

SISTER GIULIA MARGARI

(October 15, 1906 - July 26, 1992)

At Angri, Italy, Sr. Giulia passed to he eternal reward on July 26, 1992.

Sr. Giulia, christened Rosina, was born on October 15, 1906, in Magliano-Lecce, Italy. About six months after her first profession, in 1932, Sister left her native land for the United States and was first assigned to Providence Rest, Bronx, New York where she cared for the aged.

From 1932 to 1978, Sister served at Providence Rest and our Lady of Loreto in New York City. She served in the humble task of soliciting, domestic work and continued her work to the aged. On July 25, 1978, Sister returned to Angri, Italy where she assisted with the children in the nursery until the Lord called her to Himself.

Sister Giulia is remembered by those with whom she lived with, as a prayerful, and joyful Sister.

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE!
