The Good News of Easter

Jesus’ Breakfast

For me, one of the most moving invitations in the Gospel of John is one we hear today: “Come, have breakfast” (John 21:12). Peter, Thomas, James, John, and a couple of other disciples (John didn’t tell us who they were) went fishing, and after a long night of catching nothing, Jesus appeared on the shore encouraging them to cast their nets out one more time.

Of course, they catch an extraordinary amount of fish...153 to be exact. Meanwhile, Jesus was on shore, preparing breakfast for them. He knew they were hungry, tired and in need of a little comfort. And so Jesus cared for them by making them breakfast, which reminds us of the way he washed their feet at the Last Supper. (When someone makes you breakfast, it’s one of the greatest simple pleasures there is...which is why we give a heartfelt thanks to the Knights of Columbus for making us breakfast last Sunday!)

After breakfast, Jesus asked Peter three times whether or not he loved him. Each time Peter said “yes,” Jesus told him to take care of his people.

It’s a resurrection story because it leads us into new ways of thinking about Jesus’ message to the world, and a message that’s not very complicated but encased in all of scripture: Loving God and loving others are deeply connected. In fact, we show love for God by taking the time to take care of those around us. Jesus did it for us, and he asks us to do the same.

Service is a way of life for the Christian. When we are attentive to what others need as a way of life, it changes us. We see that goodness, charity, gentleness, and peace can begin to make their way into situations that can be dark, difficult, self-focused and mean-spirited. Christians bring the light of hope. So, “Come, have breakfast” is an invitation to receive God’s comfort, but it’s also an invitation to bring comfort to others.

Some Good News

- Mundelein Seminary designated St. Hubert as a teaching parish for seminarians in formation for the priesthood. Last Sunday, some of our parishioners who sit on a committee to help support our 3 seminarians, were invited to Mundelein for Mass and an appreciation event.

- Congratulations to our parishioner Emilee Baldwin who was recently named a Fulbright Scholar! Emilee is graduating from Illinois State University as an education major and will travel to Spain to teach English as part of her scholarship experience. Many of you have seen her grow up, serve at the altar, and find ways to serve the community. It is a tremendous honor and couldn’t have happened to a nicer person.

We are an Easter people, as St. Augustine says, and “Alleluia” is our song.

Peter didn’t love anybody by his own efforts; none of us do. Peter was created with God’s love already in him, as we all were, for we were made in the image of God who is love.

Peter’s calling was to share the abundance of God’s love, so that the kingdom of God could continue to spread throughout the earth. What is God asking you to do? The answer does not lie in what you have, but in what you are willing to do with what God already has.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What work for the kingdom of God (the parish, a friend, a community program) have you felt a desire to do but haven’t yet done because your net feels empty?

2. Assume that Jesus is asking you to do it; what action can you take this week that will toss your net over the other side of the boat?

3. Are you doing everything you feel called by God to do? Share with your community a frustrated calling, i.e., an unsuccessful or unbegun vocation.

4. What does God have that you don’t have that could turn the dream into reality? Exchange ideas on how to avail yourself of God’s abundance.
God is found in solitude and silence! Few reputable spiritual traditions dispute this. Long-standing in Christian tradition is the dictum that nobody makes progress in the spiritual life unless he or she prays, alone and in silence, for an hour a day.

Moreover, even pop psychology insists that the key to psychic health and mental hygiene is regular withdrawal from the rat-race, a substantial and sustained period of solitude every day.

I am not one to argue with that. That an hour of silence every day would do marvels for our spiritual, psychic and even physical health is, I believe, indisputable.

What’s more problematic is finding the time to do it. In spite of good intentions, practically, realistically in fact, most of us cannot (or, at least, certainly do not) find the time to take an hour a day away from everything for solitude and prayer. Pressures beset us from within and without and we simply do not, on a daily basis, pull away for an hour of silence and prayer.

Many of us feel uneasy about this and our anxiety is often compounded by feelings of guilt when we are accused, by ourselves or by others, of being workaholics, addicts and persons who cannot find any meaning outside of their work.

What’s to be said about all of this? Is it impossible to make progress spiritually and to stay healthy psychologically without substantial daily periods of silent withdrawal?

One should always be uneasy when he or she does not have, on a daily basis, a regular period of silent prayer and withdrawal. But, as in everything else, we must be careful not to become fundamentalistic about this. The call to find God in silence and withdrawal too can become an idol. Let me try to explain:

Carlo Carretto, one of the leading spiritual writers of our century, tells the story of how, after spending nearly 25 years alone as a hermit in the Sahara Desert, he realized that he was not nearly as contemplative, prayerful and unselfish as had been his mother who, for most of her adult life, had been so busy with the duties of raising her children that she had virtually no time alone for solitude and prayer.

During most of the years of her adult life, her life had been so completely taken up in responding to the needs of others, her family, the church and the community at large, that she rarely had time for an hour of prayer and solitude.

Yet, despite her busyness, she consistently grew in prayer and unselfishness.

Carretto draws an interesting conclusion from this. Rather than suggest that there was anything wrong with what he did as a hermit in the desert, he hunches that there was something very right about his mother’s total self-abnegation all those years when her whole life was taken up in responding to the needs of those around her.

That self-giving did for her exactly what countless hours of formal prayer might have done. It helped break her narcissism, displaced her from her own selfishness and consecrated her through a true baptism—immersion into the demands of charity. She prayed by conscription!

When Jesus consecrated Peter, he set him on a rock and, three times, asked him: “Do you love me?” Each time that the question was asked, Peter protested loudly that he did. Finally, after Peter’s third pledge of love, Jesus said to him: Because you said this, your life will radically change. “Up to now you girded your belt and you walked wherever you liked.” Now, because you have given yourself in love, “others will put a belt around you and lead you where you would rather not go!”

All true prayer, formal or ether, does exactly that. It puts a belt around us and takes us where we would rather not go. In the case of Carretto’s mother, as in the case of millions of other dedicated (and hurried, hassled, tired and guilt-ridden) women and men, the demands of life—of children, marriage, vocation, job, church politics, neighborliness, and mortgage payments—when responded to with a gracious heart, do exactly what proper formal prayer and solitude will do—they put a belt around you and lead you where, by your own choice, you would never walk.

They walk you where the deep demands of God and love call you to be.

God is found in silence and solitude… the saints are right in suggesting an hour of silence and prayer every day. Sometimes, though, and perhaps for many of the years of our adult lives, duties of state, circumstance and the only edict that can never be idolatrous—the demand to respond in charity—conscript us to a life of prayer that has very different contours but the same results.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In the Gospels, Jesus teaches us to be a living expression of God's kindness, showing the light of God's goodness and mercy to all of our brothers and sisters, but especially to the poor, the vulnerable, and those facing challenging circumstances. Each year on Mother's Day, Catholic Charities invites us to be a living expression of God's goodness though our gift to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection. With our support, Catholic Charities carries out the important work of the Church to help the poor and vulnerable in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

People often come to Catholic Charities at the most difficult times of their lives—hungry, afraid, hurting, alone, homeless, helpless, hopeless. Catholic Charities cares for people at these desperate times, helping them rebuild their lives and restoring hope for the future.

Catholic Charities provides a broad range of services to people of all ages and at every stage of life, regardless of religion or background. Whether it's helping young mothers with pregnancy and parenting services; offering educational and support programs for at-risk children and teens; counseling those facing addiction, mental illness or grief; delivering emergency assistance to families coping with homelessness and hunger; or providing affordable housing and a variety of in-home services for seniors, Catholic Charities brings Christ's love and mercy to the people and the places that need it most.

We each have an important role to play in the Church's sacred mission to care for those in need. Please accept my sincere gratitude for your past support of the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection, and please consider being as generous as you can again this year. Contributions can be made during the second collection on Mother's Day, anytime at www.catholiccharities.net/donate, or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother's Day and always. With every good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

"The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary."
—Saint Francis de Sales

"You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary."
—Our Lady to Blessed Alan de la Roche

“There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.”
—Sister Lucia dos Santos, Fatima seer

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, the Mother of God. Every Friday morning at 6:30 a.m., we gather in Church to pray the rosary before the 7:00 a.m. Mass. We will also be praying the rosary on Monday, May 13th, at 6:30 a.m. in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. It would be wonderful if you could join us in this beautiful prayer. If you are unable to join us, perhaps you could find time to pray the rosary at home.

Knights of Columbus Council #6964 sponsors a 9 Day NOVENA for LIFE

The protection of life is a sustained prayer intention of the Church, and in particular of the Knights of Columbus. Knights remain firmly committed to defending the right to life of every human being — from the moment of conception to natural death. To commemorate and bolster this important cause, Council #6964 is promoting a Novena for Life, nine days of sustained prayer, to build up a culture of life in our parishes, homes and wider community. The 9 Day Novena intentions will focus on...

- Culture of life
- Every life worth saving
- Justice and healing for domestic and sexual abuse
- Adoption — a worthy cause
- Lost children from abortion
- Human trafficking
- Christian refugee persecution
- Life’s end
- Respecting all life

The Novena for Life will commence on Sunday May 5th and culminate on May 13th with the parishes’ celebration of the May Crowning. On Sunday, May 5th The Knights of Columbus will be handing out Prayer Cards in collaboration with the Respect Life Committee, and will also be seeking your participation in signing a petition against current legislation advancing abortion in Illinois.

Please stop by the Knights of Columbus table after Mass to sign up for the 9 Day Novena. Participation is easy!

Use this link to sign up for the parishes’ flocknote and you will receive a notification each of the 9 days with the respective intention and prayers.

Will You Help Save Unborn Babies?

Northwest Families for Life invites you to become a Prayer Missionary for LIFE at the Wood Dale abortion clinic.

It’s time to do something about this in our community.

One of the main reasons women give for changing their mind is the presence of someone there outside the clinic praying for them. That someone could be YOU!

A Time for Grieving

We, at the Funeral Luncheon Ministry, provide a place for families to find comfort in their time of grieving. By offering families a place to have a luncheon, we hope they find an inviting place to celebrate the life of one they have lost. We cater the warm portion of the meal, but look to volunteers to offer a personal touch by providing salads and desserts, homemade or store bought to complement the meal. We are hoping that you’ll prayerfully consider assisting us. It is such a rewarding ministry as evidenced by the comments guests share with us. Over the meal, families share sorrow and tears, laughter and warm memories. If you feel you’d like to be part of our mission, you could contact either myself, Alberta Fuger at jfuger@sbcglobal.net or Kathy Krebs at kdkrebs@comcast.net.

We’ll return your e-mail with more information about what to expect. We thank you for your consideration.

Do You Need a Rosary?

A parishioner, Patrick Fleming, who has been repairing rosaries and also collecting them for the missions, has now offered to donate some of the many rosaries he has collected to the parish for distribution to those who need a rosary.

The rosaries will be on display in the Narthex next weekend for Mother’s Day – May 12. We felt that offering them on Mother’s Day would be especially meaningful, and they could even become a gift to someone’s mother. There is no charge for the rosaries, but a free will donation would be appreciated.

Let’s turn to our heavenly Mother for her help and guidance through her special prayer – the Rosary.

Statement of Cardinal Cupich on the Tragedy at Chabad of Poway
April 27, 2019

For the second time in a week we received news of an act of senseless violence against people at prayer. This time, the victims were our Jewish brothers and sisters, gathered to mark the deliverance of their people from bondage. We ask our Lord to deliver us from the evil that engenders hatred in the hearts of men. Let us pray, too, for the courage to insist our leaders remove the tools of terrorism from our society and take the steps other nations have taken to safeguard their people. We will not become indifferent to the suffering of these families and will recommit ourselves to breaking the bonds of prejudice and intolerance. Only then can we build a peaceful nation, with the liberty and justice promised by its founders.

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
