Happy St. Patrick’s Day!

On St. Patrick’s Day, a lot of people love to be Irish. We wear green, we enjoy a little corned beef and cabbage or soda bread, and we look for a little bit o’ luck and wisdom; maybe even a blessing.

We’re told whoever kisses the Blarney Stone is blessed with the gift of gab. I was there in 1999, kissed the stone, and have been waiting ever since!

But even if I didn’t get the grace of the gift when I was there, what I enjoyed instead was the kindness of the people and listening to stories and songs that move the heart.

In the gospel today, we hear the powerful story of the Transfiguration. Jesus takes Peter, James and John up the mountain to pray. And there, in the midst of prayer, Jesus is transformed before their eyes and joined by Moses and Elijah.

Peter didn’t have the gift of gab at that moment. Instead, he tried to extend the incredible experience. He told Jesus, “Master, it is good that we are here.” So, he offered to build three tents so they would stay around. (Even Luke confesses, “he didn’t know what he was saying!”)

But, maybe like a lot of us, he simply wanted to keep the moment alive. He wanted to listen and enjoy the gift of faith with three very important people who lived it. He wanted to listen to the One who God the Father tells us to listen to.

What we realize in hearing this incredible story, is that prayer leads to insight because it leads us to open our hearts to listen. In listening to Jesus—in the Scripture and in the prayerful silence of our heart and soul—our lives become fuller and more centered. We see others as an important part of our lived experience, as we love God and ourselves. And we begin to appreciate the blessings that God has given us, not only to enrich our lives, but to bless the lives of those around us.

Whether it’s the gift of gab, the gift to listen, the gift to create art or music, or whatever talent we have, it’s God given. And like the Irish, we turn to the One who blesses us, with gratitude. So, may the road rise up to meet us. May the wind be ever at our back. May the sun be warm upon our face. And may God hold us always in the palm of his hand.

—Fr. Mike

Pray For...
2nd Sunday of Lent

This Sunday, we see Jesus reveal the uncreated light of his true identity and we hear the Father say, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him."

We experience Christ's deepest identity every time we listen to him and allow the Holy Spirit to enlighten our understanding of his words and guidance.

By listening to him, we let his uncreated light consume the darkness that still lingers within us. Then, the people around us experience more of him, because they meet him in us -- in our actions, in our compassion, in our forgiveness, etc. This is evangelization!

Lent is a time of concentrating on our need for Christ to shed his light into our areas of darkness. When we let Jesus enlighten us so that we repent (which means change), seeking and receiving forgiveness and the Holy Spirit's power to change, we become more like Christ. We shine more brilliantly with him. And we enter more fully into his ministry of redeeming the world. Although there is suffering in this ministry, we know that the pain of Good Friday is always followed by the victory of Easter.

It's in the trials and sacrifices of life -- our own crucifixions -- where our holiness changes the world. Do we dare follow Jesus all the way to Calvary? It's the only way to get to Easter! Our trials are his blood being shed again. Our pains are his pains. We're already on the cross with Jesus! So why not embrace this extreme intimacy with him for the sake of those who've scourged us and betrayed us?

By loving those who don't love us, forgiving those who mistreat us, and working hard to replace evil with the kingdom of God, we reveal the light of Christ to those who live in darkness.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Think of a redemption you've experienced, an area of darkness in your life that Jesus shed his light upon when he inspired you to repent. How has this change increased your holiness?

2. What is he inviting you to change now, something that's been difficult to look at or hard to overcome? What would you like to hear from Jesus that will help you turn this darkness into holiness? After you figure it out, take this to the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

3. Why is the Passion of Christ your passion? What crosses are you carrying that you hope will help Christ redeem the world from sin and darkness?

4. How does your cross purify your own holiness?

There’s a growing body of literature today that chronicles the experience of persons who were clinically dead for a period of time (minutes or hours) and were medically resuscitated and brought back to life. Many of us, for example, are familiar with Dr. Eben Alexander’s book, Proof of Heaven: A Neurosurgeon’s Journey into the Afterlife. More recently Hollywood produced a movie, Miracles from Heaven, which portrays the true story of a young Texas girl who was clinically dead, medically revived, and who shares what she experienced in the afterlife.

There are now hundreds of stories like this, gathered through dozens of years, published or simply shared with loved ones. What’s interesting (and consoling) is that virtually all these stories are wonderfully positive, irrespective of the person’s faith or religious background. In virtually every case their experience, while partially indescribable, was one in which they felt a warm, personal, overwhelming sense of love, light, and welcome, and not a few of them found themselves meeting relatives of theirs that had passed on before them, sometimes even relatives that they didn’t know they had. As well, in virtually every case, they did not want to return to life here but, like Peter on the Mountain of the Transfiguration, wanted to stay there.

Recently while speaking at conference, I referenced this literature and pointed out that, among other things, it seems everyone goes to heaven when they die. This, of course, immediately sparked a spirited discussion: “What about hell? Aren’t we judged when we die? Doesn’t anyone go to hell?” My answer to those questions, which need far more nuance than are contained in a short soundbite, was that while we all go to heaven when we die, depending upon our moral and spiritual disposition, we might not want to stay there. Hell, as Jesus assures us, is a real option; though, as Jesus also assures us, we judge ourselves. God puts no one to hell. Hell is our choice.

However it was what happened after this discussion that I want to share here: A woman approached me as I was leaving and told me that she had had this exact experience. She had been clinically dead for some minutes and then revived through medical resuscitation. And, just like the experience of all the others in the literature around this issue, she too experienced a wonderful warmth, light, and welcome, and did not want to return to life here on earth. Inside of all of this warmth and love however what she remembers most and most wants to share with others is this: I learned that God is very close. We have no idea how close God is to us. God is closer to us than we ever imagine! Her experience has left her forever branded with a sense of God’s warmth, love, and welcome, but what’s left the deepest brand of all inside her is the sense of God’s closeness.

I was struck by this because, like millions of others, I generally don’t feel that closeness, or at least don’t feel it very affectively or imaginatively. God can seem pretty far away, abstract and impersonal, a Deity with millions of things to worry about without having to worry about the minutiae of my small life.

Moreover, as Christians, we believe that God is infinite and ineffable. This means that while we can know God, we can never imagine God. Given that truth, it makes it even harder for us to imagine that the infinite Creator and Sustainer of all things is intimately and personally present inside us, worrying with, sharing our heartaches, and knowing our most guarded feelings.

Compounding this is the fact that whenever we do try to imagine God’s person our imaginations come up against the unimaginable. For example, try to imagine this: There are billions of persons on this earth and billions more have lived on this earth before us. At this very minute, thousands of people are being born, thousands are dying, thousands are sinning, thousands are doing virtuous acts, thousands are making love, thousands are experiencing violence, thousands are feeling their hearts swelling with joy, all of this part of trillions upon trillions of phenomena. How can one heart, one mind, one person be consciously on top of all of this and so fully aware and empathetic that no hair falls from our heads or sparrow from the sky without this person taking notice? It’s impossible to imagine, pure and simple, and that’s part of the very definition of God.

How can God be as close to us as we are to ourselves? Partly this is mystery, and wisdom bids us befriend mystery because anything we can understand is not very deep! The mystery of God’s intimate, personal presence inside us is beyond our imaginations. But everything within our faith tradition and now most everything in the testimony of hundreds of people who have experienced the afterlife assure us that, while God may be infinite and ineffable, God is very close to us, closer than we imagine.

Transfiguration

The Transfiguration of the Lord is a pivotal moment in the life of the Jesus, also for the apostles, and for the whole of humanity. In the transfiguration, Jesus is assured of his ministry, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” The apparition of Moses and Elijah affirms and confirms the one continuous salvation history, which reached to its pinnacle in Jesus. The apostles witnessed the conversion of the Old and the New Testament as well as, the eternal reality, as space and time was suspended momentarily. This event prefigures the resurrection in order to encourage the apostles, as they will witness the gruesome and humiliating death of Jesus. Now, the whole of human race can take comfort, knowing that eternal life is God’s promise for all those who listen to his Son Jesus.

Abraham experienced the sublime gift of God in his total trust and fidelity in God’s promise. The profound faith of Abraham in his willingness to sacrifice his only son is a testimony of a soul desiring to dwell with God. Abraham truly understood that God is the author of life; life comes from God and it must return to Him. Although God spared the son of Abraham, God will not spare his Son Jesus, but will hand Him over to be crucified. It was important to save the life of Isaac to continue the descendants of Abraham, but the blood of Jesus was essential to restore the identity of the children of God. The voice of the Father confirms this important mystery of salvation as He pronounced the judgment, “This is my beloved Son, listen to him.”

The awe experience overwhelmed the apostles that in their ecstasy Peter spoke, “Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” Indeed, the glimpse of eternal reward filled the apostle with joy and happiness beyond description. The eternal reward is the ultimate desire of the rational soul. God does not want to deny it to anybody, but joyfully and unconditionally share it with all His children. Therefore, in prayerful reflection, we have to listen to the melody of our soul, desiring to rise and be with God. The melody of our soul is often overshadowed by faulty worldly desires. It is not surprising; the world always sings its own melody, which contrasts the good, the ultimate good of the rational soul.

During this season of Lent, let us walk with the Lord in prayer, fasting and almsgiving, to Mount Tabor to experience the Transfiguration. Like the apostles, our soul will sing the endless praise of God’s goodness, mercies and forgiveness. We would be encouraged to rise above the ordinary mire of human desires, to always seek the eternal reward. The disciples of Jesus will face the trials and tribulations with faith, hope and charity. The challenge we have at hand is to protect the religious freedom, as we hear the voice, “This is my beloved Son, listen to Him.” The transfigured Lord reminds us that respect and dignity for human life from conception to natural death is paramount to understand and avail the gift of God with humility and faith, like Abraham.

THE ELECT RETURN TO OUR CARE and PRAYER

Do you know what it looks like to be an everyday disciple of Jesus?

On Sunday, March 10, the adults and children in the RCIA and CMI process—our Catechumens and Candidates requested the parish’s approval to receive the Easter sacraments. Their godparents, sponsors and the RCIA team loudly affirmed their serious entry into the Catholic way of life and the evidence of conversion in their lives. Then the Eucharistic assembly completed the discernment process by affirming the RCIA and CMI members’ readiness.

Celebrating the Rite of Election at Holy Name Cathedral, our RCIA journeyers were part of more than 450 peers from many parishes of the archdiocese, all of whom are entering the final period of preparation for initiation at the Easter Vigil. Their excitement is high. Their eagerness is a delight. They are God’s gift to us as we are to them.

Please continue to pray for them all during this Lenten Season, “Period of Purification and Enlightenment.”

Our Catechumens (to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) are now the “Elect.”

Our Candidate to be received into full communion and our Catholics completing their sacraments of initiation (Confirmation and Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil.

Bishop Mark Bartosic celebrated the Rite of Election. On Sunday evening he conveyed to all of them the importance of being a disciple of Christ. The greatest calling a person can have is to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus Himself has called us to follow Him on this way that leads to more abundant life. When we follow Jesus, everything matters and everything counts. Whether it's at your work, around your neighborhood, or in your home, true discipleship entails God's people living normal lives with gospel intentionality.

Is that not what Lent urges all of us to do? Let us pray for them – and for one another. We’re all in this together and it is good for us to be here!

At the RCIA Kiosk please feel free to take a flyer of those in RCIA and CMI. If you wish you may want to write them a note.

Eucharistic Adoration & Inspirational Music

The purpose of Lent is to be a season of fasting, self-denial, spiritual growth, conversion, and simplicity. Lent, which comes from the Teutonic word for springtime, can be viewed as a spiritual spring cleaning: a time for taking a spiritual inventory, and then cleaning out those things which hinder our personal relationships with Jesus Christ and our service to him.

We invite you to join us for this spirit-filled evening of prayer, song, and silence; to reflect upon our own Lenten calling for prayer, fasting, abstinence, and almsgiving. Don’t miss this opportunity to deepen your personal relationship with the Lord.

Students at St. Hubert Catholic School recently celebrated Catholic Schools Week. During this week students reflected on why Catholic Education and being a student at St. Hubert School is important to them. The essay below is by Taryn L. in 7th grade. This is one of many wonderful student thoughts on the importance of a Catholic Education at St. Hubert School!

Knight Pride

I am proud to be a St. Hubert Student. St. Hubert is my home – I’ve been here since I was 3 years old. Currently, I’m in the 7th Grade and still love it! It has been a great foundation for me. I received the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Eucharist. Next year I am planning on the Sacrament of Confirmation. My future is bright as can be because of St. Hubert.

In St. Hubert, the standards of education are set high. We get a great education and are determined to succeed. We strive to work our hardest and achieve academics. Our teachers do their best to provide the necessary materials. They are dedicated, but also make our learning experience fun. We adjust to our own speeds of learning so that it’s just right for us.

Being a part of St. Hubert means new friendships and advancements throughout the years. I get along with my classmates and respect everyone. The rules set in our school make us stronger. We follow an infraction sheet to make sure our programs are running smoothly. We even recently invested in iPads. The iPads provide a nice learning experience and allow us to adapt to new technology. Without St. Hubert, I wouldn’t have the wonderful friends, teachers, and education that I do. Thank you St. Hubert!

Managing Caregiver Responsibilities with Support

Caregiving can be a rewarding experience, as it can give you a chance to develop a deeper connection with a loved one. It can also be extremely stressful and physically exhausting. Many caregivers report not only emotional strain but financial worries as well.

Caregivers often forget to take care of one of the most important people in their world: themselves. But remember: you can only care for others if you take care of you. Find resources and inspiration to help you recharge.

Caregivers need to obtain tools and support in order to have a positive outlook, minimize stress, and thus avoid possible use of verbal or physical abuse.

Besides possibly hiring a caregiver from a senior home care company, here are some other ways to help the emotional strain and learn you are not alone. (Senior home care companies offer caregivers for a few hours a week up to 24 hour a day.)

Kenneth Young Center, 1001 Rohlwing Road, Elk Grove Village 847-524-8800 Daxa Sanghvi at Ext. 168. Some services are not income based. They have a caregiver support group and Memory Café. A Memory Café holds engaging activities like interactive games, live entertainment, and shared meals to encourage and support healthy relationships among people living with dementia and their caregivers. Call for information on all their services.

Arlington Heights Senior Center, 1801 W. Central Road, Arlington Heights 847-253-5532. The Memory Café, which is held on the second Tuesday of each month at 10 am, is for people with mild dementia and their caregivers. Those interested must sign up. The caregiver support group, which is provided by Catholic Charities, is held on the third Wednesday of every month at 7 pm. The Caregivers for Dementia group meets on the second Monday of every month at 12:30 pm.

Hanover Township (240 S. Route 59, Bartlett 630-483-5600 extension social services) also hosts a Memory Café and a memory support group.

Trinity Lutheran in Roselle has Adult Day Care Facilities. Please call Nancy at 630-894-3810 for more information. Cherished Place (800 W. Oakton St., Arlington Heights 800-385-2527) also offers adult day care.

HEALING GRACE

Grief Support Ministry

Begins April 3

When a death occurs, life for those who live on, changes forever. We recognize this change and would like to offer hope and comfort to those who mourn. In trying to move on after the death of a loved one, some wonder when the pain will go away, or if it ever will. Some wonder where life is headed. Understanding the commonalities of the grief journey can help us to heal and move on.

This six-session series is facilitated by Linda Engle & Charlene Kryszak. The meetings will take place in the Office Building – Room 120, beginning promptly at 7:00 PM and ending at 8:30 PM, on April 3, 10, 17, 24, May 1, & 8. Since each session builds on the previous one, group members are asked to hold open the above dates. Please call Sister Marianne at 847-882-7580 or e-mail: Marianne.s@churchoftheholyspirit.org to learn more about the sessions and reserve your spot.
Frank Casella and Bishop Perry have organized exceptional Men’s Conferences for many years. I have been fortunate enough to attend for years before entering seminary. The Chicago Catholic Men’s Forum conferences have been instrumental in helping me build a strong spiritual foundation to be a good man. This conference in particular promises to be rich in rewards as the speaker, Fr. Tom McCarthy, OSA is incredibly gifted. I hope that you consider spending a Saturday morning this Lent with other Catholic men praying and growing into better husbands, fathers, and sons.

Thank you for assisting our “Dine-2-Donate” event. We realize that every dollar counts and we will do our best to provide a fun atmosphere with high quality food and service to make a memorable and profitable experience for your organization. Here’s how it works. It is an all-day event, so you can come for lunch, dinner or both (open to close). You can bring your business colleagues from work for lunch and then the family for dinner! Make sure you bring a flyer for each visit.

- These flyers may be copied and passed out to anyone and everyone PRIOR to the scheduled event. ANYONE suspected of passing out flyers on the day of the event on VTG property may cause a penalty deduction or forfeit the entire donation.
- This flyer must be turned in to your server at the time of payment along with a copy of your bill in order to receive credit for the donation. Once you’ve left the building you may not return with a flyer to apply to a bill.
