

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE CHURCH
NUPTIAL MUSIC PLANNING OUTLINE
Mrs. Marge Campbell, Parish Music Director
2020

NUPTIAL LITURGICAL MUSIC SELECTIONS

1. PRELUDE

To set the tone for the celebration, the instrumentalist(s) will provide music beginning fifteen minutes before the Liturgy. Also, at this time, the cantor may sing any liturgical selection(s) you choose. The Mothers' Entrance is the final prelude selection (instrumental or sung).

2. INTRODUCTORY RITES

Processional:

Note: You may choose one selection for the bridal party and a different selection for the bride OR you may choose one selection for both.

Trumpet Tune in D Major – Purcell	R	(R = can also be used as a Recessional)
Trumpet Voluntary in D Major – Clarke		R
Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring – Bach
Ode to Joy – Beethoven		R
Sound The Trumpets – Handel		R
Festive Trumpet Tune – David German		R
Sheep May Safely Graze – Bach
Canon in D – Pachelbel
Trumpet Tune – Charpentier		(better as a Recessional)
Hornpipe – Handel		(better as a Recessional)
Rondeau – Mouret		(better as a Recessional)

Any hymn which we use in our parish's weekly liturgies is appropriate for your wedding. However, in choosing a hymn, consider if the words convey the message you want for your wedding. Also notice that the hymns in our hymnal are grouped according to Season, Occasion, Rite, or Part of the Mass for which it is most appropriate.

On the following pages of this outline, "BB" refer to hymns in "Breaking Bread." The number of the hymn follows the abbreviation.

The Music Ministers of Saints Simon and Jude Church will offer a “Wedding Workshop” three times this year—January 22, May 13, and September 16. During these presentations cantors, organists, pianists, and solo instrumentalists will play excerpts from all the musical selections listed in this outline. Please consider attending at least one of these programs to assist you in choosing music and musicians for your wedding.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Mrs. Marge Campbell by phone (610-405-6934) or by e-mail (mjcucc@yahoo.com).
