REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

June 16, 2019
 The Most Holy Trinity

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How it can be, we can't explain. But what it means, we can join! Our God is an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within Godself. In other words, God doesn't require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He's growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today's Gospel.

Jesus says the Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you" and that "everything that the Father has is mine." There is relationship here. Jesus speaks (and is) the word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family!

The doctrine of the Trinity isn't something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, "the Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth." This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.

Applications are now being accepted for the SEEL (Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life) long retreat.

The deadline for applications is August 1, 2019.

The Spiritual Exercises are composed of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices developed by St. Ignatius Loyola to help people deepen their relationship with God. The Exercises present a pathway to deeper prayer, good decisions guided by keen discernment, and an active life of service to others.

Find us online at <http://seelportland.org> ~ <https://seelportland.org/how-to-apply/>

Questions? Call Janet Buck, SEEL Executive Director, at 503-951-8682.

Regina Caeli Academy 2019-2020

Come join our exciting mission to form the next generation of Catholics! Regina Caeli Academy (www.rcahybrid.org) provides a classical, hybrid education in the Catholic tradition. Pre K3 - 12th grade students attend Socratic, hands-on classes taught by trained tutors two days a week and homeschool on the remaining days. Lesson plans for home days are included and optimized for in-home education.

We are currently looking to hire someone to assist in the nursery two days a week, Monday and Thursday. If you are interested, please contact khartsock@rcahybrid.org or (512) 571-8674.

Letting Go of Perfectionism Workshop Offers Soothing Advice

Compulsive, unceasing pursuit of unobtainable goals in order to measure self-worth by successes often causes us to feel stressed and exhausted. These pressures often lead to self-criticism, which takes over when our unreasonably high standards fail. At this workshop, Nancie Potter, JD, LMFT, helps uncover what drives the harsh, self-judgement that destroys self-empowerment.

Mark your calendar for Saturday, July 13th. The workshop runs from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM. The cost is $30. Hardship scholarships are available upon request. Pre-registration is required.

The workshop is held at the Northwest Catholic Counseling Center, 8383 NE Sandy Blvd., suite 205, Portland, OR 97220. To register for this workshop, please visit www.nwcounseling.org/services/workshops or call 503-253-0964.
