“I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd.” - Jn 10:17
Today is Good Shepherd Sunday, which has us reflect on what it means to be a servant leader. Our teacher, of course, is Jesus.

In our society today, many leaders succeed when they put themselves ahead of the interest of others. In other words, this happens when they see others as competitors—sometimes even to squash—on their rise to the top. When I was first out of college and entered the ad business I have to admit I fell into this kind of thinking. (I’m embarrassed to say I even bought a book called Leadership Secrets of Attila the Hun!)

But Jesus shows us true leadership is looking out for others. We’re meant to build up each other’s strengths and to ensure no one is lost or left behind. Right now it’s good to see that even the business world has discovered this Christian truth. In fact, the book I’m now recommending is Strengths Based Leadership which is all about zeroing in on the needs of people and building up their strengths.

A current strengths-based leader is Pope Francis who just published his third apostolic exhortation called Rejoice and Be Glad! He wants all of us to realize that living the beatitudes, living the Christian life—in other words, following Jesus, the Good Shepherd—works and leads us to happiness. We’re all meant to be holy, but a call to holiness that’s not meant to be unachievable. Holiness is following Christ. And all of us can do that.

He writes: “Do not be afraid of holiness. It will take away none of your energy, vitality or joy. On the contrary, you will become what the Father had in mind when he created you, and you will be faithful to your deepest self.”

Speaking of becoming who God created us to be, we celebrate the servant leaders and good shepherds among us. We’re pleased to announce our own Lynn Howard has been named our St. Hubert Woman of the Year and will be honored by the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women along with other area servant leaders on May 2.

Lynn has been an active member of St. Hubert her whole life and has truly given fully of herself in many ways. She not only is an administrative assistant at the parish office, she goes above and beyond in volunteering. She is generous, kind, talented, compassionate and a true servant leader. She cares for our community like a mother cares for her children. She has been a good shepherd to so many of us, and it’s a blessing to recognize the person she is.

Finally, our St. Hubert School Student Council is once again showing their own servant leadership by asking students at the school to donate to our area food pantries. After collecting food for the Soup-er Stadium Challenge last fall, out of compassion for our own neighbors, they didn’t want to overlook the Schaumburg food pantries either. Hence this spring food drive. It warms the heart to see what good shepherding is all about, especially when we discover it in our future leaders!

St. Hubert is blessed with many good shepherds. Thanks for all you do to make our parish the place it is.

Jesus is our Good Shepherd. We are the sheep for whom he has laid down his life. He put everything aside for our sake — his human desire for an easy life, the security and familiarity of a home of his own, his time, his sleep, his tiredness, and his natural preference to avoid persecution, torture and death.

We are the sheep who recognize our Shepherd’s voice and willingly follow him to better pastures. We want him to be our Good Shepherd. We want his protection, his guidance, and his love.

However, sometimes we forget to listen for his voice. This usually happens when life doesn’t go as planned, the way we want it to. In frustration and fear, we assume that Jesus has left the sheepfold. We think he’s gone after the lost sheep and left us behind to fend for ourselves, and — oh no! — this is surely when the wolves attack! Doesn’t he realize that? How could he do this to us if he really cares as much about us as he says he does? Why is he more concerned about the sheep who strayed than he is about us who are good sheep?

However, no matter how busy Jesus gets and no matter how far he has to go to rescue lost sheep, he never leaves our side. He is always with us. When the path of life takes us to dead ends or dangerous cliffs, it’s not because he’s abandoned us. The pain we feel is his shepherd’s staff tapping and prodding us to get us to move in a different direction, and we just haven’t understood.

We don’t want to go in that other direction. We like the familiarity of this old pasture. We’re getting annoyed at the tap-tap-tapping of the staff on our heads. And we won’t discover the blessing of this discipline until we turn again to Jesus with eyes of trust and ears that are attentive to everything he says, even if at first we don’t like what he’s saying.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what areas of your life do you feel lost and alone or abandoned?
2. What activities can you do that will restore your vision and your hearing so you can recognize the presence of your Good Shepherd?
3. Name some of the ways that the Good Shepherd’s voice calls out to us.
4. Share the story of a time when Jesus prodded you but at first you didn’t realize it was him. When did something feel painful until you realized that you were going in the wrong direction? What helped you recognize the voice and the staff of the Good Shepherd?
We are surrounded by many voices. There’s rarely a moment within our waking lives that someone or something isn’t calling out to us and, even in our sleep, dreams and nightmares ask for our attention. And each voice has its own particular cadence and message. Some voices invite us in, promising us life if we do this or that or buy a certain product or idea; others threaten us. Some voices beckon us towards hated, bitterness, and anger, while others challenge is towards love, graciousness, and forgiveness. Some voices tell us that they are playful and humorous, not to be taken seriously, even as others trumpet that they are urgent and important. And each voice has its own particular cadence and message. Some voices beckon us in, promising us life if we do this or that or buy a certain product or idea; others threaten us. Some voices beckon us towards hated, bitterness, and anger, while others challenge us towards love, graciousness, and forgiveness. Some voices tell us that they are playful and humorous, not to be taken seriously, even as others trumpet that they are urgent and important.

Within all of these: Which is the voice of God? How do we recognize God’s voice among and within all of these voices?

That’s not easy to answer. God, as the scriptures tell us, is the author of everything that’s good, whether it bears a religious label or not. Hence, God’s voice is inside of many things that are not explicitly connected to faith and religion, just as God’s voice is also not in everything that masquerades as religious. But how do we discern that?

Jesus leaves us a wonderful metaphor to work with, but it’s precisely only a metaphor: He tells us that he is the “Good Shepherd” and that his sheep will recognize his voice among all other voices. In sharing this metaphor, he is drawing upon a practice that was common among shepherds at the time: At night, for protection and companionship, shepherds would put their flocks together into a common enclosure. They would then separate the sheep in the morning by using their voices. Each shepherd had trained his sheep to be attuned to his voice and his voice only. The shepherd would walk away from the enclosure calling his sheep, often times by their individual names, and they would follow him. His sheep were so attuned to his voice that they would not follow the voice of another shepherd, even if that shepherd tried to trick them (shepherds often did this to try to steal someone else’s sheep) by imitating the voice of their own shepherd. Like a baby who, at a point, will no longer be cuddled by the voice of a babysitter, but wants and needs the voice of the mother, each sheep recognized intimately the voice that was safeguarding them and would not follow another voice.

So too with us: among all the voices that surround and beckon us, how do we discern the unique cadence of God’s voice? Which is the voice of the Good Shepherd?

There’s no easy answer and sometimes the best we can do is to trust our gut-feeling about right and wrong. But we have a number of principles that come to us from Jesus, from scripture, and from the deep wells of our Christian tradition that can help us.

What follows is a series of principles to help us discern God’s voice among the multitude of voices that beckon us. What is the unique cadence of the voice of the Good Shepherd?

- The voice of God is recognized both in whispers and in soft tones, even as it is recognized in thunder and in storm.
- The voice of God is recognized wherever one sees life, joy, health, color, and humor, even as it is recognized wherever one sees dying, suffering, conscriptive poverty, and a beaten-down spirit.
- The voice of God is recognized in what calls us to what’s higher, sets us apart, and invites us to holiness, even as it is recognized in what calls us to humility, submergence into humanity, and in that which refuses to denigrate our humanity.
- The voice of God is recognized in what appears in our lives as “foreign”, as other, as “stranger”, even as it is recognized in the voice that beckons us home.
- The voice of God is the one that most challenges and stretches us, even as it the only voice that ultimately soothes and comforts us.
- The voice of God enters our lives as the greatest of all powers, even as it forever lies in vulnerability, like a helpless baby in the straw.
- The voice of God is always heard in privileged way in the poor, even as it beckons us through the voice of the artist and the intellectual.
- The voice of God always invites us to live beyond all fear, even as it inspires holy fear.
- The voice of is heard inside the gifts of the Holy Spirit, even as it invites us never to deny the complexities of our world and our own lives.
- The voice of God is always heard wherever there is genuine enjoyment and gratitude, even as it asks us to deny ourselves, die to ourselves, and freely relativize all the things of this world.

The voice of God, it would seem, is forever found in paradox.

Divine Mercy Devotion

Every Thursday, after the Communion Service (about 7:30 AM), we will pray the chaplet of the Divine Mercy.

Everyone is invited to participate. If there is a question, call Pat at 847-885-7700, ext. 104.

Pope Leo XIII said, "The Rosary is the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life. It is the remedy for all our evils, the root of all our blessings. There is no more excellent way of praying."

May is the month that we honor Our Blessed Mother. Every Friday morning at 6:30 AM, we gather in church to pray the rosary. It would be wonderful if you could join in this beautiful prayer.

A parishioner, Patrick Fleming, has offered to repair broken rosaries. There will be drop off receptacles at the ministry station in the narthex, and rosaries can be dropped off there. (The Ministry Station is the large brown cabinet by the main entrance on the South side of the church. There are slots on the left side of the station, and the receptacle for Rosary drop off is marked.) Patrick suggests putting any rosary to be repaired in an envelope with your name and phone number on it for return purposes. When repaired, we will call you to let you know you can pick it up.

Please donate any unused, broken rosaries so that their parts can be used to repair member’s rosaries.

In addition to repairing rosaries, Patrick makes rosaries for the missions, and he also accepts any rosaries people wish to donate. Those can also be dropped off in the narthex in the receptacle marked “Rosaries”.

May is the month that we honor Our Blessed Mother. Every Friday morning at 6:30 AM, we gather in church to pray the rosary. It would be wonderful if you could join in this beautiful prayer.

Janice and her husband were both fighting cancer when they came to one of Catholic Charities food pantries. Since they could not work, they needed help feeding their daughter and keeping their bodies strong through proper nutrition. Catholic Charities gave them the fresh food and produce, and connected them to the appropriate services that they needed at a very difficult time in their life.

In our politically charged society, I imagine many have heard the quote, "It takes a village..." Whether or not one likes the politics of the author of that quote, in the words are truth. It takes many people to create and sustain a community.

For those of us who are Catholic, we believe in the power of vocations to help spread the Gospel message. And vocations are an important part of the community. The vocations to priesthood, or the deaconate, or religious life are at the center of our efforts to spread the good news. However, we need to also speak about the vocation of married life as service to the church; and furthermore, the vocation of single life. It is at our baptism that we are given the mandate to spread the Gospel through our vocation in the church.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me" (Rv 3:20).

We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete.

Let us pray...
God of the invitation, you knock upon the door of everyone's heart. We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes. We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance. We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead.
Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.
Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives. We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

"How long has Jesus been knocking at the door of your heart, waiting to enter?"

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
