The Most Holy Trinity

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.” - Jn 16:13a
The Relationship

Today we celebrate Trinity Sunday, one of the great mysteries of our faith. We have one God in three Persons—Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It’s a mystery that theologians have dived into over the centuries.

Albert Einstein once said: “The most beautiful and deepest experience a man can have is the sense of the mysterious...To sense that behind anything that can be experienced there is a ‘something’ that our mind cannot grasp and whose beauty and simplicity are but a feeble reflection.” Einstein was immersed in science and mathematics. We’re immersed in God.

So for me, one of the most meaningful reflections of a mystery like the Trinity—one of the most important mysteries we’ll ever engage—is inspired by the First Letter of John:

“Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God...Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love.” 1 John 4:7-8

Knowing God is love, the theologian will conclude that there is a natural interplay between the person who loves (the Father), the person who receives the love (the Son), and the love that is exchanged between them (the Holy Spirit). So, within the reality of love itself, we find the reality of how God expresses himself.

As such God is three persons constantly in communion...and constantly loving. The Trinity is a relationship of three persons continually interacting with each other. That means for all of us, created in God’s image and likeness, relationships have great meaning. The command to “love one another” is a command to experience the reality of who God is. It’s a way to reveal the Trinity, this deep mystery, in our everyday world, simply by wanting the best for someone else.

Love is a mystery, just like God is a mystery. But, then, “God is love.” The good news today is that it can be experienced.

Odds and Ends

Happy Father’s Day to all Our Fathers! Today, as we’re mindful of relationships, we celebrate our fathers, grandfathers, godfathers and the men who teach us about life and faith, and encourage us, challenge us and help us discover the best within. We’re also mindful of our fathers who go before us, remembering the ways they helped us, witnessed the Catholic faith to us, and formed us into the people we are. May God always bless you.

St. Hubert to Have a Blast with the Boomers! We sold out of tickets...twice! Just under 200 St. Hubert parishioners and students of all ages are headed for the Boomers game on Friday, June 21. Two of our parishioners will throw out the first pitch, and the Knights will be on hand with a color guard to honor our country. It’s time for baseball, hot dogs, fireworks, and a night to just have some fun. Thank you to St. Hubert School, our St. Hubert Stewards and the Knights of Columbus for organizing a great event. Play ball!

A Great Way to Participate at Mass. If you ever thought to yourself, “I’d like to be a Eucharistic Minister” or a lector, mass coordinator, altar server, or even thought you’d like to carry in the cross, it’s probably more than just an empty thought. It very well could be a movement of the Holy Spirit saying, “you can do it!” We’re looking for people to help in these important ministries. You’ll find a sign-up sheet in the narthex.

May God continue to bless you in the many ways you help build up St. Hubert Parish. It’s a great place to be and to discover how God is moving in our lives.  —Fr. Mike
On June 20, we remember the plight of millions of people across the globe displaced from their homes by war, famine, corruption, and other violence. These people are part of our human family, and their needs are Christ's needs. In Matthew 25, we see God's heavenly expectations for disciples. We are to meet Jesus in the least among us - the hungry, the thirsting, those without adequate shelter or clothing, the ill, and even the incarcerated. This shouldn't be too much of an imaginative stretch. After all, Christ himself knew what it was to be a refugee. St. Joseph took the Holy Family to Egypt, fleeing from the wrath of Herod. Jesus spent his first few years of life as a stranger in a strange land. Mary knew what it was like to navigate an unfamiliar marketplace and to be surrounded by a foreign tongue. Joseph had a practical trade but had to start from nothing all the same. Let's pray for all refugees today and to see in them our own story of faith.

What don’t you know that you hope God will reveal to you?

What have you been asking Jesus to tell you that is still unanswered?

What teaching of the Church don’t you understand or agree with?

In this Sunday’s Gospel reading, Jesus explains that there is more he’d like to tell us but we can’t handle it yet.

Why aren’t we ready for it? Because we have to first let the Holy Spirit prepare us. We have to let God transform something within us, and until we surrender to that process, the truth is more of a burden than a blessing, which we readily reject.

Everything that Jesus said and did came from the Father through the Holy Spirit. God gave us that same Spirit, that same Wisdom, that same Truth, but the gift is useless unless we submit to the Spirit’s purifying activity.

Of the Trinity, it’s the Father who forgives sins. It’s Jesus who delivers the forgiveness. And it’s the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us and empowers us to go and sin no more.

In the confessional, the priest is the presence of Jesus and the whole Body of Christ (which is the Church). Absolution is an action of his Holy Spirit, but it’s more than just the removal of guilt; it replaces the sinful vice with the virtue that will help us avoid that vice in the future. The Sacrament of Confession is a direct contact with the Holy Trinity who embraces our repentance and transforms us to increase our holiness.

To receive this grace, we only have to be open to it and interested in cooperating with God. Humility is necessary to be teachable and transformable.

The unanswered questions in our lives become personal revelations when we earnestly seek to do the Father’s will in unity with Jesus while growing in holiness through the indwelling presence of his Holy Spirit.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Write a list of questions you have for Jesus. What do you have trouble understanding?

2. After making the list, ask the Holy Spirit to become your Teacher. Ask Jesus to help you become teachable.

3. What gift of the Holy Spirit do you find most helpful in guiding you through life’s difficulties?

4. How does it help you to figure out and/or do the Father’s will?
Few expressions so succinctly summarize what is asked of us as Christians as does the expression: “to live in the Spirit.” Too often, however, this phrase is used in a way that is too pious, too over-charged with charismatic fervor, or too theologically abstract to have much meaning for ordinary people. It may well summarize Christian life, but it can also be little more than a very vague platitude. What does it mean “to live in the Spirit?”

St. Paul, in attempting to specify this, is anything but piously deluded or theologically abstract. Rather he speaks with a clarity that leaves almost no room for vagueness or false sentiment. He begins by a certain VIA NEGATIVA, telling us that, if in our lives there is “lewd conduct, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, bickering, jealousy, outbursts of rage, selfish rivalries, dissensions, factionalism, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and the like”, then we are not living in the spirit, pure and simple. Conversely, we are living in the spirit when, in our lives, there is “charity, joy, peace, patience, endurance, kindness, generosity, faith, mildness, and chastity.” (Galatians, 5)

This is a valuable insight because, if we take Paul’s word’s seriously, we can never delude ourselves into identifying true life in the Spirit with what it is so often confused with, namely, false piety and over-privatized sentiment (in pious circles) and confrontation out of hurt, paranoia, and narrow loyalties (in both liberal and conservative circles). When the fruits of the Spirit are absent, irrespective of how spiritually confident and self-righteous we might feel or how right our cause might seem, then the Spirit too is absent. We must be clear about this.

The Spirit is present only when charity, joy, peace, patience, endurance, kindness, generosity, faith, mildness, and chastity are deeply in our lives – and permeate the air around us.

The Holy Spirit, as classically defined in theology, is “the love between the God and Christ, the Father and the Son.” It is in meditating this concept that we come to some understanding of what it means to live in the Spirit. Let me try to elaborate on this by using a image, that of romantic love in its peak fervor.

Imagine a man and a woman who are deeply, passionately, and completely in love. What will characterize their relationship? Constant giving and receiving, resulting in an ever deeper relationship and an ever intensifying gratitude – which will leave them both, daily, feeling ever more mellow, joyful, peaceful, mild, patient, chaste, and wanting to reach out and share with others what is so quickening in their own lives. Moreover, their love for each other will create, around them, an ambience, a climate, an atmosphere, of charity, joy, peace, patience, mildness, and chastity. The movement of giving-and-receiving-in-gratitude between them will create a warm hearth where others will spontaneously come to seek warmth in a world which offers too little peace, patience, joy, and the like.

Such a relationship can be a modest indicator for what happens in the Trinity, of how the Father and the Son generate the Spirit, and what results from this generation.

- The Father constantly creates and gives life.
- The Son receives life from the Father and gives it back in gratitude.
- This then (as is true in all relationships wherein gift is received lovingly) makes it possible for the Father to give even more to the Son.
- As this flow of life, this giving and receiving, goes on, gratitude intensifies and an energy, a spirit, the Holy Spirit, is created.
- This Spirit, since it is generated by gratitude, naturally is a Spirit of charity, joy, patience, goodness, long-suffering, mildness, faith, and chastity. It is then too a spirit that is naturally incompatible with idolatry, adultery, violence, gossip, factionalism, jealousy, rage, and infidelity.

When we meditate on how the Holy Spirit is generated, we are under less illusion as to what it means to live in the Spirit. To believe that we are living in the Spirit when our lives are not permeated by, and radiating, gratitude is to be dangerously deluded. We must be clear about this, lest, as poet William Stafford puts it: “Following the wrong God home, we may both miss our star.”

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father.

A Special Balance the Budget Collection

As mentioned last week, as we approach the end of our fiscal year we are making an appeal for a special second collection to help meet our budgeted goals for our weekly collections. This special second collection will take place this weekend, June 15-16.

This has become especially important this year because, in addition to normal operating costs, we are also trying to offset some unexpected expenses that came our way:

- An unexpected number of occasions for snow removal.
- Roof repairs to address the main leak in the church.
- Air Conditioning repairs from last summer, a disruption in heating the lower level this winter, and just recently another fix to the air conditioning unit that cools the main church.

If we meet our budget, it will help us absorb the unexpected costs. As of April 30, we are about 15% below our budgeted amount.

We are very grateful to everyone who supports our parish week after week. And we are also grateful to so many families making the additional sacrifices to complete our 2020 Vision. So we thank you for considering this special appeal, which will also help our parish a great deal.

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI)

THE BEST EXERCISE... WALKING WITH GOD

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI) is a family centered program. If you wish to have your child initiated (receive the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, Eucharist) into the Catholic Church, but have not been actively practicing and wish to resume practicing, this process would be a great place for your family to journey together. The instructional sessions take place over the course of the standard school year for two years. This process provides for the catechetical (teaching religious principle by questions and answers) needs of the students, and guides them through the various rites of the Church which will lead to their initiation during the Easter Vigil.

A Time for Grieving

We, at the Funeral Luncheon Ministry, provide a place for families to find comfort in their time of grieving. By offering families a place to have a luncheon, we hope they find an inviting place to celebrate the life of one they have lost. We cater the warm portion of the meal, but look to volunteers to offer a personal touch by providing salads and desserts, homemade or store bought, to complement the meal. We are hoping that you’ll prayerfully consider assisting us. It is such a rewarding ministry, as evidenced by the comments guests share with us. Over the meal, families share sorrow and tears, laughter and warm memories. If you feel you’d like to be part of our mission, you could contact either myself, Alberta Fuger at jfuger@sbcglobal.net or Kathy Krebs at kdkrebs@comcast.net.

We’ll return your e-mail with more information about what to expect. We thank you for your consideration.

(The Ministry Station is the large brown cabinet by the main entrance on the South side of the church. There are slots on the left side of the station, and the receptacle for Rosary drop off is marked.) Patrick suggests putting any rosary to be repaired in an envelope with your name and phone number on it for return purposes. When repaired, we will call you to let you know you can pick it up.

Please donate any unused, broken rosaries so that their parts can be used to repair member’s rosaries.
