REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

June 30, 2019
 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Do you know? Today is the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, of which we left on Ash Wednesday, March 4th, taking us through the Lenten and Easter seasons. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.

Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Ordinary Time = Green

Letting Go of Perfectionism Workshop Offers Soothing Advice

Compulsive, unceasing pursuit of unobtainable goals in order to measure self-worth by successes often causes us to feel stressed and exhausted. These pressures often lead to self-criticism, which takes over when our unreasonably high standards fail. At this workshop, Nancie Potter, JD, LMFT, helps uncover what drives the harsh, self-judgement that destroys self-empowerment.

Mark your calendar for Saturday, July 13th. The workshop runs from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM. The cost is $30. Hardship scholarships are available upon request. Pre-registration is required.

The workshop is held at the Northwest Catholic Counseling Center, 8383 NE Sandy Blvd., suite 205, Portland, OR 97220. To register for this workshop, please visit www.nwcounseling.org/services/workshops or call 503-253-0964.

Applications are now being accepted for the SEEL (Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life) long retreat.

The deadline for applications is August 1, 2019.

The Spiritual Exercises are composed of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices developed by St. Ignatius Loyola to help people deepen their relationship with God. The Exercises present a pathway to deeper prayer, good decisions guided by keen discernment, and an active life of service to others.

Find us online at <http://seelportland.org> ~ <https://seelportland.org/how-to-apply/>

Questions? Call Janet Buck, SEEL Executive Director, at 503-951-8682.
