THOUGHTS FROM FR. RICHARD
 PENSAMIENTOS DE PADRE RICARDO

■ THE CROSS, THE HARDSHIPS AND THE THREE WORDS: "LOVE ONE ANOTHER."

Last week, Jesus tied "life" to his life, the cross and unconditional love. These are not words of some spiritual theory, but how life works. Remember the poster that reads: "Be patient with me, I am a work in progress." We are a work in progress. Our spiritual lives are a work in progress as well. It does require work if we are going to make progress. How do we tie life, the cross and unconditional love together?

The disciples and preachers of "the New Way" were enthusiastic realists. They knew the work first-hand. We read in the Acts of the Apostles a powerful word of advice to the early followers of Jesus that "it is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom." The difficulties of life are built into life, and many of them are our own making because we don't think things through, nor often think of consequences. Many times we don't think at all, letting our senses for gratification lead us.

We will find the light when we try to bring the light into our lives. We will see the future when we try to build the future. We will understand the ideals when we try to live the ideals. We have to put into action the truth that we know.

In the Book of Revelation, John had a vision of God dwelling with us: "He will dwell with them, and they will be his people and God Himself will be with his people and God Himself will be with them as their God." God is already sitting in our family room, pulling up a table in the kitchen, watching our neglected house plants and hoping that we will dust our furniture. God also witnesses the arguments, the harsh words, the chilly silence and the sarcasm. What can we do to make our homes a place of welcome for others and for God?

The Acts of the Apostles also encourages us "to strengthen the spirits of the disciples and exhort them to persevere in the faith. That is what we should be doing for one another. How can we support each other to be good, loving individuals?

In the Last Supper room after Judas left, Jesus began to talk about his life and how his Father was about to fill him with the fullness of God. John the Evangelist expresses the meaning and the practice of the Cross by having Jesus say three words: "Love One Another." And so that we would understand what that means, Jesus put it another way: "As I have loved you so you should love one another." That is going to be the greatest hardship of our life—to live unconditional love. To live this Jesus-kind-of-love is a brilliant expression of God Himself.

We can do it very simply and beautifully by asking God for the awareness to live his love each day, to take God with us wherever we go, to ask God to keep us on track, to be aware every moment that God is dwelling with us. We do not leave God behind. We just need to pay attention to the God who is with each one of us.

Sometimes it is very difficult to love, especially when we have been hurt through family relationships that make us feel sad, unsure and insecure. We become wary of getting too close. Love is only a theory that we may never have experienced, because all we ever experienced was the negative.

If our lives are broken, we can seek a variety of avenues to mend them: healing sacraments, spiritual direction, therapy and courageous commitment. Right here in the parish, we have the Clayton Valley Counseling Service with professional, State of California personal and family therapists. We also have the services of Fr. Thomas Martin, a professionally trained psychologist as well. A referral can be made through the Parish Pastoral Office to either.

■ BREAK THE SILENCE OF SEXUAL ABUSE

Ministering to children and young people is the heart of what Jesus calls His people to do. The mission of the Safe Environment Office is to assist the Church in creating a safe haven for children, young people and vulnerable adults. The risk of child abuse is greatly reduced by breaking the silence about abuse, especially sexual abuse. Breaking the silence is a critical first step to begin the process of education, prevention and healing.

The Diocesan Office of Victim's Assistance offers a variety of avenues for victims and family members to report their experiences to this office, and to be welcomed, to receive pastoral care, and to learn about and access much-needed services. Diocesan staff serving in the Office of Victim's Assistance believe that individuals and communities are best served through a prompt response to requests for help, respectful listening, attention to their needs, and services to help them in the healing process. If you, or someone you know would like to report or seek help with an allegation of sexual misconduct by clergy or diocesan employees, please contact the following: Office of Victim's Assistance, Fr. Robert M. Herbst, OFM Conv, Victim's Assistance Coordinator, (510)267-8373, rherbst@oakdiocese.org; Diana Bitz, Safe Environment Coordinator and Anti-Harassment Training Coordinator, Diocese of Oakland, 510-267-8315, dbitz@oakdiocese.org

PARISH LIFE THOUGHTS FROM CHRISTA FAIRFIELD

■ KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BLOOD DRIVE - "THANK YOU"

The St Bonaventure Knights of Columbus Council 6038 hosted a Red Cross blood drive on April 9, 2016 in the Large Hall. In spite of some computer challenges that caused a long waiting period, the Red Cross staff was able to perform 37 procedures resulting in 39 pints of blood drawn. This amount of donations could potentially save 109 lives. It is worth noting that no one who volunteered to have blood drawn was turned away and only one person was unable to donate the full amount. According to the Red Cross Coordinator, Michael Miumi, this was only the third time that a drive was this successful in the past three years. A big "thank you" from the Knights of Columbus to all the blood donors who participated in this drive.

■ JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY –
May 1, 2016
Sixth Sunday of Easter

In formal documents, presentations, and homilies outlining the purpose of this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis explains that compassion and understanding for those in difficult situations is not only our individual responsibility, but something the whole Church officially needs to manifest. Today's Acts of the Apostles reading presents a moving example of the early church doing precisely that. Prayerful openness to the Holy Spirit assures the assembly that they have not acted alone in discerning the correct resolution: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us." And they have chosen the compassionate response: "not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities" (Acts 15:28). Yet how daringly creative—the Jewish majority sets aside lifelong rituals that establish spiritual identity and express covenant fidelity. How radically trustful—the church affirms universally valid principles while respecting uniquely local and personal situations. Exactly the grace Pope Francis prays this Jubilee Year will renew in today's Church!

LIFE AND JUSTICE MINISTRY

■ ACTING WITH MERCY: VISITING THE IMPRISONED

Kairos Prison Ministry shares the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ to incarcerated men, women, youth and their families. Kairos sprang from the Cursillo movement and is supported by volunteers from the 4th-Day movements such as BonFire and Cursillo, as well as other Christian volunteers. As a ministry, Kairos embraces a diverse group of volunteers working together to fulfill Christ's call to action in Matthew 25:36.

Inside prisons, Kairos Prison Ministry has a strategy to bring inmates to a 3½-day program where they will receive the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ. Kairos helps to develop a Christian community on the inside through a structured program of talks, mediations, chapel visits, music, and a lot of listening and loving.

And for adult females impacted by incarceration, Kairos Outside offers a comfortable, non-judging retreat for women to support each other as they journey through the incarceration of a friend or relative. In this retreat setting, women with similar challenges share their common stories and draw on each other for strength, forming a Christian community.

Finally, Kairos Torch provides a safe place to the youthful offender for spiritual exploration. Torch offers unconditional love and acceptance in a Christian setting that encourages the sharing of one's life journey through the mentoring of a mature, Christian volunteer, to find a full life.

There are many ways to help with this very important, highly impactful ministry. Please contact Cindy Hamer, 925-980-9450 or email clhamer@sbcglobal.net to see how you can become involved!

■ CCIH FAITH COMMUNITIES SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES FOR SUMMER VOLUNTEERS!

With summer quickly approaching, we are looking for help in the following areas:

- Camp leaders needed: Help run a one-week on-site summer camp for 20-40 low-income children. Requirement: 2 hours/day for a week (Mon-Thurs). You choose the hours and theme. This is a perfect teen project. Adult supervision will be provided. Locations: Pleasant Hill, Concord or Pittsburg
- Water safety needed at Garden Park Apartments: We have approximately 18 children under the age of 5 at Garden Park Apartments (GPA) in Pleasant Hill that we are hoping will become water-safe. Are you interested in volunteering 2-3 hours/day for 1-2 weeks to teach a “mommy and me” class and/or water safety at GPA in Pleasant Hill? Current lifeguard, CPR and first-aid certification is required.
- Interested in helping run a summer day camp for one week? We are currently putting together summer programming for children (toddler through middle school), and we need your help. Many of these are formerly homeless or very low-income. In the past, volunteers have organized small groups to host different “camps”. These activities take place at our housing sites (Pleasant Hill, Concord and Pittsburg) for a couple hours/day for 1-4 days during the week. Some examples include hosting a four-day dance camp; art camp; putting on a science camp; hosting a music camp; teaching gardening. Feel free to call and discuss ideas or just offer general help to an already formed camp week. On-site CCIH staff supervises all camps.

■ JUAN 14, 23-29

Queridos hermanos, uno de los grandes dones que Jesucristo nos trajo del Padre y que el Espíritu Santo nos concede disfrutar con su presencia dentro de nosotros, es la paz.

No sé qué ideas y sentimientos les suscita a ustedes esta palabra: paz. Desde la guerra mundial estamos hablando de paz. Pero, ¿hay realmente paz en el mundo? Sí desde la primera guerra mundial enumeráramos las guerras que ha habido en el mundo... ¡tendríamos que contar los muertos por millones! ¡Y cuantos inocentes!

En realidad, la paz no ha existido nunca en el mundo. Porque la paz de las armas se puede declarar en un papel, pero no la paz del corazón. Esta paz es mucho más difícil. Muchas declaraciones de paz son como las treguas de guerra que leemos en la prensa u oímos en la radio y televisión: no duran y no creemos en ellas. No hay paz verdadera porque no hay justicia. No hay paz verdadera porque no se da la primacía a los derechos inalienables de los hombres, de las sociedades y de las minorías.

Jesucristo dice a sus amigos que no nos da la paz como la dan los jefes de estado, o sea, la paz que se consigue con las armas. Él nos da la paz del espíritu, la paz verdadera, la paz que nace desde dentro del corazón y transforma a todo el hombre. Sólo obtiene la paz el hombre que renuncia a odiar, el que no quiere matar, que no quiere hacer daño a nadie, que no quiere robar, el hombre, en fin, que prefiere esta paz de espíritu a todas las cosas del mundo.

El mensaje de Jesucristo empieza por el anuncio de paz a todos los hombres de buena voluntad. Su saludo es siempre de paz: “Paz a vosotros”, “no se turbe vuestro corazón.” Esta paz es el triunfo del Reino de Dios en nuestros corazones, en nuestras familias, en la sociedad.

La paz que nos anuncia el Evangelio no puede existir mientras exista el egoísmo. Lo podemos comprobar por nuestra experiencia personal. Cuando hacemos un regalo o favor a otra persona, y lo hacemos de corazón, nos olvidamos un poco de nosotros mismos. A cambio, disfrutamos de cierta alegría y paz. Solemos decir que el dar trae alegría. Y cuando amamos a alguien, experimentamos alegría al sacrificar algo por esa persona: dinero, tiempo. Y sentimos paz. Por el contrario, cuando hacemos un mal a otro por obtener ventaja personal, no dejamos de oír eso que llamamos la voz de la conciencia. Las guerras que arruinan a los pueblos son fruto del egoísmo y la ambición. Vemos que el único camino hacia la paz está dentro de nosotros mismos. Desde fuera, nadie, ni siquiera Dios, nos dará la paz si no hay colaboración de nuestra parte.

Cristo ha proclamado al mundo entero el programa de su reino y ha dicho bien claro: “Bienaventurados los pacíficos.” Pacíficos son los que hacen la paz; los que se esfuerzan y trabajan para que haya paz en el mundo. Estos pacíficos bienaventurados están convencidos que hay que hacer la paz, y hay que hacerla con el Evangelio.

“Bienaventurados los pacíficos” quiere decir que Dios va a premiar eternamente y reconoce como hijos suyos todos aquellos que trabajan por la Buena Nueva y para que esta paz del espíritu reine en todos los corazones de los hombres y en todo el mundo. Y como anticipo, nos da ya ahora su paz: “Les dejo la paz, les doy mi paz. La paz que yo les doy no es como la que da el mundo.” Nos da el don del Espíritu Santo que nadie podrá arrebatar.

Hermanos, que esta paz de Jesucristo esté siempre en aumento en sus corazones. Dios les ayude. Diácono Mariano Preza.

■ FRASES DEL PAPA FRANCISCO

Un pastor no puede sentirse satisfecho solo aplicando leyes morales como si fueran rocas que se lanzan sobre la vida de las personas.

■ CAMPAMENTO DE BIBLIA PLAN DE VERANO DETÉNGASE Y DISFRUTE EN LA GRANJA DE SAN BUENAVENTURA JULIO 18-22, 2016

Nos reuniremos porque vamos a tener nuestra propia granja -- la vamos a construir aquí en San Buenaventura. Sí, es cierto – piensen en animales de granja, verdes praderas, frutas y vegetales frescos, música y artesanías. Tendremos mucha diversión mientras escuchamos historias del Evangelio de cómo Jesús es nuestro buen pastor que reúne y cuida de su rebaño.

Ahora es el momento de planificar actividades para esos días soleados de verano. Ofrecemos un programa para pre-escolares de 3 y 4 años de edad de 9:30-11:30am. Kínder - 6to grado de 9:30-12:30pm. Los jóvenes de 6 ° grado son consejeros-van a estar y participar en “muu”-chas actividades.

Las inscripciones empiezan el sábado 7 de mayo de 9:00 – 1:00pm en el salón de clase A-1. El costo de la inscripción es $65 para pre-escolares y $80 para los estudiantes de primaria.

Adultos, necesitamos líderes agrícolas. Único requisito es el deseo de tener un barril lleno de diversiones con los niños. Para más información comunicarse con Rosann Halick, 672-5800, ext 2204 o rhalick@stbonaventure.net

Adolescentes – del 7 ° grado a secundaria - no se perderán en la pradera – necesitamos que sean nuestras manos de la granja. Esto es una forma de divertirse, compartir su fe y servir de una manera variada en el campo. Póngase en contacto con Miranda Ripoli, 672-5800, ext 2229 o mripoli@stbonaventure.net.

Así que a reunir sus overoles, sombrero y botas de granja y prepárense para una experiencia “Gran-diosa” en tierras de América en el Campamento de Biblia!

■ SE NECESITAN MINISTROS PARA VISITAR Y LLEVAR LA COMUNIÓN A LOS ENFERMOS

Raúl Alvarado como coordinador reconoce que es un ministerio muy gratificante. La alegría de las personas a las que se visita, y cumplir con la misión de llevar la Presencia de Cristo a través de la Eucaristía en el Año Jubilar de la Misericordia, es la mejor recompensa. Requisitos: el deseo de servir y amar a los demás. Los esperamos. Si está interesado favor llamar a la oficina del Diácono Mariano Preza al (925) 672-5800 X 2215.
