

SISTER MARY LOUISE LIVINGSTON

(Sept.7,1921-11/15/68)

Sister Mary Louise died suddenly, while at home on rest.

She had worked very hard, during her 30 years in Religious life, even though she suffered from a heart condition.

Her life was dedicated to the religious state since her childhood and she excelled through her dynamic and energetic character.

Sister was superior, principal, secretary and teacher.

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE!
