

SISTER BRIGIDA D'AGOSTINO

(February 22, 1898 - July 21, 1982)

Sr. Brigida in her simplicity was beautiful. She lived her life truly for Christ, believing in Him, trusting in Him and loving Him. Her life was a song of a total dedication to the Lord. She gave of herself in soliciting for the needy and as a cook serving His people. She is remembered with loving affection for her humble service at St. John Villa Academy, Staten Island, Our Lady of Loreto, New York City, Mt. St. John Convent, White Plains, and Mt. St. John Academy, Gladstone.

The last twenty-five years of her life were spent at Providence Rest where she performed the task of cooking for the Sisters. She loved them and had true concern for their needs. Sister is and will be sorely missed.

May she rest in Peace!
