26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.' - Lk 16:31

Rich Man, Poor Man

This Sunday, we hear another parable from the Gospel of Luke: The Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus.

Lazarus is a poor man who a wealthy man walks by (possibly even over) each day as he goes home. After a while, the rich man gets so used to it he basically doesn’t acknowledge that Lazarus exits. The rich man simply ignores him.

When both men die, the rich man finds himself in the netherworld and Lazarus in heaven. When the rich man pleads for mercy from Abraham (Abraham is in a role much like St. Peter—the gatekeeper to the entrance of heaven), he still ignores Lazarus to communicate with Abraham directly.

The rich man, even in the afterlife, doesn’t grasp the sin of his ways: he is self-focused to the point he can’t see anyone else; they either don’t matter or become an annoyance rather than a human being. But Jesus shows us another way. It’s not material things that matter, but compassion, respect, dignity and treating others the way we want to be treated.

It’s a gospel message, and one as Catholics we value. It’s definitely a value here at St. Hubert, where week after week we reach out to help those in need—with food, clothing, assistance, counsel, and basic needs.

It’s an amazing gift to be part of community where parishioners quietly work in the background in ministries like Helping Hands, Community Life, our Sharing Parish program, the Job & Networking Ministry, Prayer Shawl Ministry, Ministers of Care, and other groups that seek to help to those in need, especially those no one else often notices. We don’t ignore or walk over others, but lend a hand and give of ourselves.

Whenever there’s a call in our community to bring something in to help others, our community responds—overwhelmingly.

It’s interesting: in the gospel, Jesus tells us the name of the poor man, who it turns out valued a relationship with God. He never gives us the name of the rich man, who only seemed to care for himself without thinking about how to honor God by seeing the needs of others until it was too late. Jesus hears the cries of the poor. They have names, faces, hearts and souls. And they’re precious to God, which is why we take the time to do what we can to help.

May God bless you in all the ways you reach out to help others. God notices your goodness and kindness, and so do those you’re helping.

—Fr. Mike

Fr. Gene Nowak to Preside Next Sunday

Next Sunday, October 6, at the 7:30 and 9:00 AM Masses, Fr. Gene Nowak returns to St. Hubert. Fr. Gene, now a retired priest of the Archdiocese, was the third pastor at St. Hubert, serving from 1991 through 2005.

GIFT CARD SCAM ALERT

Many churches are seeing a new spin on gift card scams. Scammers are pretending to be a pastor, priest, or bishop. They’re asking worshipers for gift card contributions for a worthy cause. Appeals are often made by email, but we’ve heard people are also getting texts and phone calls too. The bogus emails often include the name of the pastor and have been including photos and church logos. But a closer look should raise some red flags. Check the email address—it isn’t the one normally used by the church and the service provider is different (like gmail or yahoo). The message may begin with a simple "Hi", but doesn’t include a recipients’ name. There also may be spelling errors, including the pastor’s name. The scammer asks you to buy a popular gift card—frequently iTunes, Google Play, or Amazon—and then asks for the gift card number and PIN on the back of the card. Those numbers let the scammer immediately get the money you loaded onto the card and once that’s done, the scammer and your money are gone, usually without a trace. If you or someone you know paid a scammer with a gift card, report it as soon as possible. Call the card company and tell them the gift card was used in a scam. Most importantly, remember legitimate emails from Father Mike will only ever be sent through his sainthubert.org email NOT a gmail or other email address or through Flocknote.

26th Sunday of Ordinary Time

What was the rich man’s sin in this Sunday’s Gospel story? What tormented him after he died? Being wealthy is not sinful; what tortured his soul was his decision to not share his wealth with Lazarus while he had the opportunity.

Death is not a closing of life; it’s the opening up of our souls so we become fully alive in God’s love. Death awakens us to the full reality of who God is and all the gifts he has given us and how well – or how poorly – we’ve invested those gifts.

Whenever we share the gifts that we’ve received, we’re investing in God’s kingdom. In God’s economy, our investments always pay off very well. We receive more than we give away so that we can share even more!

In contrast, when we protect and keep something for ourselves, we lose it like a flower that’s “protected” in a dark box. The flower wilts. It cannot grow. Everything we try to protect ends up useless or even poisonous: We stagnate spiritually as well as emotionally. The gift rots. Our selfishness destroys our union with God who is the Master of Generosity.

Every day, we’re given opportunities to share something – some blessing from God – with others. Perhaps the rich man in the parable turned away from Lazarus because of the poor man’s disease. He was probably a leper and highly contagious.

Do we share less because we feel disgust toward those who need what we have? Or maybe fear holds us back. Or resentment. To be united to God and experience everlasting joy, we cannot live in this state. We have to let love motivate us. Love has no limits; it’s always generous.

In the second reading, we hear: “Compete well for the faith.” Against whom do we compete? Ourselves! Are you holier today? Are you spiritually stronger because you’ve worked hard at becoming more loving and generous?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Bring to mind someone you find disgusting. How generous are you toward him or her? If you’ve missed an opportunity to share a blessing with this person, the Sacrament of Reconciliation will give you strength, through special grace, to overcome this sin.

2. Give examples of times when people turn away from opportunities to be generous. Explain reasons why this happens.

3. How have you personally been a Lazarus who was denied what you needed because of prejudice? What did you learn from that which changed your own attitudes about generosity?
“Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.”

Abraham speaks these words to a soul in hell in the famous parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16, 19-21) and they are generally understood to mean that there exists between heaven and hell a gap that’s impossible to bridge. Nobody passes from hell to heaven. Hell is forever and no amount of regret or repentance there will get you to heaven. Indeed, once in hell, nobody in heaven can help you either, the gap between the two is eternally fixed!

But that’s not what this parable is teaching.

Some years ago, Jean Vanier delivered the prestigious Massey Lectures and he took up this parable. The point he emphasized is that the “unbridgeable chasm” referred to here is not the gap between heaven and hell as this is understood in the popular mind. Rather, for Vanier, the unbridgeable gap exists already in this world in terms of the gap between the rich and the poor, a gap that we have forever been unable to bridge. Moreover it’s a gap with more dimensions than we first imagine.

What separates the rich from the poor so definitively with a chasm that, seemingly, can never be bridged? What would bridge that gap?

The prophet Isaiah offers us a helpful image here (Isaiah 65, 25). Drawing upon a messianic dream he tells us how that gap will finally be bridged. It will be bridged, he submits, in the Messianic age, when we’re in heaven because it’s there, in an age when God’s grace is finally able to affect universal reconciliation, that the “the wolf and lamb will feed together” (or, as this is commonly read, “the lion and the lamb will lie down together.”)

The lion and the lamb will lie down together. But lions kill lambs! How can this change? Well, that’s the unbridgeable gap between heaven and hell. That’s the gap between the victim and the killer, the powerless and the powerful, the bullied and the bully, the despised and the bigot, the oppressed and the oppressor, the victim and the racist, the hated and the hater, the older brother and his prodigal brother, the poor and the rich. That’s the gap between heaven and hell.

If this is what Isaiah intuits, and I think it is, then this image contains a powerful challenge which goes both ways: It isn’t just the lion that needs to convert and become sensitive, understanding and non-violent enough to lie down with the lamb; the lamb too needs to convert and move to deeper levels of understanding, forgiveness and trust in order to lie down with the lion. Ironically, this may be a bigger challenge to the lamb than to the lion. Once wounded, once victimized, once hated, once spit on, once raped, once beaten-up by a bully, once discriminated against because of gender, race, religion, or sexual orientation, and it becomes very difficult, almost impossible existentially, to truly forgive, forget, and move with trust towards the one who hurt us.

This is a tough saying, but life can be grossly unfair sometimes and perhaps the greatest unfairness of all is not the injustice of being victimized, violated, raped, or murdered, but that, after all this has been done to us, we’re expected to forgive the one who did it to us while at the same time knowing that the one who hurt us probably has an easier time of it in terms of letting go of the incident and moving towards reconciliation. That’s perhaps the greatest unfairness of all. The lamb has to forgive the lion who killed it.

And yet this is the invitation to all of us who have ever been victimized. Parker Palmer suggests that violence is what happens when someone doesn’t know what else to do with his or her suffering and that domestic abuse, racism, sexism, homophobia, and contempt for the poor are all cruel outcomes of this. What we need, he suggests, is a bigger “moral imagination”.

He’s right, I believe, on both scores: violence is what happens when people don’t know what to do with their sufferings and we do need a bigger moral imagination. But understanding that our abuser is in deep pain, that the bully himself was first bullied, doesn’t generally do much to ease our own pain and humiliation. As well, imagining how ideally we should respond as Christians is helpful, but it doesn’t of itself give us the strength to forgive. Something else is needed, namely, a strength that’s presently beyond us.

This is a tough teaching, one that should not be glibly presented. How do you forgive someone who violated you? In this life, mostly, it’s impossible; but remember Isaiah is speaking about the messianic time, a time when, finally, with God’s help, we will be able to bridge that unbridgeable chasm.

The rosary and, more specifically, Our Lady of the Rosary is credited with victory in a number of the battles. Chief among these is the Battle of Lepanto (October 7, 1571), in which a Christian fleet defeated a superior Ottoman Muslim fleet and stopped the westward expansion of Islam in the Mediterranean.

In honor of the victory, Pope Pius V instituted the Feast of Our Lady of Victory, which is still celebrated today as the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7). And, in 1883, Pope Leo XIII officially dedicated the month of October to the Holy Rosary.

Every Friday morning at 6:30 AM, we gather in Church to pray the rosary before the 7:00 AM Mass. We will also be praying the rosary on Monday, October 7th, at 6:30 AM in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary.

The Knights of Columbus would also like to invite you on the second Thursday of the month, every month, at 6:15 PM to say the rosary with us in St. Hubert Church. You do not have to be a member of the Knights to attend.

It would be wonderful if you could join us in this beautiful prayer. If you are unable to join us, perhaps you could find time to pray the rosary at home.

New Altar Server Training

Do you wish you could be part of a ministry at Sunday Mass, but are told you are too young? Well, here’s an opportunity for you! If you have already entered the 5th grade, you can be an altar server at Mass. This is a great way to become even more familiar with the Mass, be involved and begin giving back to God and the Church.

Training for new servers will be held on October 7 in the church from 6:30—8:00 PM. We request that one parent/guardian attend training with the new server. It is not necessary to register, but if you have questions, please contact Carol Blotteaux at cblotteaux@comcast.net.

“There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.”

Pet Blessing Sunday, October 6th

We often see an image of St. Francis of Assisi giving God glory as Creator by holding up a small creature or raising his arms in praise.

This blessing gives thanks for the companionship of our pets, asks God to keep them healthy, and that they be a source of pleasure for the Earth and our homes. Children and all households who care for God’s creatures are invited to bring your pet for the traditional blessing of animals. This will take place about 2:00 PM in the parish lot near the School Lunch Room.

It is common to bring dogs and cats, but you can also bring your hamsters, birds, bunnies and the like. It is safer for your small pet, such as these, to be in their cage. Let all God’s creation be kept from harm, abuse, or neglect as we celebrate the feast of St. Francis, who honored God with respect for all God has put on Earth.

Dear St. Hubert Parishioners & Community Members,

The 18th annual Taste of St. Hubert will take place on Saturday, October 5th (5:30—9:00 PM).

We are in need of volunteers to help with various tasks to make this exciting parish event a success.

- Set-Up on Friday, October 4th (6:00-7:30 PM)
- Ticket Sales at Door (5:30-7:00 & 7:00-8:30 PM)
- General Help During the Event (5:30-9:00 PM)
- Sell 50/50 Raffle Tickets (6:00-8:00 PM)
- Tear Down Booths (9:00 PM-done)
- Clean-Up (9:00 PM-close)

Your shift will take place on Saturday, October 5th, unless otherwise noted. If you are interested in volunteering, you can sign up in the back of church on the sign-up sheet or you may contact Tina Peyser at 847-736-2481 (tinapeyser@yahoo.com).

Also, please consider joining our tear down crew, as we will need plenty of helping hands to pack up chairs, tables, and booths at the end of the event!

Any assistance, whether it be for the entire event or only a portion, is greatly appreciated! Please also note that this is a great opportunity to fulfill service hours.

With gratitude,

Stewards for St. Hubert

Community Life Food Collection
Next Weekend, October 5th & 6th

We are ending the summer with much better weather then we started with. If only this could last...Mother Nature seems to have turned into a tricky gal and is keeping us on our toes! I am hoping this month, and as we head into colder months, you will be extremely generous and bring in food, detergent, personal items, and paper goods that are really needed.

The Taste of St. Hubert is the same weekend as our collection. What a great way to jog your memory to fill up a grocery bag and bring it along. The Taste is a wonderful way to dine out, meet new people and spend time with old friends. I’ll be there helping out, so see if you can spot me. I’ll be the one running from one booth to the next so I don’t miss out on some of the best ethnic food in town—authentic and mainly homemade!

Thanks and hope to see you at the Taste!

Volunteers Needed!
This year, St. Hubert has the privilege of hosting a Joyful Again Retreat. It is a unique program that has been designed to help widowed individuals, with God’s help, to move through bereavement toward spiritual and emotional wholeness. It will take many hands to ensure the success of this retreat. Here are some of the areas where volunteers are needed:
1. Meals -- prep, serve and clean up
2. Bakers needed for desserts
3. Unloading JA supply bins from vehicle
4. Registration/meeting room set up
5. Audio/Visual equipment assistance
6. Final clean-up
7. Loading JA supply bins into vehicle

For further details or to volunteer, please contact Lynn Howard at lhoward@sainthubert.org.

Proclaiming the Word:
Lector Training Workshop
Location: in Church

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God’s message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God’s Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a “refresher” course.
Communal Anointing of the Sick
The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated on Sunday, October 13 at the 6:00 PM Mass. Those suffering from serious illnesses, whether physical or psychological, those facing surgery, or dealing with the limitations of aging are encouraged to receive the sacrament. It is open to those in need of physical and spiritual strengthening as they deal with health crises, no matter what their age. Caregivers are also welcome to receive the sacrament to aid them in their care of their loved ones.

Since sacraments are for the whole Church, even those present to witness and to pray for those being anointed receive benefits from the anointing liturgy. Theologians tell us that one of the effects of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is a healing of the separation between the individual and the Church created by sickness.

As the whole community joins in prayer for our sick members, we enfold the Church's promise to remain faithful to the sick, the suffering, the weak and the struggling. Caregivers find support in our standing with them. In this sacrament the sick minister to us as well, as modeling hope in and union with Christ in his dying-rising way.

Ministers of Care will assist in the Communal Anointing rituals by welcoming people, giving them directions for the anointing, introducing the sick to the priest anointers, and standing as the community's support of our sick members.

Please alert relatives and neighbors to the possibility of receiving this sacrament. Even if you will not be present for these liturgies, remember to pray for the sick of the parish. For more information, please contact Lynn Howard at 847-885-7703 or lhoward@sainthubert.org.

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI)
ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO HAS...

- Unbaptized children over the age of 7 who wish to learn more about the Catholic Faith and possibly become Catholic.
- Baptized Christian Children from other denominations who would like to learn more about the Catholic Faith and, possibly, be received into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to prepare for Eucharist and Confirmation by renewing their understanding of their Catholic Faith.

For more information, call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Classes begin on Sunday, October 20. We still have room for you and your family.

Knights of Columbus Membership Drive
On October 12 & 13, the Knights of Columbus will be conducting a membership recruitment campaign. This is to familiarize Catholic men over the age of 18 with the Knights and their contributions to our Church and community. Men of the parish who may be interested in learning more can visit their information table in the gathering area or visit online at http://uknight.org/CouncilSite/CouncilNews.asp?CNO=6964. Members will be available after all Masses to answer questions and provide additional information. You can even sign up online at www.kofc.org/apps/joinus/en/registration/index.html.
Resume Review
October 10, 7:00—9:00 PM

LIFE CHAIN

Advantage Healthcare
203 E. Irving Park Road in Wood Dale, IL
Sunday October 6 from 2:00—3:00 PM

LIFE CHAIN is a peaceful, prayerful public witness of pro-life Americans standing in honor of 60 million lives lost to abortion, praying for our nation, for people in crisis situations and for an end to abortion. It is a visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community that abortion kills children and that the Church supports the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception to natural death.

The Life Chain will be held in more than 1800 locations in 1530 cities and towns all across the United States and Canada, 90 in Illinois.

Any questions, see LifeChain.net

Stand with thousands of pro-lifers throughout the USA! You’ll be a light in a darkened world as you help put an end to abortion through prayer!

In memory of Linda "Libby" Heneghan (a former St. Hubert school teacher), help support Jenna Heneghan and Tayler Hoffman on their journey to run the Chicago Marathon for the LUNGevity Foundation. This foundation is the leading provider of research funding for lung cancer. LUNGevity is firmly committed to having an immediate impact on increasing quality of life and survivorship of people with lung cancer by accelerating research into early detection and more effective treatments, as well as providing community, support, and education for all those affected by the disease.

No contribution is too small.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of The Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
