17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, “Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted.” - Jn 6:12

Jesus Feeds Us

One of the greatest miracles Jesus performed, which is recorded in all four gospels, is the multiplication of the five loaves and the two fish that fed over 5,000 people. (In Mark’s gospel, they only counted the men, so scholars have always maintained there were many more affected by Jesus’ goodness that day).

It’s a great miracle, although it’s hard for the human mind to grasp how it happened. But it did—and that’s why it’s one of the important events of Jesus’ earthly ministry that every single gospel writer included. It leads to one of the fundamental truths revealed about Jesus Christ: through Jesus, God cares for his people. Jesus feeds us. He nourishes the soul. Last week we sang, “The Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.” Like the psalmist, we feel blessed because He sets the table before us.

The Church has seen the multiplication miracle as a foreshadowing of the Eucharist. Jesus Christ continues to feed all those who come to him every single Sunday and at every single Mass in between. His message is simple: He is there for us no matter what we’re going through. He gives us the kind of peace and rest that comes through faith and taking him into our hearts and lives.

We begin to realize that what Jesus multiplies isn’t just the food we need for physical strength, but more importantly His goodness and the care he has for us. That’s something we all need to feel.

Good Things Happening at St. Hubert

- St. Hubert Catholic School is still accepting new students for the upcoming academic year. We are a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence and, through a faith-centered program, are focused on helping families form their children into being the best person they can be. We would very much like to introduce families to the school, give you a tour, and share the good things that are happening—including the implementation of the first phase of our 1:1 device program. The infrastructure to support the program is now complete and we’re getting ready to roll out the program in three classrooms this fall. We also expanded our Spanish program to all grades and have a new math and science curriculum.

- The Sharing Parish Picnic is on August 11! St. Hubert is known for the ways we help others not as fortunate as ourselves. For many, many years now we’ve helped share our time, talent and treasure with the good people at St. Aloysius Parish in Chicago. Once a year, we invite the community at St. Al’s to join us for a picnic; which allows for good conversation, good food, and a chance to meet one another. This year, in addition to the games, prizes, and general picnic activities—which is great for families—we’re also going to have live music! Please join us. It will be good to be together.

As we head into a new week, may God continue to bless you in the good things you’re doing for others. May your goodness multiply!

Sometimes people de-super-naturalize John 6:1-15 with explanations such as: "The real miracle is that Jesus got the people to share the food they had brought with them", and even this: "There wasn't enough food for everyone to have their fill, but what they had was offered to everyone, and the people were just so appreciative and willing to make sacrifices that they ate very little and thus there was food left over."

Yeah, r-i-i-ight. As if God can't multiply food miraculously.

The multiplication of the loaves and fish into a meal that not only satisfied everyone but was more than what they needed is an important foreshadowing of the Eucharistic banquet we celebrate today. If we pay close attention to what's going on in Mass, and if we take it to heart, Jesus satisfies our hungers and gives us more than we need. What did you need from him before you arrived at church? He's trying to give it to you or lead you to it -- in abundance!

Receiving all that he wants to miraculously give us requires that we trust him to provide for us. We have to expect the unexpected. We have to wait on his perfect timing. But rest assured that he wants to give us more than we need.

Maybe some of the folks on that ancient hillside wanted steak instead of fish, but what they received was a Messiah who filled their hearts with more than enough faith to grow spiritually, more than enough hope to become stronger in their trials, and more than enough love to share as they went forth to reveal Christ to others.

In our Liturgies of the Eucharist, there's a lot more abundance to receive from Jesus than just a little wafer of his Body and a sip of his Blood. What do you really need from Jesus? More faith? More hope? More love? It's a good idea to think about this on the way to Mass so that you can participate in Mass more expectantly.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Why do you go to Mass? Was there ever a time when you didn't go, and if so, why didn't you? What motivated you to start attending Mass again?

2. How satisfied are you now? What's missing? How might God provide for those needs?

3. What is available from Jesus during Mass other than his real presence in the Host and Precious Blood of the Eucharist?

4. How are the various elements of Mass gifts from God that can help satisfy our spiritual, emotional, and even physical needs?
Fragments from Some Prophetic Loaves and Fishes

After Jesus had fed a crowd of more than five thousand with five loaves and two fishes, he asked his apostles to gather up the fragments that were left over, scattered here and there on the ground. They did as he asked and ended up filling twelve baskets with leftovers.

Recently, I attended a series of lectures by Walter Brueggemann. He is widely respected for his biblical scholarship, he feeds crowds from some healthy baskets, but he is perhaps even more deeply regarded because of his concern for the poor and his challenge to us to reach out to them with justice and generosity. After he had fed us, the crowds, here are some of the fragments that were gathered up:

- There is today a real danger of excessive privatization of our faith. The church must advocate too for the public conscience, not just for the private conscience.
- Jesus before Pontius Pilate turned the question of power into the question of truth. Truth will always erode the chains of power and power will never stop truth. Truth is a spirit that works at bringing the world into harmony with God.
- Where truth operates you see poverty turn into abundance; death turn into life; war turn into peace; and hunger turn into food.
- In Moses, truth confronts power; in Elijah, truth ignores power; and in Josiah, truth transforms power.
- You can always recognize a “Pharaoh”: If you’ve seen one, you’ve seen them all! Pharaohs all have bad dreams, accumulate things, need ever larger bins to store their possessions, are permeated with anxiety, and are de-absolutized as soon as God enters the situation. Where do we have bad dreams?
- A truth-filled God always conspires against Pharaoh. God, eventually, comes to a crisis and redefines it.
- Scripture ultimately speaks of bodily pain and painful slavery. Redemption, just as at the original Exodus, will always begin with a cry of distress and end with a dance of joy. Bodies that hurt must come to voice and that voice must say that this pain is abnormal and shouldn’t be borne any longer. Painful slavery and a truth-filled God will eventually make for you a path through the waters where Pharaoh cannot follow. Therefore we must never allow our pathologies to become normal, nor accept slavery for the security it brings.
- For the most part today, the media reflects the ideology of Pharaoh and yet we willing pipe it in. When we turn off our screens for awhile we begin to feel freer.
- God’s task of transformation is invariably entrusted to reluctant human will and courage.
- The Book of Deuteronomy is one of the greatest social documents ever written, it links faith to public life, to economics, and to justice. It directs faith always to the poor, towards “widows, orphans, and strangers.” Deuteronomy might be the most subversive document in the entire Old Testament. Among other things, it teaches uncompromisingly that laissez-faire economics needs some clear moral checks. In the temptations of Jesus in his dialogue with the devil, he quotes scripture three times and each time it is a passage from Deuteronomy.
- Deuteronomy keeps reminding us that we once all were slaves and that it is not good to have amnesia. We should not absolutize the present and imagine it has always been this way. All of us should remember where we came from, not least today in our debates about immigration.
- If we do not heed the words of Deuteronomy about taking care of the poor we will have to deal with the scroll of Jeremiah who assures us that the world as we know it will come to and end because it cannot be sustained in its falseness.
- For Jeremiah, to intercede for the poor and needy is to know God.
- The prophetic tradition in scripture reminds us that there are three great virtues: generosity, hospitality, and forgiveness. Conversely our culture invites us to guard possessions, protect ourselves, and hold grudges.
- Our great rationalization: “If I had lived in those early times when the issues were clear, I would have offered myself as a martyr, but today the issues aren’t that clear.”
- The preaching of justice is only going to become more difficult as society is more and more devoured by anxiety. However, if we preach justice and society doesn’t listen, it’s society’s problem. But if we don’t preach justice, it’s our problem.
- In answer to the question of why God sometimes seems to counsel violence in Scripture: The God of the bible is in recovery for all the violence that has been attributed to him and done in his name. And, inside our churches, we are all in various stages of recovery.
- Our prayers are generally too reverential: We need to pray more like Moses and remind God of what he promised us.
- We are the only ones in town who know the way out of this crisis!

A sponsor accompanies a person on the journey of faith. The person may be a Catechumen seeking baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist, a baptized Christian of another tradition seeking to join our Catholic community, or a baptized Catholic who is preparing for the sacraments of confirmation and Eucharist. Your responsibility is to develop a relationship with these seekers. In the name of the community, you act as a witness of the catechumen or candidate’s faith and intentions. If you are interested in more information or in becoming a sponsor companion, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Catholic Charities
New Hope Apartments:
A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families
June, 2018 Update

Family #30
Our mom continues her focus on finding a better paying job. She is interested in pursuing a career as a Certified Nursing Assistant or a personal assistant. The State of Illinois offers a WIOA program to achieve a training certificate which would be at no cost to her through the unemployment office. She is still very excited about finally earning her high school diploma.

She has still not received her IRS refund and is waiting for a response. New Hope is evaluating her case to see if she can get assistance for 3 additional months after her lease ends, as she continues to work towards her self-sufficiency goals.

Goals:
- Save up at least 3 month’s rent/saving IRS tax refund
- Obtain her GED
- Apply for low income housing

Family #31
Our mom’s car continues to be a challenge for her, as it now needs another repair. These repairs dip into her savings and she cannot depend on it for transportation to and from work. She went back to her previous job in Schaumburg due to her lack of dependable transportation, which made her very happy, since she had been spending $90 per day on an Uber to get to the Vernon Hills job. It also cut down on the time that she was able to spend with her children because of the distance. New Hope is also evaluating her case to assist for an additional three months after her lease ends. She reports that she would like to move closer to work.

Goals:
- Save up at least 3 month’s rent/saving IRS tax refund
- Attend work and school as scheduled
- Apply for low income housing
- Repair car
- Relocate closer to employment after lease

Interested in Becoming Catholic?
Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)
The RCIA is for adults who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church that
- have never celebrated Baptism.
- have celebrated Baptism in another faith and are interested in the Catholic Church.
- are baptized Catholics who have not yet received Eucharist or Confirmation.
- are married to a Catholic and attend Mass, but just don’t know what the next step is to become one of the Catholic faithful.

Every year adults are welcomed into the Catholic Community through RCIA. It is a learning and loving process in which conversion of the heart brings you to Jesus Christ, who is our Lord and Savior. This process will present the Catholic faith journey in an open and comfortable environment. Participants in past RCIA classes have come from many different backgrounds, yet all have a common interest in learning about the Catholic Faith.

The RCIA is a tour of faith:
- through the initial stages of asking and seeking,
- through beginning involvement with Christian/Catholic people,
- through hearing the Gospel proclaimed and by faithful reflection and prayer on the Word of God,
- through study and discussion about the Catholic experience,
- through doubts and hesitations,
- through discernment of God’s call for them as individuals,
- through the steps of commitment,
- through the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist)

For more information, call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

These two families are very grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice extended family. New Hope is also very grateful for all the assistance and resources you provide for our families.

BAPTISMS
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
