5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
FEBRUARY 9, 2020

“You are the light of the world.”
MATTHEW 5:14 A
UNCOVERING THE LIGHT

In today’s gospel, we find ourselves on the mountain with Jesus. We hear a small excerpt from his great sermon where he's not only teaching us, but motivating us, too.

The scholars tell us the mountain is the great image of the meeting place between God and his people. In the ancient world, the mountain was the tallest thing we had to get as close to heaven as we could. The idea is that we'd climb up as high as we could, and then God would come down to meet us half-way. (If you want to see how this works, check out Moses’ story!)

Jesus, of course, changed the way we meet God. We don't have to climb mountains or skyscrapers or put ourselves in rockets that one day may take us on a trip to Mars—the newest highest point. Instead, Jesus Christ makes the journey to us. In fact, he comes into the depths of our own hearts and souls. Communion is about God the Son who dwells within.

That's why his words today motivate. He tells, with him in our lives, we're like salt that flavors even the blandest of foods. Our lives are meant to flavor the lives of those around us, not by doing anything special, but because we've incorporated God's way into our way of doing things. In other words, it happens when we're in communion with Him.

We all know people who “flavor” life. They are our mentors, our role models; our source of love, hope, and goodness when we need to see it. We enjoy being with them. And those people, in turn, become like a light. They become a beacon of hope that makes a difference to those around them. And so, like Jesus says, we don't put a bucket over a lamp, the lamp goes on a table so everyone can see it. We don't notice the lamp, though. What we notice is the light. Lights are meant to illuminate darkness. We need light to see and to live.

The good we do is noticed and felt, even when we may not realize it. We all go through doubts, wondering if our life has made any difference. Being salt and light, though, isn't about the few who change the world or make an impact. It’s something all of us can be. How? Well, as the great architect Mies van der Rohe said, “God is in the details.”

God is in the details of each of our lives. Ask a child who’s salt and light, and they’d most likely say their parents, even if the parent wonders if what they’re doing and giving is enough. They may even feel inadequate, but not to the child who just wants them to be themselves.

Caregivers of aging parents, where roles are often reversed, are salt and light. Maybe their parents don’t seem to appreciate the great amount of sacrifice they make to help them, but deep down who else would they turn to? They turn to those who love them and those they know wouldn't ever abandon them. And those around us who notice it, are inspired by the kindness, goodness and the underlying love we see. It inspires us.

How we're salt and light is as unique as ourselves. But it's there when God is a part of our life. Like every good life coach, Jesus—THE life coach—motivates us to let the good within each of us shine. It's there, not to be covered up, but to be seen.

Have a blessed week, everyone! And thanks to so many of you here at St. Hubert who witness the words of today’s gospel by the good things you're doing to build us up. A parish is a community united together where goodness is meant to be seen.

–Fr. Mike

What does it mean to be salt and light? If we listen carefully to Jesus’ words, we gain some direction. To be salt means to bring taste, zest, and joy to life. We are asked to liven things up a bit by allowing the joy of our faith to spill over into the lives of others. Only a sincere and deep relationship with God can freshen up humanity and set it on proper course. To be light means that our faith must translate into action so that we can be Christ for others and extend the same arm of mercy and compassion that Christ did. Our acts of piety, then, cannot be directed solely at ourselves. Prayer is never about self-benefit but must always be directed toward union with God, deepening our relationships with one another and learning how to be effective stewards of the beautiful universe God has entrusted to our care.

The Master gives us wise direction in terms of how we can best become the salt and light he desires. Listen carefully to the Beatitudes. Think about the oppression and alienation that exists in our world, the violence and prejudice, the anger and the hatred, the fear and the shame. All of these things require action. The poor need food, housing, and clothes. Hatred must be replaced by love. Retaliation and violence by forgiveness. Our thoughts and speech can become more like Christ. We can change and continue to change. Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman said, “To live is to change and to be perfect is to have changed often.”

But it doesn’t end with just offering the bandages needed to heal wounds. It must go deeper. We must ask ourselves what has happened that we have found ourselves in this place with these wounds and divisions. What are their causes? Together we must address these systemic problems, politically and spiritually, and face the truth. Only then will we truly be salt and light. But then again, we may not like what the light shows us.

BE CHRIST FOR OTHERS

Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.
—Matthew 5:16

Several years ago, I was approached by man who asked me to be his spiritual director. He was in his mid-forties and almost everything about him radiated a certain health. As we sat down to talk, I mentioned that he seemed to be in a very good space. He smiled and replied that, yes, this was so, but it hadn’t always been so. His happiness had its own history … and its own pre-history. Here’s how he told his story:

“I haven’t always been in a good space in my life; in fact, it’s been a long struggle to get where I am today. For more than 20 years, from the time I left high school until three years ago, I struggled with two addictions: alcohol and sex. I had them enough under control that I could essentially hide them from my family, my friends, and my colleagues. As well I never acted out in very dangerous ways. I was addicted, but still had good control in my life. The problem was that I was living a double life - showing one life to my family and friends and living another life secretly (alcohol, pornography, and pick-up bars) on the side. I never once missed a day of work and was always able to function at a high level professionally, but my life slowly began to fixate around my addictions - hiding them, lying about my activities, fiercely protecting my privacy, resentment towards anything or anybody who stood between me and my addictions, and daily anxiety, scheming about where I would go at night. I functioned decently within my work and my relationships, but my mind, heart, and real attention were focused on something else, my addictions, my next hit.

I’m not sure what the exact trigger was since there were a number of things that hit me at a point (my father’s death, a couple of near escapes in terms of being discovered, some real shame, some graced moments of clarity when I sensed both my hypocrisy and the dead-end road I was on), but three years ago I went on a retreat to a monastery and had the courage to have a long talk with the Abbott. He suggested that I go into two recovery programs, one to deal with alcohol and the other to deal with sex. I took his advice and all I can say is that it has completely turned my life around. I’ve been “sober” now for three years and the best way that I can describe it is that now “I see color again”. Nothing feels as great as honesty! I have never been this happy! I’m now living in the light!”

We’re called to live in the light, but we tend to have an overly romantic idea of what that should mean. We tend to think that to live in the light means that there should be a kind of special sunshine inside of us, a divine glow in our conscience, a sunny joy inside us that makes us constantly want to praise God, an ambience of sacredness surrounding our attitude. But that’s unreal. What does it mean to live in the light?

To live in the light means to live in honesty, pure and simple, to be transparent, to not have part of us hidden as a dark secret.

All conversion and recovery programs worthy of the name are based on bringing us to this type of honesty. We move towards spiritual health precisely by flushing out our sickest secrets and bringing them into the light. Sobriety is more about living in honesty and transparency than it is about living without a certain chemical, gambling, or sexual habit. It’s the hiding of something, the lying, the dishonesty, the deception, the resentment we harbor towards those who stand between us and our addiction, that does the real damage to us and to those we love.

Spiritual health lies in honesty and transparency and so we live in the light when we are willing to lay every part of our lives open to examination by those who need to trust us.

- To live in the light is to be able always to tell our loves ones where we are and what we are doing.
- To live in the light is not have to worry if someone traces what websites we have visited.
- To live in the light is to not be anxious if someone in the family finds our files unlocked.
- To live in the light is to be able to let those we live with listen to what’s inside our cell-phones, see what’s inside our emails, and know who’s on our speed-dial.
- To live in the light is to have a confessor and to be able to tell that person what we struggle with, without having to hide anything.

To live in the light is to live in such a way that, for those who know us, our lives are an open book.

Franciscan Father Ed Shea is the third of eight children from St. Giles Parish in Oak Park. A 1974 graduate of Fenwick High School and a 1978 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Father Shea joined the Franciscans in 1980 and was ordained a priest in 1987. Father Ed has spent most of his priesthood in parish work, including four years as the priest-presider for the St. Giles Family Mass Community in Oak Park, IL and five years as the pastor of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Joliet, IL. He was also pastor of St. Joseph Parish, a predominantly Hispanic community in Chicago’s famous Back of the Yards neighborhood. Father Ed has served on his Provincial Council and as Director of Vocations and Formation for the Franciscans of the Sacred Heart Province. Fr. Ed is currently stationed at St. Peter’s Church in downtown Chicago, and he’s been there since 2011. During the past several years he has done a good deal of itinerant preaching, in the Chicago area and beyond; he has spent some time living and working in Teutopolis, IL, and he even went on a couple of pilgrimages to Tanzania, Africa! A Franciscan priest who loves to sing and tell stories, more than anything he thrives on celebrating the sacraments of the Church. A true follower of St. Francis, Father Ed finds reasons to rejoice often in the goodness of God’s presence in our world.

Save the Date - February 21st for a very special evening...

Do you REALLY believe that Jesus is ALIVE and can HEAL thru his TRUE PRESENCE in the Holy Eucharist? Does Our Blessed Mother really hear what is in the silence of your hearts? Can the Holy Spirit really move and help me in my life?

Come and hear the answers to these questions through the powerful witness of

Colleen and John Willard

They will share of the miraculous healing of Colleen’s inoperable brain tumor after receiving the Holy Eucharist! It will touch your heart to listen to the unfolding of events in their lives, the intercession of the Blessed Mother and the movements of Her Spirit! It is a talk you will not want to miss, a talk that will give you hope and encourage you in your own trials and sufferings. A talk that will make you realize the gift we have waiting for us at every Mass and reception of Holy Communion!

St. Hubert Parish
Lenten Service Project

Wednesday, March 4, 2020
6:00-7:30 PM

740 Wiley Farm Court, Schaumburg

Lent is the forty-day liturgical season of fasting, prayer and almsgiving in preparation for Easter. Each year, we try to find creative ways to make Lent a memorable one. It is more than just giving up something that you will simply return to at the end of 40 days. During this time, we are called to grow deeper in our relationship with God and become ever closer with Him on our earthly pilgrimage. What better way to begin than to give of yourself for others.

Join our parish as we answer God’s call to feed the hungry and serve those in need. We encourage families to volunteer together.

As a volunteer, you will:
- Engage world hunger
- Make a tangible impact
- Experience the incredible joy of turning hunger into hope with your own two hands
- Experience a genuine and meaningful service opportunity
- Learn what hunger looks like
- See first-hand the stories of precious children whose lives have been saved and given futures filled with HOPE because of the nutritious meals YOU hand-pack

You must register online to reserve your spot. Space is limited, so register now:
https://www.fmsc.org/join-group?joincode=13247N

See fmsc.org for age restrictions and additional volunteer details.

Helping Hands Ministry

We’d like to believe that when needing support, we all have a family member or friend close by to help out. Unfortunately, this is not always the case. Or perhaps a great deal of support is needed requiring more support than family members are able to provide.

The Helping Hands Ministry was formed to assist members in our parish, free of charge, in various ways:
- Rides to appointments, grocery store, mass
- Relieving a caregiver by sitting with homebound family member
- Handy work or yard work
- Housework/cleaning
- Meals for those recovering from illness
- Just ask!

To request assistance or to volunteer, please contact the St. Hubert Parish Office at 847-885-7700, ext. 102 and your request will be forwarded to the Helping Hands Coordinator.

2020 Annual Catholic Appeal

Please spend some time this week reflecting on making a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. The Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a campaign commitment where you can make a gift payable in installments. A pledge is a promise to make a gift over a span of time.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services each day of the year. If we reach our parish goal, any additional funds will come back to our parish to help fund our own needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, you can either mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you who did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond, you’ll have a chance at the Masses next weekend.

Thank you very much for considering it, and for the many gifts of support you’ve given over the years to help our parish and the local Church to help bring the gospel alive in a world that needs Christ.
