17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” - Lk 11:9
Our Conversation with God

This weekend, our readings have us focus on prayer and what it means in our life.

In a nutshell, prayer really is our conversation with God, even though at times it may seem one-sided. But it really isn’t. Over time, what we see is that God speaks in return often in creative ways and ways we may not always expect.

He can give us divine insight—those “a-ha moments” when something suddenly dawns on us and helps us with whatever it is we’re struggling with. Another word for that is “inspiration,” the root word being spirit which we know as God, the Holy Spirit.

He can also reach us through being aware of conversations or through messages we see, read or hear. Most definitely, and primarily through the scriptures he reaches us—his words we hear at Mass and in our own spiritual reading.

What we hear in both the first reading (Abraham bargaining with God to help as many people as possible) and the gospel (Jesus’ primer on prayer), is that God is very much actively listening to us—especially when it comes to praying for help. We call this intercessory prayer—praying for others or for ourselves and what we need.

Jesus encourages us to be persistent, to keep our prayer before God. And that’s because God works in his own way. He’s not going to text us or send us an email. He’ll reach us in different ways—both spiritual and concrete. What Jesus helps us see is that we need to be open minded to God’s creativity. The response isn’t always direct. And the response isn’t always “yes” either. Sometimes, it’s “I have something different in mind for you... something better.”

If there’s one thing we need to always remember, it’s that prayer is most effective when we’re in an on-going relationship with God—when that relationship is personal and engaging, and based on mutual trust. In addition to the prayers we memorize, or the things we go to God for help with, God is never too busy to hear about our lives—our hopes, our frustrations, our doubts and fears, our difficulties with others, and all the things we’re grateful for in our life. God doesn’t get overwhelmed. And God is not disinterested. God is engaged. And your life matters very much to him. He just wants to hear from us. It’s hard not to remember that Jesus said, “I call you friends” (John 15:15). Friends talk, which is what brings them closer together.

May your conversations with God be enlightening. Asking, seeking and knocking on God’s door leads to receiving, finding and a door being opened.

—Fr. Mike

Can You Use a Helping Hand?

The Helping Hands Ministry is made up of parishioners ready and willing to help another parishioner in need.

It’s not too complicated: we simply match people who need help with people who are willing to lend a hand.

So, if you need help, please give us a call.

And if you’d like to join the team to lend a hand to others, please call, too, to add yourself to the list.

Sometimes a helping hand is an answer to a prayer!

In Luke 11:1-13, Jesus teaches us how to pray with faith. The "bread" that runs as a theme in this scripture is the life of holiness. The "Bread of Life" is Jesus. The gift of the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life, is a holy life.

Notice also that the visitor in the parable is a friend of God, not a stranger, who wants to share the bread with another friend. This represents a baptized Christian who wants to share the friendship of God ("three loaves" – the Trinity) with others, but he or she is inadequate for the task.

When we knock on the door to God's heart seeking help for our inadequacies, the Father gives us his fully adequate Holy Spirit. And that's not all we get! Whenever we pray, this Holy Spirit connects us to the Father and to Jesus. Therefore, every prayer increases our holiness, brings us closer to God and empowers us to be more like Jesus. But holiness does not come quickly nor easily. We must be persistent in our prayer lives. We must continually rely on God's Spirit in order to resist temptations and grow in faith.

No matter what we ask God to share with us, including the material things that we need or desire, God wants to use it to nourish our souls. This is what we ask for when we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread." Be persistent. Receiving God's bread takes time (we're slow learners).

It's the devil who says we can have everything we ask for as fast as we want it. New Age and occult practices are fast-food spiritualities that are riddled with the dangerously unhealthy fat of false beliefs. They lack the growth in holiness that we can only receive from the Holy Spirit. Many people turn to the occult because they don't have the desire to do the hard work of holiness.

The supernatural adequacies of the Holy Spirit are ours for the asking, because we already received the Holy Spirit during baptism. However, to live in God's supernatural power, we have to pray persistently, identify our sins and repent, and humbly open ourselves to the holiness of the Holy Spirit.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How much do you rely on the Holy Spirit's help in your daily life?
2. How often do you humble yourself before the Lord in prayer and ask for an increase of holiness?
3. Describe your prayer life. How does it help you become holier in your daily activities?
4. How has the Holy Spirit purified you?
Unless you somehow have a foot outside of your culture, the culture will swallow you whole. Daniel Berrigan wrote that and it’s true too in this sense: Unless you can drink in strength from a source outside yourself, your natural proclivities for paranoia, bitterness, and hatred will invariably swallow you whole.

The disciples in Luke’s Gospel understood this. They approached Jesus and asked him to teach them how to pray because they saw him doing things that they did not see anyone else doing. He was able to meet hatred with love, to genuinely forgive others, to endure misunderstanding and opposition without giving in to self-pity and bitterness, and to retain within himself a center of peace and non-violence. This, they knew, was as extraordinary as walking on water, and they sensed that he was drawing the strength to do this from a source outside him, through prayer.

They knew they themselves were incapable of resisting bitterness and hatred and they wanted to be as strong as Jesus and so they asked him: Lord, teach us to pray. No doubt they imagined that this would simply be a question of learning a certain technique; but as the Gospels make clear, linking to a divine source outside of ourselves isn’t always easy or automatic, even for Jesus, as we see from his struggle in the Garden of Gethsemane, his “agony in the garden”.

Jesus, himself, had to struggle mightily at times to ground himself in God as we see from his prayer in Gethsemane. His struggle there is described as an “agony”, and this needs to be carefully understood. “Agony” was a technical term used at the time for athletes. Before entering the stadium or arena for a contest, athletes would first work their bodies into a sweat, a warm lather, an agony, to make their muscles warm and ready for the contest. The Gospels tell us that Jesus also worked himself into a sweat, except in his case he sweated blood as he readied himself in his heart for the contest, the test, he was about to enter, his passion.

And what was that contest? The test he was readying himself for wasn’t as it is commonly believed an agonizing over the decision whether to let himself be crucified or whether to invoke divine power and save himself from this humiliation and death. That was never the issue in his struggle in Gethsemane. He had long before accepted that he was going to die. The question was how, how would he die, in love or in bitterness?

In the end, it was a struggle to strengthen his will so that he would die with a loving, warm, forgiving heart. And it was a struggle; a positive outcome was in doubt. Amidst all the darkness, hatred, bitterness, injustice, and misunderstanding that surrounded him, amidst everything that stood unfairly against him and was antithetical to his person and message, Jesus struggled mightily to cling to a source that could give him the strength to resist the hatred and violence around him, that could give him the heart to forgive his enemies, that could give him the graciousness to forgive the good thief, and that could give him the inner strength to turn humiliation, pain, and injustice into compassion rather than bitterness.

The Gospels put this metaphorically as a struggle to “stay awake”, namely, to stay awake to his inner identity as God’s Beloved, an identity that he appropriated at his baptism and which shaped his very consciousness during all the years of his ministry. In Gethsemane, amidst everything that invites him (and us) into moral amnesia, Jesus manages to stay awake to his deeper reality and to his identity as God’s beloved. His disciples don’t. As the Gospels tell us, during Jesus’ great struggle they fell asleep and their sleep (“out of sheer sorrow”) was more than physical fatigue. This is evident when, immediately after Jesus has managed to ground himself against hatred and non-violence, Peter succumbs to both and cuts off the ear of the high priest’s servant. Peter was asleep, in more ways than one, in a sleep that signifies the absence of prayer in one’s life.

Prayer is meant to keep us awake, which means it’s meant to keep us connected to a source outside our of natural instincts and proclivities which can keep us grounded in love, forgiveness, non-retaliation, and non-violence when everything inside of us and around us screams for bitterness, hatred, and retaliation. And if Jesus had to sweat blood in trying to stay connected to that source when he was tested, we can expect that the cost for us will be the same, struggle, agony, wanting in every fiber of our being to give in, clinging to love precariously by the skin of our teeth, and then having God’s angel strengthen us only when we’ve been writhing long enough in the struggle so that we can let God’s strength do for us what our own strength cannot do.

Lord, teach us to pray!

Praying for the sick in our midst is a ministry to which the entire Catholic community is called through their baptism. Here are the ordinary guidelines for including the sick in our Sunday common prayer and the bulletin.

- Every week in the general intercessions of the Sunday liturgy, a petition is said for all those who are sick and suffering, whether or not they are mentioned by name. Specific names of the sick, those suffering from disease, those who have had or are about to have surgery, or those injured in accidents may be added to the general intercessions.

- The names of the sick listed in our parish bulletin will include those persons whose names have been requested by a family member or friend. These names will be read aloud at Mass, if requested, for three weeks and appear in the bulletin for six weeks. Please be sure to have the permission of the person that you are asking to add to the prayer list, since it would be announced at Mass or printed in the bulletin.

- If you want a name to remain in the general intercessions at Mass or in the bulletin beyond the usual number of weeks, a phone call will be necessary. However, those suffering long term illness can be placed in the bulletin for 6 months.

- Contact Parish Ministry Office at 847 885-7700 to add or continue a name on the prayer list. If you see someone’s name on the bulletin list that is doing better and is out of the hospital, etc., please let us know by calling the Parish office so we can take their name off the list.

St. Hubert offers other options for continuing prayers during illness and difficult times.

- In the Book of Prayer Intentions located in the Narthex, the name of a sick person or special intention may be entered upon any visit to the church building. The needs listed in this book are prayed for at every weekend liturgy.

- A visit from a parish Minister of Care may be requested through contacting the Parish Office. They will bring Communion and pray with those who are sick, anticipating surgery or facing prolonged illness or recuperation.

- We offer anointing of the sick at Mass twice a year, once in the spring and once in the fall. However, if you need to be anointed at home, please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit. Many people also ask for an anointing at Mass. If a priest is available, you may ask him before or after Mass.

- The Prayer Shawl Ministry is built on the belief that our faith in Jesus Christ, our Risen Lord, will bring comfort and healing to all who suffer. We choose to provide tangible evidence of our faith in this healing power by creating shawls of prayer in which to wrap our brothers and sisters who are in need of his healing touch. There is no cost for a shawl. Our ministry is sustained through donations.

To request a shawl, please contact Marie Staffa, 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Please continue to pray for our parishioners, family and friends who have requested our prayers.

For those thinking about becoming a Catholic:

Why might you be thinking about this, now, as an adult? You may be looking for “more” in life, dissatisfied with the emptiness you may be feeling. You may be at an age when you are open to God’s call….or your children may be asking questions….or you are experiencing a need to belong to something, someone, bigger than yourself. You might be searching for a way to share faith within your family…you might simply know that there is something missing in your life. All of us, Catholics or not, experience these longings at one time or another. Those of us involved in the St. Hubert Parish RCIA process invite you to join us, to begin YOUR journey, to ask questions, pray with us, explore your own spiritual history, and learn about the Catholic Church.

What do I do next?
Inquirers seeking entrance into the Catholic Church meet once per week for instruction and discussion in the essentials of the Catholic Faith. Following the Rite of Acceptance/Welcome, they also attend Sunday Liturgy together as a group, and may be dismissed after the Liturgy of the Word to reflect more deeply on the Scriptures and seek to connect them to their daily lives. Each person on this faith journey has a companion in the initial stages, and later chooses a sponsor—a baptized Catholic who provides support, prayers, and guidance. Further, it is the work of the entire parish community to support our inquirers through prayer and example.

A Time for Grieving

We, at the Funeral Luncheon Ministry, provide a place for families to find comfort in their time of grieving. By offering families a place to have a luncheon, we hope they find an inviting place to celebrate the life of one they have lost. We cater the warm portion of the meal, but look to volunteers to offer a personal touch by providing salads and desserts, homemade or store bought, to complement the meal. We are hoping that you’ll prayerfully consider assisting us. It is such a rewarding ministry, as evidenced by the comments guests share with us. Over the meal, families share sorrow and tears, laughter and warm memories. If you feel you’d like to be part of our mission, you could contact either myself, Alberta Fuger at jfuger@sbcglobal.net or Kathy Krebs at kdkrebs@comcast.net.

We’ll return your e-mail with more information about what to expect. We thank you for your consideration.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptism Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
