Most Holy Trinity/La Santísima Trinidad Cycle C

All the gifts that we receive from God, be it His grace, faith, hope, peace, or justification, they are bestowed upon us through the Blessed Trinity. It is by the grace of God through the power of the Holy Spirit in the Most Holy Name of Jesus that God manifests His love in us, with us and through us so His light may shine in the world. Today's Gospel Reading from the Gospel of John reaffirms the three fold action of the Blessed Trinity in our lives. Both, the Father and the Son have sent the Holy Spirit in the world as the Spirit of truth to guide us into the truth. As Jesus did not speak on His own, but spoke of what He heard from the Father, the Holy Spirit also will not speak on His own, but he speaks of what He hears. During the Gospel Reading, we heard Jesus say, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now." From these words, we learn that while "Revelation is already complete in Jesus Christ, it has not been made completely explicit; it remains for Christian faith gradually to grasp its full significance over the course of the centuries." (C.C.C. # 66) As we are able to grasp the truth, depending on our age and our openness to the knowledge and understanding of Scriptures, the grace of God shines on us according to our need and our desire to grow in Christ. Such a grace may be manifested by the Holy Spirit who may choose to inspire us, guide us to written teachings of the Catholic Church, or possibly put on our path a loving teacher who will explain to us what we seek to learn for the glory of God. My brothers and sisters, before proceeding with the celebration of the Holy Mass, I would like to ask you to take the time this week to reflect upon the Blessed Trinity. May God bless you always.

Todos los dones que hemos recibido de Dios, su misericordia y amor, la fe, la esperanza, la paz, y la justificación, los hemos recibido a través de la Santísima Trinidad. Es por la gracia de Dios, en el poder del Espíritu Santo, y por el Santísimo nombre de Jesús, que Dios manifiesta su amor en nosotros y a través de nosotros, para que su amor brille en el mundo.

En el evangelio de hoy de San Juan, se reafirma la triple acción de la Santísima Trinidad en nuestra vida. El padre y el Hijo, ambos han enviado al Espíritu Santo al mundo como el espíritu de verdad que nos guía hacia la verdad. Como Jesús no hablaba de si mismo, sino de lo que había oído decir al padre, así mismo el Espíritu Santo no habla de si mismo, si de lo que ha escuchado. Durante la lectura del Evangelio hemos escuchado a Cristo decir, "Tengo muchas cosas que decir, pero no podéis con ellas ahora." De estas palabras aprendemos que mientras "La revelación se ha completado en Jesucristo; esta (la revelación) se deja para la fe del cristiano que agarre todo su sentido durante el paso los siglos." (CCC #66). Dependiendo de nuestra edad, de nuestra apertura al conocimiento y entendimiento de la sagrada escritura, la Gracia de Dios en nosotros, y de acuerdo a nuestra necesidad y deseo de crecer en Cristo, podemos alcanzar el conocimiento de la verdad. Tal Gracia, puede ser manifestada por el Espíritu Santo que puede inspirarnos, y guiarnos a las enseñanzas de la Iglesia Católica, o posiblemente ponga en nuestro camino a alguien que nos explique lo que estamos buscando aprender de Dios. Así que mis queridos hermanos reflexionemos durante esta semana sobre este misterio del amor de Dios que es la Santísima Trinidad. Que Dios los bendiga a todos ustedes.
