FAREWELL MASS • OCTOBER 28, 4:30 PM
RECEPTION TO FOLLOW IN THE CHURCH LOWER LEVEL
A Note from Fr. Fred Licciardi

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

On November 1, 2015, I began a two-year assignment as your Associate Pastor. It was a time of great fulfillment for me since I celebrated the 35th Anniversary of my Ordination on May 28, 2017. During these two years at St. Hubert, you, the people of St. Hubert have opened your arms and your hearts to me in ministry. Together we have strengthened the bonds of community.

Throughout my 35 years in ministry, I have been richly blessed in the people I have encountered and embraced. I consider myself to be so fortunate to have made many friends along the way. Approximately six months ago, I began having some health concerns which have limited me in some ways. While I celebrated my 67th birthday in July, I realized that I had to pay much more attention to those health concerns if I was to remain vital and active.

And so, through much prayerful discernment and the counsel of close friends, I have decided to retire from full time ministry on November 1, 2017. While this decision was not easy, it was necessary for my health, and therefore the right decision, considering all the personal factors of such a decision. From November 1, 2017, I will be involved in ministry as a part time priest, helping out in parishes where there is need for my services.

During the coming year, I will honor my commitments to St. Hubert Parish, helping out Fr. Mike on the weekends, and continuing my participation in the CAFÉ Ministry directed by Marie Staffa and her committee.

For the near future, I simply ask for your prayerful support that I can find the solutions necessary for my health. Personally, I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to Fr. Rizzo for his kindness, generosity, and leadership that brought St. Hubert many fine gifts of ministry. All ministry is a team effort and I had the privilege of serving with the finest staff in the Archdiocese. The men and women that formed our ministry team are some of the most talented, dedicated, and committed people that have made a huge impact on my life. Together with Fr. Mike, St. Hubert will always be a strong Spirit-filled faith community and you, the parishioners, should be so proud of that accomplishment.

Many warm smiles, and blessings of joy,

Fr. Fred Licciardi, C.PP.S.

In the second reading today, St. Paul gives thanks to the people of Thessalonica, calling to mind the good things they are doing as they live their faith in Jesus Christ. Paul says “our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit with much conviction.” So Fr. Fred’s words to us very much resonate with us today as he reflects on the meaningful time he’s had here at St. Hubert.

We are grateful and blessed to have had this time with Fr. Fred. His joy, warmth, good humor, and love for God, for you, and the gospel is something we will hold onto. Fr. Fred’s last “official” Sunday with us will be on November 5. But as he mentioned, we will be blessed to continue to see him when he’s able to come, including Christmas Day.

Thank you, Fr. Fred, for everything! As Paul says, “We give thanks to God for you.”

Fr. Mike

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." The Pharisees, full of malice, were trying to "entrap Jesus in speech." They concocted a question that flattered him, saying, "You teach the way of God in accordance with the truth," but which also put him in a position to be in big trouble if he challenged the Roman laws. Jesus, of course, escaped the trap with his brilliant reply. We can appreciate the wisdom of his response, but more importantly, we can appreciate what it means for us.

To repay to Caesar, in this case, meant to give appropriate allegiance to the secular authorities. We too are under such authority, and although Uncle Sam is different than Caesar in countless ways, the fact remains that as constituents of this country who enjoy its many benefits, we are also called to extend a certain kind of tribute to our government. Taxes, yes, but more than that too. The loyalty and patriotism that offers our gifts in service to the good of our nation is also a tribute we Christians should make in good faith. Only when a law of our land contradicts the moral principles of God do we have to follow our primary allegiance instead, namely, our allegiance to Christ.

Unfortunately, in our day we live under certain national laws that do conflict with the truth about human dignity, and thus a tension exists for us. But the course is clear. We must repay "to God what belongs to God" by defending the truth even when it may be unpopular. This kind of courage is what built the Church in those early centuries of persecution when practicing our faith was against the law. Heaven forbid this should ever happen to us. But if it does, we know what must be done.

Remember those who have gone before us

You are invited to enter a name of a deceased loved one into our Book of the Names of the Dead and also place any pictures or mementos of your deceased loved ones in the niche. Entering the names of the deceased in a book dates back to ancient times. Making a shrine with pictures, symbols and articles associated with the deceased continues today in many cultures.

As we prepare to celebrate the feast days of All Saints and All Souls we are reminded that the communion of saints is both the living and the dead, both the canonized saints and the faithful holy men and women we know as our ancestors.

The Book of the Names of the Dead will remain in the narthex throughout November and each day, at one of our liturgies, we will pray their names aloud with all who have died, adding a petition to our Sunday liturgies as well. The pictures and mementos on the pedestals remind us of their life and their stories and can be shared with family members as well as our parish community.

A poster with the saints of the Church will be in the shrine along with our pictures as we celebrate the living and dead together on the feasts of All Saints and All Souls Day.

Thinking about becoming Catholic, not sure? Come to RCIA

- Have you been worshiping with us, but never officially took the step to become Catholic?
- Have you been away from the Church … and have now returned, but want to know more?
- Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist)?
- Have you joined us from a different background and would now like to find out more about the Catholic Church?

If any of the above questions apply to you, we would love to help you in your journey! Or, if you know of anyone who could answer YES to any of the above questions, perhaps you should extend an invitation to them! There won’t be any pressure to join, and you don’t have to have made any decisions. This is just a chance to ask questions and learn more about us.

We are scheduling interviews for those thinking about joining the Catholic Church or adult Catholics wishing to complete the Sacraments of Initiation.

Call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.
Dear Friends,

This is my last letter to you while still assigned to St. Hubert. During the last 12 years I have written you more than 500 letters, primarily through the bulletin.

My retirement Mass will be at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 28. All are welcome. I will be considered the Pastor Emeritus of St. Hubert as of November 1.

During these last 3 months, I have been impressed with the pastoral instincts of Fr. Mike Scherschel. Before you can become a good priest and Pastor, you must first be a good person, and that he is. He has many skills, insights, and a strong faith life and spirituality. I’m sure that with God’s help and yours, he will be just fine as your Pastor. Pray for him, as you did for me, and support him in this new ministry.

During my retirement, I will live in Chicago, and I hope to do more travelling, more reading, savor the experiences in museums and the arts, and enjoy the many blessings of life itself, trusting that God will continue to help me transition into a fulfilling and joyful retirement. Periodically, I will return for Sunday Mass.

Thank you for the last 12 years. By listening to one another and trusting where God was leading us, we saw God’s plan for a renovated church, a Long Range Pastoral Plan, a renewed interest in our many ministries, especially RCIA and CMI. We have a wonderful infrastructure for this very large parish, including a skilled and dedicated staff.

I have been impressed with so many genuine and holy people in this parish. We have laughed together during the moments of joy at Baptisms, weddings, and social gatherings. We cried together when we experienced some serious illnesses and traumatic funerals. All these moments led us to a deeper experience of God.

As I leave you, know that you helped provide me with 12 wonderful years of priesthood and the opportunity to establish new friendships. You helped me see, once again, God’s love for His people. Know that I will continue to pray for you, never forget you and always love you.

29th Sunday of Ordinary Time

In the Gospel reading, when Jesus asks the Pharisees to tell him whose image was engraved on the coin owed for the census tax, he uses it to teach a lesson about the image that should be engraved upon our hearts. Our hearts should belong to God and to God alone.

The Romans believed that their emperors were divine. Therefore, to possess Roman coins meant carrying around the graven image of a human god. The Pharisees knew this when they challenged Jesus.

Paying the census tax to Caesar symbolized more than just submission to a foreign government. It had religious connotations. If Jesus was a true prophet, he should speak up against Jews possessing pagan coins. If he was a true messiah, he should deliver them from the oppression and taxes of the foreign government – or so they thought.

We don’t know how they happened to have the Roman coin that they showed to Jesus. If they pulled it out of their own purses, which is likely, it revealed their hypocrisy. However, Jesus wasn’t just interested in exposing their hypocrisy; he wanted to make a point about the True Messiah.

If we belong to God, Jesus is engraved upon our hearts. We have been rescued from the destruction of sin by the Messiah. We have let him deliver us from the oppression of evil that was caused by our sins.

Whose image do others see when they look at your life? When people see you, do they see Jesus engraved upon you? To the extent that they do, that’s the extent to which you belong to the kingdom of God!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How do you know that others see Jesus in your life? What’s the evidence?

2. What have they told you about yourself that is also a description of Christ?

3. What are some of the ways in which Jesus has come into your life and changed you from within?

4. How has that changed the way you live?

5. How does this evangelize the people around you?
Several years ago, I was at church meeting where we were discussing liturgical rubrics. There was heated discussion over a number of issues: Should the congregation be standing or kneeling during the Eucharistic prayer? What is the most reverent way to receive communion? Should laypersons be allowed to cleanse the chalice and cups after communion?

At one point, a woman made a rather pious interjection, inviting us to ask ourselves: “What would Jesus do?” The man chairing the meeting, already drained of patience by the disagreements in the room, responded in irritation: “Jesus has nothing to do with this! We’re talking about liturgical norms!” The words were barely out his mouth when, to his credit, he realized that somehow that didn’t sound right. We all realized it too, and have reminded this good man many times of his faux pas; but, in honesty, his remark voiced the feeling of 95% of the room.

Allow me a second story, to illustrate the same point: I am part of a theological faculty that is helping over one hundred young men prepare for ordination and is helping several hundred lay persons deepen their spiritual lives and prepare to serve in various forms of ministry. Who could ask for a higher task? But the sacredness of the task is not always front and center. A couple of years ago, we came to an Executive meeting and the two salient items on the agenda were “cups and cats”: Our school, not with complete unanimity, was phasing out all disposable cups. As well, we were debating as to whether to open up our campus as a certain sanctuary for feral cats. As he introduced the agenda, our Dean of Theology asked the question: “How did we get to this? We’re a theological institute preparing people for ministry – and the big-ticket items on our agenda are “cups and cats”?

What these two stories have to teach us is that we struggle, still, with the same issues that beset the Scribes and Pharisees in Jesus’ time. And I say this sympathetically. We’re human and invariably we lose perspective, just as the Scribes and Pharisees did. Jesus regularly chided them for, as he put it, “abandoning the commandment of God and holding to human traditions” and consequently getting overly-focused on rituals to do with “the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles”. We generally stand under this same indictment. We too tend to lose the center for the periphery.

What is the center? The great commandment of God, that Jesus chides the Scribes and Pharisees for losing sight of, is the invitation to love God above all else and to love your neighbor as yourself. That is the one, great, central law. But in order to live that out practically, we need many ancillary laws, about everything from liturgical rubrics to cups and cats. And these laws are good, providing that they never stand alone, autonomous, not bending to the one great commandment to love God and neighbor.

In both society and in our churches, we have made many laws: civil laws, criminal laws, church laws, canon laws, liturgical laws, and all kinds of laws and guidelines inside our families and within the venues where we work. It is naïve to believe, idealistically, that we can live without laws. St. Augustine once proposed that we could live without laws: “Love and do as you wish!” But, love, as he defined it in this context, meant the highest level of altruistic love. In other words, if you are already a saint you don’t need laws. Sadly, our world, our churches, and we ourselves, don’t measure up to that criterion. We still need laws.

But our laws, all of them, and at every level, are not meant to stand alone, to have their own autonomy. They must bend towards and give acquiescence to a center, and that center is the one great law that relative-izes all others: Love God above all else and love your neighbor as yourself.

There is a principle central in all moral theology that in part encapsulates this, the principle of Epikeia (from the Greek, epikeia, meaning reasonable). Laws are meant to be reasonable and are meant to be obeyed in a way that doesn’t violate rationality and common sense. Epikeia is what St. Paul had in mind when he taught that the letter of the law kills while the spirit of the law brings life. In essence, what Epikeia asks of us is that, as we apply a given law in any circumstance of our lives, we ask ourselves the question: “If the law-maker were here, given the intent of this law, what would he or she want me to do in this situation?” That would bend the law to its center, to its sacred intent, to its spirit, and ensure that all our disagreements about pots, bronze kettles, liturgical rubrics, cups, and cats would remain loyal to the question: “What would Jesus do?”

A Women’s Spiritual SPA Day
Catholic Adult Formation and Education

Seek ○ Pray ○ Act

► Do you end up a tired heap of humanity preparing for those “perfect” holidays?
► Do you resent the loss of time and the fatigue that sets in long before those days arrive?

Take a day to gather your personal resources to meet the demands of the coming season—first called “holydays.” Join us as Sister Karlyn Cauley, SDS, leads us in a day of women giving back to themselves.

Saturday, November 4, 9:30—2:30 PM
Parish Ministry Center Clubroom

To Register: Call 847-885-7700, ext. 101 or email speakerseries@sainthubert.org

Registration required; Deadline Wednesday, October 25

Limited to 30 guests

$10 materials fee (lunch included) payable at the event

We will spend a few hours of pausing to re-purpose ways to enjoy the weeks ahead. Affirmation, prayer, a few intentional activities and a delicious lunch is provided. You will gain a sense of your own creativity and take home a beautiful reminder of today’s goodness. You need not be an artist to create something beautiful.

Sister Karlyn Cauley’s is widely recognized as an American folk artist known for her Shaker Gift Drawings, original watercolors, prints and note cards. Her art will be on exhibit at the entrance to the Ministry Center during the SPA day, and following Saturday’s 4:30 PM Mass and after the 7:30, 9:00, 10:45 AM and 12:15 PM Masses on Sunday, November 5.
Come join us and learn why we were named an Apple Distinguished School and a two-time National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence. You don’t want to miss this opportunity to tour the school, meet current students, faculty, administration and coaches.

Joyful Again! Widowed Ministry Program

If you’ve been widowed, you know that it feels as though a part of your heart has been torn out. If you haven’t been widowed, you can’t understand how long it takes for a widowed friend of yours or co-worker to get back to “normal” after the death of his or her mate. Becoming widowed means EVERY minute of your life has changed.

It takes some time for you to adjust to and handle the stress that all of this constant change creates. That is why newly widowed people seem “not their usual self”. Being widowed throws you out of balance. Short temper, short memory, short concentration—all are signs of always refocusing and adjusting to all the changes in your mind and spirit.

When the time does come that you make a conscious decision to find hope in your life and you want to try to find some joy in your life, the Joyful Again! Widowed retreat is there to help.

For more than 30 years this retreat weekend for widowed men and women has been gently guiding the newly widowed through their grief journey and into the next part of living the life God wants for them. The Joyful Again! Program works in conjunction with and complimentary to existing programs that address the grief immediately after a death. But more to the point, Joyful Again! is there months (and even years) afterward, helping widowed people resolve ongoing grief or helping them over a place where they seem stuck. We also help them look back on what they’ve been through as they now prepare to move on with their lives.

This ecumenical weekend program is healing, transitional and supportive—depending on where people are in their personal journey through the loss. Often, attendees are surprised at how understanding our staff is. This shouldn’t be surprising though. Each staff member has also been widowed. They have walked the walk. During the 2 days of the retreat, films, quiet reflection time and small group discussions are included. We enable participants to process their loss and continue to heal while still treasuring their memories.

Over the years our program has served thousands. Having originated in the Chicago area, Joyful Again! now has several chapters around the country. Information regarding Joyful Again! Widowed Ministry Program can be obtained by contacting us at 708-354-7211, joyfulagain7211@gmail.com, www.joyfulagain.org.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
