Staying Connected

In today’s gospel, Jesus gives us a meaningful metaphor about having a relationship with God. Jesus is like a grape vine that flourishes; we are like the branches that grow out of the vine. And when we stay connected to the vine, which nurtures and provides life, we produce good fruit.

A grape vine is meant, of course, to produce grapes. However, the Christian who is connected to Christ—our source of life—produces the fruits of the Holy Spirit, which St. Paul identified as joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

When we see these qualities alive in our lives and in our community, we know we are connected to the one who gives us life.

It continues to amaze me how deeply rooted these qualities are in our St. Hubert family. Whenever we welcome new parishioners into our community, as we did last weekend, we hear people tell us that what they find at St. Hubert is the feeling of being at home. They feel the goodness, kindness, and faithfulness that isn’t forced but genuine to who we are together.

But then, one of the great charisms of St. Hubert, since the beginning, has been hospitality. Another is that we have many, many ways we can participate in living the gospel through our ministries that provide all kinds of opportunities to put faith into action. There are many ways to use our gifts and talents to produce the kind of good fruit a life with Jesus instills. Even if someone isn’t quite sure where their talents are or how they can get involved—whether it’s at St. Hubert or elsewhere—just let us know and we’ll help connect you.

Staying connected to Jesus is staying connected to those things that give life meaning, purpose and reveal who we truly are. Jesus gave us the Church to stay connected to each other, but so importantly to stay connected to Him. Jesus Christ nurtures us and feeds us with his very self—individually and together.

Congratulations to the Newly Confirmed!

On Saturday, Bishop George Rassas returned to St. Hubert to confirm 119 young people from St. Hubert School and our Religious Education Program. They received the fullness of the gift of the Holy Spirit into their lives to keep them connected to Christ and the Church. Please join the Confirmandi in giving thanks to their parents, sponsors, and catechists who helped walk with them through this two year journey of prayer and preparation!

Our Confirmandi are witnesses of Easter—that Christ is alive in our world and able to touch our hearts and lives. Through Him, with Him and in Him, we find life.

Let’s continue to stay connected through the faith and life in Christ we share!

---Fr. Mike---

Stay Connected!

A great way to stay connected to all that’s going on at St. Hubert is to subscribe to FlockNotes—a way to receive notes and updates about what’s happening in parish life. You can choose how you’d like to connect and even what kind of news from the parish you’d like to receive.

It’s a great way to stay connected between Sundays!

The Gospel reading tells us that all who belong to Christ are fruit-bearing branches of one vine. Jesus is the vine, and because we are all attached to him, we share the same calling: to bear good fruit. And not just any fruit that seems good, but the same fruit that Jesus produced.

However, most of us underestimate how important this is! You are more valuable than you know. God wants you to produce Christ’s fruit—and more of it.

Today too many Christians are settling for mediocrity. As long as we get some personal satisfaction from being Christian, we feel all too easily satisfied. As long as we’re helping some people with our kindness or generosity or love, we think God is satisfied with the good fruits we’re producing.

Have you ever asked why there’s so much evil in the world? Why doesn’t God raise his almighty hand against war, against corruption in government, against the greed of high-salaried managers who lay off their employees while giving themselves huge bonuses, against the perpetrators of physical and emotional abuse, against legislation that discriminates against Christian faith, against rising crime rates, or against any evil that’s corrupting our world?

Why doesn’t God do something?

Actually, he does! However, he does it the same way he grows grapes. The life force of the vine (Jesus) travels through the vine to the little twigs (you and me and all Christians) that hold the grapes. The more open we are to receiving nourishment from Christ, the more fruit Jesus produces through us. But the grapes are not supposed to stay there!

We’re nourished by Christ in order to take his fruits abundantly out into the world. We must grow strong and healthy, branch out, and use everything we’ve received from Christ for the sake of others.

Evil is stopped to the extent that we Christians continue Christ’s earthly ministry. Victory over evil comes from Christ, that is, through us from Christ. Holiness in the world comes from Christ’s Holy Spirit actively transforming it through our holiness.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Are you doing enough to grow the best fruit on your branch of Christ’s vine? How healthy is your connection to Christ?

2. What in your life needs to be pruned off because it’s not producing full, abundant fruit?

3. Name some of the things we do that fertilize the vineyard. What has helped your branch grow stronger and bear more fruit?

4. How does ignoring the need to prune ourselves hinder the growth of good fruit—fruit that defeats evil?
Carrying Tension

One of the things we’re asked to do as Christians is to help “take away the sins of the world” as Jesus did. How?

Jesus “took away the sins of the world” by holding, carrying, purifying, and transforming tension, that is, by taking in the bitterness, anger, jealousy, hatred, slander, and every other kind of thing that’s cancerous within human community, and not giving it back in kind.

In essence, Jesus did this by acting like a purifier, a water filter of sorts: He took in hatred, held it, transformed it, and gave back love; he took in bitterness, held it, transformed it, and gave back graciousness; he took in curses, held them transformed them, and gave back blessing; and he took in murder, held it, transformed it, and gave back forgiveness. Jesus resisted the instinct to give back in kind, hatred for hatred, curses for curses, jealousy for jealousy, murder for murder. He held and transformed these things rather than simply re-transmit them.

And, in this, he wants imitation, not admiration. Christian discipleship invites us, like Jesus, to become a “lamb of God”, a purifier, that helps take tension out of our families, communities, friendship circles, churches, and work-places by holding and transforming it rather than simply give it back in kind.

But that’s not easy. Jesus did this, but the gospels say that he had to “sweat blood” to achieve it. To carry tension is to fill with tension ourselves and, as we know, this can be unbearable. We don’t have God’s strength and we aren’t made of steel. As we try to carry tension for others, what do we do with our own tensions? How do we carry tension without becoming resentful and bitter? How do we carry another’s cross without, however subtly, sending him or her the bill?

This isn’t easy, as every health professional can tell you. Tension wreaks havoc inside us, physically and emotionally. You can die of high blood pressure or of disappointment. But there are some rules that can help.

First, carrying tension for others does not mean putting up with abuse or not confronting pathologically or clinical dysfunction. To love someone, as we now know, does not mean accepting abuse in the name of love.

Second, we need to find healthy outlets to release our own tensions. However we should never download them on the same people for whom we are trying to carry them. For example, parents carry tension for their children, but, when frustrations build up, they should not angrily vent those frustrations back on the kids themselves. Rather they should deal with their own tensions away from the children, with each other and with friends, when the kids are in bed, over a bottle of wine. The same holds true for everyone: We should never vent our frustrations on the very person or persons for whom we are trying to carry tension.

Finally, in order to deal with the frustrations that build up in us, we need, in the midst of the tensions, to be connected to something (a person, a friendship, a hand, a God, a creed, a perspective) beyond ourselves and the situation we’re in.

Scripture offers some wonderful images for this. It tells us, for example, that as Steven was being stoned to death out of hatred and jealousy, he kept his “eyes raised to heaven”. That’s not so much a physical description of things, as every artist knows, but a commentary on how Steven kept himself from drowning in the spinning chaos that was assaulting him. He stayed connected to a person, a hand, a friendship, an affirmation, a perspective, and a divine power outside of the madness.

We see the same thing, just a different metaphor, in the story of the three young men who are thrown into the blazing furnace in the Book of Daniel. We’re told that they walked around, right in the midst of the flames, untouched by the fire because they were singing sacred songs. Like Steven, they sustained their love and faith amidst bitter jealousy and hatred by staying connected to something outside of the fiery forces that were consuming everyone else.

We need to contemplate that lesson. Like Jesus, and like everyone else who’s ever walked this planet, we all find ourselves forever inside families, communities, churches, friendships, and work-circles that are filled with tension of every kind. Our natural temptation, always, is to simply give back in kind, jealousy for jealousy, gossip for gossip, anger for anger. But what our world really needs is for some women and men, adults, to step forward and help carry and purify this tension, to help take it away by transforming it inside themselves.

But that’s not easy. Like Jesus, it will involve “sweating blood”. So, as we volunteer to step into the fire, it’s wise not to go in alone, but to stay connected to some hand, some friend, some creed, and some God who will help sustain us in love and faith, right inside the madness and fire.

Children's Ministry of Initiation
RITE OF WELCOME 2018
May 6 at the 9:00 AM Mass

Over the past several months, a number of children with their families have become a part of Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI). These children are baptized Catholic and are all preparing for the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

+ Aydan Collins, Angelo Green, Mychal Modovsky, Adrian Orzol, Marie Ramos, Winston Thompson, Zuanna Balak +

They will make public their intention to follow Jesus and continue in sacramental preparation for the initiation sacraments. From this point on, these children, who are already baptized, will be called candidates.

As part of our mission, the entire community is called upon to welcome and support these children in their formation and discernment. It will be our duty to pray for them and with them throughout the year in the liturgy — especially in the Rite of Sending for Election and Continuing Conversion, in the early spring of 2019, and the Rites of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil in 2019. We will be asked to help them learn about our faith in the traditions of our Church — as they continue to participate in CMI and as they grow in appropriating a gospel life that connects faith with action.

Certain people have also been asked to assist them and their families in varied support roles— as sponsors, godparents, and catechists

Thanks for joining us in prayer as they make this important step on their journey of faith

If you have an unbaptized child over the age of seven or uncatechized child over the age of 8 who is interested in receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Divine Mercy Devotion

Every Thursday, after the Communion Service (about 7:30 AM), we will pray the chaplet of the Divine Mercy.

Everyone is invited to participate. If there is a question, call Pat at 847-885-7700, ext. 104.
Pope Leo XIII said, “The Rosary is the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life. It is the remedy for all our evils, the root of all our blessings. There is no more excellent way of praying.”

May is the month that we honor Our Blessed Mother. Every Friday morning at 6:30 AM, we gather in church to pray the rosary. It would be wonderful if you could join in this beautiful prayer.
Catholic Charities Collection on Mother’s Day

As a senior citizen, Antonia does not have much income left after paying for rent, medications, and daily supplies. She relies on the Catholic Charities Senior Food Nutrition Program for all of her meals. Last year 145,547 food packages were delivered to low-income seniors in Cook and Lake counties. Without the food they receive from us, they would have to choose between a healthy diet and paying for medication and other necessities.

Please give to Catholic Charities on Mother’s Day to help seniors stay healthy. Learn more at www.catholiccharities.net.

A parishioner, Patrick Fleming, has offered to repair broken rosaries. There will be drop off receptacles at the ministry station in the narthex, and rosaries can be dropped off there. (The Ministry Station is the large brown cabinet by the main entrance on the South side of the church. There are slots on the left side of the station, and the receptacle for Rosary drop off is marked.) Patrick suggests putting any rosary to be repaired in an envelope with your name and phone number on it for return purposes. When repaired, we will call you to let you know you can pick it up.

Please donate any unused, broken rosaries so that their parts can be used to repair member’s rosaries.

In addition to repairing rosaries, Patrick makes rosaries for the missions, and he also accepts any rosaries people wish to donate. Those can also be dropped off in the narthex in the receptacle marked “Rosaries”.

Great Things Happened This Week at St. Hubert School!

4th Grade Students visited Feed My Starving Children. Students helped pack 28,512 meals feeding 78 kids for a year!

Students used Google Expeditions, a virtual reality teaching tool, that lets you lead or join immersive virtual trips all over the world, get up close with historical landmarks, dive underwater with sharks, and even visit outer space!

Built for the classroom and small group use, Google Expeditions allows a teacher acting as a “guide” to lead classroom-sized groups of “explorers” through collections of 360° and 3D images while pointing out interesting sights along the way.

St. Hubert Students advanced in the Rube Goldberg Machine Contest Finals held at the Museum of Science and Industry. Students won Professor Butts’ Creative Spark Award in the Apprentice Division. The winning prize was $500!

Prayer Shawl Blessing and Distribution This Sunday
There will be a special blessing for Prayer Shawls this Sunday at the 7:30, 9:00 and 10:45 AM Masses. Members of St. Hubert Prayer Shawl Ministry will be in the Narthex to give out a prayer shawl to anyone who needs to feel comforted by one of these knitted or crocheted shawls. The shawls are lovingly made as a way to do God’s work and share our talents with the St. Hubert community. There is no charge for a shawl, but contributions are accepted to help us purchase yarn and other supplies for our ministry.

Our last meeting for the season will be on Sunday, May 6 at 1:15 PM in the Dorothy Day Room of the Parish Ministry Center. New members are always needed to continue this wonderful ministry. For more information, contact Karen Starke at 847-882-7592 or karen.e.starke@gmail.com.

Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments: A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families—March Update

Family #30
Our mom has made great progress with her goals. New Hope is so happy that she has begun working on her GED with a program that’s designed for people with learning disabilities. She found this resource, called the Living Free Program, on her own. The program needs to be completed in 90 days and our mom is very excited because she wants to pursue a license in cosmetology.

She is still saving! With the help of her tax refund, she has plans to reinstate her license and buy an affordable car. Her children are stable and happy!

Goals:
● Save up at least 3 month’s rent by saving her IRS tax refund.
● Obtain her GED.
● Apply for low income housing.
● Obtain her driver’s license by paying off outstanding debts.

Family #31
This mom is certainly on the right track and doing well reaching her goals. New Hope asked her to speak at a recent New Hope Fundraiser due to the progress she is making. She recently purchased a car and no longer has to pay for an Uber or friends to take her places. Having her own transportation has brought a sense of relief for our mom and the children. She was offered a promotion to become a full-time manager. She is currently learning the additional skills needed for her new position.

School is going well, however, she had to drop two classes because of her work trip. She reported that she missed out on important classes which she could not make up so she will re-enroll next semester. Unfortunately, this pushes her graduation date back, but she could not miss her job training trip.

Goals:
● Save up at least 3 month’s rent by saving her IRS tax refund.
● Attend work and school as scheduled.
● Apply for low income housing.

New Hope would like to thank the Peace and Justice Cluster Parishes for all the support that they have extended to these families. May God continue to bless you for all you do for New Hope.

FOOD PANTRY

We keep thinking summer is just around the corner, but at this point I’d be happy to just see spring! Have you noticed seeing more homeless people out now? It’s amazing how many I have seen in the last few weeks.

I feel giving a few dollars to help make life a little easier for someone is not too much to ask. We are aware that some people take advantage, but God knows their stories and He is the only one to judge. Bringing personal or non perishable items to church is one sure way we know we are helping!

Our collection dates are May 5th and 6th!

Thank you,

Pegi Meegan

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Let’s Be Healthy Together!

Life Line Screening, a leading provider of community-based preventive health screenings, is pleased to offer a preventive health event at St. Hubert Parish on Wednesday, May 23rd.

Five screenings will be offered that scan for potential health problems related to: blocked arteries—which is a leading cause of stroke; abdominal aortic aneurysms—which can lead to a ruptured aorta; hardening of the arteries in the legs—which is a strong predictor of heart disease; atrial fibrillation or irregular heart beat—which is closely tied to stroke risk; and a bone density screening, for men and women, used to assess the risk of osteoporosis. Register for a Wellness Package which includes 4 vascular tests and osteoporosis screening from $149 ($139 with our member discount). All five screenings take 60-90 minutes to complete.

There are three ways to register for this event and to receive a $10 discount off any package priced above $129, please call toll-free 1-888-653-6441 or visit www.lifelinescreening.com/communitycircle or text the word circle to 797979.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
