Baptism of the Lord

January 13, 2019
Pastor’s Letter

Christmas is More than a Day!

Since Christmas, we’ve been celebrating feast after feast. The great epiphany we discover in our spiritual life is that through Jesus, God is with us. Sometimes it’s good to take a step back and reflect on all we’ve realized during this short, but holy, Christmas season.

On December 25, we heard the angels proclaim the great revelation: “Today in the city of David, a savior has been born for you who is Messiah and Lord” (Luke 2:11, emphasis mine). The greatest Christmas gift we could ever receive is Christ himself, which is also the message of the Eucharist.

The Sunday after Christmas Day, on the feast of the Holy Family, we took some time to realize that just like we are born into a family, so was Christ. The family is the first society we find ourselves in. It’s where we learn how to love and receive love, but it’s not perfect. What we realize is that Jesus—who is with us and for us—understands what it means to be a part of a family. So when we struggle in family life, he’s a perfect person to go to and pray it through. The center of a family is Christ, which makes it holy.

On the first day of the new year, we celebrated the motherhood of Mary. When we realize Jesus is God the Son, we also realize that makes Mary the Mother of God. The title isn’t meant to deify Mary, but like all things involving her, it points to her Son revealing his title and who he is: God with us.

Last Sunday, we heard the story of the journey of the Magi to see Jesus. We call it the feast of the Epiphany, because their journey led them to discover that Jesus was more than a great human king sent into history to deliver greatness. Instead, he is greatness because of who he is—the Christ, the Messiah, the long awaited Chosen One who saved us, the very thing proclaimed by the angels.

This Sunday, we find ourselves concluding the Christmas Season celebrating the Baptism of the Lord. The one who came for us—God the Son—is affirmed by God the Father and sent through God the Holy Spirit to bring good news into the world.

The Christmas Season prepares us for all that follows. It reveals that the God of creation, the Almighty and All-powerful, is also as close to us as the Eucharist we take into our hearts. Christ stays with us, and we desire nothing more than to stay with him. Christmas is the meeting place.

So, as we conclude our Christmas journey together, once again it launches us into Ordinary Time and into what’s next: discovering what it means to be a disciple of Christ. I’m looking forward to going on the journey with you!

—Fr. Mike

Unity. What does "unity" mean? For those of us who claim Christ as our model of living and savior of humanity, it means we are one. This year the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has as its theme the Scripture citation 2 Corinthians 5:14-20. The first line contains our mission statement... "For the love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore all have died." If that is not a mandate for unity, then there is none. We are one in the death of Christ and therefore live in unity with all other Christians.

God, who are unity in three holy persons--Father, Son, and Holy Spirit--you have called us to live in peace with all people. You have also called us to work toward unity in purpose to spread the Gospel to all nations. Graciously give us the courage and strength to work toward unity, and act toward each other as brothers and sisters.

We ask this in the unity of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

The Baptism of the Lord

Today's readings are full of expectation. What are you waiting for? How do you need God to come and rescue you from injustices, or deliver you from evil, or comfort you as you wait for loved ones to turn their hearts back to God? What guidance have you been seeking while feeling confused and uncertain?

Do you feel Christ's gift of peace within you as you wait expectantly? Or do you feel impatient?

In the Gospel, we see John the Baptist's congregation filled with expectancy because they hoped that he was their finally-arrived Messiah. Yearning for God to intervene against injustices, foreign oppression, and sin, they latched onto the fiery enthusiasm of John and his baptism of repentance.

God, however, had something much better in mind, more complete. The real Messiah would baptize with the purifying fire of the Holy Spirit. Whereas John could only call people to repentance, the real Messiah would empower them to grow in holiness by giving them his own Spirit of holiness.

When Jesus submitted himself to John's baptism, it was not because he needed to repent; he was sinless. He was uniting himself to our need for repentance, thus starting his ministry of delivering us from evil and eventually take our sins to the cross.

In baptism, we are immersed into the holiness of Jesus as well as his ministry, his priesthood, his prophetic sharing of the Good News, his servant leadership, and yes, his sufferings for the benefit of others. The Holy Spirit empowers us to do as Jesus did, and the Father says, "You are my beloved child; with you I am well pleased!"

What do you expect? What do you think should happen in your daily life because of your baptism? Expectation is a good attitude -- unless it's based on impatience, which usually leads to disappointment. Expectation that's based on the goodness of God and what he wants for us is the attitude that brings us joy, greater faith, and even miracles.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What would you like to expect from God this year?
2. Is this something that he wants for you?
3. How might things turn out differently -- but better -- than what you imagine should happen?
4. Name some of the baptismal promises that God makes in his covenant with us. How do know he keeps his promises?
5. Share the story of a time when an answer to prayer turned out better than you expected.
At one point in her novel, Men and Angels, Mary Gordon describes a young mother who, each day has a little ritual as she waits for her children to come home from school. She sets a chair by the window so she can lean on it. In that way she can see her children as they run up to the house but she can also use the chair to steady herself. For indeed, some days, she needs it because when she sees her children running up to the house, with their coats undone and with their books and backpacks flying all about, she is so overcome with love, so overwhelmed with the need to protect, that she feels her heart is about to erupt and she gets weak and needs something to lean on to keep her balance.

That picture can serve as an icon for it is an image of how God loves us. God is looking at us in just that way right now. Why do I say that? Because this is what scripture reveals.

When the angels announce Jesus’ birth, they say this: “Glory to God in the highest and peace to those on earth who enjoy God’s favor.” (Luke 2, 14) The last part of that sentence might more accurately be translated like this, “and peace to those who receive God’s pleasure, who realize that God takes pleasure in them.” Given Mary Gordon’s image, we might paraphrase this to read: “Life will come to those who realize that God, when he looks at us, is so overcome with tenderness that he needs a celestial chair with which to steady himself.”

That is an incredible belief, but it is part of the essence of our creed. To say that we believe in God, as Jesus revealed God, is to believe that God takes pleasure in loving us, that it gives God delight to be our parent, and that God takes joy in continually offering us forgiveness and love. To believe that God sees us in this way is to make an act of faith in the God that Jesus revealed. Moreover, what is important is that we draw life from believing this. How? How does the realization that God takes pleasure in loving us give us life? We see the illustration in Jesus himself.

When Jesus’ head emerged from the waters of the Jordan as he is being baptized by John, the gospels say the skies opened and a voice from heaven said: “You are my beloved son, in you I take delight.” In many ways, this was the turning point in Jesus’ life. Prior to this, he had lived his “hidden life”; hidden not just in that his years of anonymity in Nazareth opposed his public life, but hidden especially in that, until hearing those words, Jesus’ real identity was as hidden from him. Now, with these words searing his soul and circumcising his heart, Jesus knows his true identity. He is the beloved child who gives God pleasure. From that realization, that he so enjoys God’s favor, he draws his stability, his unique capacity for altruism, his exceptional courage, and that deep joy that nobody and no event can ever take away from him. Jesus knows that he gives God pleasure and from that he draws his life.

Mary Gordon’s description of the young mother contains essentially the same idea: Imagine if these children could ever appropriate what that mother feels when seeing them. If they could ever really accept this, they would draw from it an identity, a stability, a capacity for altruism and courage, and a joy that nothing could ever strip them of. If they realized what their presence did for their mother they would then (this is the biblical term) begin to enjoy her favor. From that, life would begin to well up within them for they would know blessing.

Biblically this is what it means to be blessed. You are blessed, receive a blessing, when you draw life from someone else’s pleasure in loving you. As the angels themselves put it at Jesus’ birth: “Peace on earth to those who can receive God’s pleasure.”

But how to believe that? What is so difficult in the act of faith is not to believe that God exists or that the world of spirit is just as real as the physical world or that Jesus rose from the dead. What is harder to believe is that, right now, at this moment, despite everything that suggests that we are unworthy and despite all sin and infidelity, God is looking at us in the exact same way as the young mother Mary Gordon describes looked at her children – with a heart so full of tenderness and pleasure that He/She feels dizzy and must lean on some celestial chair for support. Such is God’s pleasure in loving us. Such is what Jesus revealed. If we could ever accept that we would begin to understand more exactly what the angels meant when the announced Jesus’ birth.

EMOTIONAL ABUSE

"The scars from mental cruelty can be as deep and long-lasting as wounds from punches or slaps but are often not as obvious."

"Psychological invalidation is one of the most lethal forms of emotional abuse. It kills confidence, creativity and individuality."

"Overcoming abuse doesn’t just happen, it takes positive steps every day. Let today be the day you start to move forward."

Boy Scout Troop 399 says

Thank You!
The Boy Scouts would like to thank the parishioners for their support with the recent Christmas Wreath sale. Thanks to your generosity, the Scouts sold a record 75 wreaths over one weekend. These funds will help provide new camping equipment, training equipment and program supplies for the year.

To all Liturgical Ministers:
Please send all unavailable dates for the months of March through May to Jackie Green no later than January 25th. Her e-mail is jaygee222@sbcglobal.net.

FROM THE BUSINESS OFFICE:

Our current tax exempt letter expires on March 1, 2019. A new letter has not been released by the Archdiocese yet. When it becomes available, we will let you know.
January is Sanctity of Life Month, when we remember and pray for the unborn, their beautiful mothers, and for the end of abortion.

TLC Pregnancy Center/Life Choices in Schaumburg offers free services to many local women in unplanned pregnancy situations each month. Your change will help provide free services for moms and babies in need, including: pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, diapers, baby clothing and other “must haves,” counseling, parenting classes, and mentoring programs.

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you after Mass on January 19th or 20th. Fill it with your spare change, and return it on February 16th or 17th.

This is a simple, but crucial fundraising effort for The TLC Pregnancy Center. We would be so grateful if you could fill a bottle with coins, bills, or a check. The money given now will affect families now and for years to come!

* PLEASE RETURN FULL (or partly full!) BOTTLES AT THE END OF THE PROJECT. THE WOTTLC CENTER RECYCLCES THE BOTTLES and NEEDS YOUR DILIGENCE IN THIS MATTER! THANK YOU! *

WE NEED NEW CHRISTMAS CARDS

We need to replenish our supply of Christmas cards for the upcoming year. Every Advent, the 7th grade Religious Ed students write out cards for local nursing homes. The residents truly appreciate being remembered in this way. What we need are UNUSED, UNWRITTEN in cards. Many stores are discounting prices after the holiday. If you get some in the mail from charities, we would welcome those too. We prefer cards that are religious in nature, but will be happy with any you can donate. There will be a collection box in the narthex for the next two weeks.

Thank you very much and Happy New Year!

Sacraments and Social Mission
Living the Gospel, Being Disciples

St. Hubert Church ~ Lower Level of the Church
729 Grand Canyon - Hoffman Estates, IL
Presenter Sr. Glenna Czchor, OSF

The sacraments the Church celebrates are signs of grace that make a deeper reality present to us. One reality we encounter through the sacraments is Christ’s presence in the Church community, his body. This recognition of Christ’s presence in the community leads to a stronger awareness of being sent on mission to engage in concrete, love-inspired action in the world.
Join us for this 7-part series in which we will:
- explore the themes and documents of Catholic Social Teaching
- make connections to the social issues and concerns of today
- engage in scripture study and small group sharing
- face the challenge towards action and advocacy

Sr. Glenna Czchor, OSF is a Wheaton Franciscan Sister with more than 25 years’ experience in group facilitation and retreat leadership, specializing in contemplative prayer and worship, scripture study, and creative spirituality. She holds a Masters of Pastoral Studies from the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, and is a graduate of the Hesychia School of Spiritual Direction of Tucson, AZ. At Tau Center, in Wheaton, IL Sr.
Glenna serves as a Community Outreach & Retreat specialist.

A parishioner, Patrick Fleming, has offered to repair broken rosaries. There will be drop off receptacles at the ministry station in the narthex, and rosaries can be dropped off there. (The Ministry Station is the large brown cabinet by the main entrance on the South side of the church. There are slots on the left side of the station, and the receptacle for Rosary drop off is marked.) Patrick suggests putting any rosary to be repaired in an envelope with your name and phone number on it for return purposes. When repaired, we will call you to let you know you can pick it up.

Please donate any unused, broken rosaries so that their parts can be used to repair member’s rosaries.

In addition to repairing rosaries, Patrick makes rosaries for the missions, and he also accepts any rosaries people wish to donate. Those can also be dropped off in the narthex in the receptacle marked “Rosaries.”

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
