REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

Epiphany of the Lord

Stars are amazing—not the people who claim star-status because of their work in sports or entertainment—but the stars that populate the universe. Most are between one and ten billion years old, a time span impossible to comprehend. Other than the sun, the closest star to Earth is Proxima Centauri, about twenty-five trillion miles away, another calculation that is impossible to comprehend. The exponential numbers scientists use when working with stars, whether it is age, distance, weight, composition, luminosity, or any other characteristic, race beyond our everyday calculations of hundreds and thousands. Stars are just too big for us humans.

No wonder Matthew's infancy narrative included a star as the sign for the newborn king. Everything about this child's birth seemed unimportant: born in Bethlehem instead of the big city, Jerusalem; unknown to the important people of the day; the pregnant woman taken into Joseph's home quietly so as not to cause scandal; a quiet, unremarkable birth in an unimportant country in the empire.

But then there's that star! Big, shining, revealing that there is more to this event than meets the eye. Visitors come from afar, and upset the balance of power as they seek the child who would be king. Epiphany is the manifestation of Christ to the world. And the star shows him to be who he really is—king of the universe and Lord of all. So it shouldn't seem so strange to us that Matthew would point out one of those incomprehensible entities in the night sky as the signifier of the One who is beyond all human understanding. What is remarkable is that that One came to be one of us so that we could understand him.

Youth Ministry: "Disciples in Action" —

Special thanks to all those who helped organize and support our Christmas party honoring our All Saints Seniors. On Tuesday, December 19, members of this faith community gathered for an afternoon of Christmas activities, Angel bingo, Service Projects, dinner and fun. Please check out the pictures in the back of the church. Special thanks to the Palinsky Family, the Hjorth Family, Susan Harrington and Father Paul. Thanks to Kathy Gritzmacher for taking the photos for this event. And last, but not least, thanks to all our Seniors and members of Youth Ministry who ventured out on such a rainy, windy day to spend an afternoon celebrating our faith community.

Special thanks to all those who helped with the Christmas Eve Family Liturgy. Thank you, Joey Harrington, for organizing and providing the beautiful music for this holy occasion. Thanks to all the readers, members of the Nativity scene, angels and shepherds who took the places of those who couldn't attend due to the snowy weather. Thanks to all who helped with the bells so we could all joyfully celebrate the birthday of Jesus Christ.

May this be a Christmas season filled with hope and joy for you and all you love.

The generosity of our school community is overwhelming! Please read the update of our recent all school Community Outreach projects:

Northwest Children's Outreach

The 5th grade class collected over 575 warm wear items to benefit local children in need. They delivered the items to the center and volunteered their time sorting and organizing donations. Staff remarked the students are welcome back anytime – they are so well behaved and helpful. If you are looking for an easy and fun family volunteer activity, please consider NCO.

Children's Book Bank

The 2nd grade continues to run a successful book drive! This year they donated 2,267 books to the Children's Book Bank thanks to the help of many volunteers – young and old. The CBB is always very thankful for the quantity and quality of books All Saints donates.

Mission: Hungry Helping Packs

4th grade sold out of the packs yesterday after school. Thank you.

Our school continues to help our local community with the annual Giving Tree. It is wonderful to see so many presents underneath the tree waiting to be delivered to the three families we adopted.

Thank you and Merry Christmas!
 The Community Outreach Team

COSPONSORS

Thanks to our generous sponsors at the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon, Episcopal Bishop of Oregon Foundation, and Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon, the convocation is subsidized to allow more people to participate.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION

Presented by Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon

Hearing the Cries for Justice Convocation will equip and motivate faith communities to offer hospitality to all impacted by the criminal justice system, including survivors of crime and violence, families of the incarcerated, persons returning from prison, and those inside.

Breakout sessions will provide training for service and action focused on one of five areas: the school-to-prison pipeline, prison ministries, prison re-entry supports, voices of survivors of violence, and advocating criminal justice reform. All sessions will approach the conversation with a restorative justice lens. We will focus on ways the faith community is uniquely called and suited to engage the criminal justice system by changing lives and society. Workshops will be led by professionals, faith leaders, and persons with lived experience of the system.

Your voice is important in these conversations: please join us!

Additional donations are welcomed.
