23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.” - Lk 14:27

Pastor’s Letter

We Did It!
Thank you, St. Hubert!

It’s with a grateful heart, and in awe of your generosity and kindness, that I’m pleased to report we not only met the 2020 Matching Gift Challenge, we’ve reached and surpassed our $2.4 million goal for the 2020 Vision Capital Campaign!

We’re now able to accomplish what we need to do for the 2020s as we move into a new part of our parish history. And the most amazing thing is that we did it together so that we can continue our mission of building up our community to do the work of the gospel. Our campus is a well-used and active meeting place where people come together to worship God, build community, learn the faith, prepare for the sacraments, practice the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and educate our future Catholic leaders.

In the gospel today, Jesus talks about having a vision for our spiritual lives and knowing where we're headed. He says just like people make plans when they build something, (or plan a capital campaign for a parish!), or when military leaders go into battle, we also need to plan for our spiritual future.

Jesus wants us to know that there’s a reality to following him: we have to be prepared that one day we’ll be called to carry a cross (if we aren’t already doing so). We know that our cross won’t be as heavy as Jesus’, but our cross will be the thing we go through that tests us, and tests our faith, whatever that may be. Sometimes it can be an illness, or seeing someone we love suffer or pass away, seeing injustice, or even being Catholic in the midst of scandal.

During those difficult times, we hold onto our faith because God doesn’t abandon us during these kinds of trials, but accompanies us to help us through. In fact, Jesus says when trials find us, go to Him. He will help us lift what seems too heavy to carry on our own and will help us shoulder the burden. (See Matt 11:28-30). When those times come, he walks with us.

When we began our 2020 Vision Campaign, a goal of $2.4 million was challenging. It seemed like a long road ahead. But we reached it through prayer and through the gracious generosity of all those who invested in the future of our community. We lifted one another up and saw Christ in each other.

Thank you to our campaign chairs, Zee & Roger Malinski and Lisa & Jim Elder, for their love of the community and for their tireless dedication to St. Hubert. Thank you to the Executive Planning Committee and all those who led us through the different phases of the campaign for their sacrifice of time and their generous commitment. Thank you to the very generous family with roots in Toronto, Canada who believe in St. Hubert School and single-handedly ensured every student now has an IPad and teachers were trained—a goal we thought would take years to accomplish. And thank you to everyone who prayed and did what they could to help in any way, financially and otherwise.

We belong to an incredible community of faith. We reached our goal together! Thank you, St. Hubert! May God continue to strengthen us and lead us forward.

—Fr. Mike

What crosses do you want to get rid of that, if you do escape from them, would require you to abandon Jesus on his cross? (Hint: What sacrifices of love are you unwilling to make?)

Jesus says that unless we are first and foremost committed to discipleship — learning from him and making every effort to become more like him — we are ill prepared for all the other tasks of life.

In other words, we can start building toward good goals, but if our relationship with Christ is not our highest priority, we'll miss his guidance and his surprises and his blessings. We'll get distracted by worldly interferences and sin. We'll become victims instead of victors in the battles we face. Anything good that we achieve will be less than the best, because there is much more in the kingdom of God than what we can imagine.

A disciple is a student. We learn from Jesus how to love others, even when this becomes a cross to carry. He teaches us how to live a life of joyful love but also of unconditional, forgiving love. And we learn from him how to put up healthy, holy boundaries against those who interfere with our spiritual growth, and this too can be a cross.

The strength to follow Christ and become more and more like him every day requires a conscious effort to grow stronger in our ability to carry our crosses while uniting ourselves to his cross and to his strength. When we lack this intimate bond with Christ, we stumble and fall, crushed by the weight of our crosses. But if we are willing to make sacrifices out of love for others, like Jesus did, we embrace him more fully and we receive his love more deeply. And this is the most satisfying way to live!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Consider your daily activities: What are your top priorities?

2. What do you value more than the time you spend with Jesus in prayer, scripture, and other faith-building activities?

3. What are some common ways that we move God down in priority?

4. By making him our highest priority, what are ways that we can lovingly show concern for others even while putting God ahead of them in our daily activities?
It is never easy to move, especially if we have lived in one place for a while. We accumulate too many things and it is only when we set about the business of moving that we realize how much stuff we have collected, without really realizing it.

Every drawer is stuffed with things, every cupboard is overfull, and every shelf is stacked to the top. In our closets we find racks of clothing that we not worn for years – clothing that was given to us but which we never wanted, clothing that no longer fits us, and clothing we bought but never liked in the first place. And all around the house there are stacks of books, old letters, photographs, music tapes, records, videos, magazines, bric-a-brac, and memorabilia. Then there is still all the furniture, the appliances, the dishes, the tools in the shop, and the puzzles, stereo and video equipment, and a variety of puzzles and games. We blink in disbelief. Where did all this stuff come from? How could we have accumulated so many things?

I remember leaving home to enter the seminary at age seventeen. Everything I owned in the world fit into one medium-sized suitcase (and it wasn’t full). Now I can’t go for even a week carrying so little. From a certain point onward in our lives we begin to accumulate things, often without really realizing it.

But what we really become attached to and begin unhealthily to store is not so much the material stuff. Almost imperceptibly, just as is the case with all the things that slowly stack up in our drawers, cupboards, and basements, we also begin to store other baggage. This kind of baggage, much more so than the material things we accumulate, makes it hard for us to move, especially to move gracefully into final chapter of our lives. What, imperceptibly, begins to stack up inside of us?

All the things that we become attached to and draw life from, namely, our grandiosity, our wounds, our sexual fantasies, our creature comforts, our distractions, and our even our health and our physical life itself.

The first thing that generates surplus baggage in our lives is our grandiosity. It feeds off our achievements, successes, ambitions daydreams, and the recognition we receive in life. The more we achieve the more we store up. Next come our wounds – the hurts, resentments, and rejections that we have suffered through the years. All of the times that life has been, or seemed, unfair to us leaves us with a basement virtually full of photographs, memories, videos, and tapes that we want to keep around – to look at or replay as needed. Then there are our sexual fantasies, our imaginings (both noble and coarse) of consumption, of sexual fulfillment, of physical and emotional ecstasy. These we store in boxes more discreetly tucked away. And there are those things that aid or help insure our comfort – the right living space, access to good food, good drink, good entertainment, good stimulation. Then there is the psychological bric-a-brac of our lives: our television sitcoms, the sports scores, the talk shows, and the current gossip and humor about the celebrities in the culture. Any extra space inside ourselves is crammed with these.

Finally there is health and life itself. To ensure these, we have, literally, cabinets full of medicines, vitamins, and cosmetics, along with a basement full of exercise equipment – matching all kinds of internal baggage we have stored as a resource to insure health, youth, attractiveness, and life.

Like the rooms in our houses, every day that we live, our internal rooms too fill up with more and more stuff – valuable things, toxic things, and junk. We all carry a lot more baggage now than we did at seventeen and this makes travel difficult, especially the travel that is asked of us as we get older, namely, the journey to become a gracious older woman or man, an adult, an elder, one who has aged gracefully, can bless the young, and let go of life without anger or silly clinging so as not to end up an embittered, old fool, but a happy, holy fool.

Julian of Norwich states that we will cling to God only when we no longer cling to everything else. Richard Rohr agrees with that, but expresses it this way: As we get older, he submits, the real task of life, both in terms of human growth and life in God, is to begin to shed things, to carry less and less baggage, to slim-down spiritually and psychologically to match the meagerness of the possessions we had when we were seventeen years old and could still put all we own into one little suitcase.

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb and naked I go back again. The Lord gives and the Lord takes. Blessed be the name of the Lord.”

Adulthood is contingent upon appropriating that.

Sometimes, as parents, we have forgotten how important spiritual nourishment is for our children. With work and activities, we may even find it difficult to attend church. We may sense that we have been away too long and don’t know what steps to take to return to the Catholic Faith.

If your children haven’t received any religious education and, consequently, have missed receiving their sacraments, now is the time to call and start a journey back to the Church for yourself and your children.

Children’s Ministry of Initiation will be starting new sessions in October. This would be a wonderful opportunity to come and find how you and your children, baptized and un-baptized, could experience a journey back to God and the Catholic faith. No matter how long you and your family have been away from the Church, listen…is God calling you back to His Church?

If you are a concerned grandparent, aunt, uncle, friend, or neighbor, you too can help with this journey in a child’s life. Pass this article on to those family members and friends described above! It is the greatest gift you will ever give them.

For more information, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Classes begin October 20, 2019.

Thinking about becoming Catholic, not sure?

Come to RCIA

- Have you been worshiping with us, but never officially took the step to become Catholic?
- Have you been away from the Church … and have now returned, but want to know more?
- Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist)?
- Have you joined us from a different background and would now like to find out more about the Catholic Church?

If any of the above questions apply to you, we would love to help you in your journey! Call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Practicing Catholics are needed in this ministry to share in the RCIA experience as sponsors and team members.
Troop 399 wants to thank all of the members of the parish family that participated in the school supply collection. The boys here are sorting, stacking and packing the HUNDREDS of items collected this year. A mound of backpacks, hundreds of spiral pads, gallons of glue, and reams of notebook paper were delivered last weekend to Vital Thomas of the Grant A Wish organization. 35 cartons in all. They had a goal of providing 250 backpacks with supplies. Our collection went a long way toward that goal. Thank you all.

Eagle Scout Fundraiser
On September 14 & 15, Troop 399 will be selling World’s Finest Chocolate in the narthex after Masses to raise funds for the Eagle Project of Michael Savage. The project will benefit Almost Home Foundation, a local non-profit animal shelter.

New Altar Server Training
Do you wish you could be part of a ministry at Sunday Mass, but are told you are too young? Well, here’s an opportunity for you! If you have already entered the 5th grade, you can be an altar server at Mass. This is a great way to become even more familiar with the Mass, be involved and begin giving back to God and the Church.

Training sessions for new servers will be held on September 23 & October 7 in the church from 6:30—8:00 PM. We request that one parent/guardian attend training with the new server. It is not necessary to register, but if you have questions, please contact Carol Blotteaux at cblotteaux@comcast.net.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
