19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“This is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die.” - Jn 6:50

Pastor’s Letter

The Big Picture
Sometimes the extraordinary can become ordinary, and the fantastic familiar. To help combat this, one of the goals of the spiritual life is to adopt the spirit of the disciples who followed Jesus in his day: it’s to watch and listen and keep utterly amazed (see Mark 9:15; 12:17; 16:5 among others; when the crowd wasn’t “utterly amazed” they were “exceedingly astonished”! For example, see Mark 10:26.)

It’s something to contemplate as we continue to hear Jesus talk about “being bread”. This week we hear him add this: “whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world” (John 6:51).

In our Catholic faith, we immediately begin to think about the Last Supper when Jesus instituted the Eucharist. We discover that the bread he gives is himself—really and truly present to us in a sacramental way. The Eucharist is one of the ways Jesus keeps his promise that he is staying with us until he comes again. (See Matthew 28:20).

So when we need God in our life, as Catholics we have more than prayer. Jesus gave us a way to physically take him in so we can be as close to him as possible. God has done something only God can do. Through words, ordinary bread becomes life to us. But they’re not ordinary words, they’re Jesus Christ’s. They are the words of life.

Is it too good to be true? Yes. Sometimes a ritual becomes commonplace. But, when we stop to contemplate what it is, we come to a simple conclusion: It’s utterly amazing!

An Utterly Amazing Parish
This weekend, we launch our 2020 Vision Capital Campaign—an initiative that will help us accomplish some important goals to take us into the next decade. As I mentioned before, when I came to St. Hubert to pray with you on the weekends, I truly was “utterly amazed” by the community—the way we pray together, and the way so many people are actively engaged in the work of the gospel.

This campus was built up by families and individuals who believed in being actively involved and working together. In fact, we still pray and minister side by side with some of the original parishioners whose roots go back to the 1950’s. Since the early days, the community has come together to build, add on and renovate an amazing campus that has become a center and gathering place. We’re very blessed to have what we have.

We’re no longer in an era where we need to build. Instead, the goals of this project ensure that all that’s been invested in is taken care of—brought up to code, brought up to date, and sustained so that we can continue to be empowered to live the gospel.

St. Hubert is a special place. Our 2020 Vision is simply to keep us empowered doing what we are committed to doing—being God’s people, becoming God’s people and building each other up. God is working through us.

Together, we are utterly amazing. We have 2020 Vision.

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME  3  AUGUST 12, 2018
19th Sunday of Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:4-8
Ps 34:2-9
Ephesians 4:30-5:2
John 6:41-51

This Sunday we hear Christ's explanation of the Eucharist: "Whoever believes has eternal life; I am the bread of life."

Why does he call the Eucharist "the bread of life"? How does it give us life?

He answers: "Whoever eats this bread will live forever, and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." In other words, he gave himself to us – he gave his life for us – on the cross. Our sinfulness put us on the path of death, but he who was sinless and divine substituted himself for us, taking our deaths upon himself so that we could have the eternal life of God.

The resurrection of his body defeated this death. Therefore, his body, crucified and risen, is the source of our life. This is what we celebrate in Mass. We are not re-enacting his death during the sacrifice of the altar, as some mistakenly assume; we are uniting ourselves to his life.

Every Catholic Mass accomplishes this by providing us with our Savior's body and blood, here and now, in the form of edible food: the bread of life. This holy communion comes to us from Christ's Last Supper, through generation after generation of the apostolic priesthood, beginning with the very first Apostles.

Christ is as fully present and as truly real here as he was when he sat among the Apostles and said, "This is my Body, this is my Blood." Thus anyone who adores and honors Jesus in the Eucharist, believing that he is their Savior, is feasting on the source of their eternal life.

Reflect & Discuss:
1. How do you know that the Eucharist is truly the high point and center of your life?
2. What's missing from your current experience of meeting Jesus in person in the miracle that takes place on the altar?
3. How is the Eucharist life-giving for you? Share how Jesus has revealed himself to you through the Blessed Sacrament.
4. How did it change you?
A friend of mine, an alcoholic in recovery, likes to explain the dynamics of an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting this way: “It's funny, the meetings are always the same, the exact same things get said over and over again. Everything is totally predictable; everyone, except those who are there for the first time, know exactly what will be said. And we’re not there to show our best sides to each other. I don’t go to an Alcoholics Anonymous meetings to share my talents or to be a nice guy. No. I go because, if I don’t, I know, and know for sure, that I will start drinking again and eventually destroy myself. It’s that simple. I go there to stay alive!”

In a curious, but accurate way, that can also be a description of the Eucharist, at least of one important aspect of it. Among other reasons, we go to the Eucharist to stay alive. The Eucharist is meant to be God’s regular nourishment for us, daily manna to keep us alive within the desert of our lives.

We get this theology from John’s gospel. The gospels, as we know, do not have just one theology of the Eucharist. The various communities in the early church each emphasized different things about the Eucharist. John, unlike the other evangelists, does not set the Eucharist so saliently into the context of the last supper. He does set it there, but places it in another context as well.

In John’s gospel, where the other gospels have the institution of the Eucharist at the last supper, he has Jesus washing the disciples’ feet. Various scholars, Raymond Brown among them, suggest that John does this because, by the time his gospel was written, perhaps sixty to seventy years after Jesus died, Christians, not unlike today, were already arguing with each other about the Eucharist: How often should it be celebrated? Who should preside? What is its precise meaning? John, in placing the washing of the feet where the other evangelists put the words of institution, is reminding us that washing each other’s feet, service to and humility before each other, is what the Eucharist is really all about. But John also emphasizes another aspect of Eucharist.

While linking the Eucharist to the last supper and highlighting that it means service and humility, John also places it into Jesus’ discourse on the bread of life. In Chapter six of his gospel, Jesus says: “Unless you eat the bread of life, you will not have life within you.” In speaking of the bread of life, he links it to the manna, the daily feeding that Israel received from God during her years in the desert. For all those years, manna was Israel’s daily food and, often times, her only food. It had too a curious quality. When she ate it alongside other foods she had procured for herself or food she had brought out of Egypt, it tasted bitter, but if she took manna as her only food it tasted sweet. In either case, it was her daily sustenance.

In John’s gospel, Jesus tells us that the Eucharist is the new manna, the new bread from heaven, the new way that God gives us daily sustenance. The Roman Catholic practice of daily Eucharist takes its root here. That is why too, in Roman Catholic spirituality, unlike much of Protestantism, the Eucharist has not been called “the Lord’s Supper”, since it was understood not as an extraordinary ritual to commemorate the last supper, but as an ordinary, ideally daily, ritual to give us sustenance from God.

How does the Eucharist give us daily sustenance? As we saw in the earlier columns in this series, the Eucharist nurtures us by giving us God’s physical embrace (“the real presence”) and, like a Quaker-silence, it gives us a oneness with each other that we cannot give to ourselves. However it nurtures us in yet a further way. It provides us with a life-sustaining ritual, a regular meeting around the word and person of Christ that can become the daily bread of our lives and our communities. How?

Monks have secrets worth knowing. One of these is that a community sustains itself not primarily through novelty, titillation, and high emotion but through rhythm and routine, namely, through simple, predictable, ritual processes. For example, a wise family will say to itself: “We will all be home at regular times, we will all eat together twice a day, and we will all be together in the living room at least once a day – even if it isn’t exciting, even if real feelings aren’t shared, even if some are bored, and even if some are protesting that this isn’t worthwhile. We will do this because, if we don’t, we will soon fall apart as a family. To stay together we need regular, straight-forward, predictable, daily rituals. We need the manna of daily presence to each other. Otherwise we’ll die.”

In the Eucharist, God sustains us in just this way.

The Campaign for St. Hubert Parish

Campaign Kick-Off!

This weekend we kicked-off our parish campaign with an announcement made by Fr. Mike at all the Masses. This announcement explains the why behind the needs our campaign seeks to address and the plans we’ve developed.

Our campaign, 2020 Vision, seeks to raise $2.4 million which will enable us to address some practical needs as we head into the 2020s. We are pressed to address a directive from the Village of Hoffman Estates to install a sprinkler system in our school building so that we remain compliant with the village’s ordinances. (The building is also used for Religious Education, our GIFT Program for those with special needs, Scouting, and for different social gatherings.) We also have begun an initiative that will bring technology into the hands of our school children to keep up with the latest trends in education.

We are also planning some modest updating and improvements to two other very used meeting places on our campus: the lower level of the church and parish ministry center. And, along with every other parish in the Archdiocese, we are participating in the Archdiocesan “To Teach Who Christ Is” campaign, which benefits those receiving a Catholic education—both in Catholic Schools and in Religious Education Programs.

As you can see, we have a tremendous committee of parishioners who are serving as the leaders for our campaign. We offer them a big thank you for their ongoing work to bring our campaign to a successful conclusion.

Some Questions and Answers

Q. Who will be asked to support this campaign?
A. Each individual or household in the parish will be personally invited to prayerfully consider a gift to the 2020 Vision campaign.

Q. When will the campaign start?
A. Our campaign is currently underway. To allow us to complete the active phase of our campaign by the end of September 2018, when one of our parishioners on the leadership team approaches you, please consider and make your pledge at that time or shortly afterward. We also ask you to consider serving as a campaign volunteer, so we can accomplish our goal of personally contacting all St. Hubert families.

Q. Why emphasize personal visits or personal contact?
A. Home visits emphasize the personal nature of giving, allow campaign volunteer visitors to give potential donors a thorough presentation of the campaign case, and offer potential donors the opportunity to ask questions. In addition, personal visits or personal contacts place a greater emphasis on stewardship, allowing a volunteer to share his/her own faith experience and campaign participation.

The World Apostolate of Fatima's 101 Tour for Peace Program is Underway and Coming to St. Hubert!

The tour, marking the 101 Anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady at Fatima, will feature the world-famous International Pilgrim Virgin Statue, traveling worldwide for over 70 years.

St. Hubert is hosting the tour on Monday, September 10, 2018. We will publish the events surrounding this day of prayer next week.

Please join us to pray, to hear the story of Fatima, and to venerate this beautiful statue that set out from Fatima in 1947. It is especially for all who might not ever be able to make a pilgrimage to Fatima, Portugal. We are bringing the pilgrimage to you!

The presence of this special Statue (sculpted by Jose Thedim in 1947, based on Sr. Lucia's description of her encounters with Our Lady) is a great gift to our community. It will help us in our prayer to Our Lady, who always brings us to Jesus Christ.

Proclaiming the Word: Lector Training Workshop

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God’s message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God’s Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a “refresher” course.

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
