

Sisters of St. John the Baptist

Provincial Residence
3308 Campbell Drive, Bronx, NY 10465
718-518-7820

Sr. Anastasia Fabricatore, C.S.JB.

100 years of age,

a

Sister of Saint John the Baptist for 75 years

Sr. Anastasia Fabricatore, C.S.JB. passed to her eternal reward at Mt. St. John Convent, Purchase, New York on Thursday, June 24, 2010, the feast the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. The Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated for her on Saturday, June 26, 2010 at Mt. St. John Convent Chapel. Sister was interred at Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Westchester, NY.

Sister Anastasia entered the Community in 1935. She professed her first vows in 1936 at St. John Villa Academy on Staten Island and professed final vows in 1942 also at St. John Villa Academy. During her 75 years in religious life, Sr. Anastasia was missioned in three places. From 1943 – 1946 Sister was at Our Lady of Loreto Parish in New York City. For ten years, from 1946-1956, Sister worked at Providence Rest Nursing Home, Bronx, NY where she faithfully and cheerfully ministered to the residents in her care. From 1956 until 1999, Sister ministered at Mt. St. John Convent, Gladstone, New Jersey cooking for the Sisters and the students at Mt. St. John Academy. Sister retired in 1999 and lived her last years peacefully at Mt. St. John Convent, Purchase, New York, until her death.

Sister is survived by her sisters Michelina, Lucy, Angelina, Celeste and many nieces and nephews.