

Our St. Gianna Culture of Life group is involved in all issues that help us develop a culture of life...

- We're involved in caring for the unborn, those who have no voice;
- We've helped with money for the presentation on "human trafficking" of young people, we've made our consecration and still learn more each time we make it again;
- We've collected signatures for the newspaper ad;
- We've given money to help with the Special Religious Education for those with "special needs" in our deanery;
- We've sponsor "baby showers" for St. Elizabeth and other organizations that promote life;
- We've read holy books and committed to pray a daily Rosary;
- We've prayed to Our Lady of Fatima on her 100th anniversary;
- We've participated in "40 Days for Life..." in the Spring and in the Fall;
- We've learned how to make the Rosary;
- We welcomed Fr. Tad who came to talk about end of life issues;
- We've given money to support the people in the Middle East after seeing their film of desperation;
- We've helped Moms who find themselves in unplanned or unwanted pregnancies;
- We've sponsored a talk by Dr. Deisher who spoke about ethics regarding vaccinations and pharmaceutical companies;
- We've sold roses for Mother's Day and given gifts to fathers on Father's Day;
- We've had Beverly, a sidewalk counselor, talk to group from So. IN;
- We've contacted MOMM for Divine Mercy info;
- We've prayed on the 13th of each month for the Anniversary of Fatima
- We've tried to live the spiritual life and know the Body of Christ feeds us;
- We've pray the Cenacles of Life each Tues. evening at 7 p.m. and continue to do so;
- We've held Divine Mercy Sunday celebrations for a number of years;

- We've gone to dinners and have heard speakers regarding pro-life topics; We've have fasted and prayed and made reparation for our countries many ills;
- We've prayed a Novena for Priests;
- We've have and continue to help students reach their potential with healthy choices;
- We've talked about "Humanae Vitae" (Of Human Life) which was written 50 years ago which still applies to us today;
- We've been selling aluminum cans for $ to continue our pro-life work;
- We've been going to Mass at the Cathedral- praying the Rosary on way to abortion clinic;
- We've participated in Live-Love Louisville;
- We've listened to speakers who come to the sidewalk at the abortion clinic to talk and pray with us;
- We've studied the Bible/ CCC to know more of our Catholic faith.

Won't you consider joining us in our efforts to create a culture of life? For more information contact, Phyllis Burkholder at pburk@twc.com or 812 246-2252.