Alleluia
Christ is Risen!

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 1, 2018
An Open Letter to the St. Hubert Family

The Tomb is Empty! Alleluia!!

The news is once again proclaimed to the world: Christ is Risen! And the word we have longed to sing over the last 40+ days finally resonates throughout the church, Alleluia!

Today is Easter Sunday.

As Catholics, this is the pinnacle of the Church year. And just like Peter and John did in the gospel when they heard the tomb was empty, we run toward the source of joy ourselves. We run here, to our church, to celebrate the good news.

We celebrate Christ’s risen life—through song, through our prayer, through the account of the empty tomb in the Scriptures, through the renewal of our baptismal promises, but so importantly in the Eucharist, because in the Eucharist Christ’s new life is consumed in us.

The discovery of the empty tomb never is an individual experience, but just like in the gospel, it takes a communion of people—a group of disciples, a parish, the universal Church—to discover the enormity of it all and to proclaim what we’ve witnessed.

New life is found within all of us who have been baptized and receive the Sacraments of the Church, the Sacraments of God’s grace and goodness alive, active, and part of our everyday lives.

So on Easter, we not only celebrate Christ risen from the dead, we also celebrate Christ’s life coming alive in all of us. We’re the Body of Christ in the world today.

The tomb is empty—it’s a part of history and, despite those who seem to keep looking for the body, it will never be found. But still, the Body of Christ is meant to be seen. The body of Jesus Christ will come again in the fullness of time, but until then, we’re meant to see him in those who follow him.

So through Christ, with Christ and in Christ, we are the hands that help, the ears that listen, the eyes that notice those in need, the feet that walk toward others and with others.

It’s a new day that leads to a life with Christ that’s never meant to end.

On behalf of all of us who have the privilege of serving you here at St. Hubert, Happy Easter! It’s good to be together—especially today!

--Fr. Mike
Easter 2018

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord Jesus,

The news today seems to be dominated by death-dealing forces and foreclosed possibilities. This past year has brought us a plague of gun-violence, streams of helpless refugees in different parts of the world, struggles in our own nation around questions of immigration and racism, countless victims of natural disasters, and large numbers of people who are—in the words of Pope Francis—“discarded.” There seems to be scant room for hope and optimism.

Yet, we know by our own experience as believers and our common bonds of faith that this is not the full story of reality. There, indeed, is other news, the good news of our Easter faith. Christ has conquered all death and evil. Christ is risen!

When we profess our faith in the risen Lord, we do not deny the pain and suffering at work in our world. The risen Christ himself bears his wounds of his suffering, but he is risen. He has conquered sin and death, and our victory is certain. We hold a great hope in him who leads forward. But, it does not end there, for as St. Paul tells us, all that we celebrate in these days has taken place so that we “might live no longer for ourselves but for him who died for our sakes and was raised.”

In the Archdiocese of Chicago, our commitment to Renew My Church means that we take our Easter faith seriously to the point that it becomes the source of new energy for communities and individuals who share our faith with the world and bring it hope the world cannot take away.

May our faith in the Risen Lord be alive in our hearts, and may we share that gift widely and generously with others.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago

Thanks and Remembering
Today, at the close of the Triduum we rejoice and receive the Risen Lord into our hearts. How moving and magnificent it was to celebrate Holy Week and these holiest of days, when we kneel and wash the feet of one another; when we adore the cross of suffering and death, awed by God’s love for us; when we recall and rejoice together who we are as a baptized people.

More than 20 liturgies were celebrated from Passion/Palm Sunday through today on Easter Sunday. The volunteers you witnessed and those who spent hours behind the scenes in preparation are too many in number to mention by name. Whether you watered a plant, proclaimed a reading, prepared the environment, moved a piece of furniture, served the Eucharist, played an instrument, assisted in song with your voice, presided at liturgy, served at the altar, or took care of our needs as ushers, thank you to all in each and every ministry who were gracious and attentive to the liturgy.

Celebrate! Today is the anniversary of the Great Surprise, and just as the first disciples were surprised to find the tomb empty, so too does God have some resurrection surprises in mind for you!

In the Easter Gospel reading from John 20:1-9, there's a lot of scurrying around and excitement and reporting some amazing news that no one yet understands. Even though Jesus had given them advance notice that he would rise again after being put to death, God's plans took them by surprise. They did not expect a resurrection. They didn't understand that it was a necessary part of the Messiah's mission.

God's plans often take us by surprise. In so many situations of our lives, we don't understand that hard times are going to produce wonderful victories. We fail to realize that the empty tombs in our lives (the losses we grieve) are beginnings of important new growth. We cannot imagine how Jesus is going to redeem bad times into great blessings.

We suffer through the hardships, just trying to cope, waiting for an opportunity to finally walk away from our crosses. Meanwhile, Jesus wants to give us an Easter morning because of the crosses. How can we recognize the glory of God when we're depressed? How can we realize our resurrections when we're cursing our crosses? It's impossible!

To be the Easter people that we're supposed to be, we have to learn how to see the hope of resurrection in the pain of the cross. We have to trust that Jesus is always there, working a plan to redeem bad into good. We have to allow ourselves to be surprised by God.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What trials are you still enduring? What cross are you still carrying? Are you still being nailed for something you did not do? Which of your desires or dreams are dying?

2. Ask the Father to use your sufferings for the glory of his kingdom. What new life is this creating for you?

3. What are some of the ways in which God has surprised you?

4. How is this an experience of resurrection?
Rejoice and be glad with our newly-initiated!

“You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, That you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.”

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD  7

Meet the Parish Pastoral Council!

Our Parish Pastoral Council is made up of parishioners, like yourselves, who love St. Hubert Parish. You have seen them wearing a lot of different hats and involved in many different activities and groups that build up parish life—everything from liturgy to the Stewards, Knights of Columbus, Scouting, the Welcoming team, Ministry of Care, and the GIFT Program (Religious Education for parishioners with special needs).

To match a name with a face, here are some photos of our Council members including the years they joined the parish family.

About the PPC:

The Parish Pastoral Council is the consultative body of the parish and shares responsibility with the pastor for the pastoral life of the parish. Their mission is to enable our parish to be welcoming, mutually sustaining, open to growth, and committed to building one faith community.

They ENGAGE in pastoral planning to assess parish needs and determine priorities and options for meeting those needs, SERVE as a conduit for ideas, feelings and concerns among our diverse faith community, and ACT as liaison between the St. Hubert Community, and the larger Church (the deanery and the archdiocese).

We’re truly blessed to have such a wonderful, dedicated group who truly care about you and are focused on the mission of our parish. —Fr. Mike

The RCIA/CMI Team would like to thank the sponsors, parish companions, Godparents, and family members who accompanied our new members on their faith journey. Your devotion has guided and supported them in their preparation.

A big thanks to all those who helped in forming and catechizing our new members.

We appreciate you giving us new insights into our Catholic Faith.

And to you, St. Hubert Parishioners, who prayed for our new members on their journey to the Easter Sacraments and who participated with them in the rituals of the RCIA, THANK YOU and GOD BLESS YOU. We rejoice and are glad in this EASTER Day!

If you helped in anyway, no task is too small for our THANKS!

RCIA NEEDS YOUR HELP!
WILL YOU ANSWER THE CALL?
The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process in which an adult individual becomes Catholic and receives the sacraments of initiation—Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. This journey takes place through catechesis, experience of the parish community and commitment to the life of the Catholic faithful. Our RCIA community is in desperate need of several individuals to serve as volunteers in our ministry. If you are feeling the call to share your time, we invite you to consider becoming a volunteer. See if one or more of these statements fits you:

- I enjoy talking about my Faith and the Catholic Church, but not in large groups.
- I enjoy having people over for dinner or meeting for coffee to discuss my Faith.
- I have experience teaching about my Faith and the Catholic Church.
- I don’t have much experience, but I would love to learn more about my Faith and the Catholic Church.
- I don’t have a lot of knowledge about the doctrine, but I would like to share my faith journey and experiences with others.
- I would consider being a sponsor — someone to help the Catechumens and answer their questions throughout their journey.
- I enjoy organizing events that are both community oriented, yet spiritually based.
- I would like to be someone who prays for the people in the RCIA.
- I would like to help with the details of the program to create a welcoming environment for inquirers, e.g. refreshments, clean-up, preparing prayer setting, etc.

If you are interested, please call Marie Staffa at 847 885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org. Many thanks for your prayerful consideration to serve our RCIA community.
We are looking for faith filled people to pass on the faith to the parish children. While it may seem a bit daunting at first, it may help you to know that the vast majority of our teachers have been teaching for more than ten years and do not have a degree in Theology. Let me be clear—We need you. If you are thinking about it, call and speak to me, I will be happy to answer any questions you have.

We are recruiting for the coming school year beginning in September. Our greatest need, at present, is in the Confirmation Program where we have two vacancies. We meet in the school on Sunday evenings from 7:20—9:00 PM. We also need a 6th Grade teacher who has an interest in teaching scripture for a class on Wednesday afternoons from 4:00—5:45 PM.

Contact Mike Keenan, Director of Religious Education, at 847-885-7703 or mkeenan@sainthubert.org.
Attention singers & instrumentalists:
If you’re interested in joining the 12:15 PM Mass choir, please contact Ed Magistrado, Music Director, at emagistrado@sainthubert.org or 847-885-7701 to signup. Rehearsals will be on Tuesdays from 7:30—9:00 PM in the church.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct phases over a period of time suitable for the participant, through weekly learning sessions, meeting the parish community, attending Mass and gaining an understanding of the moral life of the Catholic faithful. The RCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the Apostles.

Who is RCIA for?
- Persons in need of baptism.
- Persons baptized in another Christian tradition who desire to become Catholic.
- Persons baptized Catholic in need of First Communion and Confirmation.

How long is the RCIA process?
The time varies and is dependent on each individual, but is rarely shorter than six months or longer than two years. The Church greatly respects the time each person needs for conversion and decision.

What do you learn in RCIA?
We cover a number of topics on the Catholic faith, from the very basics to moral and social situations. Participants will learn about Jesus Christ and why we follow him. This is a great opportunity to come ask questions and learn in a comfortable, friendly setting. The RCIA team represents a diverse group of Catholic faithful who are honored to share their love of the faith.

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD 11

APRIL 1, 2018
Something there is that needs a crucifixion. Everything that’s good eventually gets scapegoated and crucified. How? By that curious, perversive dictate somehow innate within human life that assures that there’s always someone or something that cannot leave well enough alone, but, for reasons of its own, must hunt down and lash out at what’s good. What’s good, what’s of God, will always at some point be misunderstood, envied, hated, pursued, falsely accused, and eventually nailed to some cross. Every body of Christ inevitably suffers the same fate as Jesus: death through misunderstanding, ignorance, and jealousy.

But there’s a flipside as well: Resurrection always eventually trumps crucifixion. What’s good eventually triumphs. Thus, while nothing that’s of God will avoid crucifixion, no body of Christ stays in the tomb for long. God always rolls back the stone and, soon enough, new life bursts forth and we see why that original life had to be crucified. (“Wasn’t it necessary that the Christ should so have to suffer and die?”) Resurrection invariably follows crucifixion. Every crucified body will rise again. Our hope takes its root in that.

But how does this happen? Where do we see the resurrection? How do we experience resurrection after a crucifixion?

Scripture is subtle, though clear, on this. Where can we expect to experience resurrection? The gospel tells us that, on the morning of the resurrection, the women-followers of Jesus set out for the tomb of Jesus, carrying spices, expecting to anoint and embalm a dead body. Well-intentioned but misguided, what they find is not a dead body, but an empty tomb and an angel challenging them with these words: “Why are you looking for the living among the dead? Go instead into Galilee and you will find him there!”

Go instead into Galilee. Why Galilee? What’s Galilee? And how do we get there?

In the gospels, Galilee is not simply a geographical location, a place on a map. It is first of all a place in the heart. As well, Galilee refers to the dream and to the road of discipleship that the disciples once walked with Jesus and to that place and time when their hearts most burned with hope and enthusiasm. And now, after the crucifixion, just when they feel that the dream is dead, that their faith is only fantasy, they are told to go back to the place where it all began: “Go back to Galilee. He will meet you there!”

And they do go back to Galilee, both to the geographical location and to that special place in their hearts where once burned the dream of discipleship. And just as promised, Jesus appears to them. He doesn’t appear exactly as he was before, or as frequently as they would like him to, but he does appear as more than a ghost and a memory. The Christ that appears to them after the resurrection is in a different modality, but he’s physical enough to eat fish in their presence, real enough to be touched as a human being, and powerful enough to change their lives forever. Ultimately that’s what the resurrection asks us to do: To go back to Galilee, to return to the dream, hope, and discipleship that had once inflamed us but has now been lost through disillusionment.

This parallels what happens on the road to Emmaus in Luke’s gospel, where we are told that on the day of the resurrection, two disciples were walking away from Jerusalem towards Emmaus, with their faces downcast. An entire spirituality could be unpackaged from that simple line: For Luke, Jerusalem means the dream, the hope, and the religious centre from which all is to begin and where ultimately, all is to culminate. And the disciples are “walking away” from this place, away from their dream, towards Emmaus (Emmaus was a Roman Spa), a place of human comfort, a Las Vegas, or Monte Carlo. Since their dream has been crucified, the disciples are understandably discouraged and are walking away from it, towards some human solace, despairing in their hope: “But we had hoped!”

They never get to Emmaus. Jesus appears to them on the road, reshap.es their hope in the light of their disillusionment, and turns them back towards Jerusalem.

That is one of the essential messages of Easter: Whenever we are discouraged in our faith, whenever our hopes seem to be crucified, we need to go back to Galilee and Jerusalem, that is, back to the dream and the road of discipleship that we had embarked upon before things went wrong. The temptation of course, whenever the kingdom doesn’t seem to work, is to abandon discipleship for human consolation, to head off instead for Emmaus, for the consolation of Las Vegas or Monte Carlo.

But, as we know, we never quite get to Las Vegas or Monte Carlo. In one guise or another, Christ always meets us on the road to those places, burns holes in our hearts, explains our latest crucifixion to us, and sends us back – and to our abandoned discipleship. Once there, it all makes sense again.

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
