Today we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord into Heaven. What’s interesting is that in both the first reading from Acts of the Apostles (written by Luke) and in Luke’s Gospel itself, he highlights the importance of the eyewitnesses.

Right before Jesus is lifted up, he reminds the apostles of what they saw and experienced in him. And it truly was good news to share.

First and foremost, they shared the news about the resurrection. The eyewitnesses wouldn’t back down telling others that they saw the crucified Christ alive and risen. We just have to read St. Paul’s letters to experience his conviction: he knew who he saw and what he saw. He lived for the message, and like so many of the eyewitnesses, died for it, too.

But the other important message Jesus wanted to be proclaimed was that forgiveness is available to anyone seeking repentance. Repentance is a translation of the Greek word metanoia. Taken literally, it means “to go beyond the mind one has” or “to change one’s mind.”

I think that’s a helpful definition, because “repentance” can have a lot of negative baggage associated with it (it’s one of those “church words”). So when we hear a different definition like this it may give us something to think and pray about.

And what it leads us to see is that the gospel really is a game changer: it offers a new way of seeing and experiencing life. And that’s why it challenges us. When we hear Jesus say “love your enemies” or “turn the other cheek” or “stop judging”, these are words that often stop us or create a response within, like “Jesus, you can’t be serious!” or “that’s just too hard.”

But what Jesus offers is a new perspective. Can we change our mind, our attitude, our perceptions of the human ways we relate to one another? In other words, can we see things differently?

These are questions for all of us trying to grow in the spiritual life. If we struggle with them, that’s good news, too, because it means we’re taking it seriously. And it must have been important to Jesus because they are his parting words before he’s lifted up into heaven until he comes again.

The eyewitnesses brought the good news to us, generation after generation. Today, that makes us the eyewitnesses of faith in our world. And what’s really remarkable to me is to see how the gospel is lived through so many incredible people in our parish. There’s goodness all around, especially at St. Hubert. I dream of an opportunity to give us a chance to share our stories of faith. If you have any ideas, I’d be grateful. There are eyewitnesses all around us and it would be incredibly uplifting to hear each other’s stories.

May God lift you up,

—Fr. Mike

Today’s Gospel reading contains the prayer for the Church that Jesus offered up to heaven shortly before he offered his life in the crucifixion. In it, he makes a sacrament out of relationships. As Jesus and the Father are one, we too are to be one with each other, so that by our witness of unity – permanent, committed, self-sacrificing, unconditional love – we show the world what God’s love is like. We prove to the world that God’s love is real. It’s permanent, committed, unconditional, and self-sacrificing no matter how much one sins.

Other relationships – when God has formed them – are sacred, too. Each union created by God is a sacrament (the presence and power of Christ for the world). Each relationship is meant to be a visual lesson that teaches the world about the true identity and salvation of Jesus.

How horrible – how anti-evangelization – are divisions within the Body of Christ!!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. List the people who are God’s gift to you.

2. Who used to be a gift but no longer seems so due to hardships and relational difficulties? What will you do for that person this week to serve him or her in love (even if they won’t be able to know about it)?

3. Describe a time when a loving gesture from a friend, spouse, parent, or someone else revealed to you God’s love. Even if you didn’t realize it at the time, how was this gift of love an answer to Jesus’ prayer?

4. How is God building unity in your home or parish as an answer to Jesus’ prayer?

Marriages were not true unions. The unity of a couple is as sacred as the unity between Jesus and the Father and as sacred as our God-ordained mission to reveal his love.

The Ascension throws some important light on the mystery of love and intimacy. What’s the Ascension?

It’s an event inside of the life of Jesus and the early church, a feast-day for Christians, a theology, and a spirituality, all woven together into one amorphous bundle of mystery that we too seldom try to unpack and sort out. What does the Ascension mean?

Among other things, that the mystery of how we touch each others’s lives is strangely paradoxical in that the wondrous life-giving power of arriving, touching another’s life, speaking words that nurture, doing actions that build up, and giving life for another, depends also upon eventually leaving, being silent, absorbing rather than actively doing, and giving our goodbye and death just as we once gave our presence and our life. Presence depends too upon absence and there’s a blessing we can only give when we go away.

That’s why Jesus, when bidding farewell to his friends before his ascension, spoke these words: “It’s better for you that I go away.” “You will be sad now, but your sadness will turn to joy.” “Don’t cling to me, go instead to Galilee and I will meet you there.”

How might we understand these words? How is it better that someone we love goes away? How can the sadness of a goodbye, of a painful leaving, turn to joy?

This is something that’s hard to explain, though we experience it daily in our lives. Allow me an example: When I was 22, in the space of four months, my father and mother died, both still young. For myself and my siblings, the pain of their deaths was searing. Initially, as with every major loss, what we felt was pain, severance, coldness, helplessness, a new vulnerability, the loss of a vital life-connection, and, the brutality and finality of something for which there is no preparation. There’s nothing warm, initially, in any loss, death, or painful goodbye.

Time is a great healer (though there’s a lot more to this than simply what washes clean or is anaesthetized by the passage of time). After a while, for me this took several years, I didn’t feel a coldness any more. My parents’ deaths were no longer a painful thing. Instead their deaths were no longer a painful thing. Instead their presence partly depends upon our absence.

This however must be carefully distinguished from what we mean by the axiom: “Absence makes the heart grow fonder.” In essence, that’s not true. Absence makes the heart grow fonder, but only for a while and mostly for the wrong reasons. Physical absence, simple distance from each, without a deeper dynamic of spirit taking place beneath, ends more relationships than it deepens. In the end, most of the time, we simply grow apart. That’s not how the ascension deepens intimacy, presence, and blessing.

The ascension deepens intimacy by giving us precisely a new presence, a deeper, richer one, but one which can only come about if our former way of being present is taken away. Perhaps we understand this best in the experience we have when our children grown up and leave home. It’s painful to see them grow away from us, painful to say that particular goodbye, painful to see them, precisely, ascend.

But, if their words could say what their hearts intuit, they would say what Jesus said before his ascension: “It’s better for you that I go away. There will be sadness now, but that sadness will turn to joy when, one day soon, you will have standing before you a wonderful adult son or daughter who is now in a position to give you the much deeper gift of his or her adulthood.”

Adore and Worship
An Evening of Eucharistic Adoration, Praise and Worship
Thursday, June 6 from 7:00—8:15 PM

Eucharistic Adoration is a posture of love, the placing of oneself in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Whether you regularly visit an Adoration chapel, or have never experienced the quiet and peace of praying before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, all are invited to participate in this spirit-filled evening of prayer, song, and silence.

You are invited to come as you are, no matter where you are on your spiritual journey. Jesus is there to meet you where you are, and to show you His love and mercy in a new and special way - a way just for you! Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your personal relationship with the Lord.

Next Sunday June 9th, we celebrate the Holy Spirit’s coming upon the disciples of Jesus. They were "filled with the Holy Spirit" and never again would be content to keep their faith to themselves. They were all fired up by the Spirit to share the Good News with everyone. Down came the barriers of fear. Down came the language barrier! All the pilgrims gathered in Jerusalem from many nations and could instantly understand the disciples. And they, too, were filled with the powerful Spirit of God.

When we receive the Holy Spirit in Baptism and Confirmation, we are opening ourselves to a powerful force. The Spirit is a mighty wind that blows new life into us. The Spirit is fire that destroys anything that keeps us from God. How is the Spirit "wind and fire" in your life?

Ask the Spirit to open you to His power once again this day.

At the 9:00 AM Mass on June 9th we will be commissioning the Newly Baptized, Newly Received—those in RCIA and CMI.

At the beginning of Mass, the presider will invite the newly baptized to the baptismal font with their sponsors or parents. After the prayer, the presider will ask the sponsors to take off the white robes of the newly baptized and put them on the font. When he finishes addressing the newly baptized and newly received, they will take their seats among the community.

On this day we send all of them out to the community on a mission of love. May God’s spirit be with them always.
A big “Thank You” to our St. Hubert Stewards and to our parishioners who pitched in on a Saturday in April for our annual Spring Cleaning day. The church still looks great! We’re very grateful to you for rolling up your sleeves and working so hard. St. Hubert is a generous community in many, many ways!

With appreciation for all your time and help,

--Fr. Mike

For Adults interested in becoming Catholic
R.C.I.A. stands for Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. RCIA is the process whereby adults may be initiated into and fully enter the Catholic Church. It is for non-Catholics who may be considering joining the Church and also for Catholics who have not completed their own sacraments of initiation.

Practicing Catholics are needed in this ministry to share in the RCIA experience as sponsors and team members.

A Special Balance the Budget Collection

As mentioned last week, as we approach the end of our fiscal year we are making an appeal for a special second collection to help meet our budgeted goals for our weekly collections. This special second collection will take place the weekends of June 8-9 and June 15-16.

This has become especially important this year because, in addition to normal operating costs, we are also trying to offset some unexpected expenses that came our way:

- An unexpected number of occasions for snow removal.
- Roof repairs to address the main leak in the church.
- Air Conditioning repairs from last summer, a disruption in heating the lower level this winter, and just recently another fix to the air conditioning unit that cools the main church.

If we meet our budget, it will help us absorb the unexpected costs. As of April 30, we are about 15% below our budgeted amount.

We are very grateful to everyone who supports our parish week after week. And we are also grateful to so many families making the additional sacrifices to complete our 2020 Vision. So we thank you for considering this special appeal, which will also help our parish a great deal.

A Prayer of Blessing for our St. Hubert Graduates

Almighty God, You are the source of every blessing.

You have created us in your image and likeness. And so, You have given each of us the ability to create, to learn, to explore the world in all its wonder, to be curious and ask questions, to debate, and to think for ourselves as we find our own voice in the world, a voice meant to sound like Your Son’s.

Please bless our St. Hubert School graduates who have grown into the young men and women they are becoming. Bless all they have accomplished during their time with us—individually and together. We lift up the service they have shown to each other, to our school, to their families and to our community. We lift up their perseverance, hard work and the compassion they show to others.

We are grateful for the opportunity to know these students who have given life to our school and have given us the reason to find great hope in our future. They have made an impact on us.

We ask this blessing upon them, and their families who love them, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, the one we follow. Amen.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.
