Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” - Mk 6:4

Fixing Our Eyes on the Lord

In the gospel today, Jesus talks about being a prophet in his home town. It doesn’t quite work. The townspeople—especially in those days and in that culture—knew each other very well. They appreciated his wisdom and were astonished by what he was saying, yet it limited their ability to do what the gospel often challenges us to do: to think like God.

The prophet moves us to see the world the way God sees it.

Prophets were very common in the Old Testament. We hear their words often at Mass—prophets like Isaiah, Jeremiah, Daniel, and the prophet we hear from today: Ezekiel. Their message was to be faithful to the commandments and the covenant with God. In the New Testament, the prophet we hear about, of course, is John the Baptist, who prepared people’s hearts to accept Jesus’ message and good news.

After Pentecost, the Church became the prophetic voice in our world. The Holy Spirit works through the community of faith and in the hierarchy of the Church. Within the last century or so, the Church has become the voice of reason and conscience especially when it comes to the way people treat each other as we live together in the world.

Catholic social teaching has developed from this. It is a body of deep thinking and reflection on the human experience by our Popes and the various Conferences of Bishops as they look at society and what happens as it develops. The goal is to see what God sees and to see it through the eyes of the One we follow—Jesus Christ. It is what helps us identify where there is injustice and to work toward making a difference. So, the Church is still a prophetic voice within our deep tradition.

And at the heart of it is the value of human life. It’s in realizing that God created us to be in relationship with others. We’re not just individuals, but a communion of people living and working and being with each other.

Our St. Hubert community grows from this. It’s the reason we gather together.

Odds & Ends

- Rosary Repair. Just a reminder that one of our parishioners can repair broken rosaries for you. There’s a drop-off for this located at the ministry counter in the narthex of the Church. He also accepts any extra rosaries you may have that you would like to donate to the missions.

- Cleaning House. The offices at the Parish Ministry Center will close the week of July 9th from 9am-5pm to clean house and prepare for the upcoming ministry year. If you need anything during this time, please give us a call and we’ll follow up. Please note the front office will continue to be open in the evenings from 5-8pm Monday-Thursday.

I am at my niece’s wedding this weekend returning Tuesday. Also to give you a “heads up”, I’ll be on my annual retreat July 16-20. I will be praying for you and with you.

May God bless you in the week ahead and guide you in all you do,

---Fr. Mike

Wouldn't it be great if we could actually touch and feel the hem of Jesus' clothing, like the woman in the Gospel reading? To be near enough to Jesus to be healed spiritually, physically, and emotionally. How can we, 2000 years after he ascended to heaven, get so close to him?

It is possible, and it's exactly what Jesus wants. It comes from developing a better understanding of who Jesus really is and how much God really cares. The synagogue leader understood, which is why he could say: "Please, come lay your hands on my daughter that she may live." He understood Jesus beyond what was in front of his eyes. He believed in the divine life of Jesus.

Knowing Jesus is to know divine life, which transforms our earthly life into something much more like his and then takes us to heaven. The first reading, remember, states clearly that death is not part of God's plan. Jesus drives this point home by allowing the girl to die before he reaches her house. Certainly God could have kept her alive until he got there! But he wanted to show the world that he could restore life and that he has the power to rescue us from death.

If we fear death, we don't recognize the nearness of Christ. We can touch the hem of his garment, but we don't see it, and so we don't believe it. In this case, we're like the mourners that Jesus had to chase out of the house before working his miracle.

If we fear that our trials are leading to disastrous conclusions, we've forgotten how powerful Jesus is, and we've forgotten that he cares enough to rescue us. We need to move ourselves closer to Jesus. We have to press on through the crowds of distractions and doubts, with our eyes fixed only on Jesus and our hands reaching out to him in prayer.

If we fear that God doesn't care enough about us to help us, we need to spend more time learning why Jesus gave up his life for us and why the Father sent him to us.

Reflect & Discuss:
1. Do you believe that Jesus wants to work miraculously in your life?
2. How has the disbelief of the people around you infected your thinking and reduced your faith?
3. Describe a miracle that you saw or experienced. How long did it take?
4. What blessings occurred during the time of suffering?
5. How was all of this an expression of God's love?

Daniel Berrigan was once asked: “Where does your faith reside, where’s its real seat?” His answer is wonderful, both in color and insight: “Your faith is rarely where your head is at and rarely where your heart is at. Your faith is where your ass is at! Inside what commitments are you sitting? Within what reality do you anchor yourself?”

Faith, in his view, is not anchored in the head or the heart. But how is that possible? If it isn’t in the head or the heart, where is it?

From Aristotle, through Thomas Aquinas, through contemporary philosophy and psychology, analysts have generally agreed that, as human beings, we have three major spiritual faculties: HEAD, HEART, and GUT, each with a special function. In our heads, we think. In our hearts, we feel. What happens in the gut? In the gut, we know, just simply know, in a way beyond thoughts and feelings. The gut has to do with intuition, it lets us know what we “have to do”. It’s there that we experience the categorical imperatives within our lives.

With that as a background, we can begin to understand the wisdom of Berrigan’s answer: To use just one example: There are times when each of us in the most important commitments within our lives (faith, family, church, morality) find ourselves in a situation where our heads aren’t in it, our hearts aren’t in it, but we are in it! Against the more spontaneous wisdom of our heads and against the more natural feelings of our hearts, we are anchored by another kind of thought and feeling which perhaps we can’t explain to anyone, even to ourselves, but which keeps us sitting, standing, and walking solidly inside of a certain commitment. We are doing what “we have to do” because at some deep level we simply “know” that this is what we need to do, that this is what is right. That’s faith.

Faith is manifest in our decisions, our commitments, and our life-choices, more than in any intellectual beliefs or passionate feelings. It shows itself in decisions, in choosing certain commitments and in remaining within them. It’s helpful to know this.

How do I know whether my faith is weak or strong? By checking where my ass is at! Why am I inside certain commitments? Why am I remaining there? That, ultimately, is the criterion. The same holds true for assessment of others’ faith. What’s to be said of those among our own children, siblings, neighbors, and friends, who no longer go to church and seem, on the surface at least, to be rather cavalier about the faith?

How do we assess their faith may not be based upon where their heads and hearts are at, but rather upon where they are at. Do they radiate charity, graciousness, respect, hospitality, honesty, generosity, moral integrity, concern for justice? To what are they giving their lives? What commitments are they sitting and walking within and why? Faith is judged by these things, not only by how someone thinks, feels, or expresses herself explicitly in the area of faith.

God, as Jesus makes clear, is a self-emptying God, and we live in the wonder and grace of that kenosis. God, it seems, is self-secure enough so as to not need to be always the centre of conscious attention, the acknowledged life of the party.

We see then that there is a real difference between the idea of faith and its reality. Too often we confuse these.

Faith is also an idea and that idea can sometimes be very stimulating intellectually. As well, the idea of faith can stir and inflame the heart. The reverse is also true. As a notion, faith can sometimes seem intellectually stifling and can feel emotionally crippling. Feelings and thoughts run a wide gamut and so we must be careful to not mistake how we think and feel about God on any given day for the reality of faith. Thoughts and feelings about God are not necessarily faith, as we all-too-quickly learn when our faith is challenged; either by the distractions of everyday life, the scandals in the church, or, more deeply, by personal tragedy, when we are cut down at our roots by terminal illness, the loss of health through aging, and other irreversible losses. It’s then that we find out, only too quickly, that the idea of faith, as distinct from the reality of faith, lacks the substance to truly let us believe in a deeper life than what the world can give us now.

C.S. Lewis, in recounting his own journey to faith, tells us that it was not, in the end, his thoughts or feelings that led him to faith. Rather it was God’s grip on him, an inchoate brand in his soul that wouldn’t go away, a nagging burn in his gut. As he puts it: “The harshness of God is softer than the kindness of men and God’s compulsion is our liberation.”

Summer Camps at St. Hubert Catholic School!

St. Hubert hosted a Basketball Camp (a hoop session) that worked on a cutting-edge approach to skill development. Players worked on Hard skills: shooting mechanics, ball-handling, and finishing moves, Soft skills: appropriate offensive and defensive reads, and worked to build good game habits.

The Totus Tuus college missionaries came to St. Hubert this summer for a week long spiritual summer camp! Kids grades 1-6 enjoyed 5 days of Faith, Friends, and Fun! There was a Totus Tuus camp for Junior High and High School Students too!

Children Grades K-6 Invented the future at Camp Invention! At Camp Invention, a program of the National Inventors Hall of Fame, children were presented with fun hands on activities that encourage creative problem solving, teamwork, entrepreneurship, and curiosity.

Why Be a Catechist or a Catechist’s Aide?

- The best way to learn is to teach.
- Your own faith will come alive.
- You become an active participant in one of the essential responsibilities of a Church community.
- You assist in bringing Christ to others.
- You practice stewardship.
- You show your own family that you value the Faith.
- You become a role model.
- Being a Catechist brings joy.
- You make a difference in the lives of our young people.

The success of the Faith Formation of our children is due to the generosity & dedication of volunteers. These volunteers, who become Catechists and classroom aides, share their faith while teaching the youth of our parish and help them grow in the Faith. We are in need of volunteers for the upcoming 2018-2019 year, which begins in September. We will provide you with the training, tools, and support to assist you in this Ministry. Classes are on Wednesdays 4:00-5:45 PM and Sundays 7:20 – 9:00 PM. Contact Mike Keenan for more information at mkeenan@sainthubert.org or 847-885-7703.

Build up the Church as the apostles did – Become an RCIA Sponsor Companion!

RCIA Sponsorship

What does it take to be an RCIA sponsor companion?

- A desire to be a friend and companion during an important time in someone’s life. A commitment to the RCIA community and journey. An eagerness to learn that will benefit you and your candidate.
- Being a confirmed Catholic who regularly practices their faith and leads a life in harmony with the faith.

A sponsor attends the weekly RCIA sessions with each candidate or catechumen. He/she helps the newcomer to learn about the Catholic faith and about St. Hubert parish community. You don’t have to be an expert on the Catholic faith, but you do have to be someone who values your Catholic faith and wants to share it with others. Through RCIA we are building people of faith into the Church, just as the apostles did! Being an RCIA sponsor is a big commitment, but it also offers big rewards. Besides helping someone join the Church, you’ll make new friends, have fun, and learn a lot about your own Catholic faith! For more information, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

“What are you looking for . . . come and see.”

– John 1: 38-39

- Are you thinking about becoming Catholic?
- Are you not yet baptized?
- Are you baptized in another faith tradition but seeking the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion in the Catholic faith?
- Are you baptized Catholic but were not raised in the Catholic faith?
- Are you searching and not sure where your journey is leading you?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults meets Tuesday evenings. Perhaps YOU are being called to begin the most important journey of your life . . . the journey of faith. Have you or do you have a friend or family member who has an interest in learning more about the Catholic Faith? Join us . . . to question, to explore, to learn, to become a part of the Catholic faith journey.

For more information, call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

July 21 & 22

Holy Family in Inverness
August 11 & 12

Mary Queen in Elmhurst

“Joyful Again!” is a nationally recognized retreat which started at Holy Family 30+ years ago. It provides the widowed with support from others who understand the loss associated with the death of a spouse. “Joyful Again!” is a two-day retreat for widows and widowers who want to resolve the grief they feel inside and begin to live again after the death of their spouse. The retreat emphasizes self-help, personal growth skills, and personal spiritual practices that will enable the participant to take the healing journey.

For more information contact: Joyful Again! at 708-354-7211 or joyfulagain7211@gmail.com.

P.S. Our website at www.joyfulagain.org offers answers to many questions regarding who should attend this retreat and how long after being widowed. Be sure to check it out.

Caring Hearts Adult Day Services

The Caring Hearts Adult Day Center offers a safe, supportive and stimulating environment for older adults who experience mild to moderate memory loss. Group members maintain their independence by making new friends and socializing.

They will be involved in structured, supervised and fun activities while caregivers take a deserved break from their care-giving responsibilities.

The Caring Hearts program is available Monday—Thursday 11:00 AM—3:00 PM. Lunch is available.

This helpful program is located at Palatine Township Senior Center, 505 S. Quentin Road in Palatine, IL 60067.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
