Pentecost Sunday

[Jesus] breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." - Jn 20:22-23
The Good News of Easter

Tongues of Fire

What’s interesting about a flame on a candle is that, once it’s lit, it can’t be divided, it can only spread. And a flame from one candle can be shared a thousand times (or more) and still be the same flame. It’s a great metaphor for Pentecost, the feast of the coming of the Holy Spirit into our lives.

Today, in the first reading, we’re reminded of the scene in the upper room where the apostles and Mary are gathered together. When the Holy Spirit came upon them, it looked like a tongue of fire came to rest on each of their heads (Acts 2:3).

From that moment on, though, they found the courage to speak and to begin to spread the good news about “the mighty acts of God” (Acts 2:11), in other words, about who Jesus Christ is, his resurrection and the gift of eternal life. (Interestingly, fire is also referenced in Exodus 19 and the appearance of God on Mt. Sinai—another mighty act.)

In other words, the one flame is the message—what’s shared and spread are the news of encounters we have with God. What is shared is faith.

Each of us has our own encounters with the Holy, our stories of faith. Some of us have Pentecost moments, when it feels as if the Holy Spirit comes alive within us. We know God has been good to us and we find a need to share it: someone is cured; a relationship is restored; a problem is resolved; healing finds its way into a broken family; a dream begins to be realized; hope is found in the midst of darkness.

God acts in our lives and we know we’ve been blessed. It’s the joy Mary expresses in her Magnificat when she can’t help but sing, “The Lord has done great things for me.” It’s Thomas’ “My Lord and my God” on seeing Jesus’ wounds after the resurrection, something Jesus did to help him. It’s one of our parishioners, who upon hearing her cancer was gone, simply saying “God blessed me. I have a new life. Thank you God.”

Pentecost is an awaking and a spreading of the ways God blesses us. It’s sharing God’s mighty acts in our everyday lives. Today would be a great day to spread our own good news of the way God has helped us.

Happy Pentecost everyone,

--Fr. Mike

In John 20:19-23, Jesus says “peace be with you” twice. First, he gives his disciples the gift of peace so that they can take their focus off of their worries to look at him and recognize him standing in their midst.

Then he says it again while giving them the vocation of continuing the mission that he had started. This time, “peace be with you” is to be the fruit of a life lived in the Holy Spirit while serving God for the sake of the world.

It’s one thing to feel peaceful because we know that Jesus is with us. It’s quite a challenge, though, to feel peaceful when telling others about Jesus, for we feel inadequate and overwhelmed, and we’re afraid of being persecuted and rejected. That’s why he gave us his Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit gives us whatever we need for doing the work that the Father asks of us, and thus we are not really inadequate nor does God fail to comfort us when people reject us.

One of the fruits of partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit is an inner peace that does not depend on what happens, nor on what others do or don’t do to us, nor on how they respond to the Good News that we share with them. Peace is the result of being alive in the Spirit. Peace is the Spirit’s activity within us.

At the end of this Gospel passage, Jesus gives the Apostles (the first Catholic priests) the authority to forgive sins as surrogates of his divine presence. He is instituting the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which provides to us Jesus himself in the form of the human priest.

The same forgiving power of the Spirit enables all of us to experience peace in a sinful, tumultuous world. Even when forgiving is most difficult, in the Spirit of Christ we can do it. We can forgive those who hurt us, even if they never repent. And this is what restores our peace.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What is causing you to feel unpeaceful?

2. Whom do you need to forgive in those situations? If you’ve forgiven everyone and you still lack peace, do you need to forgive yourself? Or God? Consider going to a spiritual director or counselor for help in finding all the peace that Jesus wants you to have.

3. Give an example of how peace is a fruit of life in the Holy Spirit.

4. What other fruits come from depending upon God and partnering with his Spirit?
There are different ways to be present or absent to each other.

For example, when Jesus is saying farewell to his disciples he tries to explain to them some of the deep paradoxes inside the mystery of presence and absence.

He tells them that it is better for them that he goes away because, unless he does, he will be unable to send them his spirit. He assures them too that the heaviness and grief they will feel at his leaving is really the pain of giving birth and that this heartache will eventually turn warm and nurturing and bring them a joy that no one can ever take from them.

That is the language of Ascension and Pentecost, not just as it pertains to Jesus leaving this earth and sending his spirit, but it is also as it pertains to the mystery of giving and receiving spirit in all our goodbyes.

Among other things, it points to that perplexing experience we have where we can only fully understand and appreciate others after they go away, just as others can only fully understand us and let themselves be fully blessed by us after we go away. Like Jesus, we can only really send our spirits after we go away.

We experience this everywhere in life: A grown child has to leave home before her parents can fully understand and appreciate her for who she really is. There comes a day in a young person’s life when she stands before her parents and, in whatever way, says the words: “It is better for you that I go away! Unless I go you will never really know who I am. You will have some heartache now, but that pain will eventually become warm because I will come back to you in a deeper way.” Parents say the same thing to their children when they are dying.

We only really grasp the essence of another after he or she has gone away. When someone leaves us physically, we are given the chance to receive his or her presence in a deeper way.

And the pain and heartache we feel in the farewell are birth-pangs, the stretching that comes with giving new birth. When someone we love has to leave us (to go on a trip, to begin a new life, or to depart from us through death) initially that will feel painful, sometimes excruciatingly so. But when that leaving is necessitated by duty or by life itself then, no matter how hard it is, even if it is death itself that takes away our loved one, eventually he or she will come back to us in a deeper way, in a presence that is warm, nurturing, and immune to the fragility of normal relationships.

Many of us, I suspect, have experienced this in the death of someone whom we loved deeply. For me, this happened at the death of my parents. My mother and father died three months apart, when I was twenty-three years old. They were young, too young to die in my view, but death took them anyway, against my will and against theirs. Initially, their death was experienced as very painful, as bitter. My siblings and I wanted their presence in the same way as we had always had it, physical, tangible, bodily, real.

Eventually the pain of their leaving left us and we sensed that our parents were still with us, with all that was best in them, our mum and dad still, except that now their presence was deeper and less fragile than it had been when they were physically with us. They were with us now, real and nurturing, in a way that nobody and nothing can ever take away.

Our presence to each other physically, in touch, sight, and speech is no doubt the deepest wonder in all of life, sometimes the only thing we can appreciate as real. But wonderful as that is, it is always limited and fragile. It depends upon being physically connected in some way and it is fragile in that separation (physical or emotional) can easily take someone away from us. With everyone we love and who loves us (parents, spouse, children, friends, acquaintances, colleagues), we are always just one trip, misunderstanding, accident, or heart attack away from losing their physical presence.

This was the exact heartache and fear that the disciples felt as Jesus was saying goodbye to them and that is the heartache and fear we all feel in our relationships. We can easily lose each other.

But there is a presence that cannot be taken away, that does not suffer from this fragility, that is, the spirit that comes back to us whenever, because of the some inner dictates of love and life, our loved ones have to leave us or we have to leave our loved ones. A spirit returns and it is deep and permanent and leaves a warm, joyous, and real presence that nobody can ever take from us.

Statement of Cardinal Cupich on the Passage of Senate Bill 25

The passage of Senate Bill 25, eliminating even the minimal limitations on abortions under previous law marks a sad moment in our history as a State. We have worked to make the case for a consistent approach to human dignity in Illinois and will continue to do so even as elected officials single out unborn persons for particular disregard. It remains our hope that Illinois will eventually distinguish itself as a safe place that welcomes not only those seeking a new life or second chance, but also the most vulnerable among us who deserve a chance at life.

We are resolved to let women and families in the Chicago area know they have alternatives to abortion. We will continue to provide help during their pregnancies and throughout their journey as parents. Our ministry in Cook and Lake Counties has taught us that when teenagers in underserved communities experience an unplanned pregnancy without proper support, the consequences for the health and well-being of mother and child can be grim.

But, we have also seen that a brighter outcome is possible when support is provided. Catholic Charities and its partners serve hundreds of young women and developing families every year. They nurture the mother and therefore the baby by providing classes in health and child development. They encourage the new families toward independence by providing childcare and making referrals for education, housing and employment.

As a young woman served by a Catholic agency said, “It was like a second family when I came here. My Doula took me to doctors’ appointments, explaining what all the papers and procedures meant, how my baby was developing, the changes my body was going through and how to eat and exercise to stay healthy.”

Today, her son is thriving in the organization’s early childhood program and its family support program helps her stay on track with personal goals. She will begin a bachelor’s degree program this summer. With loving encouragement, she has turned stressful circumstances into a positive, hopeful future for herself and her son.

Women have a real choice when they are given the support they need to bring their children into the world and parent them, supported by a society that truly values them. We will give that support to all who seek it in the hope that by offering them a choice, we will build stronger families and a better Illinois.

There were 53 units of blood donated on June 2nd, potentially saving 159 lives!

Nate and his sons Tom and Tyler donated blood in memory of their wife and mother, Gayle Photikarm, who was a beloved second grade teacher at St. Hubert School.

Thanks to all of those who gave unselfishly of themselves to help others. Their generosity will help our neighbors in need, including cancer patients, critically ill newborns, accident victims and many more who have illnesses requiring blood products.

A Special Balance the Budget Collection

As mentioned last week, as we approach the end of our fiscal year we are making an appeal for a special second collection to help meet our budgeted goals for our weekly collections. This special second collection will take place the weekends of June 8-9 and June 15-16.

This has become especially important this year because, in addition to normal operating costs, we are also trying to offset some unexpected expenses that came our way:

- An unexpected number of occasions for snow removal.
- Roof repairs to address the main leak in the church.
- Air Conditioning repairs from last summer, a disruption in heating the lower level this winter, and just recently another fix to the air conditioning unit that cools the main church.

If we meet our budget, it will help us absorb the unexpected costs. As of April 30, we are about 15% below our budgeted amount.

We are very grateful to everyone who supports our parish week after week. And we are also grateful to so many families making the additional sacrifices to complete our 2020 Vision. So we thank you for considering this special appeal, which will also help our parish a great deal.

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI)

The Catechumenate for Children/Teens, which is an Adaptation of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (R.C.I.A.), is the process by which unbaptized young people of the age of reason come into The Church. (Infant Baptism is only for those children under the age of reason.) Older children who are already baptized, but who are uncatechized, also can prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist together with their peers during the Easter Vigil or at a Rite of Full Communion.

The following is the criteria for attendance for CMI:

- Unbaptized children over the age of 7 who wish to learn more about the Catholic Faith and possibly become Catholic.
- Baptized Christian Children from other denominations who would like to learn more about the Catholic Faith, and possibly be received into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to prepare for Eucharist and Confirmation by renewing their understanding of their Catholic Faith.

June 3, 2019

Dear St. Hubert Families,

We are wrapping up an incredible academic year at St. Hubert Catholic School! As a ministry of St. Hubert Parish, we are thankful for everyone’s support.

Here are just a few of the highlights from 2018-2019:

A New Mantra and Developing “Knighthly Virtues”:
- Our new mantra is “Impacting the World through Christ.” Our school emphasizes this belief and focuses on teaching the virtues of compassion, service and perseverance.

Service: Helping Those in Need.
- 4th-8th grade students took a field trip to Feed My Starving Children in Schaumburg. There, they “turned hunger into hope” by packing nutritious meals for hungry children around the world.
- On Holy Thursday, our 8th graders worked with our Encore 55 Plus group to pack lunches for the homeless in Suburban Cook County through Catholic Charities.
- St. Hubert Families donated to the “Stuff the Duffle” campaign. All donated items went to “Let it be us,” a local foster care organization.
- Our 8th graders made blankets for the Linus Project benefiting foster children.
- Our 5th graders made Valentine Day cards for La Rabida Children’s Hospital.

Technology:
- Last summer we completely updated our school’s WiFi infrastructure to accommodate a 1:1 Program so that every student can use an iPad in the school without disruption.
- 100 new iPads were purchased for this school year as part of phase 1 of our technology program. By this Fall, we will complete the 1:1 project so that every student in grades 1-8 has access to an I-Pad. We also purchased Apple crayons and ear buds for students in grades 2, 4 and 6-8.
- 5 of our teachers are now Apple Certified. We are on our way to becoming an Apple Certified School.

Science: An Award Winning Year!
- St. Hubert adopted an all new science curriculum for grades K-8. HMH Science Dimensions™ puts students in charge of their learning and enables teachers to seamlessly guide their students on this new instructional path. This unique design means better engagement, deeper understanding, and greater student achievement.
- All students in 6th-8th grades participated in Invention Convention 2019 as part of our new Science curriculum! Students learned about the Engineering Design Process, inventing, and creative problem solving over several weeks. They utilized their new iPads to create final presentations about their inventing process and to showcase their inventions.
Our Annual St. Hubert School Report Card

A New Math Curriculum
- We renewed our contract with Go Math for grades K-5. Grades 6-8 adopted a new math series called “Big Ideas” from National Geographic.

More Students Are Learning Spanish
- All St. Hubert students in grades Pre-K through 8 received Spanish instruction twice a week.

Improved Hours for Before and After School Care
- To better help the needs of families, we adjusted our before and after care hours and fees. Before care began at 6:30 am. After care was extended to 6:00 pm.

Summer School at St. Hubert
- Check out our school's website for all of our summer camps.

Looking Ahead to Next Year!
Here are three exciting new developments that our families can look forward to in the 2019-20 school year:

A New Literature Curriculum
- We will be adopting a new literature series for all students grades K-8.

Technology: We’re almost a 1:1 Apple School!
- Next year, all St. Hubert Teachers will be Apple Certified Teachers.
- All students in grades 1-8 will have their own iPad.

A New Media Center:
- We will be transforming our library into a media center this summer.

Thank you for all of your support this year. It has been an absolute pleasure serving St. Hubert School, an important mission of St. Hubert Parish. Reach out at any time with questions or concerns.

Enjoy your summer,

Kelly Bourrell
Family #30
Our family consists of a mom and her two sons, ages 4 and 2.

Our mom is doing great and continues to increase her savings. She is currently working on her exit plan. Her lease will expire on September 1 and she would love to stay in her current apartment, however the rent will increase due to remodeling of the building so she will begin searching for a more affordable unit in the area or close to her job. Her children are stable and ready for the summer.

Ongoing Goals:
- Save up at least 3 months rent
- Obtain a CNA certificate
- Secure affordable housing before July 2019

Family #31
This family consists of a 24 year old mom and her two sons, ages 7 and 5.

Our mom has reached out to a staffing agency, which has found her a temporary assignment that could potentially turn into a permanent full-time position. The hours are from 9 AM to 5 PM, which will make her available for her children after school and save money on childcare. She will keep working at her current part-time jobs until she finds full-time work.

New Hope Staff is also working with this mom on an exit plan. She is hopeful that she will be stable enough to take over her rent when the current lease expires. She is also looking at other housing options that are more affordable. She says that she can always fall back on waitressing in the evenings to bring in additional funding.

Ongoing Goals:
- Save up at least 3 months rent
- Apply for low income housing
- Look for full time employment

New Hope Staff would like to personally thank the Parishioners of the Peace and Justice Cluster Parishes for your continued support over the years!

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
