6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
FEBRUARY 16, 2020

“Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow.”

MATTHEW 5:33B

GOOD THINGS CAN LEAD TO MORE GOOD THINGS

In collaboration with the faculty, our St. Hubert School principal, Ms. Kelly Bourrell, inaugurated a mantra for our school that’s active, affirming and inspiring: Impact the world through Christ. We’re all meant to contribute and participate in our world by what we do and who we are meant to be. And we know we don’t do this by ourselves. As St. Paul says, we do it through Christ who strengthens us (See Phil 4:13).

Kelly Bourrell and I started our ministry here at St. Hubert together in 2017 with the good intention to give it our best. Fr. Rizzo, and a very capable Search Committee, identified her as the right person at the time to navigate through a new era of the school. That, she did.

In two and a half years we built stronger curricula, are stabilizing enrollment, have a one-to-one technology program fully operational, Spanish language learning for students from pre-kindergarten to 8th grade, a new media center, and are blessed with strong teachers who are adapting to new methods and have a heart for their students and families. Our school is equipped for 21st century learning. We’re moving forward.

Last Friday, Kelly Bourrell notified the parish staff, faculty, and school families that she has made the difficult decision to move forward at the end of this school year. Beginning July 1, she’s moving to the south side—closer to family, and closer to the roots that connect her.

That said, we have already inaugurated the steps to find a new school leader. I am working with the Office of Catholic Schools who is guiding us through the principal selection process and have created a Selection Committee consisting of 10 key members who have shown a dedicated commitment to both the school and Church. We’re ready to get to work.

We will have time to thank Ms. Bourrell and to say “goodbye” as we get closer to the end of the school year. In the meantime, as we do so well at St. Hubert, we will work together. We will identify the right person to move our school ahead, keep us stable, and keep us grounded in our mission.

Good things will lead to more good things. God is with us, and may God continue to be with Kelly.

Let’s continue to pray for each other,

—Fr. Mike

From Kelly Bourrell’s Letter to Parents:
St. Hubert is an amazing parish community filled with love and support. I am incredibly proud and thankful for how much we have accomplished during my time here. I am especially proud of our devoted faculty who bring their absolute best to educating our children. I am proud of the learning community we have built over the last three years. I know that it is time for me to personally and professionally to spread my wings. My youngest daughter will be leaving for college this coming fall, leaving me with an empty nest. I will be moving to be closer to family and friends and the commute to St. Hubert will no longer be logistically possible. While I do not know exactly where my path will take me, I know that I still have so much to continue to learn, grow, and contribute to the world of education. I am forever thankful for my days at St. Hubert. Being a part of this exceptional community, I leave being a better leader, educator, mother and friend.

Bring Palms for Ash Wednesday

Did you know?

Many churches are seeing a new spin on gift card scams.

Scammers are pretending to be a pastor, priest, or bishop. They’re asking worshipers for gift card contributions for a worthy cause. Appeals are often made by email, but we’ve heard people are also getting texts and phone calls too. The bogus emails often include the name of the pastor and have been including photos and church logos. But a closer look should raise some red flags. Check the email address—it isn’t the one normally used by the church and the service provider is different (like gmail or yahoo). The message may begin with a simple "Hi", but doesn't include a recipients' name. There also may be spelling errors, including the pastor's name. The scammer asks you to buy a popular gift card--frequently iTunes, Google Play, or Amazon--and then asks for the gift card number and PIN on the back of the card. Those numbers let the scammer immediately get the money you loaded onto the card and once that’s done, the scammer and your money are gone, usually without a trace. If you or someone you know paid a scammer with a gift card, report it as soon as possible. Call the card company and tell them the gift card was used in a scam. You can also contact google to let them know you received a scam email. Here’s a link that tells you how: wikihow.com/Report-a-G...

Most importantly, legitimate emails from Father Mike will only be sent through his sainthubert.org email or through Flocknote.

People are not property. We cannot exchange them at will or simply use them for our own designs and purposes. What does the word "commitment" mean to you? We can begin to understand its meaning by looking at some synonyms: dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, fidelity, and bond. Commitment is primarily about relationship, and Jesus is all about relationships. How our lives affect others, how we treat our brothers and sisters, how we resolve conflict, and how we view the vows of marriage. Jesus' teachings on obeying the commandments, murder, reconciliation, marriage, divorce, and adultery all stem from the sacredness of commitment. All of this has a God connection.

Some relationships can be hurtful, and God does not want us to live with abuse or pain. Also, how a relationship develops is sometimes out of our control, and we become the victim of someone else's decision. But we can't be self-focused in our relationships and see them exclusively as self-fulfilling ends. We are companions on life's journey with varying depths of relationships being enjoyed by all who are with us along the way. We have the freedom to choose. God asks us to do so wisely, with right judgment and thinking.

Let your “Yes” mean “Yes,” and your “No” mean “No.” Anything more is from the evil one.”
—Matthew 5:37

Anyone familiar with the life and writings of Simone Weil will, I am sure, agree that she was a woman of exceptional faith. She was also a woman with an unwavering commitment to the poor. But, and this may seem anomalous, she was also exceptional and unwavering in a certain resistance she had towards the institutional church. During her lifetime she longed for daily Eucharist, even as she resisted baptism and membership in the church. Why?

It wasn’t the church’s faults and failings that bothered her. She was a realist and accepted that every family and institution has its infidelities, flaws, and sin. She had little problem forgiving the church for its shortcomings. Her resistance to full genuflection within the institutional church had its root instead in a particular anxiety she felt before any social institution, that is, she saw how an uncritical patriotism or misguided loyalty often leaves individual members of an institution unable to see the sins and shortcomings within that institution. For instance, fiercely patriotic citizens can be blind to the injustices done by their own countries and deeply pious people can be constrained by their loyalty to the church so as to turn a blind eye on the church’s faults, as was the case with many saints who supported the Crusades and the Inquisition. Blind loyalty to country, church, family, or anything else, Weil believed, becomes a form of idolatry.

She’s right. Blind loyalty can easily become idolatry, despite its sincerity and high motives. It might seem wrong to criticize loyalty, but we can be too loyal, loyal to the point where our loyalty blinds us from seeing the real harm sometimes being done by those to whom we are uncritically giving that loyalty.

We are all familiar with certain axioms which each in their own way, would have loyalty trumping everything else: My country, right or wrong! The church, love it or leave it! A family’s dirty secrets need to remain inside the family; they’re nobody else’s business! But these axioms, with their naïve and uncritical call for loyalty to one’s own, are neither wise nor Christian. Both human wisdom and Christian discipleship call us to something deeper.

All families, all countries, and all churches have their sins and shortcomings, but we show our love and loyalty when, instead of blinding our eyes to those faults, we instead challenge ourselves and everyone within that circle to look at and correct those sins and shortcomings. We can learn lessons here from Recovery and 12-Step programs. What they have learned through years of experience in dealing with dysfunction of every kind is that the loving thing to do in the face of sickness, inside of any group or relationship, is to confront that pathology. To not confront it is to enable it. Real love and real loyalty do not remain uncritical. They never say: This is my family, my country, or my church - right or wrong! Instead, when things are wrong, they tell us to show love and loyalty not by protecting our own, but by confronting what’s wrong.

That’s in fact the biblical tradition of the prophets, exactly what the prophets did. They loved their people and were fiercely loyal to their own religious tradition, but they were not so blindly loyal so as to be uncritical of the real faults inside that religious community. They were never constrained by false loyalty so as to be blind to the sins within their own religious structures and remain muted in the face of those faults. They never said of their religious tradition: Love or leave it! Instead, they said: We need to change this - and we need to change it in the name of loyalty and love.

Jesus followed in the same path. He was faithful and loyal to Judaism, but he was not silent in the face of its faults and wrongdoings in his time. In the name of love, he challenged everything that was wrong. He taught, and taught strongly, that blind religious loyalty can be idolatry. He would be last person to teach that loyalty and love mean never criticizing your own. Indeed, he de-literalizes the meaning of family, country, and church and asks us to understand these in a higher way. He asks: Who is my mother and who are my brothers and sisters? And he goes on to say that these are not to be defined by biology, country, or religious denomination. Real family, he says, is made up by something else, namely, by those who hear the word of God and keep it, irrespective of biology, country, or religion. Consequently biology, country, and religion must be criticized and opposed whenever they stand in the way of this deeper union in faith and justice.

Blood may be thicker than water. But, for Jesus, faith and justice are thicker than blood, country, and church. Moreover, for him, genuine love and loyalty manifest themselves in a commitment to challenge things that are wrong, even when that means seeming to be disloyal to one’s own.

Franciscan Father Ed Shea is the third of eight children from St. Giles Parish in Oak Park. A 1974 graduate of Fenwick High School and a 1978 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Father Shea joined the Franciscans in 1980 and was ordained a priest in 1987. Father Ed has spent most of his priesthood in parish work, including four years as the priest-presider for the St. Giles Family Mass Community in Oak Park, IL and five years as the pastor of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Joliet, IL. He was also pastor of St. Joseph Parish, a predominantly Hispanic community in Chicago’s famous Back of the Yards neighborhood. Father Ed has served on his Provincial Council and as Director of Vocations and Formation for the Franciscans of the Sacred Heart Province. Fr. Ed is currently stationed at St. Peter’s Church in downtown Chicago, and he’s been there since 2011. During the past several years he has done a good deal of itinerant preaching, in the Chicago area and beyond; he has spent some time living and working in Teutopolis, IL, and he even went on a couple of pilgrimages to Tanzania, Africa! A Franciscan priest who loves to sing and tell stories, more than anything he thrives on celebrating the sacraments of the Church. A true follower of St. Francis, Father Ed finds reasons to rejoice often in the goodness of God’s presence in our world.

Lent is the forty-day liturgical season of fasting, prayer and almsgiving in preparation for Easter. Each year, we try to find creative ways to make Lent a memorable one. It is more than just giving up something that you will simply return to at the end of 40 days. During this time, we are called to grow deeper in our relationship with God and become ever closer with Him on our earthly pilgrimage. What better way to begin than to give of yourself for others.

Join our parish as we answer God’s call to feed the hungry and serve those in need. We encourage families to volunteer together.

As a volunteer, you will:

- Make a tangible impact
- Experience the incredible joy of turning hunger into hope with your own two hands

Helping Hands Ministry

How many times have you shared you were there “just at the right time?” After experiencing this sentiment on numerous occasions, I must believe divine intervention has had something to do with this! As I serve on the Helping Hands Ministry, I find myself in the “right place” every time I answer a request for support. Sometimes these requests are just a one-time occurrence and other times they are ongoing until a situation changes or improves. Along the way, I have made many new friends and witnessed unconditional love at its best! One such example I am privileged to observe is the love and compassion shared between a 96-year-old dementia Mom and her caregiving daughter. This elderly woman requires 24/7 care. I visit once a week so the daughter can attend Mass. This daughter has put her own life on hold as she painstakingly cares for her Mom. These two women have become dear friends and inspire me each visit!

On February 24 we have 2 concurrent programs:

All-Networking Meeting
7:00–9:15 PM
Parish Ministry Center
Club Room
This all-networking meeting gives each attendee the opportunity to sit around a large square table and give his/her 5-minute Elevator Speech. Comments and questions from the group are then followed by one-on-one networking.

Interview Strategy Session
7:00–8:30 PM
Dorothy Day Room (2nd floor)
This session will help job seekers who have specific questions on interviewing strategy to develop and practice interview responses, strengthening their candidacy for successful consideration in the hiring process. This will be in a small group setting, allowing participants to learn from each other, and will be facilitated by Bob Placko, retired Senior Vice President of Human Resources at Motorola, and a member of the St. Hubert’s Job and Networking Ministry Core Team!

For questions regarding the St. Hubert Job Ministry events, contact Mike Ritter, Co-Coordinator, at sainthubertjobministry@gmail.com.

JOB SEEKER’S EXCHANGE:
Whether you are a newcomer to the Saint Hubert Job Support Group or one of our members, feel free to attend the meeting, for job seekers, which precedes our regular Monday meeting where you can sit in and learn from the questions and answers of others. Stop in to the Job Seeker’s Exchange, 6:00–7:00 PM, prior to the start of our regular meeting.

To Be Joyful Again is a nondenominational support group for widows, widowers, or anyone else who has lost a significant other, meets the 1st and 3rd Thursday of every month at 7:00 PM at Holy Family Parish, 2515 Palatine Road, Inverness.
