4th Sunday of Easter

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.” - Jn 10:27-28b
The Good News of Easter

Influential Voices

Today’s gospel reading comes from John, chapter 10, where Jesus begins to introduce himself as the Good Shepherd. In just 60 words, we hear great spiritual wisdom about what it means to lead others (a lot less words than my feeble attempt at a reflection on it!).

Jesus simply wants us to know his relationship with us is one of protection and care. We know his voice. He knows us. And so, we follow where he leads—which is never into doubt or uncertainty, but into truth, goodness, and the promise of life. We follow him into our Father’s hands where we’re ultimately held.

We value all the ways we hear his voice—through Scripture, through our Liturgies, through the voice of the Church, through the voice of the saints, and through those incredible role models and witnesses in our lives who have helped us know him, especially our moms.

As we celebrate Mother’s Day this weekend, we celebrate the role our moms may have had in our own faith journey. In their voice, we often can hear Jesus’ voice. At least I know that has been the case in my own life. My mom has always been a witness of faith to me. She loves being Catholic and has nurtured that love within her children. And she’s the one who brought me into a relationship with Christ, because she taught me how to pray.

She taught me how to hear Jesus’ voice within my heart and soul, to trust in him, and to realize I am always being held and cared for, even when it doesn’t seem like it.

So to all our moms, and those who have been influential voices of faith, hope and charity in our lives—and especially those who have gone before us in faith and miss on a day like today—we honor you. You are loved and held, and always will be.

Introducing Our Woman of the Year:
Eve Johnson!

On Wednesday, May 1, Bishop Alberto Rojas recognized Eve Johnson as our St. Hubert Woman of the Year! Each year, parishes throughout the archdiocese recognize the contributions of women who are witnesses of the faith in who they are and what they do.

Eve joined St. Hubert in 1978. She is a retired registered nurse and was a long time member of the Chicago Nurses Association. She was a member of the CCW here at St. Hubert for many years and was part of the Cursillo movement. She also belonged to the Legion of Mary. She is strongly devoted to our Blessed Mother, St. Francis, and St. Bonaventure. And for the past 15 years, she has been active as a catechist in our pre-school Good Shepherd religious education program. She is a mother, a grandmother of 6 and a great-grandma to 2. She is a humble servant who quietly lives the gospel in the person she is, and it is truly a blessing to honor her in this way. When you see Eve, please congratulate her. She is an incredible Catholic woman of faith.

Peace and good things!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
May 12, 2019
Good Shepherd Sunday

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Lord Jesus,
We beg you for good and holy priests.
In every age you call men to follow you as servants and shepherds of your people.
Open their hearts to your call and give them the courage to follow you. Be their rock of refuge and their light as they discern.
Help us to support them on their journey, and to love them as your disciples.
We thank you for all that you are and all that you do.
In your name we pray.
Amen

This Sunday’s Gospel reading is short and to the point: Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is the only one we follow, the only one we can trust blindly.

Others who have authority in our lives might be good shepherds, but none of them are to be followed blindly, not even the best of them. We respect the positions of bishops, parish pastors, employers, teachers, parents, etc., but all make mistakes, all sin, all have incomplete understandings of the situations for which they’re responsible. We must use the Holy Spirit’s gift of discernment in each case so that we don’t behave like dumb sheep inadvertently cooperating with decisions that grieve our Father God.

Only Jesus can be blindly trusted. Only Jesus is perfect and knows all, understands all, and never sins. Only Jesus can successfully make the right decisions all the time and lead us through the various situations of life without inadvertently cooperating with evil. Only Jesus can discern and implement a plan that’s best for every person who’s affected by the plan. Only Jesus can lead us closer and closer to heaven while guiding us through the pitfalls and dangers of the journey.

And it is only Jesus who can smile at our blunders when we stray from his plans, because he knows that we still really do love him and want to do what’s right. He knows how to implement a new plan that will steer us back into safe pastures. He compassionately holds onto us so that we don’t wriggle away from the Father’s hand forever.

Whenever we distrust anyone (ourselves included) we can safely trust that no matter what happens, Jesus is there, steadfastly guiding us and re-guiding us after we stray. Because we really do love him and want to do what’s right, he is securing our safety, redeeming our mistakes, making good come from bad when we repent of our sins, and of course always making sure that we’ll get home to heaven.

To be good sheep, all we have to do is cooperate with his guidance.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How much do you trust yourself and your discernment of truth and your ability to stay on the path to heaven? Who else is difficult to trust right now?
2. What will you do this week to entrust these matters to Jesus?
3. When is it difficult to trust Jesus? Why is it so difficult?
4. Considering that past experiences with imperfect humans naturally cause us to distrust even Jesus, what helps you overcome this so that you can trust God?
We are surrounded by many voices. There’s rarely a moment within our waking lives that someone or something isn’t calling out to us and, even in our sleep, dreams and nightmares ask for our attention. And each voice has its own particular cadence and message. Some voices invite us in, promising us life if we do this or that or buy a certain product or idea; others threaten us. Some voices beckon us towards hatred, bitterness, and anger, while others challenge is towards love, graciousness, and forgiveness. Some voices tell us that they are playful and humorous, not to be taken seriously, even as others trumpet that they are urgent and weighty, the voice of non-negotiable truth, God’s voice.

Within all of these: Which is the voice of God? How do we recognize God’s voice among and within all of these voices?

That’s not easy to answer. God, as the scriptures tell us, is the author of everything that’s good, whether it bears a religious label or not. Hence, God’s voice is inside of many things that are not explicitly connected to faith and religion, just as God’s voice is also not in everything that masquerades as religious. But how do we discern that?

Jesus leaves us a wonderful metaphor to work with, but it’s precisely only a metaphor: He tells us that he is the “Good Shepherd” and that his sheep will recognize his voice among all other voices. In sharing this metaphor, he is drawing upon a practice that was common among shepherds at the time: At night, for protection and companionship, shepherds would put their flocks together into a common enclosure. They would then separate the sheep in the morning by using their voices. Each shepherd had trained his sheep to be attuned to his voice and his voice only. The shepherd would walk away from the enclosure calling his sheep, often times by their individual names, and they would follow him. His sheep were so attuned to his voice that they would not follow the voice of another shepherd, even if that shepherd tried to trick them (shepherds often did this to try to steal someone else’s sheep) by imitating the voice of their own shepherd. Like a baby who, at a point, will no longer be cuddled by the voice of a babysitter, but wants and needs the voice of the mother, each sheep recognized intimately the voice that was safeguarding them and would not follow another voice.

So too with us: among all the voices that surround and beckon us, how do we discern the unique cadence of God’s voice? Which is the voice of the Good Shepherd?

There’s no easy answer and sometimes the best we can do is to trust our gut-feeling about right and wrong. But we have a number of principles that come to us from Jesus, from scripture, and from the deep wells of our Christian tradition that can help us.

What follows is a series of principles to help us discern God’s voice among the multitude of voices that beckon us. What is the unique cadence of the voice of the Good Shepherd?

- The voice of God is recognized both in whispers and in soft tones, even as it is recognized in thunder and in storm.
- The voice of God is recognized wherever one sees life, joy, health, color, and humor, even as it is recognized wherever one sees dying, suffering, conscriptive poverty, and a beaten-down spirit.
- The voice of God is recognized in what calls us to what’s higher, sets us apart, and invites us to holiness, even as it is recognized in what calls us to humility, submergence into humanity, and in that which refuses to denigrate our humanity.
- The voice of God is recognized in what appears in our lives as “foreign”, as other, as “stranger”, even as it is recognized in the voice that beckons us home.
- The voice of God is the one that most challenges and stretches us, even as it the only voice that ultimately soothes and comforts us.
- The voice of God enters our lives as the greatest of all powers, even as it forever lies in vulnerability, like a helpless baby in the straw.
- The voice of God is always heard in privileged way in the poor, even as it beckons us through the voice of the artist and the intellectual.
- The voice of God always invites us to live beyond all fear, even as it inspires holy fear.
- The voice of God is heard inside the gifts of the Holy Spirit, even as it invites us never to deny the complexities of our world and our own lives.
- The voice of God is always heard wherever there is genuine enjoyment and gratitude, even as it asks us to deny ourselves, die to ourselves, and freely relativize all the things of this world.

The voice of God, it would seem, is forever found in paradox.

Saying Farewell to Ryan Brady...Until Next Fall!

It was a real blessing to have our seminarian, Ryan Brady, with us full-time as he went through his pastoral internship program over the last 3 months.

For our seminarians studying for the Archdiocese of Chicago, the pastoral internship takes place half-way through their theology program. It gives them an opportunity to see what it’s like to minister day-to-day at a parish, to live in a rectory, to be part of parish staff and school, to teach the faith, and to reflect on the word of God.

Ryan took this internship very seriously and applied himself every single day. He has seen that life as a parish priest isn’t just about Sundays, but a full life that brings us into the hearts and lives of the people we serve. And that is a real privilege and blessing.

He also walks away with some incredible experiences of ministry, and a profound respect for all of you whom he has gotten to know, and with whom he has shared his faith.

Thank you for taking him in and making him feel at home in the way in which St. Hubert is known. As St. Paul says, “your kindness should be known to all.” (Phil 4:4).

What’s Next for Ryan?

Over the summer, Ryan will experience life as a hospital chaplain at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago. Next fall, he returns to Mundelein Seminary where he’ll return to be with us on weekends, assigned to a specific weekly ministry. Next Spring, he’ll head to the Holy Land for a 10-week pilgrimage and then in May 2020, God willing, will be ordained a deacon.

In the meantime, please continue to pray for him. And please continue to ask God to call more men like Ryan to consider the priesthood and women to consider the religious life. We need “laborers for the harvest,” those with a true servant’s heart. Someone like Ryan Brady!

Scripture Study? Liturgy? Creative Prayer?
The Holy Spirit – who or what is it?

Do you have a nagging need to know the answers to spiritual questions? Or a desire to learn more about the saints? Or church history? Or building a stronger relationship with Jesus in today’s society? Or what?

Saint Hubert Café Ministry members want to know what’s on your mind. Speak up! Don’t be shy.

Bring your ideas, suggestions, and even your questions to a meeting on Wednesday, May 22 at 6:30 PM when planning begins for next year’s Café agenda. We will meet in the Bernardin Room at the Parish Ministry Center. All are welcome.

Café’s mission is “Adult Formation” – providing occasions for adults and high school students to consciously grow in the life of Christ. Faith formation is inviting, enriching, and adds meaning to life. Periodic programs, guest speakers, informative presentations, and hosting parish events represent some of Café’s activities.

Please come and learn more about Café’s commitment to conscious growth in our Christian community.

Join our St. Hubert Catholic School students as we crown Mary in a special service.

In a long-time tradition at our school, our 8th grade students selected Grace Kronfeld to crown Mary. Here is an excerpt of an essay she wrote on how our Blessed Mother has influenced her life:

Mary was an exceptional person. She openly accepted her calling to be the mother of Jesus, and trusted fully in God.

Two years ago, my great grandma passed away. She was a really special person in my life and it was very hard for me when she passed away. One thing that I will never forget about her is the gold Mary necklace that she always wore. She NEVER took it off. Since then, I had a necklace made with the flowers from her funeral. On one side it has [an image of] Jesus, but on the other side it has [an image of] Mary. When I wear the necklace, I wear it with the Mary side showing. I felt that Mary protects me through all I do [when I ask her to pray for me] just like she did for my great grandma.

Mary fully trusted in God, and that is something that I started to do more after my great grandma passed away. Mary is someone that has really helped me through a difficult time in my life. She is someone that all people should look up to because she is a very relatable person. She is a person like you and me, and if we all follow her example, our world could be a much better place.

I want to be more like Mary because of how she was able to put all of her trust in someone she couldn’t see. It is hard for me to trust people, because I want to make sure they are nice and trustworthy. A few years ago, I wanted to think that I would have made the choice Mary did when asked to be the mother of Jesus, but I really didn’t know. I wanted to be able to put all my trust in God. But in the past few years, I know that I have.

Mary has greatly impacted my life in many ways. She has taught me so much, and I know that I can turn to her whenever I need her. Without her, I wouldn’t be the same person I am today.

The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary.
—Saint Francis de Sales

“You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.”
—Our Lady to Blessed Alan de la Roche

“There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.”
—Sister Lucia dos Santos, Fatima seer

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, the Mother of God. Every Friday morning at 6:30 a.m., we gather in Church to pray the rosary before the 7:00 a.m. Mass. We will also be praying the rosary on Monday, May 13th, at 6:30 a.m. in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. It would be wonderful if you could join us in this beautiful prayer. If you are unable to join us, perhaps you could find time to pray the rosary at home.

A Time for Grieving

We, at the Funeral Luncheon Ministry, provide a place for families to find comfort in their time of grieving. By offering families a place to have a luncheon, we hope they find an inviting place to celebrate the life of one they have lost. We cater the warm portion of the meal, but look to volunteers to offer a personal touch by providing salads and desserts, homemade or store bought to complement the meal. We are hoping that you’ll prayerfully consider assisting us. It is such a rewarding ministry as evidenced by the comments guests share with us. Over the meal, families share sorrow and tears, laughter and warm memories. If you feel you’d like to be part of our mission, you could contact either myself, Alberta Fugger at jfuger@sbcglobal.net or Kathy Krebs at kdkrebs@comcast.net.

We’ll return your e-mail with more information about what to expect. We thank you for your consideration.

THOUGHTS TO PONDER REGARDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

- “Love is about giving freedom and power, not about gaining control or possession.”
- “You don’t have to wait for someone to treat you bad repeatedly. All it takes is once and if they get away with it that once, if they know they can treat you that way, then it sets the pattern for the future.”
  — Jane Green
- “The effects of abuse are devastating and far reaching. Domestic violence speaks many languages, has many colors and lives in many different communities.”
  — Sandra Papatello

“A house where a person is unsafe is not a home.”

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
