REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

October 6th, 2019—27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“When you have done all you have been commanded, say ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.’” The metaphor in the story could seem harsh to us today. A servant has worked hard all day, and rather than receiving a much-needed respite, the master commands an additional task. Jesus, however, is appearing to their sensibilities. This was a hierarchical society in which everyone had a place. His listeners would know this. No servant would presume a reward for good deeds.

It’s important to remember that we do have a place at God’s table. But we don’t “earn” it. Dining with the Lord at the heavenly wedding feast requires surrender. It requires deep faith in God and His promises. It also requires commitment. The kingdom takes work! There are fields to plow and initiatives to prepare. There are sheep to tend to and family to care for. There are people waiting for our yes to generous service. When we serve dinner at a homeless shelter, we are waiting on the table of Christ. When we visit an ill relative, we’re imitating the Good Samaritan. We’re visiting Jesus! We’re growing his kingdom of life and love.

The Gospel today reminds us to check our motives. Are we serving because we’re seeking a reward? Or because we have faith that this is who we’re meant to serve? That is, is this where we’re meant to be? The Gospel reminds us that this faith can do powerful things! “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.” But, ultimately, we’re not the ones doing the deeds. We’re not the ones “earning” the grace. Faith, and the good we do for others, is a gift.

OUT AND ABOUT

ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES OF OREGON presents the 2019 Collins Summit- 'Listening at the Margins' Ancestral Wisdom, Spiritual Resistance & Hope in Times of Trauma

In a world of increasing fear and violence, how can we build networks of resistance rooted in our spiritual traditions? A third wave of liberation theology turns to the lived experience of people already facing global violence as a testimony of life in the face of death. These communities draw on emerging and ancient spiritualities that grow out of their contexts. They also share wisdom for our own spirituality.

The 2019 Collins Summit: Listening at the Margins will be an opportunity to hear about and practice methods of listening that build strength for social justice work in our local communities.

Speaker: Dr. Carlos Mendoza-Alvarez, a Dominican priest and internationally known liberation theologian.

Wednesday, Oct. 16—Seminar: 1—5:15 p.m. Lecture: 7—9:15 p.m.

Registration: Seminar, Dinner & Lecture—$60.00 General, $30.00 student with ID. Evening Lecture Only: $25.00 General, $15.00 student with ID. Call Ecumenical Ministries: 503-221-1054 or online emo@emoregon.org by October 9.

Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage, but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope.

Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples that can help you learn the tools of healthy communication, build intimacy and heal, just as they have done in their own marriages. For more information about or to register to the upcoming Retrouvaille Weekend program, October 11-13, 2019, please call 1-503-225-9191 or visit our website: HelpOurMarriage.com
