27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.’” - Lk 17:10b
Do We Have Enough Faith?

In the first reading from Habakkuk, we hear a very familiar cry: “How long, O Lord? I cry for help but you do not listen” (Hab 1:2). Chances are, we’ve felt it, if not voiced the prophet’s lament. Habakkuk voices the frustration that can come our way from time to time, even long periods of time. God doesn’t seem to care. He doesn’t do anything about the violence the prophet sees. God doesn’t seem to care about the misery, strife or discord that’s happening in the world or in our lives. God simply is silent.

It’s amazing to believe it was written about 600 years before Jesus was born—it could have been written yesterday. What it goes to show us, though, is that part of our human experience with God is living within the silence, which is a fragile place to be. As much as we want things to go our way, we realize it doesn’t always happen. And how do we reconcile a God who says he’s with us, with a God who seems inattentive?

Maybe that’s why the apostles ask Jesus for an increase in faith in today’s gospel. A little faith doesn’t seem to be enough. More faith could help us get through the depths.

Jesus responds in his usual way—not directly but with a parable: faith the size of a mustard seed can move a mountain. What Jesus helps us see is that it’s not about increasing our faith, it’s about having faith to begin with. It’s not about quantity, it’s about trust.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives us a simple, but profound, definition of faith. Faith is our response to God (26). God is the essence of what it means to exist. When we recognize God—when we turn to God—we are expressing faith.

That means faith doesn’t have to be accompanied by warm, fuzzy feelings and intense intimacy with a God we can’t see. Faith is more basic. It’s reaching out and trusting. Jesus seems to be saying there isn’t a range for faith, just the realization God has the fuller understanding of existence that we can’t always see. It’s about trusting he knows the best way to get us through life. Faith is about a relationship. It’s our response to God.

Odds & Ends

- This Saturday, we celebrate our parish’s rich diversity, once again, by gathering together for Mass followed by A Taste of St. Hubert. Our community is enriched by people of all kinds of backgrounds, cultures and ages. But, what gathers us and unites us first and foremost is our faith. So our celebration is a celebration of the faith we share with a community we enjoy being a part of. Have a great time everyone!

- We’re also blessed to have Fr. Gene Nowak with us to celebrate the 7:30 AM and 9:00 AM Masses this weekend. Fr. Gene was the third pastor here at St. Hubert and is now enjoying retirement. As we approach 2020 and 60 years as a parish, it’s a great blessing to have one of our shepherds back with us. Welcome home, Fr. Gene!

- Thank you to everyone who supported our 40th celebration of Track-a-Thon. We had a great time being together as we showed support for our parish school, which continues to help families celebrate our faith. Our St. Hubert students are learning how to “Impact the world through Christ!”

May God bless you in the week ahead.

The Mysteries of the Rosary

Have you ever wanted to explore the life of Jesus and Mary in a deeper way? Each decade highlights a sacred episode:

Joyful Mysteries: Through the Annunciation (1) and Visitation (2), we get a glimpse at Mary’s joyful yes to God. She gives birth to Jesus in the Nativity (3). Mary and Joseph present their son at the temple (4) and bring him there again when he is a teenager (5).

Luminous Mysteries: Jesus is baptized in the Jordan River (1) before Mary gives him a nudge to his first miracle at Cana (2). Jesus proclaims the Gospel (3), is transfigured on Mount Tabor (4), and institutes the Eucharist (5). The light is shining!

Sorrowful Mysteries: Jesus prays in agony in Gethsemane (1), knowing his hour of suffering has come. After his betrayal and arrest, Jesus is scourged (2) and crowned with thorns (3). He carries his cross (4), and Mary stands at the foot of the cross as he is crucified (5).

Glorious Mysteries: Christ is risen in glory (1)! After appearing to those he loves, he ascends into heaven (2). Jesus’ followers receive the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (3). Mary, unaffected by original sin, is assumed body and soul into heaven (4), where she is crowned queen, humble mother of Christ the King (5).

This Gospel reading is disturbing. After doing a lot of hard work, the last thing we want to hear from God is: “You’re an unprofitable servant.”

Think of how hard you work. Whether it’s at home or for a business or in ministry, we’re never rewarded enough, right? Instead, we’re given more work! At home, we try to relax after a busy day but one of the kids or an elderly relative needs help. On the job, we’re given more work because our colleagues are either too lazy or they’ve been laid off. In the parish, most of the work gets done by only 10 to 20% of the people.

Jesus says that our reaction to all this should be: “Lord, I’m an unworthy servant of your kingdom, because I’ve only done what’s expected of me.”

Is he implying that it’s right to be burdened with more to do when we’re tired? Not at all! What he is telling us is that there’s a difference between doing what’s required out of mere obedience and volunteering to go the extra mile because we love and we care.

When we stop short of going the extra mile, it’s usually because we have an unbalanced view of faith. Unaware that we’re serving Christ in our everyday tasks, and unaware that we’re serving others with Christ, we settle for a mediocre, half-hearted attitude. We limit our potential. And then we’re astonished that Jesus would suggest that we can command trees to cast themselves into the sea! When was the last time you saw that happen?

Here’s the connection between doing more than the minimum and having a supernatural faith: For both to occur, we have to know that God’s love is complete and unconditional and available all the time and that from this comes his desire to serve us. Knowing this, we’re confident that he can accomplish anything he wants in us and through us. If we care like he cares, we want to go the extra mile with him. And then when we get hurt or tired, he restores us. Do you believe that yet?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What’s your mulberry tree? What problem is so deeply rooted that it seems immoveable?

2. Who in your life is so stuck in sin that you’ve lost hope? Can you surprise that person with gestures of love that are unexpected and unrequested?

3. Describe examples of service that show the difference between doing our duty and doing more. How does volunteering to serve above and beyond what’s expected reveal God’s love?
The poet, Rumi, submits that we live with a deep secret that sometimes we know, and then not.

That can be very helpful in understanding our faith. One of the reasons why we struggle with faith is that God’s presence inside us and in our world is rarely dramatic, overwhelming, sensational, something impossible to ignore. God doesn’t work like that. Rather God’s presence, much to our frustration and loss of patience sometimes, is something that lies quiet and seemingly helpless inside us. It rarely makes a huge splash.

Because we are not sufficiently aware of this, we tend to misunderstand the dynamics of faith and find ourselves habitually trying to ground our faith on precisely something that is loud and dramatic. We are forever looking for something beyond what God gives us. But we should know from the very way God was born into our world, that faith needs to ground itself on something that is quiet and undramatic. Jesus, as we know, was born into our world with no fanfare and no power, a baby lying helpless in the straw, another child among millions. Nothing spectacular to human eyes surrounded his birth. Then, during his ministry, he never performed miracles to prove his divinity; but only as acts of compassion or to reveal something about God. Jesus never used divine power in an attempt to prove that God exists, beyond doubt. His ministry, like his birth, wasn’t an attempt to prove God’s existence. It was intended rather to teach us what God is like and that God loves us unconditionally.

Moreover, Jesus’ teaching about God’s presence in our lives also makes clear that this presence is mostly quiet and hidden, a plant growing silently as we sleep, yeast leavening dough in a manner hidden from our eyes, summer slowly turning a barren tree green, an insignificant mustard plant eventually surprising us with its growth, a man or woman forgiving an enemy. God, it seems, works in ways that are quiet and hidden from our eyes. The God that Jesus incarnates is neither dramatic nor splashy.

And there’s an important faith-lesson in this. Simply put, God lies inside us, deep inside, but in a way that’s almost non-existent, almost unfelt, largely unnoticed, and easily ignored. However, while that presence is never overpowering, it has within it a gentle, unrelenting imperative, a compulsion towards something higher, which invites us to draw upon it. And, if we do draw upon it, it gushes up in us in an infinite stream that instructs us, nurtures us, and fills us with endless energy.

This is important for understanding faith. God lies inside us as an invitation that fully respects our freedom, never overpowers us; but also never goes away. It lies there precisely like a baby lying helpless in the straw, gently beckoning us, but helpless in itself to make us pick it up.

For example, C.S. Lewis, in explaining why he finally became, in his words, “the most reluctant convert in the history of Christendom”, writes that, for years, he was able to effectively ignore a voice inside him, precisely, because it was almost non-existent, almost unfelt, and largely unnoticed. On the other hand, in retrospect, he realized it had always been there, a gentle, incessant nudge, beckoning him to draw from it, something he eventually recognized as a gentle, but unyielding imperative, a “compulsion” which, if obeyed, leads to liberation.

Ruth Burrows, the British Carmelite and mystic, describes a similar experience in her autobiography, Before the Living God. Chronicling her late adolescent years, Burrows describes both her religious flightiness and her lack of attraction to the religious life at that time in her life. Yet she eventually ends up not only being serious about religion but becoming a Carmelite nun. What happened? One day, in a chapel, almost against her will, triggered by a series of accidental circumstances, she opened herself to voice inside her that she had, until then, mainly ignored because it lay inside her precisely as a voice that was almost non-existent, almost unfelt, and largely unnoticed. But once touched, it gushed up as the deepest and most real thing inside her and set the direction of her life forever afterwards. Like C.S. Lewis, she too, once she had opened herself to it, felt it as an unyielding moral compulsion opening her to ultimate liberation.

Why doesn’t God show himself to us more directly and more powerfully so as to make faith easier? That’s a fair question for which, partly, there is no fully satisfying answer. But the answer we do have lies in understanding the manner in which God manifests himself in our lives and in our world. Unlike most everything else that’s trying to get our attention, God never tries to overwhelm us. God, more than anyone else, respects our freedom. For this reason, God lies everywhere, inside us and around us, almost unfelt, largely unnoticed, and easily ignored, a quiet, gentle nudge; but, if drawn upon, the ultimate stream of love and energy.

New Altar Server Training

Do you wish you could be part of a ministry at Sunday Mass, but are told you are too young? Well, here’s an opportunity for you! If you have already entered the 5th grade, you can be an altar server at Mass. This is a great way to become even more familiar with the Mass, be involved and begin giving back to God and the Church.

Training for new servers will be held on October 7 in the church from 6:30—8:00 PM. We request that one parent/guardian attend training with the new server. It is not necessary to register, but if you have questions, please contact Carol Blotteaux at cblotteaux@comcast.net.

“"There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.””

Sister Lucia dos Santos, Fatima seer

The rosary and, more specifically, Our Lady of the Rosary is credited with victory in a number of the battles. Chief among these is the Battle of Lepanto (October 7, 1571), in which a Christian fleet defeated a superior Ottoman Muslim fleet and stopped the westward expansion of Islam in the Mediterranean.

In honor of the victory, Pope Pius V instituted the Feast of Our Lady of Victory, which is still celebrated today as the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7). And, in 1883, Pope Leo XIII officially dedicated the month of October to the Holy Rosary.

Every Friday morning at 6:30 AM, we gather in Church to pray the rosary before the 7:00 AM Mass. We will also be praying the rosary on Monday, October 7th, at 6:30 AM in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary.

The Knights of Columbus would also like to invite you on the second Thursday of the month, every month, at 6:15 PM to say the rosary with us in St. Hubert Church. You do not have to be a member of the Knights to attend.

It would be wonderful if you could join us in this beautiful prayer. If you are unable to join us, perhaps you could find time to pray the rosary at home.

Pet Blessing Sunday, October 6th

We often see an image of St. Francis of Assisi giving God glory as Creator by holding up a small creature or raising his arms in praise.

This blessing gives thanks for the companionship of our pets, asks God to keep them healthy, and that they be a source of pleasure for the Earth and our homes. Children and all households who care for God’s creatures are invited to bring your pet for the traditional blessing of animals. This will take place about 2:00 PM in the parish lot near the School Lunch Room.

It is common to bring dogs and cats, but you can also bring your hamsters, birds, bunnies and the like. It is safer for your small pet, such as these, to be in their cage. Let all God’s creation be kept from harm, abuse, or neglect as we celebrate the feast of St. Francis, who honored God with respect for all God has put on Earth.

HEALING GRACE

Grief Support Ministry Begins:

October 16, 2019

When a death occurs, life for those who live on, changes forever. We recognize this change and would like to offer hope and comfort to those who mourn. In trying to move on after the death of a loved one, some wonder when the pain will go away, or if it ever will. Some wonder where life is headed. Understanding the commonalities of the grief journey can help us to heal and move on.

Kit Kissane, a previous participant, writes: “The loss of a close loved one creates a profound change for the person grieving. I found that those who had the same experience understood my pain as no one else did. It was comforting to spend time with them. The program is structured, and the facilitators have traveled the same road, and give hope for healing.”

Healing Grace is a six-session series facilitated by Linda Engle & Charlene Kryszak. The meetings will take place in the Office Building – Room 120, beginning promptly at 7:00 PM and ending at 8:30 PM, on the following dates:

- October 16, 23, 30, November 6, 13 & 20. Since each session builds on the previous one, group members are asked to attend all the sessions.

To register contact Sister Marianne at 847-882-7580 or e-mail: HealingGrace@churchoftheholyspirit.org

ANointing of the Sick at Mass

The Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at our weekend liturgy on Sunday, October 13 at the 6:00 PM Mass. One of the Church’s most beautiful and consoling rituals, this sacrament keeps the Church’s promise: “We will not abandon you” in your sickness, suffering, weakness or struggle.

Please join us! Whether you want to receive the sacrament yourself or pray with and for those who are receiving it, we invite your participation in this liturgy.

Those desiring to receive the sacrament are asked to follow these steps:

1. Sign in at a table in the Narthex of the church and receive a name badge. Wear it plainly visible, so the priest can call you by name.
2. Sit near the end of a row so that the priest can reach you easily. You need not stand during the whole anointing ritual if you are able to, rise when the priest is about two people away from you. If not, have your companion stand.
3. If you are with a family member, friend or caregiver, that person should sit with you and place a hand on your shoulder as a sign of support while you are being anointed.
4. One of the St. Hubert Ministers of Care will also stand with you as a sign of community support.

It is a privilege to join you in prayer and to have you witness to us faithful and hope-filled movement to Christ, even in the midst of suffering. For more information, please contact Lyn Howard at 847-885-7703 or lhoward@sainthubert.org.

Proclaiming the Word:
Lector Training Workshop
Location: in Church
Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God’s message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God’s Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a “refresher” course.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick
Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
