"Be Still and Know that I Am God"

Psalm 46:10

SYNOPSIS of RETREAT

Come to Jesus and sit silently at His feet! With Him, we will draw closer to the God living within us and seek the light of the Holy Spirit through personal reflection and contemplative prayer.

*Learn how you can be the face of God by practicing the Beatitudes.

*Experience Moses' encounter with the Burning Bush (Exodus) in a new way.

*Enjoy personal time with God through quiet prayer, journaling, Confession and Adoration.

*Rejoice in sharing fellowship with other women as your hearts are filled with God's grace and peace.

Come! Join us on retreat!

GOD IS THE "RETREAT MASTER"

Father Richard Mangini, Director

Father Richard, who was Pastor of St. Bonaventure Catholic Community for 21 years, returns as our retreat Director through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Born and reared in Concord, he was ordained to the priesthood in 1967. In addition to his 50 years of Pastoral Service in the Diocese of Oakland, Father Richard has served as Editor of The Catholic Voice and as the diocesan Director of Strategic Planning.

Now retired, he continues weekend pastoral service at St. Ignatius of Antioch Church in Antioch, and celebrates weddings, funerals and Baptisms. He is also available for Spiritual Direction and open to all pastoral requests.

Music will be provided by Santiago and Joyce Martinez
