15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.” - Mt 13:7-8

SOWING SEEDS

As we head into the summer months, we’ll begin to hear some of Jesus’ parables. This Sunday we hear the parable about a sower who goes out to plant seeds. When seed falls on rich soil it has the right conditions to grow and take off. What’s unusual about today’s gospel is that Jesus interprets the parable for us. We don’t always have that advantage. We’re meant to wrestle with Jesus’ parables, think about them, and try to figure out how some of the unusual stories we hear relate to the Kingdom of God. They’re meant to engage us as well as challenge us. Some even make us mad.

But today, Jesus blesses those who make the effort. We discover the seed the sower is scattering is God’s word and it’s Jesus who is doing the planting. Where the seed falls relates to where our hearts and minds are. Sometimes, the word takes no root; other times it produces great results. It not only can change our life, but when that happens it can have a positive effect on the lives of those around us.

And so, when it comes to our lives, the best thing we can find ourselves doing is to include God in it by holding onto Jesus’ word and teaching. It’s to incorporate it in all we do. It’s to make decisions and form our attitudes and values based on what God is hoping we’ll see about being in his Kingdom.

When it comes to struggling with important things—including the current challenges of our times—there’s that old saying: “What would Jesus do?” which isn’t a bad question to ask ourselves. When we take time to think about things through His eyes and heart, when we take the time to hear the voice of the Church and our Catholic teaching, the seed Jesus is planting is finding a way to take root.

A CAREFUL RE-OPENING; A CAREFUL CATCHING UP

As we open our doors and resume the sacramental life of our parish, we’re blessed to have a team of parishioners who are working very hard to make sure that we have all the safeguards in place. The team is led by Jim Elder, Karyn Baldwin and Emilee Baldwin, and includes Lynn Howard, Joyce Manfre, Teresa McCutchan, Jasmine Rangel, Carlos Rodriguez, and Melissa Wolf.

Right now, we’re working to help our parishioners who have been preparing to receive the sacraments for the first time. Because of the limited number of people we can have in the church, we’ll need to host 8 separate Masses to bring Holy Communion and Confirmation into the lives of the youth of our parish. We will begin next Saturday and will extend through August.

On August 2, we also will welcome the adults and children in our community who are being fully initiated into the Catholic Church. Infant baptisms are being held on weekends, but for the safety of the baby and those attending, we do those individually, family by family, so we’ve had to substantially increase the number of services. We’re also helping couples plan their wedding ceremonies, many of which were postponed because we had to close the church; our first in a long time will be on July 18. We’re also helping families with Funeral Masses, hosting food drives and offering Reconciliation.

To do all these successfully we’ve been blessed by parishioners who have said they’d be willing to help coordinate all that’s involved—from greeting people, to ushering, setting up, disinfecting and cleaning. It takes a lot of people—a community—to make it work.

So, as we open up Sunday Masses, we’re also mindful of the fullness of the sacramental life we’re trying to bring back into people’s lives. There’s a lot to do after having to postpone so many of our important sacramental moments. As such, even though we want to add more Sunday Masses—which is going to happen—we’re balancing a lot right now. And because it all relies on the goodness of parishioners pitching in, we want to be respectful of them and the time commitment—and health risks—that are involved. If it seems we’re moving slow, it is because there’s a lot happening at once. So, thank you for your patience and understanding as we move forward. We’re keeping vigilant as we try to keep all of us healthy and safe. We’re in unchartered territory, learning day by day. But the engine is beginning to take off again. And it’s happening because of the generosity of Spirit that is here.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

Using the best seeds doesn’t always guarantee the best plants. An older Italian gentleman straight from Italy gave me these amazing tomato seeds that he claimed produced the best tomatoes ever grown. Without doubt, the fruit he shared with me was a testament to that fact. These tomatoes were amazing! I couldn’t wait until the next growing season to plant these seeds and harvest my own tomatoes. The whole experiment ended up a failure. I did everything the gentleman said, but my fruit didn’t even come close. What happened? At first I was perplexed, then some years later the light dawned. The problem wasn’t the seeds, it was the soil!

You cannot sow seeds in any old place and in a haphazard way and expect them to be at their best. It doesn’t work that way. Planting the seeds is the easiest part. Preparing the soil is the challenge. Tilling, mulching, enriching, and building up the nutrients are all required for good fruit. Then after the seeds are planted, more care is required in order to maintain that healthy, nutrient rich environment for those seeds to sprout, grow, and flourish. God happily sows the seeds of his Word. What do we do with them?

If we expect to be a passive bystander and have good fruit magically grow, we are mistaken. Bearing the good fruit of God’s Word requires preparation and work. We have to cultivate the soil of our lives so that those seeds can find a proper home. This one thing alone takes a great deal of patience, time, and effort. What kind of preparation have we put into our lives so that we can be a recipient of God’s seed? It takes a great deal of soul-searching and ego-checking to properly prepare. God is the ever faithful and persistent sower. If the seeds do not bear fruit the first time, God will come back time and time again, giving it another try.

If we have created a suitable bed for sowing, then once the seed is sown, we must properly maintain them. What is our maintenance plan for the seeds of God’s Word? We need not only a source for water but a watering schedule. We need to weed, aerate the soil, nurture the young plants, protect them, and provide proper nutrients. What does our spiritual maintenance plan look like? If we have done all things well, imagine what the seeds of God’s Word could produce in us!
The Prodigal God
By Ron Rolheiser, O.M.I.

A couple of years ago, Barbara Kingsolver wrote a book entitled Prodigal Summer. It tells the story of a young woman who got pregnant during a summer within which everything seemed to be dangerously fertile. From the plants, through the insects, through the animals, to the people, everything seemed to be teeming with fecundity, overactive, overabundant in seed. Life seemed to be bursting forth everywhere. The title of the book is a good metaphor for what she describes, a summer overabundant in fertility.

Nature is like that, teeming with everything, prodigal, fertile, overabundant, wasteful. Why else do we have 90% more brain cells than we need and why else is nature scattering billions of seeds, of virtually everything, all over the planet every second?

And if life is so prodigal, what does this say about God, its author?

God, as we see in both nature and in scripture (and know from experience), is over-generous, over-lavish, over-extravagant, over-prodigious, over-rich, and over-patient. If nature, scripture, and experience are to be believed, God is the absolute antithesis of everything that is stingy, miserly, frugal, narrowly calculating, or sparing in what it does out. God is prodigal.

Dictionaries define “prodigal” as “wastefully extravagant and lavishly abundant.” That certainly describes the God that Jesus incarnates and reveals.

We see this in the parable of the Sower. God, the sower, goes out to sow and he scatters his seed generously, almost wastefully, everywhere - on the road, among the rocks, among the thorns, on bad soil, and on rich soil. No farmer would ever do this. Who would waste seed on soil that can never produce a harvest? God, it seems, doesn’t ask that question but simply keeps scattering his seed everywhere, over-generously, without calculating whether it is a good investment or not in terms of return. And, it seems, God has an infinite number of seeds to scatter, perpetually, everywhere. God is prodigious beyond imagination.

Among other things, this speaks of God’s infinite riches, love, and patience. For us, there is both a huge challenge and a huge consolation in that. The challenge, of course, is to respond to the infinite number of invitations that God scatters on our path from minute to minute. The consolation is that, no matter how many of God’s invitations we ignore, there will always be an infinite number of others. No matter how many we’ve already ignored or turned down, there are new ones awaiting us each minute. When we’ve gone through 39 days of Lent without praying or changing our lives, there’s still a 40th day to respond. When we’ve ignored a thousand invitations, there’s still another one waiting. God is prodigal, so are the chances God gives us.

Sr. Margaret Halaska once captured this wonderfully in a poem she entitled, Covenant:

The Father knocks at my door, seeking a home for his son:
Rent is cheap, I say
I don’t want to rent. I want to buy, says God.
I’m not sure I want to sell,
but you might come in to look around.
I think I will, says God.
I might let you have a room or two.
I like it, says God. I’ll take the two.
You might decide to give me more some day.
I can wait, says God.
I’d like to give you more,
but it’s a bit difficult. I need some space for me.
I know, says God, but I’ll wait. I like what I see.
Hm, maybe I can let you have another room.
I really don’t need that much.
Thanks, says God, I’ll take it. I like what I see.
I’d like to give you the whole house
but I’m not sure -
Think on it, says God. I wouldn’t put you out.
Your house would be mine and my son would live in it.
You’d have more space than you’d ever had before.
I don’t understand at all.
I know, says God, but I can’t tell you about that.
You’ll have to discover it for yourself.
That can only happen if you let him have the whole house.
A bit risky, I say.
Yes, says God, but try me.
I’m not sure -
I’ll let you know.

I can wait, says God. I like what I see.

If we look back on our lives and are truly honest, we have to admit that of all the invitations that God has sent us, we’ve probably accepted and acted on only a fraction of them. There have been countless times we’ve turned away from an invitation. For every invitation to maturity we’ve accepted, we’ve probably turned down a hundred. But that’s the beauty and wonder of God’s richness. God is not a petty creator and creation, itself, is not a cheap machine with barely enough energy and resources to keep it going. God and nature are prodigal. That’s plain everywhere. Millions and millions of life-giving seeds blow everywhere in the world and we need only to pick up a few to become pregnant, fecund, capable of newness, maturity, and of producing life.
LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Any good farmer will tell you that regardless of how good the quality of the seed, its sprouting and bearing of effective fruit is dependent upon the quality of the soil. Preparing the soil is one of the most essential components of farming. There is no doubt that the seed of God’s Word will eventually achieve its purpose. God cannot and will not fail. When and how that seed bears fruit is, however, dependent upon us. What is the quality and condition of your soil? Life’s concerns and preoccupations can cause us to become inattentive to our inner life. This sometimes unintentional neglect can result in our soil becoming hard, overgrown with weeds, rocky, parched, and lifeless. When God’s seed is sown, it doesn’t always take root because it struggles to establish roots and flourish. How can you more attentively attend to the soil of your heart so that it will be a fertile and vital place for the fruit of the Gospel to grow?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP:
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Focus on the Good

When I was a child, my mother had a set of sculptures resembling three human heads. One head had hands over the ears, one had hands over the eyes, and one had hands over the mouth. Of course, they depicted the phrase, “Hear no evil; see no evil; speak no evil.” I have seen these images repeated many times since then, usually as the monkey heads from a Japanese proverb, which would have probably seemed a little less creepy to me when I was a small child. Apparently, there is no consensus about the full meaning or certain origin of these three images nor the phrase. At the very least, it causes us to reflect on the need to avoid evil and look for the good in things.

As I have lived my life, I have come to believe there are more people who live their lives in a contrary manner to these images. It is not that they seek evil, but it is as if they “see no good, hear no good, and speak no good.” Gossiping is the way they pass the time, and they always seem to find the negative in people and situations. Being a good steward certainly means that we do not seek evil, but more than that, it means that we see the abundance of good things all around us. These gifts of God are big and little, profound and ordinary. By seeing the world in this way, we begin to change our personalities and our overall disposition. We always need to follow a new proverb: see all the good, hear all the good, and speak about the good. Amen.

Introducing St. Hubert Virtual Groups

Building up the Body of Christ with welcoming arms, loving hearts and joyful worship is our mission statement. We’re pretty good at that in person, we’re trying to be good at that now that we are meeting virtually.

We’re forming Virtual Groups to bring us together. We believe that for us to flourish in our relationships with God & people we need to prioritize being in real relationship with others who are also pursuing Jesus.

These groups will meet online once a week for 4 weeks. We’ll focus on building relationships, discussing the Sunday scriptures, and caring for one another.

Sign ups have begun. Check our website for details on how to join.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading
The prophet Isaiah assured the captive Israelites exiled in Babylon that God’s word is reliable and purposeful. Does this bring you comfort or distress?

Second Reading
Paul speaks of a spiritual connection and yearning for freedom (redemption) shared between us and creation itself. What do you think a redeemed creation looks like?

Gospel Reading
Why do you think Jesus explains the parable of the sower to his disciples but not to the crowds?

Want to Feel Closer to God?

St. Hubert’s Centering Prayer group meets via Zoom every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 8:00.

Centering Prayer is simply resting in God beyond thoughts, words and emotions. It’s a way of quieting the mind, resulting in the felt presence of God and a deepening of faith in God’s abiding presence.

The prayer practice of Lectio Divina (literally divine reading) is a way of becoming immersed in the Scriptures very personally. The Christian form of Lectio Divina is a way of developing a closer relationship with God by reflecting prayerfully on His word.

Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina are ideally practiced together; we do Centering Prayer for the first 20 minutes and then move into Lectio Divina. If you’d like to give it a try, you can join us for either or both forms. There’s no obligation – you can join us whenever you’re able.

SPECIAL THANK YOU!!!

This past Sunday we had over 70 cars go through our Drive By/Drop-Off Collection Point to drop off food and donations for Jewel Cards during our Food Drive for Church of the Holy Spirit Food Pantry. And several of you also brought food to drop off in the Narthex as you came to pray and worship at the 8 AM and 10 AM Masses.

We were able to fill up 5 cars/suv's from the Church of the Holy Spirit with the donated food, which was then delivered to their Food Pantry. Their volunteers were amazed and very appreciative of the abundant generosity of our parishioners to help those who come to them weekly for assistance with food.

I want to thank the volunteers who helped with the Food Drive and to also thank you, our parishioners, for your generosity in helping make this Food Drive a success. Your actions show God's love and presence within our faith community here at St. Hubert and how it also reaches out and is shared with others in need in our area.

May God's blessings continue to be upon you and keep you and your family safe.

Deacon Dick Lawson

For us to offer more opportunities, we need more volunteers!

We're now in Phase 2 of the Cardinal's Re-Opening plan.

Phase 2 includes resuming Sunday and Daily Masses--for groups of 108 (25% of our seating space). As we do this, we are very mindful of the protocols we'll need to follow, which includes proper social distancing, the wearing of face masks, the use of hand sanitizer and the necessary things we need to do to clean and disinfect all common areas.

The goal is not just to re-open, but to create a worship space that is conducive to keeping us safe and healthy.

Help Needed

To make this work, it's going to require a team of parishioners who are willing, ready, and able to help out. Of course, if you're in a vulnerable group, it's understandable to allow others to step forward.

Phase 2 Volunteers are needed to help us resume Masses. We'll need people who are interested in serving as Greeters (welcoming you and making sure you have a place to sit) and Ushers (helping us through the services, including Communion). We'll also need a team to help us get ready and clean and sanitize afterward.

Count Me In!

If you're interested in helping--and teens under 18 are welcome to help with a parent's permission--please sign up on our website.

Thank You Saint Hubert! Our strength has always been doing God's work together, with Jesus Christ leading the way. We're all looking forward to that day when we can see one another again and pray together in person.
Read the Gospel and Color

Jesus is standing in a boat at the edge of a large lake. He is talking to you and a crowd on the shore. You are sitting on a blanket with your mother's picnic basket beside you. Jesus talks about sowing seed. You are like God's seed. You grow in God's way because you are baptized with the water of salvation and are given the nutrients that come from obeying God's commandments.

Prayer
Lord, tell me how to grow closer to your ways of goodness.

Mission for the Week
I will plant a seed in good dirt and water it for you, Lord.

Sharing the Gospel

The farmer is God. The seed is God's Word. That makes the soil your heart. If your heart is angry or stubborn, God's Word can't sink in. If your heart is shallow, God's Word can't take root. Instead, you will worry about getting power or riches. If your heart is discouraged by people who hate God, your faith will choke. If your heart is soft, God's Word will change your life, and it will show.

Prayer

God, help my heart to be soft. Help your Word to change my life.

Job Support Group Meeting
Every Monday Morning from 9:30–11 AM
The Saint Hubert Job and Networking Ministry continues in its mission to assist the job seeker and job changer with the introduction of “virtual” Accountability/Job Support Group meetings via Zoom. The meetings are a way to address your career and job connection concerns with one of our team members, as well as one another, learn more about the resources available to job seekers, and to share information and support with a small group of attendees.

If you would like to register for this event:
1. Send an email with the name of the event, “Accountability/Job Support Group,” to Mike Ritter, at sainthubertjobministry@gmail.com.
2. You will receive an invitation to Zoom.com, a video conferencing platform, to join the group on your computer, tablet, or mobile device.
3. Click on the link within that email invitation to join the Accountability/Job Support Group on Zoom.com. Please send any questions to Mike Ritter at sainthubertjobministry@gmail.com.

Job Seeker’s Exchange July 13, 6:00–7:00 PM
Whether you are a newcomer to the Saint Hubert Job Support Group or one of our members, feel free to attend the meeting, for job seekers, which precedes our regular Monday meeting. Stop in to the Job Seeker’s Exchange prior to the start of our regular meeting.

Navigating The Steps Toward Landing Your Next Opportunity July 13, 7:00–9:00 PM
How do you find your next professional opportunity? What do you do to get ready for your next interview? Craig Johnson, Sales Manager at LaSalle Network, will explain how to identify your next professional opportunity, the “dos” and “don’ts” of a resume, and how to prepare for, and perform during, an interview. If you would like to register for this event:
1. Send an email with the name of the event, “Job Seeker’s Exchange” or “Navigating the Steps Toward Landing You Next Opportunity,” to sainthubertjnmpresentation@gmail.com.

Helping Hands Ministry Story 7

Perhaps the best way to share with you the meaningful work the Helping Hands Ministry provides is through a letter written by a fellow parishioner and recipient thanking her Helping Hands volunteer for all his support.

"I wanted to take a minute to thank you and Helping Hands for your assistance and kindness over the past seven months. I have developed medical problems and you have helped me in many areas, such as taking me to medical visits, helping me with grocery shopping, getting my driver's license, and household chores that are difficult for me. Helping Hands truly demonstrates what the Lord said, {Whatever you do for the least of my brethren that you do unto me}. Your group has truly responded to the Lord's call."
