Jesus told him, “Go your way; your faith has saved you.” Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:52

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 28, 2018
“I Want to See.”
—Mark 10:51

“I want to see.” It’s the prayer of the blind man in today’s gospel, and it’s the prayer of all of us growing in the spiritual life. We want to see. We desire insight.

So even though this passage is about a very real miracle in the life of Bartimaeus, I can’t help but also think it’s a spiritual metaphor for a life of prayer. That’s because in many ways, our prayer is a desire to see what we can only hope for and desperately want—restored health, peace, justice, wholeness, success, acceptance or even in some ways a desire to be noticed by God; that he actually cares about our life.

We call out to Jesus, “have compassion for me; have pity on me.” We ask for help.

What we learn from Bartemaeus is that prayer takes persistence. Of course, Jesus tells us that, too. (See Luke 11:5-8 and Luke 18:1-8 for just a couple of examples.) The blind man was discouraged by the crowd and told to give it up and leave Jesus alone. But, the blind man had faith, and it made him call out to Jesus (i.e., pray) even more. He didn’t give in to the discouragers. Instead, when Jesus told the people to let Bartimaeus come to him, the encouragers were the first to tell him, “Take courage, get up” and go to Jesus.

We find that in prayer, too. We have the people who discourage us and tell us why bother to pray; it’s a waste of time. But then we have other voices in our life who encourage us to follow our heart, to keep the faith and keep praying.

The encouragers, in the end, are all around us. It’s the people praying in the pews with us—praying for us and with us. The encouragers are found in the community of faith that lifts us up on a Sunday morning, or weekday morning, or any day in between.

In a world of discouragers, we need encouragers in our life. They help us see what our heart sees: A God who cares.

We’re Getting Close! 2020 Vision Capital Campaign Update

Also see page 7 for more information.

Speaking of encouragement, we are very blessed. During our pledge weekend and through last weekend, we moved the thermometer up to over $2.1 million. We’re now about 11% away from our $2.4 million goal!

We’re doing it together to build up our community and to accomplish what’s required of us as we head into the 2020s.

Thank you everyone for considering making a pledge, and for those who have gotten us this far...thank you for your generosity. Faith in God, and faith in each other can move mountains.

May the God, who hears the cry of those in need, bring us continued blessing,

—Fr. Mike

Every step we take is important. Where we go and what we do next makes a difference that ripples off into the future with ramifications (blessings and/or woes) that are impossible for us to predict. Jesus isn’t down-playing the significance of this. Rather, what happens next is so important that he wants us to have full control over it.

Jesus told Bartimaeus “Go your way.” And what did Bartimaeus do with that freedom? He “followed him on the way.” He opted for the best possible direction. His life changed dramatically, not only because he had been blind and now he had good eyesight, but because he wanted to learn from Jesus and become one of his followers.

Saturday November 3
Philippians 1:18b-26
Ps 42:2,3,5
Luke 14:1,7-11

How many times have we returned to an old familiar path after an encounter with Christ? If following him means taking a new direction, getting involved in a new ministry, or changing careers or friends, we too often settle back into old routines. Comfort zones are hard to leave. But following Jesus is a life-changing adventure if we’re sincere about it.

Following Jesus and learning from him should be our top priority. Every encounter with Christ should change us – even at Mass when we reunite ourselves to him in the Eucharist.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Think of the last time Jesus responded to your need for help. What changed afterward?

2. How long did the change last?

3. Describe a time when you changed directions in your life because of an encounter with Christ. What did Jesus do for you?

4. How did you figure out which way to go afterward?
Sometimes you can see a whole lot of things just by looking. That’s one of Yogi Berra’s infamous aphorisms. It’s a clever expression of course, but, sadly, perhaps mostly, the opposite is truer. Mostly we do a whole lot of looking without really seeing much. Seeing implies more than having good eyesight. Our eyes can be wide open and we can be seeing very little.

I’ve always been intrigued by how scripture describes Paul immediately after his conversion. We always assume that it tells us that Paul was struck blind by his vision, but, I think, the text implies more. It tells us that Paul got up off the ground with his eyes wide open, seeing nothing. That doesn’t necessarily equate with physical blindness. He may well have been seeing physically, but he wasn’t seeing the meaning of what he was getting himself into. Someone had to come and open his eyes, not just so that he could see again physically but especially that he could see more deeply into the mystery of Christ. Seeing, truly seeing, implies more than having eyes that are physically healthy and open. We all see the outer surface of things, but what’s beneath isn’t as automatically seen.

We see this, for instance, in what’s contained inside the healing miracles of Jesus. In the Gospels, we see Jesus perform a number of healings. He heals lame people, deaf people, mute people, people with leprosy, and two women who for different reasons are unable to become pregnant. What’s important to see in these various miracles is that, almost always, there’s more at issue than mere physical healing. Jesus is healing people in a deeper way, that is, he is healing the lame so that they can walk in freedom and in service of God. He is healing the deaf so that they can hear the Good News. He is healing the mute so that they can open their mouths in praise. And he is healing those who are hemorrhaging interiorly so that they can bring new life to birth.

We see this most clearly at those times when Jesus heals people who are blind. He’s giving them more than just physical sight; he’s opening their eyes so that that can see more deeply. But that’s only an image. How might it be unpackaged? How can the grace and teachings of Jesus help us to see in a deeper way? Here are some suggestions:

By shifting our eyes from seeing through paranoia and self-protection to seeing through metanoia and nurture.

G.K. Chesterton once affirmed that familiarity is the greatest of all illusions and that the secret to life is to learn to look at things familiar until they look unfamiliar again. We open our eyes to depth when we shift from a posture of self-protection to a posture of nurture.

- By shifting our eyes from seeing through jealousy to seeing through admiration.

Our perception becomes distorted whenever we move from the happy state of admiration to the unhappy state of envy. Our eyesight is clear when we delight in admiration.

- By shifting our eyes from seeing through bitterness to seeing through eyes purified and softened by grief.

The root of bitterness is wound and the way out of bitterness is grieving. Tears clear our eyesight because they soften a heart hardened by wound.

- By shifting our eyes from seeing through fantasy and auto-eroticism to seeing through appreciation and prayer.

One of the key movements within our spiritual lives is the movement from fantasy to prayer, a movement that ultimately frees us from wanting to press to ourselves all that’s beautiful to appreciating beauty for its own sake. We can only really see and appreciate beauty when we stop lusting for it.

- By shifting our eyes from seeing through relevance to seeing through contemplation.

Our longing for relevance makes us look out at the world with restless, dissatisfied eyes. We practice mindfulness and see the richness of the present moment only when our disquiet is stilled by solitude.

- By shifting our eyes from seeing through anger to seeing through forgiveness.

Nothing taints our eyesight as much as anger. It’s the most debilitating of all cataracts. And nothing cleanses our vision as much as forgiveness. Nobody holding a grudge sees straight.

- By shifting our eyes from seeing through jealousy to seeing through gratitude.

Longing and hunger distort our vision. Gratitude restores it. It enables insight. The most grateful person you know has the best eyesight of all the people you know.

Love is the eye! So say the medieval mystics, in wisdom that needs to be added to the medical vocabulary of contemporary optometry. Seeing straight has more dimensions than we normally imagine.

All Saints & All Souls Day Liturgies

It is our Catholic tradition to pray for and honor our deceased during the month of November. We begin with the first day, calling it the feast of All Saints. Honoring those who have gone before us, having lived extraordinary lives, acknowledges the connectedness between heaven and earth. Just as in our homes, we often recall the life of a loved one, making them present through stories and pictures, the Church reminds us of these holy men and women—our ancestors in faith. This year, the solemnity of All Saints’ Day falls on Thursday, November 1. Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM with our school students, and 7:30 PM.

All Souls’ Day, The Commemoration of All The Faithful Departed, is on Friday, November 2. Our customary Mass for the feast of All Souls, will be celebrated at 7:30 PM Mass. This liturgy will include our traditional All Souls Day Mass practices of remembering parishioners who have been buried from St. Hubert. Anyone wishing to observe this day in remembrance is welcome. As we gather with loved ones surrounded by the community, we find assurance in the promise of everlasting life.

We encourage anyone who is grieving to come to this Mass and invite your family and friends, no matter how long ago those dear to you have passed from this life. At Mass the names of those buried from St. Hubert in the past year will be read as a candle is lit and presented to family members or a friend. The candles are placed on the steps of the sanctuary. Others may come forward after these families to receive a lighted candle for anyone who has gone before them. We invite you to take them home at the end of Mass. They can be lit at holidays, the anniversary of death, and other times of remembrance. Light refreshments will be served following Mass.

Lord God, most holy, we approach you in gratitude for your holy ordained priesthood. You have called these men to be set apart and to shepherd your people, as you shepherd your entire church. We pray for them in their daily work. Grant to them an increase in spiritual gifts and grace, so they may be prepared for the tasks at hand. Lead them not into temptation and protect them from the grasp of the evil one. It is through the sacraments they confer that we encounter the divine in a real and profound way. May your church never lose sight of these, your special sons, and may we, the body of Christ, never fail to cherish the gift of their lives, which they have freely given to you and your holy church. We ask this in the name of Jesus, your Son. Amen.

To all Liturgical Ministers:
Please send all unavailable dates for the months of December through February to Jackie Green no later than November 2nd. Her e-mail is jaygee222@sbcglobal.net.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a “refresher” course.

PART III
SUPPORTING AN ABUSED PERSON

If your friend begins to talk about the abuse:

- Just Listen. Listening can be one of the best ways to help. Don’t imagine you will be the one person to “save” your friend. Instead, recognize that it takes a lot of strength and courage to live with an abusive partner, and understand your role as a support person, rather than “fixer” or “expert.”

- Keep it Confidential. Don’t tell other people that they may not want or be ready to tell. If there is a direct threat of violence, tell them that you both need to tell someone right away, and call either the helpline or 911 in an emergency.

- Provide Information, Not Advice. Give them the phone number to the Illinois Domestic Violence helpline (877.863-6338) or to the local helpline at WINGS (847-221-5680). Be careful about giving advice. They know best how to judge the risks they face.

- Be There and Be Patient. Coping with abuse takes time. Your friend may not do what you expect them to do when you expect them to do it. If you think it is your responsibility to fix the problems, you may end up feeling frustrated. Instead, focus on building trust, and remember that your friend is the one who will have to live with the consequences of the decision-making, and is doing their best to manage those risks in a complex situation.

- Do Not Confront the Abuser. This could be extremely dangerous.

- Do Not Suggest Marriage Counseling. Generally, in abuse cases marriage counseling does not work and can sometimes cause more harm to the abused.

Remember—if you are worried about someone you know, or if you have questions about behaviors that seems concerning, call the helpline: 877-863-6338. An advocate can talk to you about your concerns and can help you decide what to do next.

Dying to be Happy:
Discovering the Truth about Life
November 10, 9:00 AM—Noon

If you knew you were going to die today, what would you do? How would that reality change you? Would you be more forgiving, more merciful?

Embracing our mortality — on a daily basis — is key to happiness in this life and the next. That’s the Gospel truth! Because if you can lie to yourself about the fact you’re going to die, you can lie to yourself about anything. So, let’s wake up for heaven’s sake. Join Catholic author, Chris Stepien, as he shares the life-changing inspiration he gained from his wife Ellen’s breast cancer diagnosis. That experience led him to write his latest book from Beacon Publishing and Dynamic Catholic, Dying to Be Happy: Discovering the Truth About Life .

Location: St. Mary of Gostyn, Gathering Place
(Downers Grove)
Cost: $30 (includes light breakfast)

You can register for this event on our website at mayslakeministries.org or by phone at 630-852-9000.

CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Tuesday, November 13th at 7:00—9:00 PM

Leslie Goddard, Ph.D., is an award-winning actress and scholar, who has been portraying famous women and presenting history lectures for more than ten years. She holds a Ph.D. from Northwestern University specializing in U.S. history and American Studies, as well as master’s degrees in both theater and museum studies. A former museum director, she is the author of two books on Chicago history and currently works full-time as a historical interpreter, author, and public speaker.

Few American houses enjoy as lavish a holiday season as the White House. In this beautifully illustrated talk, historian Leslie Goddard, Ph.D. discusses the traditions that bring Christmas alive inside America’s most famous address. Learn the history of the gingerbread house tradition begun by Pat Nixon, the National Christmas Tree lit by Calvin Coolidge, and the thousands of ornaments created by artists around the country over the years. Did you know Dwight Eisenhower and Jackie Kennedy used their own paintings on Christmas cards? Or that Andrew Jackson once hosted an indoor snowball fight? Take an insider’s view of one of the most historic homes in the world during the most magical time of the year.

THIS EVENT WILL FILL UP QUICKLY — RESERVE EARLY!!

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptismal Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
