasingly consume the universe, to its salvation or its condemnation. Lord, God, we deliver ourselves up with abandon to those fearful forces of dissolution which, we blindly believe, will this cause our narrow egos to be replaced by your divine presence. We gather into a single prayer both our delight in what we have and our thirst for what we lack.

Lord, lock us into the deepest depths of your heart; and then, holding us there, burn us, purify us, set us on fire, sublimate us, till we become utterly what you would have us to be, through the annihilation of all selfishness inside us. Amen.

For Teilhard this, of course, was not to be confused with the celebration of the Eucharist in a church, rather he saw it as a “prolongation” or “extension” of the Eucharist, where the Body and Blood of Christ becomes incarnate in a wider bread and wine, namely, in the entire physical world which manifests the mystery of God’s flesh shining through all that is.

Teilhard was an ordained, Roman Catholic, priest, covenanted by his ordination to say mass for the world, to place bread on a paten and wine in a chalice and offer them to God for the world. We too, all of us Christians, by our baptism, are made priests and, like Teilhard, are covenanted to say mass for the world, that is, to offer up on our own metaphorical patens and chalices, bread and wine for the world, in whatever form this might take on a given day. There are many ways of doing this, but you might want to try this: Some morning as the sun is lighting-up the horizon, let its red and golden fire enflame your heart and your empathy so as to make you stretch out your hands and pray Teilhard’s Eucharistic prayer over an awakening world.

What is Spiritual Direction?
Spiritual direction has had a long and esteemed history within Christianity. Despite its name, it is not one person telling another what to do. Rather, it is a dialogue through which we discover and discuss with a director the action of God's Spirit in our life.

The director is only a facilitator in the process, or as Thomas Merton aptly says, "The director is merely 'God's usher,' confirming and validating where God is calling me."

Spiritual Direction is the best gift you can give yourself. Mayslake Ministries is a leader in the field of Spiritual Direction, with twenty-five certified spiritual directors on staff, each skilled in a wide variety of areas including: grief, addiction, adoption and infertility, elder issues, military, oncology issues, Women's and Men’s Spirituality.

Call Dr. Mary Amore at 630-852-9000 to schedule an appointment. All calls are held in the strictest of confidence. Dr. Amore will talk with you to help you find the right spiritual director or counselor for your needs.
