32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 10, 2019
Challenging Jesus, Challenging Times

In today’s gospel, the Sadducees, who denied the Resurrection, test Jesus on this point by trying to use human logic. Knowing the religious law, they speak of the Resurrection as if it were an earthly reality tied to human realities and situations.

In answering them, Jesus pulls them out of “this age” and into “the age to come” where our relationships are based on our relationship with God. Through the resurrection, we are alive in Christ. It’s a divine relationship. The human reality is transformed into something entirely new. We’ll find ourselves alive in the love of God which unites us in communion with Him and with one another.

In challenging Jesus, he in turn challenged their own narrow way of thinking. God doesn’t limit or stay limited. God creates. God transforms. God challenges. There’s more to our reality than what is visible.

What’s amazing about our Catholic faith is that there is an incredible depth to it. We have a very rich heritage of study, knowledge and wisdom to share. We ponder the mysteries and explore them--what is known, and what is unknown. We aren’t afraid to ask questions or look into matters, because there are answers.

Just like Jesus was challenged, as Catholics, we may find ourselves challenged, too, from time to time. The good news is we have a great resource at our fingertips--The Catechism of the Catholic Church. In the modern age, it’s accessible not just in print, but on-line. If we need a place to turn, turn to her pages. It’s steeped in scripture, along with the wisdom of the saints, Church fathers, the ecumenical councils, and popes.

The faith has mysteries, yes. But mysteries can be explored, and within them we find meaning.

Odds & Ends

Hats Off to our Veterans: Monday is Veterans Day. Our St. Hubert School students will begin their morning with a salute to the Veterans in our community. We hold them in prayer, as well as those in our parish, our families and our community who gave their lives in service to protect our nation and the freedoms we value. May God bless you and our nation.

Fr. Tom Heathershaw Returns for a Mass of Thanksgiving! Next Sunday, newly ordained priest, Fr. Tom Heathershaw, will return to St. Hubert to preside at the 7:30 AM and 9 AM Masses. Fr. Tom was with for two years as a seminarian through Mundelein Seminary’s Tolton Teaching Parish Program. He was a deacon when we last saw him. Now he is priest serving the Diocese of Dubuque. It will be good to see him again!

It’s Time to Say Thanks! This Friday, we’ll gather for a dinner and fellowship to say thanks to anyone and everyone who volunteers their time in any way to help build up our church and school. We’re grateful to the hundreds of parishioners who are actively involved in ministries, community outreach, and making our parish community an active force for bringing the gospel into our corner of the world. It’s time to say thanks! See page 6 for more information.

As we head into this season of thanks and gratitude, know how appreciative I am to be here with all of you as we grow together in faith.

—Fr. Mike

Do you believe in the resurrection? That’s the question that Jesus indirectly poses when he challenges the Sadducees in today’s Gospel reading.

As Christians, we believe that someday we will experience a resurrection like Christ’s after we depart from this present earthly “age” or stage of life. All believers who follow Jesus will live as the angels do. This is why Catholic funeral Masses are Resurrection Masses and use white instead of black as the liturgical color.

But do you believe in the resurrection of love? Jesus explained the resurrection in terms of marriage. Marriage is to be a reflection of God’s radical love for his people. Marriage is supposed to unite a man and a woman in an enduring love that is the very presence of God. It gives witness to the world that God’s faithfulness and commitment to us is real.

So why would Jesus say that marriage is not a part of the resurrection of the dead? Why won’t today’s marriages become perfect and continue forever after both husband and wife have entered heaven?

Here on earth, love is imperfectly given and imperfectly received. Therefore, it’s constantly dying and being resurrected again, every day, to the extent that each spouse repents and forgives. (The same is true of any friendship.)

Perfect love is God. We live as true children of God when we love our brothers and sisters the way he loves them. Marriage does not exist in heaven because it’s an imperfect love: We love our spouses more than we love others. In heaven, we will love our spouses fully (yes, even our ex spouses) and we will love everyone else just as much. And those who have loved us poorly will love us better than the best spouse could love us now.

Marriage is only an earthly foreshadowing of the divine, faithful, creative love that we will share with everyone in heaven.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Who has failed to love you enough? Who has caused you pain?

2. How would you feel if that person were to greet you at the entrance of heaven at the moment of your death? Do you have enough love for that person to get you through the door?

3. How is a marriage like God’s love?

4. Describe the ways that God loves us, and relate these signs of true love to what you’ve experienced in good friendships. How is this a foretaste of heaven?

At any given time, most of the world believes that death isn’t final, that some form of immortality exists. Most people believe that those who have died still exist in some state, in some modality, in some place, in some heaven or hell, however that might be conceived. In some conceptions, immortality is seen as a state wherein a person is still conscious and relational; while in other concepts, existence after death is understood as real but impersonal, like a drop of water that has flowed back into the oceans.

As Christians, this is our belief: We believe that the dead are still alive, still themselves and, very importantly, still in a living, conscious, and loving relationship with us and with each other. That’s our common concept of heaven and, however simplistic its popular expression at times, it is wonderfully correct. That’s exactly what Christian faith and Christian dogma, not to mention deep intuitive experience, invite us to. After death we live on, conscious, self-conscious, in communication with others who have died before us, in communion with those we left behind on earth, and in communion with the divine itself. That’s the Christian doctrine of the Communion of Saints.

But how is this to be understood? Not least, how do we connect to our loved ones after they have died? Two interpenetrating biblical images can help serve as an entry-point for our understanding of this. Both come from the Gospels.

The Gospels say that at the instant of Jesus’ death, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth shook and the rocks were split. The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. (Matthew 27, 50-52) The Gospels then go on to tell us that on the morning of the Resurrection several women came to Jesus’ grave to anoint his dead body with embalming spices, but rather than finding his dead body, they meet instead an empty grave and two angels who challenge them with words to this effect: Why are you looking for a live person in a cemetery? He isn’t here. He’s alive and you can find him in Galilee. (Luke 24, 5) What’s contained in these images?

As Christians, we believe that we are given eternal life through Jesus’ death. Among other images, the Gospels express that in this metaphor: Jesus death, they tell us, “opened the tombs” and emptied graveyards. For this reason, Christians have never had a huge cult around cemeteries. As Christians, we don’t do much in the way of spiritual practices around our cemeteries. Why? Because we believe all those graves are empty. Our loved ones aren’t there and aren’t to be found there. They’re with Jesus, in “Galilee”.

What’s “Galilee”, in terms of a biblical image? In the Gospels, Galilee is more than a place on a map; it’s also a place inside the Spirit, God’s Spirit and our own. In the Gospels, Galilee is the place where, for the most part, the good things happen. It’s the place where the disciples first meet Jesus, where they fall in love with him, where they commit themselves to him, and where miracles happen. Galilee is the place where Jesus invites us to walk on water. Galilee is the place where the disciples’ souls enlarge and thrive.

And that is also a place for each of our deceased loved ones. In each of their lives, there was a Galilee, a place where their persons and souls were most alive, where their lives radiated the energy and exuberance of the divine. When we look at the life of a loved one who has died we need to ask: Where was she most alive? What qualities did she, most-unique, embody and bring into a room? Where did she lift my spirit and make me want to be a better person?

Name those things, and you will have named your loved one’s Galilee – and you will also have named the Galilee of the Gospels, namely, that place in the heart where Jesus invites you to meet him. And that is too where you will meet your loved ones in the communion of saints. Don’t look for a live person in a cemetery. She’s not there. She’s in Galilee. Meet her there.

Elizabeth Johnson, leaning on Karl Rahner, adds this thought: “Hoping against hope, we affirm that they [our loved ones who have died] have fallen not into nothingness but into the embrace of the living God. And that is where we can find them again; when we open our hearts to the silent calmness of God’s own life in which we dwell, not by selfishly calling them back to where we are, but by descending into the depth of our own hearts where God also abides.”

And the “Galilee” of our loved ones can also be found inside our own “Galilee”. There’s a deep place inside the heart, inside faith, hope, and charity, were everyone, living or deceased, is met.

HELP OUR TEENS TRAVEL TO INDY

The National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) is a fantastic opportunity for teens to strengthen their Catholic identity and meet other Catholic teens from around the U.S. Many teens say that their participation in NCYC is life-changing.

Several teens from St. Hubert will be making a pilgrimage to NCYC. Scholarships are needed to make this trip a reality for all teens hoping to attend. Please help to make this experience possible. Please label any donations in an envelope marked with NCYC. Your contributions will allow the teens to experience presentations by leading speakers on issues including social justice, prayer, servant leadership, appropriate use of technology, the sacraments, cultural diversity, and transitioning to college. They will have the opportunity to meet with bishops and other church leaders and get the chance to listen to outstanding Catholic musicians, have powerful prayer experiences, and pray together at Mass.

Learn How To Make Parol

One of the most iconic symbols of the Christmas spirit in the Philippines is the Christmas lantern, called a paról. The word parol came from the Spanish word, farol, which means lantern. The origin of the parol can be traced back to the Spanish colonial era in the Philippines when the Spaniards introduced Christianity to the Filipinos. The parol is widely considered as a representation of the Star of Bethlehem that guided the Three Wise Men to the manger of the baby Jesus.

Learn how to make parol on Saturday, November 16 from 2:00—4:00 PM, at the Parish Ministry Center. To ensure we have adequate supplies, please RSVP by texting 773-888-2482, or find Saint Hubert Bayanihan Association on Facebook and send a message. Everyone is welcome!

Baking Your Way Through the Holidays with The Bread Monk

Fr. Dominic Garramone, O.S.B.

Every time Fr. Dominic Garramone teaches his scripture students about the multiplication of the loaves, he bakes. Bread, of course. As he is head of the religion department at St. Bede Academy in Peru, IL, it is not surprising. After all, he’s also The Bread Monk, a member of the Order of St. Benedict, host of a former PBS television show, a prolific author and one of God’s best-known Breadheads.

By day, he teaches scripture and sacraments, is the school’s drama director (he has published two plays) and handles myriad other abbey duties. Off hours, he’s found either in the abbey kitchen or herb garden, writing or preparing to travel Illinois giving lively and entertaining bread demos to civic and religious groups.

Fr. Dom brings his talent, personality and humor to St. Hubert on Saturday, November 23 with Baking Your Way Through the Holidays. Presented by the Café Ministry, it is free and open to the public from 10 AM to Noon at the St. Hubert Parish Ministry Center, 729 Grand Canyon, Hoffman Estates, IL. Reservations are suggested – 847-885-7700 or speakerseries@sainthubert.org.

Fr. Dom says his culinary education is a result of “my mother’s kitchen, PBS and the public library.” His interactive presentation gently walks the audience through creating breads to make this year’s holiday celebrations extra special:

- Gluten-free Pumpkin Scones with sweet cream cheese filling.
- Bambino Bread – shaped like Baby Jesus in swaddling clothes.
- French Toast Custard Casseroles
- An Epiphany Cake that makes family feel like the Three Kings.

Delicious samples (warm from the oven), free door prizes, and audience participation heighten the fun.

Shop the Monks’ Market treats from the Abbey, beeswax candles, honey and kitchen gadgets - thoughtful holiday gifts for a favorite foodie. Or choose one of Fr. Dom’s many baking books. Or His Brother Jerome and the Angels in the Bakery, which received the 2011 Christopher Award for Children’s Books and the 2011 Catholic Press Association’s First Place Award for children’s books.

While his PBS program no longer airs, “The Bread Monk” is still seen on occasional PBS pledge specials. He’s also a baking instructor on Blueprint.com. Learn more about Fr. Dom at www.breadmonk.com. Please come and meet him at St. Hubert November 23.
We are coming upon the Holiday Season again and it is a time for us to stop and be thankful for all the blessings God has bestowed upon us. It is also a time to think of how we can share God’s blessings others. One way we can do this is by donating food to our Annual Thanksgiving Food Drive to help needy families at both St. Aloysius and St. Hubert celebrate Thanksgiving.

Please bring food items to the Narthex area in the church on Saturday, November 23rd and Sunday, November 24th, 2019.

Jewel Gift Cards for $25 can also be donated to purchase turkeys for families.

 Volunteers are needed to help deliver the food to St. Aloysius on Sunday, November 24th. THE PICK UP TIME HAS BEEN CHANGED TO 11:00 A.M. THIS YEAR. A Sign-Up Sheets for drivers is on a the kiosk in the Narthex.
Boy Scout Christmas Wreaths

The profits support the Scout’s outdoor program. If you have any questions please contact Zee Malinski@847-310-9453.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND
If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.
