“If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.”

JOHN 4:10
“I AM THIRSTY”

JOHN 19:28

Today we hear the encouraging passage of Jesus’ encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well.

One of the insights that biblical scholars talk a lot about is that the meeting really shouldn’t have taken place.

Jesus was a Jew, she was a Samaritan. (As John points out Samaritans and Jews had nothing to do with each other as a point of religious tension). Jesus was a man, she was a woman. (It doesn’t sound like a big deal, but in that era, and in that patriarchal culture, such public exchanges didn’t happen). Jesus was the Son of God, she was a sinner. (We hear Jesus bring all that out into the open).

Instead, Jesus breaks the barriers and initiates the meeting by turning to her in the heat of the noonday sun with the great conversation starter: “Give me a drink.”

We all thirst—many times physically. But there are other thirsts: thirst for meaning, thirst for companionship, thirst for our well-being; thirst for God.

Jesus will tell us, that if we thirst for him, it will satisfy our thirst for all those things. The woman at the well was skeptical at first. But once the conversation started and continued, she realized her search for meaning and wholeness (and respect) was satisfied in Christ.

The conversation shouldn’t have happened by human standards, but by God’s why wouldn’t it. God is eager for us to share our life with him. It’s why we pray. We reveal ourselves to the one who revealed himself to all of us.

Even on the cross, during his suffering, Jesus said, “I’m thirsty.” The cross was for us. He satisfies our thirst for meaning. He satisfies our search for God. So, when life gets hard or we find ourselves afraid, we have someone to get us through. Give him the drink he’s asking for.

60 Years of Prayer at St. Hubert

Even if you only have 5 minutes, please stop by on Wednesday between noon and midnight to say a prayer for our parish and for all you thirst for in life. Jesus Christ is the center of our parish life and our prayer is what keeps us united.

May God continue to be with us on our Lenten journey to Easter,

—Fr. Mike

Include a description of the event, date, time, location, and any other pertinent information.

It is not always possible to fit a full or half page article in the bulletin, so if you submit a large article, it is also wise to submit a smaller, editable version to be sure it will fit in the space available. Email your submissions to our bulletin editor and webmaster, Karyn Weiland, at kweiland@sainthubert.org.

Jesus said to her, “Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.”
—John 4:21

We give the definition of ourselves over to so many things. We allow our society, friends, family, work, social groups, ethnicity, and even institutions define, classify, and color how we perceive ourselves. When we listen predominantly to the voices of others, we lose touch with what is happening within our own inner voice. If we listen carefully within, we can easily discover that we are in want and need. We know our incompleteness and also know that loneliness, sadness, and self-images can propel us outward in attempts to fill those gaps. We can become not only victims of our own prejudices but can find ourselves overly self-indulgent in things that can only satisfy for a short time, if at all.

It is no wonder that money and power are things that are so fervently sought after. As long as we can keep a steady supply going, the illusion of fulfillment and satisfaction can falsely persuade us as craftily as a master magician’s act. We live with illusions not truth. It is no wonder, then, that some of the wealthiest folks are also really the unhappiest. Whether we admit it, the lies we live and pursue will ultimately expose our superficiality. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. Learn to listen more deeply, not to what others are saying about you, but to what God is echoing in your heart.

We can easily get confused and misunderstand, not only about who we are but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make. There is only one Person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts – Jesus the Messiah. It is not the work of corporate America that will lead us to happiness or greatness but the work of the soul. We continue to resist acknowledging this and are happier in our world of misunderstanding and illusion. The life-giving water we truly need doesn’t come from the source of a well but from the Source of Life. Only God can reveal the truth of our sinfulness, the superficiality of our pursuits, and the illusions we hold so dear. Only Jesus can save us from ourselves and give us what we really need. If only our heads can catch up with where our hearts know they need to be, then will we find real contentment and life!

Mercy, Truth, and Pastoral Practice
by Ron Rolheiser, O.M.I.

Recently a student I’d taught decades ago made this comment to me: “It’s been more than twenty years since I took your class and I’ve forgotten most everything you taught. What I do remember from your class is that we’re supposed to always try not to make God look stupid.”

I hope that’s true. I hope that’s something people take away from my lectures and writings because I believe that the first task of any Christian apologetics is to rescue God from stupidity, arbitrariness, narrowness, legalism, rigidity, tribalism, and everything else that’s bad but gets associated with God. A healthy theology of God must underwrite all our apologetics and pastoral practices. Anything we do in the name of God should reflect God.

It’s no accident that atheism, anti-clericalism, and the many diatribes leveled against the church and religion today can always point to some bad theology or church practice on which to base their skepticism and anger. Atheism is always a parasite, feeding off bad religion. So too is much of the negativity towards the churches which is so common today. An anti-church attitude feeds on bad religion and so we who believe in God and church should be examining ourselves more than defending ourselves.

Moreover more important than the criticism of atheists are the many people who have been hurt by their churches. A huge number of persons today no longer go to church or have a very strained relationship to their churches because what they’ve met in their churches doesn’t speak well of God.

I say this in sympathy. It’s not easy to do God adequately, let alone well. But we must try, and so all of our sacramental and pastoral practices need to reflect a healthy theology of God, that is, reflect the God whom Jesus incarnated and revealed. What did Jesus reveal about God?

First, that God has no favorites and that there must be full equality among races, among rich and poor, among slave and free, and among male and female. No one person, race, gender, or nation is more favored than others by God. Nobody is first. All are privileged.

Next, Jesus taught that God is especially compassionate and understanding towards the weak and towards sinners. Jesus scandalized his religious contemporaries by sitting down with public sinners without first asking them to repent. He welcomed everyone in ways that often offended the religious propriety of the time and he sometimes went against the religious sensitivity of his contemporaries, as we see from his conversation with the Samaritan woman or when he grants a healing to the daughter of a Syro-Phoenician woman. Moreover he asks us to be compassionate in the same way and immediately spells out what that means by telling us the God loves sinners and saints in exactly the same way. God does not have preferential love for the virtuous.

Shocking to us too is the fact that Jesus never defends himself when attacked. Moreover he is critical of those who, whatever their sincerity, try to block access to him. He surrenders himself to die rather than defend himself. He never meets hatred with hatred and dies loving and forgiving those who are killing him.

Jesus is also clear that it’s not necessarily those who explicitly profess God and religion who are his true followers, but rather those, irrespective of their explicit faith or church practice, who do the will of God on earth.

Finally, and centrally, Jesus is clear that his message is, first of all, good news for the poor, that any preaching in his name that isn’t good news for the poor is not his gospel.

We need to keep these things in mind even as we recognize the validity and importance of the ongoing debates among and within our churches about whom and what makes for true discipleship and true sacrament. It is important to ask what makes for a true sacrament and what conditions make for a valid and licit minister of a sacrament. It is important too to ask who should be admitted to the Eucharist and it is important to set forth certain norms be followed in preparation for baptism, Eucharist, and marriage.

Difficult pastoral questions arise around these issues, among other issues, and this is not suggesting that they should always be resolved in a way that most immediately and simplistically reflects God’s universal will for salvation and God’s infinite understanding and mercy. Admittedly, sometimes the long-term benefit of living a hard truth can override the short-range need to more quickly take away the pain and the heartache. But, even so, a theology of God that reflects the compassion and mercy of God should always be reflected in every pastoral decision we make. Otherwise we make God look stupid - arbitrary, tribal, cruel, and antithetical to church practice.

Marilynne Robinson says Christianity is too great a narrative to be underwritten by any lesser tale and that should forbid in particular its being subordinated to narrowness, legalism, and lack of compassion.

60 YEARS OF PRAYER

We begin our celebration of 60 years as a parish with a special day of prayer. Please join us Wednesday, March 18, anytime between noon and midnight, to pray for our parish in front of the Blessed Sacrament. The Eucharist is the center of our faith and our spiritual lives. It’s what has drawn our parish together day after day, week after week.

What greater expression to give thanks to God than to drop by sometime during the day to say a prayer of gratitude for the parish we love and call home, and…to pray for our future. Please come and pray with us! We can have any number of people praying each hour, but we do need at least one person present every hour.

You can sign up for a specific time in the narthex, drop by any time during the day, or even sign up online by going to https://signup.com/login/entry/1008336574084

We have been monitoring the news about the spread of Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19), particularly the cases identified in the Chicago area. The archdiocese has issued guidelines for worship services based on advice from public health authorities and we have joined with the Holy Father in praying for all affected by this epidemic.

We are writing today to share developments that may have an impact on some archdiocese facilities. The Chicago Department of Public Health (CDPH) has recently confirmed a case of COVID-19 involving a staff member at Vaughn Occupational High School, a Chicago public school. The CDPH has stated that the immediate health risk to the general public from this case remains low. The CDPH recommended that anyone present at Vaughn School between February 25 and March 6 self-quarantine. The CDPH and CPS also advised that:

“People who were not at Vaughn between February 25 and March 6 do not have restrictions at this time, even if they have been in contact with someone at Vaughn. They can attend work and school, as long as they are not sick. This applies to:

- Family members, care providers or those who share a household with Vaughn students, staff, and service providers
- Students, faculty and staff at other schools or other members of the community who may have come into contact with members of the Vaughn community
- Students who shared the bus with Vaughn students”

Based on this guidance, and our own contacts with CDPH and Illinois Department of Public Health we are not closing archdiocese schools where a student or staff member has a connection with Vaughn.

We will follow the same guidance for other cases of secondary family exposure. Students and staff with a family member who might have had contact with a confirmed COVID-19 case will be allowed to attend work and school, as long as they are not sick

The health and safety of our Parish and School communities is our first priority. We ask that you join us in protecting our community by following the guidance of public health authorities and your medical provider. It is critically important that our community share only trusted sources of information.

For the most reliable information, please visit:

- Chicago Department of Public Health www.chicago.gov/coronavirus CDPH has developed a FAQ that will be updated regularly as the situation develops.
- The Illinois Department of Public Health www.dph.illinois.gov
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention www.cdc.gov/coronavirus

We will continue to follow the guidance of local, state, and federal health officials and will update you as our situation changes or more information becomes available. Please email preparednessac@archchicago.org if you have concerns or questions of the archdiocese or the Office of Catholic Schools.

As a faith community, we must respond with compassion and prayer to everyone affected by the COVID-19 epidemic around the world, particularly those who do not have access to medical and community support. We will include these brothers and sisters in our prayers for the sick and those who have died. Please keep our community in your prayers and know that we are praying for you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Your game card is randomly assigned 8 teams (2 teams from each region) that will play in college basketball’s national championship tournament in March. The teams are represented by their seed numbers and regions in the tournament. All cards have seeds 1 thru 8 so everyone has an equal chance of winning. At the end of the tournament, prizes are awarded to the 70 game cards whose teams score the most combined total points throughout the tournament, and the 5 cards that score the fewest total combined points. Teams that have been eliminated from the tournament get zero points in rounds they do not play. If two or more game cards are tied with the same score, the total combined free throws made by all teams on the card is used as the primary tiebreaker. See website www.charitymania.com for complete tiebreaker rules. Minimum odds of winning: 1 in 19 per card. No purchase necessary to play. Void where prohibited. Sweepstakes ends after last game. See website www.charitymania.com for additional details and to view winning game cards.

Tickets on sale in the Narthex after most Masses this weekend (No sales after 6:00 PM Mass)
A parishioner, Patrick Fleming, has offered to repair broken rosaries. There will be drop off receptacles at the ministry station in the narthex, and rosaries can be dropped off there. (The Ministry Station is the large brown cabinet by the main entrance on the South side of the church. There are slots on the left side of the station, and the receptacle for Rosary drop off is marked.) Patrick suggests putting any rosary to be repaired in an envelope with your name and phone number on it for return purposes. When repaired, we will call you to let you know you can pick it up.

Please donate any unused, broken rosaries so that their parts can be used to repair member’s rosaries.

In addition to repairing rosaries, Patrick makes rosaries for the missions, and he also accepts any rosaries people wish to donate. Those can also be dropped off in the narthex in the receptacle marked “Rosaries.”

Helping Hands Ministry

I’ve learned from the Helping Hands Ministry, that it is often the simplest gestures that bring the greatest pleasure. This sentiment became apparent to me through my interactions with a single mom and her 8 year old daughter. After assisting them with a move from another town and to a new school, I asked if there was anything else they might need. The mom had said that her daughter loved to watch movies from the library, but they did not have a VHS player to view them. After a few inquiries from friends, I was able to locate one. If only you could have seen the smile on this child’s face when she pushed the play button and her movie appeared on the TV. Sharing resources, what a simple yet meaningful act!

Alvernia Alumnae Association will host its 28th Annual Spring Luncheon on Sunday, April 26, 2020 at The Cotillion, 360 W. Creekside Drive (Northwest Highway & Route 53), Palatine, IL 60074. Attendance at the luncheon is by reservation only. Registration deadline is April 17, 2020.
