THOUGHTS FROM FR. DAVID LAWRENCE

A Reflection on Mark 12:38-44

A widow...bent down...destitute...with two coins for the temple treasury...no one notices. Jesus of Nazareth, however, sees her.

We come to church on Sundays. Are we aware that our God sees us? Are we occasionally bent down? Do we invite our God to look upon us? God sees us, just as we are, in our own efforts to pray, to praise God, to celebrate the Eucharist, to establish communion with our sisters and brothers. God sees us. No matter the half-hearted, sometimes distracted or unfocused manner of proceeding in our worship, God looks upon us with eyes of mercy and compassion, as he did the widow.

Does this widow of ancient time have anything to teach us? Consider her lowliness. She is a dependent person, same status as an orphan. She has no man in her life to support her. She places her last resources in the treasury. This is an act of faith. She gives out of her poverty. Would we in our most desperate state in life do that?

The widow stands as counter-sign of what is going on in the world. The scribes and Pharisees, religious leaders, have robbed the widow of her dignity. While the wealthy and more prestigious place their offerings with great satisfaction in the treasury, the widow hides her meager offering. It is so little, just as she is so little.

Jesus sees her. And he sees all the other people, some who arrogantly strut around with puffed-up illusions about themselves, bargaining with God to give them what they want. On the contrary, the widow lowers herself and invites whatever God wishes to share with her.

Jesus sees her. He turns to his disciples and tells them that she gave more than all the rest. She gave an open heart that God could fill.

Jesus...sees...us...today.

PENSAMIENTOS
DEL PADRE PADRE
DAVID LAWRENCE

Una Reflexión de Marcos 12:38-44

Una viuda... muy pobre... se inclinó... con dos monedas para el tesoro del templo... Nadie lo notó. Jesús de Nazaret, sin embargo, la vio.

Llegamos a la Iglesia los domingos. ¿Somos conscientes de que nuestro Dios nos ve? ¿Estamos en ocasiones inclinados? ¿Invitamos a nuestro Dios que nos mire? Dios nos ve como somos, ve nuestros esfuerzos para orar, para alabar a Dios, para celebrar la Eucaristía, para establecer la comunión con nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Dios nos ve. No importa la manera poco entusiasta, a veces distraída o desenfocada de proceder en nuestra adoración, Dios nos mira con ojos de misericordia y compasión, como lo hizo con la viuda.

¿Esta viuda de tiempo antiguo tiene algo que enseñarnos? Considerar su humildad. Ella es una persona dependiente, de la misma manera que lo es un huérfano. No tiene ningún hombre en su vida para su apoyo. Ella pone sus últimos recursos en la tesorería. Se trata de un acto de fe. Ella da de su pobreza. ¿En nuestro estado más desesperado de la vida haríamos eso?

La viuda está parada como el signo de lo que está sucediendo en el mundo. Los escribas y fariseos, líderes religiosos, han robado a la viuda su dignidad. Mientras que los ricos y los más prestigiosos colocan sus ofrendas con gran satisfacción en la tesorería, la viuda esconde su pobre ofrenda. Es tan poco, al igual que ella que es tan poco.

Jesús la ve. Y él ve todas las otras personas, algunas que arrogantemente caminan alrededor con las engreídas ilusiones sobre sí mismos, negociando con Dios para que les de lo que quieren. Por el contrario, la viuda se reduce a sí misma e invita a todo lo que Dios desea compartir con ella.

Jesús ve. Se vuelve a sus discípulos y les dice que ella dio más que todos los demás. Ella dio un corazón abierto que Dios puede llenar.

Jesús..... nos ve... hoy.

It is almost time once again for St. Bonaventure's Annual Giving Tree, where St. Bonaventure provides Christmas gifts to hundreds of needy members of our parish and our community. These people include the working poor, foster children, the elderly, women and children escaping domestic violence. For many, their gift from you will be the only gift they will receive this year. Decorated Christmas trees will be in the church the Weekend of November 17 & 18. The "decorations" are hundreds of paper ornaments with the needs and wants of those in need. Please help us give every person on our Giving Trees a Merry Christmas by supporting the Giving Tree Ministry. Thank You.
