Farewell and Godspeed!

REV. ROBERT C. RIZZO

WELL DONE, GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT.

--Matthew 25:23
Living the Great Command—The Witness of Fr. Rizzo

This weekend we celebrate Fr. Rizzo who is retiring and picks up a brand new title: Pastor Emeritus. It's a time for us to say thank you and to wish him well.

As our Pastor Emeritus, he has graciously offered to be with us from time to time at weekend Masses starting this Advent, but he'll also have time to do those things retirees enjoy doing, like reading, travelling, enjoying an afternoon nap, going to a Sox game when the season begins, and to continue making time to be with family and friends.

One thing, though, is for sure: he'll continue being a priest, which is something he is, not just something he does. He will continue presiding at the sacraments, and offering spiritual direction and advice when someone needs it—wherever it is God is leading him to be.

In the gospel today, we hear Jesus tell us what the greatest commandment is—it’s to love God with everything we’ve got, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. And as a priest, Fr. Rizzo has lived it and will continue to do so. We know that because we've witnessed it, experienced it, and have grown as a community of faith because of it.

It’s never easy to say goodbye, but it is easy to say “thank you” to a priest, pastor, servant leader, mentor, and now Pastor Emeritus, who has made a difference in the lives of so many people. Thank you, Fr. Rizzo, for everything you’ve done for us. As Jesus says to all those who fully use their gifts and talents to benefit others, “Well done, my good and faithful servant” (Matthew 25:23). Well done!

In Gratitude for Those Who Go Before Us

In addition to being grateful to Fr. Rizzo, this week we also pause to remember all those in our lives who have inspired us, nurtured us, provided for us, and allowed us to grow in faith. We will pray for all the saints in heaven and all the souls of those who have died.

We will celebrate the Mass of All Saints on November 1 at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM and 7:30 PM. This is a holy day of obligation. The following day, November 2, is a Mass for All Souls which will be at 7:30 PM. This is an optional day for Mass to commemorate all those who have died.

In the narthex, you’ll find photos brought in by parishioners of those who go before us in faith. Every face is a life lived, loved and cared for by God and those who miss them very much. As a community of faith, we will keep them in prayer, along with all those who have died. If you haven’t had a chance to bring in a photo or to add names to the Book of the Dead, there is still time to do so.

God has given us much to be grateful for, but especially for the lives of those who have graced us and helped us discover who we are. It is a week to remember, and as Catholics, we do so with faith, hope and love.

In gratitude to God for all of you,

--Fr. Mike

National Vocation Awareness Week is November 5-11. Please ask God to inspire women and men in our parish and Archdiocese to follow His call to a religious vocation. We need more dedicated people to serve the Church the way Fr. Rizzo has given his life to serve all of us.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." Jesus gives us a simple moral principle in today's Gospel. He speaks about two kinds of love: love of God and love of neighbor. He tells us that all the other laws and teachings of our faith fall under these two headings. So if we can master these, we will be in good spiritual shape!

First of all, regarding the love of God, Jesus tells us in essence that we must love God completely and entirely, with our whole being—heart, soul, and mind. If we are holding back from a full commitment to God, then we are falling short of this vision. So we would do well to examine ourselves and find those trouble spots where we are hesitant to give God everything. Is there a relationship we hold in our heart that is somehow separating us from God, either by negative association, lingering bitterness, or a kind of idol-worship of the relationship itself? What about our souls? Are we deeply attached to any pastimes, pleasures, or pursuits that cloud our soul from clearly welcoming the presence of God? An examination of our minds is in order as well. How do we direct our thoughts? Do we strive to form our conscience and understanding in the truth, or do we passively allow public opinion or popular consensus to direct our conclusions about the Church, the world, and our own identity?

It follows that the closer we come to loving God with our whole being, the better we will be at loving our neighbors. The more we are filled with God's love, the more that love radiates out to those around us, and the less we concern ourselves about what we can get out of the deal. So let us truly love God, and all the rest will follow.

New Altar Server Training

Do you wish you could be part of a ministry at Sunday Mass, but are told you are too young? Well, here's an opportunity for you! If you are entering 5th grade in the fall, you can be an altar server at Mass. This is a great way to become even more familiar with the Mass, be involved and begin giving back to God and the Church.

Training for new servers will be held on Monday, November 6th in the church from 6:30—8:00 PM. We request that one parent/guardian attend training with the new server.

It is not necessary to register, but if you have questions, please contact Carol Blotteaux at cblotteaux@comcast.net.

All Saints, All Souls Day Liturgies

It is our Catholic tradition to pray for and honor our deceased during the month of November. We begin with the first day, calling it the feast of All Saints. Honoring those who have gone before us, having lived in extraordinary lives, acknowledges the connectedness between heaven and earth. Just as in our homes, we often recall the life of a loved one, making them present through stories and pictures, the Church reminds us of these holy men and women—our ancestors in faith. This year, the solemnity of All Saints’ Day falls on a Wednesday. Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM, and 7:30 PM.

All Souls’ Day, The Commemoration of All The Faithful Departed, is on Thursday. Our customary Mass for the feast of All Souls, will be celebrated at 7:30 PM Mass. This liturgy will include our traditional All Souls Day Mass practices of remembering parishioners who have been buried from St. Hubert. Anyone wishing to observe this day in remembrance is welcome. As we gather with loved ones surrounded by the community, we find assurance in the promise of everlasting life.

We encourage anyone who is grieving to come to this Mass and invite your family and friends, no matter how long ago those dear to you have passed from this life. At Mass the names of those buried from St. Hubert in the past year will be read as a candle is lit and presented to family members or a friend. The candles are placed on the steps of the sanctuary. Others may come forward after these families to receive a lighted candle for anyone who has gone before them. We invite you to take them home at the end of Mass. They can be lit at holidays, the anniversary of death, and other times of remembrance. Light refreshments will be served following Mass.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 5

Stocking Stuffer

Once again, Ministry of Moms will be holding its annual Stocking Stuffer on Tuesday, November 14 at 7:00 PM.

We need SMALL items that can fit into 8-inch treat bags, such as:

- Small toys and small beanie babies, new or gently used
- (Happy Meal toys are perfect)
- New items which you purchase (treat-bag sized prizes)
- Candy (even leftover Halloween Candy)

Please note that we cannot use pencils or lollipops, as these tear holes in the treat bags

Ministry of Moms provides stuffed treat bags to our sharing parish, St. Aloysius, and other needy organizations each year. Your generosity has been overwhelming in the past, and we ask for your help once again.

Please bring donations to the Parish Office. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Nina at nina.kindelin@gmail.com.

Thank you and God bless you!

  We have 50 spots available – so let us know as soon as possible if you want to come. If you have never packed nutritious meal packets at FMSC before, you are in for a great time. Not only will you be doing something that makes a difference, but you will do it while having FUN, and all to the tune of great rockin’ music.

We will register you with FMSC, just email us at encore@sainthubert.org
  - Mention whether you want to go to both California Pizza Kitchen and FMSC or just to one or the other.
  - For those interested in car pooling, we will be meeting in St. Hubert’s parking lot at 3:30.

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI)

Are you someone or do you know someone who...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting. For information, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Classes began on October 15.
Call today, it is not too late to join us.

Today’s Gospel reading reminds us that we cannot love God without loving ourselves and others, but God must always come first.

When we have difficulty loving God with all our heart, mind and soul all the time, every day, every moment, no matter what’s going on, it’s because we’re spending too much time focused on other people and/or on our own plans and wishes.

Yes, we must focus on others in order to love them. And yes, we must focus on our own needs so that we can love others as much as we love ourselves. Our own needs are important and we are responsible for seeing that our needs get met; otherwise we don’t have enough to share with others—enough energy or enthusiasm or kindness or patience. Likewise, we shouldn’t focus so much on ourselves that we neglect the needs of others.

We love him first and foremost simply by relying on him for success in loving others and ourselves. If we keep turning to him for guidance, healing and strength, we are loving him with all our heart, mind and soul all the time, every day, every moment, no matter what’s going on.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How good are you at setting priorities and keeping God at the top?
2. What puts your priorities out of order?
3. What can you do to increase God’s role in your everyday life?
4. Describe some of the techniques you’ve used to increase God’s priority in your everyday life.
5. How has focusing on your relationship with God helped you to be more loving to yourself and kinder toward others?

Becoming a Holy Beggar

With the exception of scripture and a few Christian mystics, Christian spirituality, up to now, has been weak in presenting us with a vision for our retirement years. It’s not a mystery as to why. Until recently, the majority of people died shortly after retirement and so there was no need for a highly developed spirituality of generativity after our active years.

What are our retirement years meant for, spiritually? What’s our vocation then? What might generativity mean for us, after our work’s been done?

Henri Nouwen, one of the first contemporary writers to take this question, makes this suggestion: There comes a time in our lives when the question is no longer: What can I still do to make a contribution? Rather the question becomes: How can I live now so that my aging and dying will be my final great gift to my family, my community, my church, and my country?

How do I stop writing my resume in order to begin writing my eulogy? Happily, spiritual writers today are beginning to develop a spirituality around these questions and, in doing that, I believe, we can be helped by some rich insights within Hindu spirituality.

In Hinduism, life is understood to have five natural stages: First, you are a Child. As a Child, you are initiated into life, you learn to speak, you learn how to interact with others, and are given time for play.

The second stage is that of being a Student. In Hinduism, you’re a Student until you get married, begin a family, and establish a career. As a Student, your primary focus is to enjoy your youth and to prepare for life.

Then you become a Householder. This, the third stage of life, begins with marriage and ends when your last child is grown-up, your mortgage is paid, and you retire from your job. As a Householder, your task is family, business, and involvement with civic and religious affairs. These are your duty years.

The fourth stage is that of being a Forest-Dweller. This period should begin when you are free enough from family and business duties to do some deeper reflection. Forest-Dwelling is meant to be an extended period wherein you withdraw, partially or fully, from active life to study and meditate your religion and your future. Very practically, this might mean that you go back to school, perhaps study theology and spirituality, do some extensive retreats, engage in a meditative practice, and take some spiritual direction from a guide.

Finally, once Forest-Dwelling has given you a vision, you return to the world as a Sannyasin, as a holy beggar, as someone who owns nothing except faith and wisdom. As a Sannyasin, you sit somewhere in public as a beggar, as someone with no significance, property, attachments, or importance. You’re available to others for a smile, a chat, an exchange of faith, or some act of charity. In effect, you’re a street-person, but with a difference. You’re not a street-person because you do not have other options (a comfortable retirement, a golf course, a cottage in the country), but rather because you have already made a success of your life. You’ve already been generative. You’ve already given what you have to give and you’re now looking to be generative in a new way, namely, to live in such a way that these last years of your life will give a different kind of gift to your loved ones, namely, a gift that will touch their lives in a way that in effect forces them to think about God and life more deeply.

A Sannyasin gives incarnational flesh to the words of Job: “Naked I came from my mother’s womb and naked I return.” We come into this world possession-less and possession-less we leave it. A holy beggar incarnates that truth.

Imagine what a witness it could be if very successful people, doctors, bank presidents, athletes, journalists, teachers, business people, trades people, farmers, and happily married persons who had raised children successfully, people who have all kinds of comfortable options in life, would be sitting, as holy beggars, in coffee shops, in fast-food outlets, in malls, on street corners, and in sporting arenas. Nobody could feel superior to them or treat them with pity, as we do with the street people who sit there now. Imagine the witness of someone becoming a voluntary beggar because he or she has been a success in life. What a witness and vocation that would be!

But this concept, being a holy beggar, is obviously an idealized image that each of us needs to think through in terms of what that might mean for us concretely.

In the early centuries of Christianity, spirituality saw martyrdom as the final expression of Christian life, the ideal way to cap off a faith-filled life. Justin, Polycarp, Cyprian, and countless others “retired” into martyrdom. Later, Christians used to retire into monasteries and convents. But martyrdom and monasteries are also, at a certain place, idealized images. What, concretely, might we retire into?

ST. HUBERT 12 Hoffman Estates
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 7:30 AM - 1:15 PM
CHURCH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, HOSPITALITY ROOM
This is a traditional family breakfast of pancakes, eggs, sausage, donut holes, juice, and coffee. Tickets will be sold at the door on Sunday, November 5th: $5.00 per person or $15.00 per family of four. Checks should be made payable to: ‘Knights of Columbus, Council #6964.’

This is an outstanding opportunity for you to meet Church of the Holy Spirit parishioners and our Knights who will be serving you.

To Be Joyful Again, a non-denominational support group for widows, widowers, or anyone else who has lost a significant other, meets the 1st and 3rd Thursday of every month at 7:00 PM at Holy Family Parish, 2515 Palatine Road, Inverness. Come get the support you need in this difficult time. All are welcome.

Contact Elaine at 847-705-9886 or Debbie at 847-991-7327 for more information.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
