Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

©LPi
Life in the Kingdom

One of the great claims the Church has always made about Jesus Christ, is that he isn’t just a great leader or a great king, but he’s King of the Universe. Jesus’ kingdom is the Kingdom of God, which doesn’t have any boarders that separate or divide like we have on earth. Jesus unites us so that we can be one with our Father in heaven.

Uniting includes all those within the invisible boarders that unfortunately still divide people—whether it be a physical trait, a disability, a state in life, economic status, or now as we’re seeing more and more, a point of view.

Jesus encourages us to look beyond the divisions we tend to create to see the human being the way he does—as a child of God and something to be treasured and taken care of. But that doesn’t mean Jesus doesn’t separate. In today’s gospel, Jesus tells us he’ll separate those who value human life from those who choose to overlook it.

If we notice and look after those who are hungry and thirsty, those who need basic necessities like clothes, the strangers among us who are looking to be welcomed, those who are sick or are in prison, then we notice Christ himself.

We’re Noticing!

St. Hubert has always been a parish that feeds the hungry, gives them something to drink, provides clothing and supports those who need shelter. This fall our church and school collected the most food items of any parish in the Archdiocese to help stock the Catholic Charities Food Pantries. We also provide food, clothing, and financial help to St. Aloysius, our sharing parish, as well as to local food pantries and charities, and so importantly to those within our own parish.

Thanks to all those who supported the Thanksgiving Food Drive that helped families here and at St. Al’s, not just for Thanksgiving, but also to get them through the next week or two.

We’re a parish that opens our doors to those who come to us for healing, hope, help, education, faith sharing, and an opportunity to be part of a community dedicated to prayer. St. Hubert has always been known for our hospitality and the warmth that’s felt when we gather to worship together. We love a good party and all are welcome to the banquet.

We have many, many dedicated parishioners who volunteer their time to minister to the sick each week—to visit them, pray with them and to bring them the Eucharist, the bread of life. When we can’t get to church, the Church comes to those who need it.

Through our Peace & Justice outreach, we are finding ways to support the imprisoned through the Archdiocese’s outreach program called Kolby House. It’s not very easy to visit the imprisoned these days, but we pray for them during our liturgies and can support those who are able to do the ministry effectively.

For over 50 years, St. Hubert has been breaking through the barriers that have the power to divide people, by recognizing the power of Jesus Christ—King of the Universe. Thank you for your generosity, your compassion, your commitment to community life, and your powerful witness. Together, we’re noticing Christ among us.

May God continue to bless you in your generosity and desire to help those in need,

—Fr. Mike

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." Today we celebrate the feast of an unusual kind of king. Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, does not run his kingdom in the standard fashion. Instead of insisting upon the pomp and circumstance that usually surrounds earthly royalty, Jesus has a different focus. He thinks not of himself, but of those he loves. And in today's Gospel, his interest is especially focused on the poor and suffering in our midst.

Our King asks us to care for those in need--the hungry, the homeless, the foreigner, the sick and suffering. But then, he goes farther; he tells us that in caring for these least brethren, we will be ministering to HIM! What an incredible promise. Not only do we carry out the command to love our neighbor when we protect those in need, but we also show our love for Jesus in a direct and concrete way. This love for Christ through others is so real that Jesus actually tells us that our place on Judgment Day will depend on it: 'What you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment." On the other hand, the "righteous" who ministered to the weak and poor will enjoy eternal life. Our King has spoken loud and clear. Now comes the question of whether or not we are obeying his orders?

Each of us is called to examine how well we are caring for the least among us. Sometimes, this means giving our time and energy for special ministries or missions, but often it means caring for those right in front of us--the sick or suffering in our own homes, families, neighborhoods, or parishes. Whatever our situation, may we have the eyes to see Christ in our midst and serve him.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As the King of the universe, Christ does not desire earthly power or kingly admiration. What Christ our King desires is that we advocate and work for those most in need among us: the poor, the unfortunate, the forsaken, the abused, and the exploited. Providing for the basic needs of others is a human right that we must strive to fulfill. If someone is hungry, feed her. If someone is without shelter, provide one. If a person requires clothes, clothe him. When others are in harm's way, find them safety. When it comes to basic human needs, it does not matter WHY a person is in need; all that matters is that someone IS. That's where you and I, who are citizens of God's eternal kingdom, come in. What we do for the least of these, we do for God.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

One day when I was walking the city streets where I was giving a series of talks, I saw what appeared to be an older woman hunched over with a sign asking for help. At first I passed her, on my way to visit the local drugstore. But then I came back around when I realized that I had not been very mindful upon first seeing her. I didn't have much cash to give her, but as I always tell everyone else in my talks, oftentimes what people need more than cash is someone to at least acknowledge them. I reached into my pocket to give her what little I had and I simply said, "Hello. I hope you are okay and I hope you can use this."

When her face turned toward me I saw she was probably only about sixteen years of age and she was very beautiful. She smiled immediately and said how much this meant to her. She gathered up her few belongings and I watched her walk to a café for a meal. I turned to walk back to my lodging and I thought to myself, "She could have been my daughter." That's when the still, small voice spoke to me saying, "Don't you understand? That was your daughter!"

Who is your daughter or son, your mother or father? Who is your neighbor? Better yet, in whom do you see Jesus? A young homeless girl on the street can take on so many forms: stranger, neighbor, daughter, and Jesus. Unless we are mindful of those in our midst, we miss the chance to see any of them. We must never be fooled by appearance. That day I almost missed seeing my Lord.

Let's Go Christmas Caroling!

Please join us for an old fashioned caroling experience. We will gather on Monday, December 4 at 6:30 PM in the Narthex of the church. As we walk the close-by neighborhood and offer our songs to willing listeners, we will gift them with candy canes. After warming the hearts of our neighbors, we will return to the narthex and warm our noses and toes while enjoying hot chocolate and cookies. We can promise easy to read music sheets and a truly enjoyable time, so please plan to join us and sing along. All are welcome – adults and children too. We look forward to seeing you there!

For nine days before Christmas many Filipino Catholics celebrate Simbang Gabi. This novena to the Blessed Virgin Mary is celebrated with Mass early in the morning at 4:00 or 5:00 AM. The early time is a remnant from the days when many Filipinos worked in the rice fields and sugar cane plantations and so needed to perform their religious duties before the work day began. Parols, large decorated lanterns fashioned in the shape of a star, would guide the faithful to Mass in the hour before dawn. The novena concludes on Christmas Eve day, with the Misa de Gallo, or "Rooster’s Mass," celebrated with great fervor by the entire community. Many communities hold competitions for the best parol, which remains in church until the Epiphany as a reminder of the star of Bethlehem.

Solemnity of Christ the King

We don't usually think of shepherds as kings, but the scriptures this Sunday describe the kingly powers of the Jesus our Good Shepherd. A good king cares for his subjects the way a shepherd cares for his sheep.

Kings increase the size of their reign and accomplish their work over the whole territory through their subjects. That's why Jesus says, "Whatever you do for one of the least of mine, you do for me."

For example, our Good Shepherd-King wants to distribute food to the hungry, all the way to the farthest reaches of his kingdom. How does he get it done? He gives an abundance of food to some of us and commands us to take it to those who need it.

What happens if we don't fulfill the King's commands? Do the starving people think the King is benevolent? No, they can only see his goodness when we do as he tells us to do.

Look at the people who are around you. Each one is an opportunity to give the King a good name.

What about the people whom you like least of all? What about those who've made you feel angry or intimidated or hurt? Well, ask this: What is he/she hungry for? If the answer's not obvious, ask the Holy Spirit. Observe that person long enough to identify the emptiness or pain or fears that are buried under the surface.

Then ask this: What abundance has God given me that this "least one" is lacking and needs from Christ our King? Can I show him/her the King's benevolence despite my feelings?

When we say no to opportunities to share what we have, we are behaving like one of the goats whom the Good Shepherd-King separates from the sheep. And when we say yes, despite the feelings that could make us goat-like, the King's good reputation spreads, and we are all blessed.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What good things do you have in abundance? How readily do you share them?

2. Who is of least importance to you? How can you take your focus off of what you don't like about them so that you can give them what God wants to give to them through you?

3. Have you ever done something good to someone who didn't deserve it? How did this affect your relationship with Jesus?

4. What abundance do you see in each member of your family or faith sharing community that, when shared, blesses others?
Lacking the Self Confidence for Greatness

We all have our own images of greatness as these pertain to virtue and saintliness. We picture, for instance, St. Francis of Assisi, kissing a leper; or Mother Teresa, publicly hugging a dying beggar; or John Paul II, standing before a crowd of millions and telling them how much he loves them; or Therese of Lisieux, telling a fellow community member who has been deliberately cruel to her how much she loves her; or even of the iconic, Veronica, in the crucifixion scene, who amidst all the fear and brutality of the crucifixion rushes forward and wipes the face of Jesus.

There are a number of common features within these pictures that speak of exceptional character; but there’s another common denominator here that speaks of exceptionality in a different way, that is, each of these people had an exceptionally strong self-image and an exceptionally strong self-confidence.

It takes more than just a big heart to reach across what separates you from a leper; it also takes a strong self-confidence. It takes more than an empathic heart to publicly hug a dying beggar; it also takes a very robust self-image. It takes more than mere compassion to stand before millions of people and announce that you love them and that it’s important for them to hear this from you; it also takes the rare inner-confidence. It takes more than a saintly soul to meet deliberate cruelty with warm affection; it also requires that first you yourself have experienced deep love in your life. And it takes more than simple courage to ignore the threat and hysteria of a Lynch mob so as to rush into an intoxicated crowd and lovingly dry the face of the one they hate; it takes someone who has herself first experienced a strong love from someone else. We must first be loved in order to love. We can’t give what we haven’t got.

Great men and women like St. Francis, Mother Teresa, John Paul II, and Therese of Lisieux are also people with a stunning self-confidence. They have no doubt that God has specially gifted them and they have the confidence to publicly display those gifts. The sad fact is that many of us, perhaps most of us, simply lack sufficient self-image and self-confidence to do what they did. Perhaps our hearts are just as loving as theirs and our empathy just as deep, but, for all kinds of reasons, not least because of how we have been wounded and the shame and reticence that are born from that, it is existentially impossible for us to, like these spiritual giants, stand up in front of the world and say: “I love you – and it’s important that you hear this from me!” Our tongues would surely break off as an inner voice would be saying: “Who do you think you are? Who are you to think the world needs to hear of your special love?”

Truth be told, too often it isn’t virtue that’s our problem; it’s self-confidence. Mostly we aren’t bad, we’re just wounded. William Wordsworth once said something to the effect that we often judge a person to be cold when he or she is only wounded. How true.

Thankfully God doesn’t judge by appearances. God reads the heart and discerns between malice and wound, between coldness and lack of self-confidence. God knows that no one can love unless he or she has first been loved, and that very few, perhaps no one, can publicly display the heart of a giant, the courage of a hero, and the love of saint when that big heart, courage, and love haven’t, first, been felt in an affective and effective way inside of that person’s own life.

So what’s helpful in knowing this? A deeper self-understanding is always helpful and there can be a consolation, though hopefully not a rationalization, in knowing that our hesitancy to step out publicly and do things like Mother Teresa is perhaps more rooted in our lack of a healthy ego than in some kind of selfishness and egoism. But of course, after that consolation comes the challenge to throw away the crutches we have been using to cope with our wounds and our crippled self-image so as to begin to let our heart, courage, and love manifest themselves more publicly. Our tongues won’t break off if we speak out loud about our love and concern, but we will only know that once we actually do it. But, to do that, we will have to first step through a paralyzing challenge to throw away the crutches we have been using to cope with our wounds and our crippled self-image so as to begin to let our heart, courage, and love manifest themselves more publicly. Our tongues won’t break off if we speak out loud about our love and concern, but we will only know that once we actually do it. But, to do that, we will have to first step through a paralyzing shame to a self-abandon that up to now we haven’t mastered.

And there’s a lesson in this too for our understanding of ego within spirituality. We’ve invariably seen ego as bad and identified it with egotism; but that’s over-simplistic because spiritual giants generally have strong egos, though without being egotists. Ironically too many of us are crippled by too-little ego and that’s why we never do great things like spiritual giants do. Egoism is bad, but a healthy, robust ego is not.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

New Catholic School Scholarship Opportunity for 2018/19 School Year

Through the “Invest in Kids Act,” the state of Illinois has created a new way to fund scholarships for children from low-income households who want to attend private schools. This program provides an opportunity for more students to receive a quality Catholic education. The tax credit scholarships offered through this program could cover up to 100 percent of tuition and fees for eligible, low-income students. Not all families will be eligible for the new scholarships, but we want to make sure all families are aware of the program.

Program details are still being finalized, but you can find information on the scholarships, the application process and the “Frequently Asked Questions” (FAQ) on the Archdiocese of Chicago’s website, www.archchicago.org/tcs. If you have any questions about tax credit scholarships, please contact the Archdiocese at InvestInKids@archchicago.org or 312-534-5321.

In the parable of the Good Samaritan, when a man was beaten down and robbed on his way from Jerusalem to Jericho, travelers passed him by. A Samaritan, moved by compassion, takes the victim to an inn and pays the cost for him to be taken care of.

Are we not all travelers on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho?

Today, that road runs through Chicago.
The streets where we serve run red with the blood of children.

These are OUR neighborhoods.
Can you hear the sobs of mothers and grandmothers
the walking wounded; not shot, but dying on the inside?
Please don’t look away or step around.

We are ALL neighbors in God’s eyes.
We are all on the same road of life. The poor, the hungry, the jobless, the hopeless – all beaten down.
Will you help us lift up our neighbors?

Will you be a Good Samaritan and help today?

Our graduating class traveled to Camp Duncan for the annual 8th Grade Retreat in October. The rainy weather did not stop our 8th graders from having a meaningful day of Prayer and reflection!

Ten former students of St. Hubert School accompanied the students and teachers and served as group leaders. Their insight and leadership were invaluable to the success of the day!

Students participated in team building activities, prayer services, and times of thoughtful reflection throughout the day in a peaceful and serene outdoor setting.

Students let go of those phones and electronics! By the end of the day everyone agreed that taking time to “unplug” and connect with God and our Friends provided to be an experience to never forget!

Family #28
Our family is a single, African American female with three sons ages 14, 10, 8, two daughters ages 9 and 16, and a newborn granddaughter. This mom was fleeing a domestic violence situation. She currently works as a part-time CNA and is looking for more clients.

Our mom is doing OK. She is now receiving Social Security for her children that she had with her late husband; however, she is appealing the case because one of the children was left off the monthly assistance. She is still on the waiting list for Section 8 housing in Gary, IN due to the increase in household size and the need for an extra bedroom. She has decided, when her lease is over at the end of November, to live with a family member in the Southern Suburbs until her housing in Indiana is ready.

Her children are doing well and they are excited to move back to their old neighborhood to be close to family and friends.

Goals
- Save at least 3 to 6 months’ worth of rent.
- Stay compliant with New Hope program for a smooth transition.
- Follow up with Gary, IN Section 8 on a weekly basis.
- Continue to save for move to buy new furniture and pay for movers.

Family #29
Our mom is a single, white female with a three year old son who became homeless due to low income status. She reported that while staying with her child’s father, they were not getting along, and they lived with his parents. They then stayed with friends for about two months before she went into a shelter in November of 2016.

Our mom is doing quite well, and is thinking about moving back to Lake County to be close to her parents for child support. Things are going very well with her son’s father. He has consistently visited over the last 2 months and has been helping financially and supporting her when she is working. They have agreed on how to move forward co-parenting together. The father also took their son on vacation to California. She is currently looking for an apartment in her desired location and continues to grow her savings account.

Goals:
- Continue to keep mental health stabilized
- Save as much as possible before 10/31/2017.
- Secure affordable housing in Lake County near parents

Both families are very grateful for all the help from the Peace and Justice Cluster parishes and parishioners.

Advent Tea
Walking with Mary
December 7
7:00-8:30 PM

Location:  Mayslake Ministries offices
Presenter: Gina Sannasardo
Cost: $20

Join us for tea, cookies and conversation as we explore the life of Mary as our model for spiritual growth in this holy season of Advent. Mary’s life challenges us to trust in God, to offer our fiat, our resounding yes to God, even when we can’t see the road ahead. As our spiritual mother, Mary invites us to gently rest in Her love and in the love of Her Son Jesus as we prepare for the great feast of Christmas.

Please register by calling our offices at 630-852-9000 or online at www.mayslakeministries.org/events/38/walking-with-mary-advent-tea.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
