You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed; the night is advanced, the day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ~Romans 13:11-12

A CALL TO BE INSTRUCTED IN HIS WAYS AND TO WALK IN THE WAYS OF THE LORD

The Advent season we begin today is very special for us as we are in the centennial year of our parish. I have taken a special theme for this season of advent in this very significant year for our parish community. We as a community from our small beginning in 1917 began our march, journey "Towards Hope and Light". It is "a journey from hopelessness and darkness to hope and light". The question before us is what do we need for this journey? How can we move from hopelessness and darkness to hope and light? To be successful in journey what is it that we need the most?

These questions take us to the theme for the first week of the advent. We need to be instructed in his ways and walk in the ways of the Lord. Instruction and walking, learning and living are the ways to move from hopelessness to hope and from darkness to light. This is precisely the invitation from the first Scripture from the Book of the prophet Isaiah. We hear the solemn invitation from the prophet, "Come, let us climb the Lord's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob." Why should we climb the mountain or go to the house of the God of Jacob? Isaiah says that God "may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths". We need to climb the mountain or go to the house of the God of Jacob to be instructed in his ways. Instruction or learning is at the foundation. Walking in his paths or living may not be possible without being instructed in his ways. Would this year help us to make a resolve to be instructed or to learn more about our faith and traditions?

Some of us might say that we already know what we believe. It is true that the people of Israel already received the commandments of the Lord at Mount Sinai right at the very beginning of their journey toward the Promised Land. They have already been instructed in the ways of the Lord. Then why is Isaiah calling them again to come and learn or be instructed? At the time when Isaiah wrote these words the socio-political and religious situation of the Judah was not positive and the people were facing threatening and destructive darkness from every sphere of their life. This overwhelming threat of darkness and destruction necessitated a call to renew the life based on the commandments and decrees of the Lord. A bright future, Isaiah feels, demands a proper response in the present. The proper response is to climb once again to the mountain (of Sinai where God first entered into a covenant with the people and asked Moses to come to him to receive the commandments) to be instructed in his ways and be able to walk in his paths and thus transform the life-threatening darkness into the life-giving light.

Being aware of the present and a proper response in the present is what Jesus intends when he makes allusion to the times of Noah right before the time of the flood and the imagery of the thief entering into the house. He speaks very clearly of this awareness and consciousness of our present times. Our 100th year presents us an invitation to a heightened awareness or consciousness of who we are and what we are called to be in our Laurelhurst neighborhood.

Summary of Comments re: Music:

There is a strong need for uplifting, inspirational, contemporary (post Vatican II), modern music.

Music Liturgy is essential to a thriving parish; All Saints needs to take a serious look at what music liturgy has to offer; maybe different styles to accommodate different tastes, e.g., chamber music may not resonate with families.

More resources need to be committed to music.

Need more music that is current and "singable" like that at the school masses; a strong music liturgy that appeals to families.

Music should encourage participation, songs should be familiar, sung often enough to be learned.

More connection to school band; Consider creation of a school choir.

All Saints Parish Baptism, Reconciliation and First Eucharist for Elementary Students Grades 3-8

Many of the students we serve at All Saints Catholic School have not been initiated into the Catholic faith through baptism. At All Saints, we have realized a need for these students to be allowed to enter the faith through a program designed specifically for elementary and middle school students. We will meet four times to discuss what the sacraments of Baptism, Reconciliation and Eucharist mean to Catholics and to prepare students to receive these sacraments. Students will then be initiated into the Catholic Church during the Catholic Schools Week Mass, Wednesday, January 25th, 2017 @ 9:30 am.

The 2016-2017 Meeting Dates:

December 1, 3:15-4:15

Answer: According to a 1966 article in The Oregonian, the current Church was estimated to cost $600,000. Monsignor Thomas Tobin, inspired by the call for liturgical renewal in the Second Vatican Council, incorporated many innovations in the design. Internationally known artists designed elements of the Church, including stained glass windows by Gabriel Loire, the processional cross by Frederick Littman and the Tasavant Freres pipe organ.
