Peter said to him in reply, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. - Mt 14:28-29

In the Same Boat

Today’s gospel finds us inside a boat in a turbulent storm. The boat is being tossed around by the waves and the wind. And there, in the midst of all the chaos and confusion, is Jesus walking on the water coming toward the boat.

The Fathers of the Church liked to use the image of the boat as a symbol for the Church—because within it is Peter and the apostles, the first caretakers of the Church and those sent into the world to make it a reality.

The waves and the wind tossing the boat from side to side are all those things that hit us in life that try to pull us down. In our personal spiritual journey it can represent our problems, our worries, our fears, our temptations or sins, or even those things we have no control over that hit us hard.

But as we see in the gospel, Jesus isn’t fazed by any of it. Jesus rises above it, walks over it, and climbs into the boat. He even invites Peter to do the same. But so importantly, he also is able to calm the storm like no one else can do. He brings peace.

The boat is an important symbol of the St. Hubert faith community, because our incredible ceiling is meant to remind us of being inside of a fishing boat every time we gather together. The boat carries us through the storms around us with our eyes fixed on Jesus, who is able to rise above it all.

What’s comforting for us is to realize that Jesus climbs in the same boat with us. And we travel together. We’re never alone. We have Jesus and we have the strength of being with one another in a faith community. And we get through.

Things to Do in the “Boat”….

• One of the great things about St. Hubert are the many different ministries we have. We have a lot of people involved giving their time to make a difference in the lives of others—both within St. Hubert but also the larger community as well.

• As the summer comes to a close, it may be a great opportunity to pray about whether or not you would like to be involved in one of these groups. In the narthex are brochures about all the different ministries we have explaining what each group does and how to help. If you have ever felt an urge within to get involved in anything from being a companion to the sick, to teaching the faith, to helping out during the Mass, to you name it, there is place for you and something to do. There’s nothing more fulfilling than to use the gifts and strengths we have to help someone else. I can tell you from experience, no one ever regrets helping, but instead it lifts them up. We all are helped when we help someone else.

• This Saturday, we warmly welcome our friends from St. Aloysius Parish who join us for our annual Parish Picnic followed by 4:30 PM Mass. By the time you read this, you hopefully will have had your fill of hot dogs, but also have met some new friends along the way.

• Speaking of hot dogs, please join us next Saturday for the School Family Picnic on August 18 beginning with Mass at 4:30 PM. Meet our new principal, Kelly Bourrell, and spend some time with our school families. It’s a great way to celebrate a new school year.

Please know I am praying for you and with you.

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME  3  AUGUST 13, 2017
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was, he became frightened." How can we describe Peter? At once faithful and fearful, his jumbled responses remind us that he was no spiritual superman, well intentioned though he may have been. Peter wanted to believe, and in fact showed a great deal of confidence in Christ, but the temptation to doubt was strong enough to knock him off his feet, literally.

"O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" Jesus reprimanded Peter. The words seem harsh. After all, Peter was the only one who had enough faith to even try something as ludicrous as stepping out of the boat onto the water in the first place. But perhaps Jesus wanted to emphasize that our faith needs to be strong enough to weather the storm, so to speak.

If we only believe in Jesus when the wind is calm and the waves are gone, is that truly having faith in him? Is that actually trusting in his supreme power over the forces of the universe? Peter began to sink as soon as a challenge appeared. Jesus called him, and he calls us, to stay on our feet even when the winds begin to blow.

So, what are the winds that threaten our faith? What kinds of gusts are blowing today? Whatever it might be--health problems, financial concerns, relational struggles--none of it is too much for Jesus to handle. But we must step out in faith and trust him! And we need to keep our eyes on him as we do so, instead of getting distracted by the force of the challenges we face. Jesus is bigger than any problem. We have nothing to fear as long as we are walking towards him.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The church has always held to the belief that Mary was assumed, body and soul, into a heavenly state, even though the belief was not declared as dogmatic until 1950. The early church had a robust tradition of revering relics from the saints of the day, and their complete lack of relics from the Mother of Jesus was seen as evidence of this Marian belief. The celebration of the event as a feast dates back to the fourth century in the East and the seventh century in the West.

Since Mary was untouched by the stain of sin, she was unable to experience the "wages of sin," which is death. But her Assumption also says something about humanity as well. Sin only has power over us if we allow it. Mary was freed from this power in her Immaculate Conception, and when she responded "yes" to God. We were freed from that power when Jesus died and rose, conquering death. Now, we must respond "yes" to claim the victory that was already won for us. On this feast, we should not only celebrate the great works God has done for us through Our Lady, but also celebrate the truth that we have the opportunity to one day spend eternity with her and her Son, Jesus.

Masses celebrated on Tuesday, August 15 at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM, & 7:30 PM
We Are In Need of Ministers of Care!

Celebrating the Eucharist is at the very heart of our faith. However, because of illness or injury, many of our fellow Catholics in the St. Hubert area cannot join in the celebration. To ensure that these community members stay connected to us, we invite individuals to consider becoming a minister of care.

These ministry volunteers are a wonderful “invisible army” that works quietly, diligently, and lovingly to bring our Lord to those who could not otherwise receive communion. As Ministers of Care, we bring communion to Catholics in area nursing homes and retirement homes, individual homes, and the hospitals.

If you can join us in this ministry, we guarantee you will find it extremely rewarding.

Training for Ministers of Care consists of two Saturdays—September 9th and September 16th from 8:30 AM—2:30 PM at Holy Family Parish (2515 West Palatine Road Inverness, IL 60067).

If you are interested or if you want to explore whether this ministry is for you. Please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We want to get everyone interested in this ministry interviewed and registered for this fall program by September 1, 2017.

ANNUAL SCHOOL SUPPLY COLLECTION

Boy Scout Troop 399 will be holding their annual school supply collection over the weekend of August 12th & 13th. For over 20 years, our Scouts have supported the needs of the Grant-A-Wish organization of Chicago. Below is a list if the items most needed but any general supplies will be gratefully accepted. Please help us make this a successful drive once again. Collection bins will be placed in the Narthex. If you have any questions, please contact Roger Malinski at 847-310-9453.

Thank you for your continued support.

Children’s Ministry of Initiation CMI

Each of us knows someone who has fallen away from practicing his or her Catholic faith. Many of us have people right in our own families—sons, daughters, and grandchildren. Could they be at a point in their lives where they just need an invitation to return? Could they be looking for a “way in” without embarrassment of guilt?

Perhaps you know of someone who is not Catholic. They may have been baptized in another religion or never baptized at all. Do you think they may be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and perhaps becoming Catholic? Do they have children who might be ready to know Jesus better?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, then you should call St. Hubert to find out about Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI). We will be starting sessions in October.

This process allows families with children to join other families who are seeking to become closer to God. St. Hubert ministers to the whole family as their children journey toward Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, or full reception into the Catholic Church.

We feel our program is exciting! We’ve had many wonderful families come before you and feel really good about taking that first step to just call and inquire.

Pass this article on to those family members and friends described above. For more information, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Choir rehearsals begin after Labor Day.

To inquire, please contact Ed Magistrado at 847-885-7700, ext. 108 or emagistrado@sainthubert.org.

More information to follow.
Religious Education Volunteers Needed

In the Gospel reading, Jesus finishes with the miracle of multiplying a few loaves and fish to feed thousands of people, and then he goes off by himself to pray.

When you host a large dinner party or complete a big project or overcome difficult obstacles, do you give yourself time to recuperate and let God minister to you?

After spending time alone with his Father, Jesus was so uplifted by the experience that he walked on water!

Jesus frequently spent time in prayer. He probably went off by himself to pray a lot more often than what is written in scripture. So why did Matthew mention it here? What was significant about this particular prayer time?

Through Matthew, God is showing us how to achieve a well-balanced faith.

We need periods of prayer-filled solitude to restore our energies and renew our vision of what God is inspiring us to do. We all have work to do for God in our families, in our workplaces, in social gatherings, in our parishes and in every problem that arises. Giving of ourselves to others will always drain us; to thrive and grow in our usefulness to God, we must allow him to replenish us often.

Prayer helps us to prepare for whatever lies ahead, even when we don’t know what we’re walking into.

What we gain from the Lord in our time alone with him is a gift designed for our benefit and for responding to the needs of others. It strengthens our faith, teaches us how to walk on water, and sends us to the next shore where people who need God’s help are waiting. God wants to minister to them through us. Are you prayed up and ready?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How much time do you spend in quiet aloneness with the Lord?

2. Is it enough to restore the inner peace that comes from staying in touch with God? Or do you feel drained and unprepared to continue?

3. What’s your favorite way of praying? What kind of prayer makes you feel most connected to God? Why?

4. How does this help you in the tasks of your daily life?
Faith isn’t something you ever simply achieve. It’s not something that you ever nail down as a fait accompli. Faith works this way: Some days you walk on water and other days you sink like a stone. Faith invariably gives way to doubt before it again recovers its confidence, then it loses it again.

We see this graphically illustrated in the famous story in the gospels of Peter walking on water. The story goes this way: The disciples had just witnessed a major miracle, Jesus feeding more than 5000 people with five loaves of bread and two fishes. Having just witnessed a miracle, their faith was strong. Soon afterwards they get into a boat to cross a lake. Jesus is not with them. A few miles out they run into a fierce storm and begin to panic. Jesus comes walking towards them on the water. Initially they’re frightened and take him for a ghost. But he calms their fear by telling them, right from the center of the storm, that he is not just Jesus but that he is God’s very presence.

Peter is immediately buoyed up in his faith and asks Jesus to let him too walk on the water. Jesus invites him to do so and Peter gets out of the boat confidently and begins to walk on the water. But then, realizing what he was doing and the incredulous nature of it, he immediately starts to sink, cries out for help, and Jesus has to reach out and rescue him from drowning.

What we see illustrated here are two things that lie at the heart of our experience of faith, namely, that faith (literally) has its ups and downs and that it works best when we don’t confuse it with our own powers.

Faith has its ups and downs: We see this, almost pictorially illustrated, in the incident of Peter walking on the water. Initially his faith feels strong and he confidently steps onto the sea and begins to walk. But, almost immediately upon realizing what he was doing, he starts to sink. Our own faith works exactly like that, at times it lets us walk on water and at other times we sink like a stone. The gospel-image of Peter walking on the sea speaks for itself.

However if we feel discouraged because our faith vacillates in this way, we can take consolation from these words from Julian of Norwich. Describing one of her visions, she writes: “After this He [Jesus] showed a most excellent spiritual pleasure in my soul: I was completely filled with everlasting certainty, powerfully sustained without any painful fear. This feeling was so joyful and so spiritual that I was wholly in peace and in repose and there was nothing on earth that would have grieved me. This lasted only a while, and I was changed and left to myself in such sadness and weariness of my life, and annoyance with myself that scarcely was I able to have patience to live. … And immediately after this, our Blessed Lord gave me again the comfort and the rest in my soul, in delight and in security so blissful and so powerful that no fear, no sorrow, no bodily pain that could be suffered would have distressed me. And then pain showed again to my feeling, and then the joy and delight, and now the one, and now the other, various times.” (Showings 15)

Julian of Norwich was a renowned mystic with an exceptional faith and, yet, like Peter, she too vacillated between walking on water and sinking like a stone. Her confident feelings came – but they also left.

As well, faith works best when we don’t confuse it with our own efforts. For example, Donald Nichol, in his book, Holiness, shares a story of a British missionary working in Africa. At one point, early on in his stay there, the missionary was called upon to mediate a dispute between two tribes. He had no preparation for this, was naïve, and totally out of his depth. But he gave himself over to the task in faith and, surprisingly, reconciled the two tribes. Afterwards, buoyed by this success, he began to fancy himself as mediator and began to present himself as an arbiter of disputes. But now, however, his efforts were invariably unhelpful. Here’s the irony: when he didn’t know what he was doing, but trusted solely in God, he was able to walk on water; as soon as he began to wrap himself in the process, he sank like a stone. Faith works like that: We can walk on water only as long as we don’t think that we are doing it with our own strength.

The Sufi mystic, Rumi, once wrote that we live with a deep secret that sometimes we know, and then not, and then we know it again. Faith works like that, some days we walk on water, other days we sink like a stone, and then later we walk on water again.

Monday, August 28 at 7:00 PM

Speakers: Fr. Thomas Baima & Dr. John Armstrong

St. Walter Church—201 W. Maple Ave. in Roselle

Politics and Religion:
Two topics that are as divisive as ever. Even for those who call the same Jesus their Lord, common ground can be hard to find. The conflict-filled history of the Christian church has proven, fractures of the faith are deep and difficult. And the blood, sweat, and tears shed by our forebears are evidence of our strongly held beliefs.

Is there any hope for dialogue?
“A Civil Conversation on Christian Differences: The Reformation at 500 years”, a nation-wide effort, presents various tradition’s views of Luther’s bold act and the resulting change in the Church.

Join us for an evening centered on the real issues that started the 500-year old Reformation, the real differences among various Christian traditions, and the hope for finding common ground in a world of division.

Opioid and Heroin Addiction: A Call To Action Programming will contain panels that will include federal, state and county officials who are at the frontlines of developing policy to address the opioid and heroin crisis we are facing. The panelists will be working on the issue from a local, statewide and national perspective. In addition, we will give you an overview of the latest programs that are offered here in the region to combat the crisis. You will also learn about what’s going on in the region with up to date numbers on opioids and heroin. There will be three breakout sessions on individual drugs that contribute to the crisis, Tobacco, Alcohol and Prescription Drugs. We will also have a speaker to address the link between these substances and mental health. Lastly, we will tell you how you can help us through the many coalitions fighting this effort locally.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
