“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him ... The one who feeds on me will have life because of me.” - Jn 6:56, 57b
“Wisdom Has Built Her House” (Proverbs 9:1)

Today’s first reading comes from the Book of Proverbs. We get a look at wisdom, which interestingly is identified in the reading as a person. Of course, we know who that person is—it’s Jesus Christ. In the proverb, we’re invited us into the house because Wisdom has prepared something special for us to eat and drink. We’re welcomed to the table.

In the gospel, we see that it isn’t bread and wine that feeds us at the table, though. It is Jesus himself. The Eucharist is the real presence of Christ—his flesh and blood given to us. When we know who Christ is, and how he makes himself present to us, we gain wisdom.

It’s a timely reading as we get ready to open the St. Hubert School doors to begin a new year for the 57th time. Our Religious Education Program begins a few weeks later on September 12.

A Catholic education—both in our school and in our religious education program—provides more than just knowledge. It helps our students grow in wisdom, which is a gift of the Holy Spirit.

Wisdom, in the biblical world, comes from understanding our relationship with God. It’s the skill that comes from living rightly and justly. In the Old Testament, the Prophet Micah put it this way: “This is what the Lord requires of you: Only to do justice and to love goodness and to walk humbly with God” (Micah 6:8). What we do and how we act is important. It requires not just knowledge, which comes through the mind, but wisdom, which comes from the heart. We need both.

Growing in wisdom takes a lifetime. It requires a commitment to diving into the Word of God, to allowing it to form us and shape us so that we live the way God asks. We do that through education, as well as through our worship, and in the ministries that we all can participate in here at St. Hubert, regardless of age. We are always learning and growing.

Our adult formation and education program, called CAFÉ, launches its season on Wednesday, August 29 with a special presentation on St. Hildegard by Sr. Karlyn Cauley. See page 9 for more information. It will take place in the lower level of the church, and with our new sound system, we’ll be able to hear every word.

In September, the CAFÉ group will host a four-week bible study starting September 19. We’ll take a look at the many references to scripture that have become a normal part of what we say during Mass. In January, CAFÉ will host a seven-part series on the Sacraments and how they move us to live the gospel as disciples of Christ.

Whether or not we’re headed off to school on Monday, we all have things we can continue to learn and share with one another. As a faith community, we grow in wisdom together. And that makes a parish a special and holy place. May God bless you!

In John 6:51-58, we hear the Great Eucharistic Command. Jesus says: "Those who feed on me will have life because of me." What kind of life? What’s the difference between having his life and the one you were born with?

Jesus gives us his body and blood in every Mass so that we can consume him in his entirety – all of his humanity and all of his divinity. He wants us to be nourished abundantly by his love. He wants us to receive his strength when we endure trials, his healing when we suffer wounds, and most of all, his life, not just when we go to Heaven, but here and now on Earth.

Consuming Jesus should transform us into his likeness. If we truly believe that the Eucharist is the body and blood of Jesus our Savior, then why would we leave Mass unchanged?

By consciously participating in the Penance Rite at the beginning of Mass, actively listening to the readings of the Word of God, sincerely praying with the priest, and trusting in the power of God when we say, “Lord, I am not worthy... but say the word and my soul shall be healed,” and then consuming the Eucharist with humility and awe, we become one with his body and blood.

Now we, too, are his body and blood on earth, ready for others to consume us, or to put it more accurately, giving them the opportunity to be nourished by the True Presence of Jesus within us.

When we give love to others, they receive God’s love. When they fail to return that love, we’re being consumed! We’re giving more than we’re receiving. Similarly, when we give of our time and talents for the sake of God’s kingdom without being paid or rewarded, we’re being Eucharist. We are one in body and blood with Jesus.

Being consumed without being destroyed is possible only if we receive from Jesus what others fail to give to us. This is why the Eucharistic celebration of Mass is our true nourishment. It needs to be the source and the summit of our lives.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How similar to Jesus are you?
2. What in God’s personality do you need to consume more of so that you can become more like him?
3. Share the story of a time when you gave more than you received. How was this Christ-like? Why does it mean you were Eucharist for others?
4. How does receiving Jesus during Mass fill us up so that we can continue giving without being depleted?

Bread and Wine

Bread and wine are ambiguous, both in life and in the Eucharist.

On the one hand, bread is perhaps our primary symbol for food, health, nourishment, and community: Give us this day our daily bread! Let us break bread together! Bread is a symbol for life and coming together.

Few things speak as wonderfully about life as does the smell of fresh bread. The fragrance of fresh bread is the smell of life itself! Yet there is another story to bread. Out of what is bread made? Kernels of wheat that had to be crushed in their individuality to become something communal, flour, which then had to endure fire to be baked into the substance that gives off the smell of life. As St. Augustine once said in a homily:

“For surely this loaf was not made from one grain of wheat? The grains were separate before they came together to become one loaf. They were joined together by water, after first having been ground (contritionem – the Latin verb he uses here). For if the many kernels are not ground and are not moistened by water, they could not come to this form, that we call a loaf. ... And then without fire, there is still not a loaf of bread.” Bread must be baked too in a fierce heat. Bread then speaks of both joy and pain.

Wine too speaks in this double way: On the one hand, it is a festive drink, perhaps our foremost symbol for celebration. Wine has nothing to do with basic nourishment or necessity. It is not a protein needed for health, but an extra that speaks of what lies beyond the hard business of making and sustaining a living. Wine speaks of friendship, community, celebration, joy, recreation, victory. We celebrate everything, not least of all love, with wine.

But, like bread, wine has another side: Of what is wine made? Crushed grapes. Individual grapes are crushed and their very blood becomes the substance out of which ferments this warm, festive drink. No wonder Jesus chose it to represent his blood.

It is helpful to keep this ambiguity in mind whenever we participate in the Eucharist. Bread and wine are held up to be blessed by God and to become the flesh and blood of Christ, and they are held up precisely in their ambiguity.

On the one hand they represent everything in life and in the world that is healthy, young, beautiful, bursting with energy, and full of color. They represent the goodness of this earth, the joy of human achievements, celebration, festivity, and all that is contained in that original blessing when, after the first creation, God looked at the earth and pronounced it good. The Eucharist too gives off the smell of fresh bread.

But that’s half of it. The Eucharist also holds up, in sacrifice, all that is being crushed, broken, and baked by violence. The wine, fittingly, is also blood. At the Eucharist, we hold up both, the world’s health and its achievements along with its depressions and failures, and ask God to be with us in both. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin once put it this way: In a sense the true substance to be consecrated each day is the world’s development during that day – the bread symbolizing appropriately what creation succeeds in producing, the wine (blood) what creation causes to be lost in exhaustion and suffering in the course of that effort.

What we see in the Eucharist, the goodness and joy of life and the pains and shortcomings of that same life, is the same tension that we need to hold up each day within our ordinary lives. How do we do that?

By enjoying life and all its legitimate pleasures without guilt and without ever denigrating them in the name of God, truth, and the poor, even as we go and stand where the Cross of Christ is forever being erected, namely, where the excluded, the poor, the sick, the unattractive, the lonely, the hungry, the crushed, and the bleeding find their place.

We properly live the tension of the Eucharist, the ambiguity of bread and wine, whenever we honor both the smell of fresh bread and the process by which it came to be. What that means is that we must fully honor the beauty of nature, the grace of an athlete, the energy inside music, the power and sacramentality inside sex, the humor inside a good comedian, the vibrant feel of health, and the color and zest that lie everywhere inside of life itself, even as we are conscious of and in solidarity with all that is being excluded from or victimized by these wonderful energies which ultimately take their origin in God.

In John’s Gospel, water becomes wine and wine becomes blood and blood and water both eventually flow out of the pierced side of Jesus. That happens too in the Eucharist and it happens in our lives. The task is to hold them both in our hands, as happens at Eucharist, and then offer them up to God.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR ST. HUBERT PARISH

“... put your gifts at the service of one another ...” — 1 Peter 4:10

Commonly Asked Questions About Our Campaign

Q. How much am I expected to give?
A. All parishioners are being asked to consider a specific gift amount. However, you alone can determine the amount of your gift. Consult the various gift plans accompanying the campaign brochure. Please remember, we need the participation of all parishioners and, if your gift is one of sacrifice, it is truly a generous gift regardless of its size.

Q. Why am I asked to consider a specific amount?
A. Parishioners need to know what levels of support are necessary to meet and exceed our campaign financial need. A gift amount is suggested for each household to prayerfully consider. No judgment is made on the level of gift you or others make. The true test of your gift is whether it is planned, proportionate and sacrificial.

Q. What if I choose not to give the amount requested?
A. Matters of giving are questions of priorities. Your family is unique unto itself; however, you are asked to prayerfully consider a specific gift. Whatever your response, it should be one of choice and sacrifice.

Q. I dislike pledging. Why am I asked to make a pledge instead of a one-time gift?
A. You can make a one-time gift; however, the success of the campaign rests largely on pledges payable over five years. In addition, by making a pledge, you are able to donate more than would be otherwise possible with a one-time gift.

Welcome a Campaign Volunteer!

Helping Hands Ministry

The St. Hubert Helping Hands volunteers offer to give their time and talents to help people in need for free. Let us know if you need help.

Ways people have received help:
- A ride to church
- A ride to the store (food shopping, Christmas shopping)
- Snow removal
- Helped to find a bus to drive homeless people to church
- Advice (plumbing, painting, etc.)

Here is a story of how St. Hubert volunteers have helped people in need:

‘A young lady with two kids ran into some very difficult times: her husband left her, she lost her job and recently found from her doctor that she has cancer. She was devastated. She called several parishes requesting help but nothing came up. She didn’t know who to call or where to go for help. Finally she called St. Hubert parish and was able to get volunteer to drive her (for free) to/from her daily appointment (five days a week for six weeks).’

‘Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.’
—Galatians 6:2

‘Don’t forget to do good and to share with what you have with those in need, for such sacrifices are very pleasing to him.’
—Hebrews 13:16

For those thinking about becoming Catholic:

Why might you be thinking about this, now, as an adult? You may be looking for “more” in life, dissatisfied with the emptiness you may be feeling. You may be at an age when you are open to God’s call….or your children may be asking questions….or you are experiencing a need to belong to something, someone, bigger than yourself. You might be searching for a way to share faith within your family….you might simply know that there is something missing in your life. All of us, Catholics or not, experience these longings at one time or another. Those of us involved in the St. Hubert Parish RCIA process invite you to join us, to begin YOUR journey, to ask questions, pray with us, explore your own spiritual history, and learn about the Catholic Church.

What do I do next?

Inquirers seeking entrance into the Catholic Church meet once per week for instruction and discussion in the essentials of the Catholic Faith. Following the Rite of Acceptance/Welcome, they also attend Sunday Liturgy together as a group and may be dismissed after the Liturgy of the Word to reflect more deeply on the Scriptures and seek to connect them to their daily lives. Each person on this faith journey has a companion in the initial stages, and later chooses a sponsor—a baptized Catholic who provides support, prayers, and guidance. Further, it is the work of the entire parish community to support our inquirers through prayer and example.

August is the month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Every Friday morning at 6:30 AM, we gather in Church to pray the rosary. It would be wonderful if you could join in this beautiful prayer.

The World Apostolate of Fatima's 101 Tour for Peace Program is Underway and Coming to St. Hubert!

The tour, marking the 101 Anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady at Fatima, will feature the world-famous International Pilgrim Virgin Statue, traveling worldwide for over 70 years.

St. Hubert is hosting the tour on Monday, September 10, 2018. We will publish the events surrounding this day of prayer next week.

Please join us to pray, to hear the story of Fatima, and to venerate this beautiful statue that set out from Fatima in 1947. It is especially for all who might not ever be able to make a pilgrimage to Fatima, Portugal. We are bringing the pilgrimage to you!

The presence of this special Statue (sculpted by Jose Thedim in 1947, based on Sr. Lucia's description of her encounters with Our Lady) is a great gift to our community. It will help us in our prayer to Our Lady, who always brings us to Jesus Christ.

We need sponsor companions for the RCIA

Can you help?

Do you desire to share your Catholic faith?

Do you feel called to walk with people on their spiritual journey?

In the Catholic Church, accompanying someone on their journey of initiation is like the birthing of a child. As they learn what it means to be Catholic and discover the rich tradition of our Church, they awaken to a new way of living life. Your role is to be a companion; your task is to walk with them, guiding them through the process of the Church toward full initiation. What we need you may do:

- Attend sessions (voluntary) with your catechumen or candidate.
- Meet or talk weekly with your catechumen or candidate to review handouts, faith share, and answer questions.
- Invite them to attend and sit with you at Mass.
- Share the traditional prayers of the Church.
- Invite your catechumen or candidate to parish activities.
- Share your experience with the parish community through the bulletin.
- Assist in preparing your catechumen or candidate for the rites.
- Participate in the rites and be prepared for witness.
- Periodically ask your catechumen or candidate how they feel they are progressing.

If you are interested in more information or in becoming a sponsor companion, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
