2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 28, 2019
The Good News of Easter

Signs and Wonders

In the gospel today, Jesus appears to his apostles in the upper room for the first time after rising from the dead. John tells us he breathed on them so that they could receive the Holy Spirit.

It’s what eventually sent them into the world so that they could bring the good news of Easter to others. Jesus died and rose to bring us into a life with God that is never meant to end. Jesus has great mercy on us, which we know as his Divine Mercy.

In the first reading, we hear the results of the apostle’s faith. We see how they started their work in the world and how they performed “many signs and wonders” (Acts 5:12) that attracted others to want what they discovered. And maybe what attracted so many was nothing more than realizing a life in Christ is life-giving—for ourselves and others.

It’s in the signs and wonders of goodness, kindness, compassion and mercy. And the signs and wonders that amazed the early Christians are still happening in our world, even until this very day...especially here at St. Hubert. We see signs and wonders all the time. And here are just a few from recent weeks:

- Feeding the Hungry. Our St. Hubert 8th Graders teamed up once again with our Encore 55+ group on a joint work of charity. On Holy Thursday morning, they partnered to make 60 lunches for the guests of Catholic Charities soup kitchen in Des Plaines.

- Feeding the Heart and Soul. This weekend we say farewell to Fr. Peter Fernandes who was with us the last three months, and Deacon Tom Heathershaw who will graduate Mundelein Seminary and be ordained a priest for the Diocese of Dubuque on May 25. We’re grateful for their service and for enriching us with the good news of the gospels. Our Parish Pastoral Council teamed up with our Funeral Luncheon Team and our Teaching Parish Advisory Committee to host a reception after the 4:30 pm Mass. Fr. Peter and Deacon Tom will be around after the Masses if you’d like to wish them well.

- Jesus Feeds the Children. This weekend we celebrate First Holy Communion, the moment when 92 children from our parish families receive the Holy Eucharist for the first time. Jesus tells us to be like the children...to come to him. And when given the chance, they do! These 92 children are an incredible sign of faith in a world that needs to see it.

- Sometimes Goodness is Rewarded. Two St. Hubert parishioners were recently named Schaumburg’s Volunteers of the Year! Helen Jerusis, one of our Eucharistic Ministers and an active WINGS helper, was named the adult volunteer of the year, and Sarah Mathias, a talented musician active in our music program and youth group, was named the teen of the year. That’s an incredible witness of the power of service, and an incredible reflection of the good things St. Hubert parishioners are doing.

There are a lot of signs and wonders of Christian goodness all around us. It’s good every now and then to simply be amazed by simple things that bring Easter joy.

Peace and good things,

--Fr. Mike

The Gospel reading sets the stage for Pentecost. Prior to giving us the full gift of his Spirit, Jesus provides the gift of peace, the gift of his heart. A supernatural gift, it penetrates deep into our own hearts. It is the calming presence of Christ when we face challenges and difficulties.

Jesus bestowed it upon his first apostles twice in the same meeting shortly after his resurrection. Then he gave them the life-breath of God, the Holy Spirit, and commissioned them with the priesthood of forgiving the sins of others — another gift that brings peace.

This gift of peace has been distributed by Jesus ever since, through the ordained priesthood in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. And to hold us steady in our efforts to remain holy, Jesus gives us the breath of God. This breath, this life-sustaining presence of God’s Spirit, which created the world and keeps us spiritually alive, is the Holy Spirit — God’s holiness activating us and dwelling within us.

Whatever is not holy — not of the Spirit — is sinful and destructive. Jesus, who is the embodiment of Divine Mercy, died on the cross and gave us his Spirit so that we could live in the forgiveness of God.

When you pray the “Our Father”, do it slowly and intentionally. During the words, “forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us,” think of people who have irritated you or hurt you without remorse. Consciously forgive them.

Otherwise, your unforgiveness could affect their eternal souls as well as your own, because you’re denying them an opportunity to understand God’s forgiveness through your example, and you’re denying God the opportunity to forgive you for your sin of unforgiveness.

Forgiveness doesn’t mean approving of the sin nor forgetting. It means letting go of the desire to retaliate. It means choosing to love whether it’s deserved or not. It means entering anew into Christ’s gift of peace.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Who in your life is hardest to forgive? Perhaps yourself! What sins are you retaining by refusing to accept that God has already made his forgiveness available? What are you going to do to let go of the unforgiveness?

2. Name a situation that illustrates the resurrection power of forgiveness. How did the Holy Spirit help make forgiveness easier?

3. What changed when forgiveness was given? How did this bring the kingdom of God to earth?
There is a story about St. Christopher, probably more legend than truth, which runs this way:

As a youth, Christopher was gifted in every way, except faith. He was a big man physically, powerful, strong, goodhearted, mellow, and well liked by all. He was also generous, using his physical strength to help others. His one fault was that he found it hard to believe in God. For him, the physical was what was real and everything else seemed unreal. However, he yearned to believe in God and deeply respected those who did believe. And so he lived his life in a certain honest agnosticism, unable to really believe in anything beyond what he could physically see, feel, and touch.

This, however, did not prevent him from using his gifts, especially his physical strength, to serve others. This became his refuge, generosity and service. He became a ferryboat operator, spending his life helping to carry people across a dangerous river. One night, so the legend goes, during a storm, the ferryboat capsized and Christopher dove into the dark waters to rescue a young child. Carrying that child to the shore, he looked into its face and saw there the face of Christ. After that he believed, for he had seen the face of Christ. The very name, Christopher, contains the legend. Christopher means CHRIST-BEARER.

Fact or fiction? In either case, the story contains, within its very simplicity, a profound lesson. It gives us an answer, a practical one, to one of the most difficult questions of all: What should we do when our faith is weak? What should be our reaction in the face of the fact that God often seems silent, distant, dead? How do we move from believing only in the physical, from believing in the reality of only what we can see, feel, touch, taste, and smell, to believing in the existence of deeper, spiritual, realities?

Christopher’s answer? Live as honestly and respectfully as you can and use your gifts to help others. God will appear. Faith is not so much a question of feeling as of selfless service.

That is also the lesson in the biblical account of the apostle, Thomas, and his doubt about the resurrection of Jesus. Remember how he protests: “Unless I can (physically) place my finger in the wounds of his hands and stick my finger into the wound of his side, I will not believe.” It is noteworthy that Jesus offers no resistance or rebuke in the face of this remark. Instead he takes Thomas at his word: “Come here, and (physically) place your finger in the wounds of my hand and the wound in my side; see for yourself that I am real and not a ghost.”

That is an open challenge for all of us: “Come and see for yourselves that I am real and not a ghost!” The challenge, however, has a couple of conditions: honesty and generosity.

Skepticism and agnosticism, even atheism, are not a problem as long as one is honest, non-rationalizing, non-lying, ready to efface oneself before reality as it appears, and generous in giving his or her life away in service. If these conditions are met, God, the author and source of all reality, will eventually become evident, even to those who need physical proof. The stories of Christopher and Thomas teach us that and they assure us that God is neither angered nor threatened by an honest agnosticism.

Faith is never certainty. Neither it is the sure feeling that God exists. Conversely, unbelief is not to be confused with the absence of the felt assurance that God exists. There are, for everyone of us, dark nights of the soul, silences of God, cold lonely seasons, bitter times when God’s appearances to us cannot be truly grasped or recognized. The history of faith, as witnessed by the life of Jesus and the lives of the saints, shows us that God often seems dead and, at those times, the reality of the empirical world can so overpower us that nothing seems real except what we can see and feel right now, namely our own pain.

Whenever this happens, we need to become Christ-bearers, Christophers, honest agnostics who use their goodness and God-given strengths to help carry others across the burdensome rivers of life. God does not ask us to have a faith that is certain, but a service that is sure. We have the assurance that, should we faithfully help carry others without first thinking of ourselves, we will one day find ourselves before the person of Christ who will gently say to us: “See for yourself, that I am real, and not a ghost.”

With profound sorrow, we offer our prayers to the Christian community of Sri Lanka, and all those devastated by today’s horrific acts of violence, killings carried out while Christians offered their own prayers of gratitude on this great feast of hope, Easter Sunday.

In solidarity with the survivors and their loved ones, we grieve the dead and pray for God to heal the wounded, comfort the mourners, and instill ever more deeply in all peoples a commitment to peace, which our creator fervently desires for all his children.

3 Incredibly Moving Days
A Note of Thanks from Fr. Mike

Thank you to everyone who made our Triduum services—the celebration of the three days that changed the world—so meaningful.

We have an incredibly gifted choir, under the direction of Ed Magistrado, and singers and musicians who have lifted our hearts in prayer. They are an amazing blessing and gift to us.

We have Mass Coordinators, a staff coordinator, a Seminarian, and Liturgical Ministers (deacons, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, sacristans, MCs and coordinators) who eagerly step up to participate, serve and do whatever they can to help make the services as prayerful and beautiful as they can possibly be.

We have a gifted and very dedicated art and environment team that spend hours and hours and hours to help ready our church so that we can enter into each of the days of the Triduum with the right frame of mind as we pray together.

And we have a staff that is committed to helping our RCIA and CMI candidates prepare for this day, to celebrate it, and to bring it to fulfillment, and a team in the parish offices that works on the details to get things coordinated, done and ready.

We have a maintenance team that work very hard to move things around, transform an entire gym into a worship space, and do whatever needs to be done to ensure everything is working well and is where it needs to be.

We have a Knights of Columbus Council who is eager to help and willingly go out of their way to say “yes” when called upon.

And we have all of you who came to pray and be a part of these three incredibly moving and prayerful days.

Thank you, everyone. You are a blessing and sign of all that’s good and special about St. Hubert Parish.

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, on the bombings in Sri Lanka
April 21, 2019
Gratitude .... Gratitude is the best attitude. Ever since, I arrived at St. Hubert, I felt at home with all of you. You all welcomed me with open heart and mind, and appreciated my humble contribution, even as I struggle to fulfill my priestly ministry. I will be even indebted to you all. Your commitment to the Lord and parish ministries has enriched my faith. St. Hubert is a beautiful and vibrant faith-community and I was blessed to be part of this family, although for a short time, but memorable one. My sincere prayer to God to bless you all with His choicest blessings and graces, and keep you united in His love.

Life is a journey. It is wonderful to meet so many beautiful and loving people on the way. Your encouraging words and loving smiles spoke volumes of your generosity and faith, and I will treasure it. I received more than I ever gave, which makes me feel humble. All that I have – I received from God and from the people of God. I have nothing that I can call my own. It would be shameful for me knowing that the unthankful heart discovers no mercies; but the thankful heart will find, in every hour, some heavenly blessings. Hence, gratitude is the attitude to vest for a happy living. Therefore, all I ask of you is forever to remember me as loving you.

Once and only once we pass this way. But, for the disciples of the Lord, earthly journey is not the end, but just a step into eternity. So, as I say good bye ... farewell, it is not the end of our relationship, but a step into eternity. Let me conclude with an Irish blessing:

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields
and until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

A LETTER FROM FR. PETER FERNANDES, SFX

In thanksgiving to all those who have donated flowers to fill our church with the beauty of the season. It is in loving memory of those whom our parishioners remember and love and who now live within the great promise of eternal life.

David Szymonik, Angela & Frances

“Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field...will he not much more provide for you?”
Matthew 6:28-30

A huge thank you to all the 7th & 8th grade teens from our Religious Ed. program who donated candy and money for the Easter bags. We were able to make enough for both our sister parish, St. Aloysius, and the Advocacy Center. This may have been the only treat they received this year for Easter. I am sure there were a lot of happy children, thanks to you!

Has winter finally ended? It seemed like the longest and coldest ones in years! I was in Florida and I was shocked at all the homeless people that were everywhere. I have seen this before, but it seems like more people are finding themselves in financial trouble as time goes by. As in Florida, here in our own suburbs, folks are having trouble keeping food on their tables. May is the month of Mary, so let’s honor her by opening our hearts and feeding our friends in need.

Collection dates are May 4th & 5th

Thanks everyone!

Catholic Charities Collection on Mother’s Day

As an ailing senior, Cochise relies on the help of a dependable home aide to help her with daily tasks and errands so she could continue to live in her own home and enjoy a high quality of life. When she had trouble finding an aide that would fit her needs, she reached out to Catholic Charities who worked with her to find somebody she was comfortable with. Last year 364,373 seniors were supported by Catholic Charities through many programs including home delivered meals, adult day care, senior centers, congregate meals, family caregiver assistance, transportation services, the hospital transition program and more.

The support seniors receive from Catholic Charities, ensures that they continue to live comfortably in their own homes and communities for as long as possible with dignity and compassionate support.

Please give to Catholic Charities on Mother’s Day to help seniors stay healthy. Learn more at www.catholiccharities.net.

“... We are all a little fragile, the elderly. Some, however, are particularly weak, many are alone, and affected by illness. Some depend on the indispensable care and attention of others which as Catholics we must provide.”

The protection of life is a sustained prayer intention of the Church, and in particular of the Knights of Columbus. Knights remain firmly committed to defending the right to life of every human being – from the moment of conception to natural death. To commemorate and bolster this important cause, Council #6964 is promoting a Novena for Life, nine days of sustained prayer, to build up a culture of life in our parishes, homes and wider community. The 9 Day Novena intentions will focus on…

- Culture of life
- Every life worth saving
- Justice and healing for domestic and sexual abuse
- Adoption – a worthy cause
- Lost children from abortion
- Human trafficking
- Christian refugee persecution
- Life’s end
- Respecting all life

The Novena for Life will commence on Sunday May 5th and culminate on May 13th with the parishes’ celebration of the May Crowning. On Sunday, May 5th The Knights of Columbus will be handing out Prayer Cards in collaboration with the Respect Life Committee, and will also be seeking your participation in signing a petition against current legislation advancing abortion in Illinois.

Please stop by the Knights of Columbus table after Mass to sign up for the 9 Day Novena. Participation is easy!

Use this link to sign up for the parishes’ flocknote and you will receive a notification each of the 9 days with the respective intention and prayers.

Any questions? Contact Jerry Bromley at 630-417-2515 or Nick Bratt at 708-744-8921.

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, the Mother of God. Every Friday morning at 6:30 a.m., we gather in Church to pray the rosary before the 7:00 a.m. Mass. We will also be praying the rosary on Monday, May 13th, at 6:30 a.m. in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. It would be wonderful if you could join us in this beautiful prayer. If you are unable to join us, perhaps you could find time to pray the rosary at home.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
