8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,’ when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye?” - Lk 6:42a
This Sunday, we conclude Jesus’ great Sermon on the Plain, which gives us much to think about as we head into the Lenten season. Ash Wednesday is just three days away! Jesus shares three parables with us. One is about the blind leading the blind. One cautions us about noticing faults in others without acknowledging our own. And the last reminds us that the words that come out of our mouths often reflect what’s happening in the heart.

It leads us to a realization how important it is in our world today to anchor our lives to Christ—to pray every day, to be connected to his words and teaching, and to become aware of how we can help those around us. In other words, how important it is to follow the One who leads us.

It’s a perfect segue into Lent, which is meant to be a reflective time for prayer, fasting and almsgiving. It’s a time to look within our hearts and minds so that we can work on the things that will help us be the best person we can be—even if we’re going through difficult times, or find ourselves in the midst of struggles, pain, joys or doubts.

What a life in Christ helps us to see, is that God is with us in all of our life’s experiences. His blessing is realized within.

We are who we are. And we’re not alone. We have a guide in life, an advocate, a friend who also happens to be the savior of the world. (See the gospels for the ways he reveals all these things.)

I invite you to experience this prayerful season with our family of faith. In this bulletin, you’ll find many different ways to engage in the season—through our communal prayer, reconciliation, our Lenten mission (which will be here this year and presented by our own Deacon Allen), and our annual almsgiving project, Operation Rice Bowl. Together, we journey toward Christ, who we discover is at the center of who we are.

May God bless us on the journey we’re about to enter. May Christ be our light that helps us see.

A blind person, in the analogy that Jesus makes in this Sunday’s Gospel reading, is anyone who cannot see things in the light of truth. It can be due to sin or ignorance, but it’s always dangerous. There are many wrong decisions that we bump into when we don’t see things the way God sees them. We make mistakes that hurt us and others. We feel safe with temptations that lead us away from God.

Here are four popular lies that are ruining lives by leading people into spiritual blindness, followed by the truths that everyone needs to know.

1. Your happiness is the most important goal. To achieve it:
2. Put yourself first.
3. Trust your feelings.
4. If you dream it, you can have it.

This never works. Happiness is elusive or, at best, short. So people try even harder, stuck in the trap of these lies. When it still doesn’t work, they get rightfully angry, but at others, blaming others. Conflicts worsen. Anger increases. Violence is the eventual outcome, and spiritual hell.

The only way that does work is what Jesus revealed.

1. Happiness is based on externals, which you cannot control very long. Joy, on the other hand, comes from within and is discovered when you understand that God loves you so much that he gave you his only begotten Son to conquer evil and lead you to the eternal joy of heaven.

2. When you lay down your life for others, you experience fulfillment from making a difference, and this is a great joy. And it unites you to Christ, bringing heaven to earth.

3. Realize your natural tendency to sin and the limitations of your finite brain, which make it easy to misinterpret everything. Do not trust your own understanding. Feelings can change quickly. Receive the infilling of the Holy Spirit so you can discern God’s guidance. Trust only God.

4. When you seek to know God’s dreams for you, you develop vision. You discover which talents, knowledge, and experiences will give you your greatest fulfillment, because he had these in mind when he created you. And when you work hard to make these dreams come true, forsaking distractions, persisting past obstacles, and accepting the lessons that are hidden in hardships, you realize the best that life can offer.

Reflect & Discuss:
1. Which of the four lies described above have you been blinded by?
2. How has believing them made you feel?
3. Give an example for each of the four truths described above.
4. How has each one given you joy? How do they help you see Jesus more clearly?

No sound tree produces rotten fruit

Those living in rural areas are more familiar with nature and their surroundings than those living in cities and suburban places. Rural children can easily identify trees that produce good fruit and those which do not. Pollination and cross-pollination could be the cause of deformity in the tree of a particular species. Even if a bad tree produces abundantly, children avoid picking fruit from such a tree, but gravitate toward a tree that bears good fruit. Although the trees have different owners, the rural children know them by name and location, and may pick fruits without owner’s knowledge for their enjoyment. You are a tree planted in God’s vineyard. What kind of fruit do you produce? Does the fruit from your tree bring people closer to God? Will your fruit lead you and others to life eternal?

Unlike any other creature, man is endowed with reason and will. Hence, man can choose between good and evil to build his character and become a noble person. The author of the book of Ecclesiastes says, “The orchard where the tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man’s words betray what he feels,” to describe a person who is never sure, since the person freely mixes truth and falsehood when they speaks. Such a person has the tongue of a viper, and it seems to inject poison whenever he or she speaks. Subsequently, the author of the book of Ecclesiastes says, “Do not praise a man before he has spoken, since this is the test of men.” But, people who are always sincere in their conversation leave us in no doubt about what they mean by what they say. The heart of such people is like a spring gushing out fresh water; people gladly listen to them; their words are the fruit of the love within them.

Jesus offers divine wisdom that only God can teach. This wisdom calls us to rise above ordinary hypocrisy and false pride and to speak like children of light and truth. To do this, we must be light and truth interiorly, so that whatever we say may be a light to those who listen, and an invitation to people to become better. Jesus invites his listeners to become messengers of truth and of love at all times, as He himself was. Only faith in Jesus enables a person to yield the fruits of sincerity and love in abundance. Those who refuse to accept Jesus’ teachings, which came from the Father, refuse the light, thus becoming voluntarily blind. Hence, Jesus says, “Can one blind man guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit.”

“A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man’s words flow out of what fills his heart.” God presented us with the gift of speech that we may spread joy and love whenever we speak, just as He did. Jesus encouraged Peter to follow Him: Do not be afraid; from now on it is men you will catch. To the paralytic: My son, you sins are forgiven you. To the widow of Nain: Woman, do not cry. To Jairus’ daughter: Little girl, get up. To the thief on the cross: I promise you, today you will be with me in paradise. To the heart broken apostles after resurrection: Peace be with you. Those who truly embrace Jesus in faith and live as children of light and truth will hear Jesus say, “Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world.”

I have been thinking about Lent a lot lately. Every year I would give up all sweets, but 2 years ago I started to “DO SOMETHING EXTRA” instead of doing without. If finally dawned on me this year, that I should do both! A good example would be to give up certain groceries I love and not go to Starbucks during Lent. (Oh no, why did I have to think of Starbucks as I’m writing this?) Take that extra money and purchase much needed food for the people in “OUR” neighborhood. Reflecting on this while I’m sitting here, I can’t help but believe that Jesus would say this is a WIN-WIN situation! Why not join my new “Win-Win” plan and see how it works for you?

Collection dates are March 2nd & 3rd. Thanks everyone!

Lenten Madness Who will win the Golden Halo?
Lent Madness began in 2010 as the brainchild of the Rev. Tim Schenck. In seeking a fun, engaging way for people to learn about the men and women comprising the Church’s Calendar of Saints, The format is straightforward: 32 saints are placed into a tournament-like single elimination bracket. Each pairing remains open for a set period of time and people vote for their favorite saint. 16 saints make it to the Round of the Saintly Sixteen; eight advance to the Round of the Elate Eight; four make it to the Faithful Four; two to the Championship; and the winner is awarded the coveted Golden Halo. The first round consists of basic biographical information about each of the 32 saints. Things get a bit more interesting in the subsequent rounds as we offer quotes and quirks, explore legends, and even move into the area of saintly kitsch.

BECOMING AWARE OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Could you graduate from Harvard and still not realize you are marrying an abuser after he choked you five days before your wedding? Would you marry him anyway?

This happened to Leslie Morgan Steiner! Like her, this happens all too often to those who do not know what domestic violence is or ignore the early warning signs of a potentially abusive relationship.

- Domestic violence happens to people of every educational and socioeconomic level and in all races, religions and age groups.
- You don’t have to wait for someone to treat you bad repeatedly. All it takes is once, and if they get away with it that once, if they know they can treat you like that, then it sets the pattern for the future.
- Domestic abuse, also called intimate partner violence, is the systematic suffocation of another person’s spirit.
- Not knowing the dynamics of domestic violence threatens our children, our family members, and our community.

Brought to you by St. Hubert Parish’s Domestic Violence Outreach Ministry

If you or someone you know is being abused, seek help today. In an emergency, please dial 911. For all other help, please call: Illinois Statewide Domestic Violence Helpline 877 TO END DV (877-863-6338), 877-863-6339 TTY. They can direct you to the best place for your individual situation.
Join your future parish priests for Science Day at Mundelein Seminary on Saturday, March 9 at 9:00 AM. The event includes a lecture on the topic of “What Makes Us Human?” followed by breakout discussion groups led by seminarians to address the spiritual aspects of that question. This event is free and lunch is included. Parish groups are encouraged to attend and the talk will be suitable for high school age and above. ### Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
