MISSION STATEMENT

St. Anthony of Padua Parish is committed to the Celebration of God's presence among His people through meaningful, well prepared liturgy, prayerful gatherings, evangelization and faith formation. We recognize and welcome the richness of our culturally and ethnically diverse community. We strive to nurture and develop these differences by encouraging all our brothers and sisters to share their gifts so we may strengthen our community and become one.

WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANALThirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time/Domingo Treinta Tiempo Ordinario

Today we hear in the Gospel another story of the power of faith. A blind man, Bartimaeus, sought pity from the Lord and asked for healing. He believed that the Son of David could grant what he asked. At the end of the Gospel, Jesus states that it was Bartimaeus' faith that cured him. Bartimaeus is an inspiration to us. So, what would I do, if I were in a similar situation as this blind man? Because the danger at this moment is to believe that there is no escape route for me; there is not a solution to my problem. I'll pray, but I will not receive anything. So many times, we ask the Lord for many things, but with a defeated attitude. Already knowing we won't receive. The Lord is passing by us every Sunday -- indeed every day of our lives -- and he may seem distracted but he is waiting to see how we react. Do we cry aloud all the more, or we just keep the cry for ourselves, feeling full of self-pity afterwards? No, the Lord is waiting to hear us crying as we never have before. Then he will see that our request is supported by our faith, our firm believe the He can do it, that He will do it. And not just the little miracle, but the big miracle: to taste his love, to experience that the only thing we need is His love in our life. That to see or not to see, to be rich or poor, to be healthy or sick, married or single, etc., is not as important as to have Him. To know that the rest "will be given to us by our heavenly father." May God Bless you always.

El Evangelio de este domingo nos presenta una historia donde se ve el poder que tiene la fe. Este evangelio nos presenta a un hombre ciego que está pidiendo limosnas, y que cuando se entera de que Cristo está pasando, comienza a gritar como loco para que se pare y lo escuche, y no solo eso, sino que le conceda una gracia especial. Y tú, ¿eres capaz de gritar y que pienses que eres un poco loco, hasta hacer que Cristo se pare y te escuche? Porque de eso se trata, de hacer que Cristo se pare y te escuche, y así pueda concederte lo que le estas pidiendo. ¿Cuál es la medida de tu fe? Esta fe se mide también de acuerdo a como es tu oración, esa intimidad con el Señor. No solamente la repetición de una serie de formulas aprendidas por tradición, sino de la certeza de que él puede hacerlo, de que si consigo que se pare y me escuche él me hará el favor que le estoy pidiendo. O a lo mejor me he acostumbrado a estar pidiendo un poquito de limosna, un poquito de cariño y con eso me basta. No el Señor nos quiere regalar algo mucho más grande, la fe, que como dice Cristo, puede mover montañas. Imagínese, si puede mover una montaña cuanto más los problemas o necesidades que pueda usted tener. Pidámosle a nuestro Señor que nos conceda una fe como la de este ciego y así poder hacer a Cristo detenerse y concedernos lo que estemos necesitando. Que Dios me los bendiga a todos.

Ministry to the Sick and Homebound

The parish family of St. Anthony's seeks to reach out and include the sick, the elderly, and the homebound in the life and prayers of our parish.

Please contact the parish office if someone wants to receive Communion or needs to see the priest for the sacraments of Confession and Anointing of the Sick

RCIA

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process the Catholic Community provides to welcome adults who wish to become Catholic and to prepare adult Catholics to receive Confirmation (and when needed, First Eucharist.) Please contact the Parish for more information.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm -- The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading -- It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel -- Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura --Yavé ha salvado a su pueblo, al resto de Israel (Jeremías 31:7-9).

Salmo -- El Señor ha estado grande con nosotros, y estamos alegres (Salmo 126 [125]).

Segunda lectura -- Cristo no se atribuyó la dignidad de sumo sacerdote, sino que se la otorgó aquel que dice: "Tú eres mi Hijo, te he dado vida hoy mismo" (Hebreos 5:1-6).

Evangelio -- Jesús le concede la vista a Bartimeo cuando con gran fe le suplica: "Maestro, que vea" (Marcos 10:46-52).

Thursday, November 1st, we celebrate All Saints Day. This is a Holy day of obligation. Please see the Mass schedule.

Jueves, 1 de noviembre, celebramos el Día de Todos los Santos. Este es un santo día de obligación. Vea el horario de la misa.

All Souls...on this day Catholics everywhere celebrate our own unique brand of Memorial Day. This is the day when we remember those who have fallen asleep in faith--those who are now at rest. For many, especially those who have lost loved ones recently, this is a day of poignant remembrance. As we listen to God's healing word, let us keep in mind all who have died, as well as those who mourn them.

Los católicos por todo el mundo tenemos nuestra propia y sinigual celebración del Día de los Caídos o Memorial Day. Éste es el día en que recordamos a todos los que nos han precedido en la fe y ahora disfrutan el descanso eterno. Para muchos, sobre todo para aquellas personas que han perdido recientemente un ser querido, éste es un día de recuerdo conmovedor. Al escuchar la palabra salvífica de Dios tengamos presente a todos los que han muerto, así como a todas las personas que lloran la pérdida de ellos.

Our church parking lot is in the process of being repaved. This is a big expense for the parish, and we are asking for your help. If every family would be able to donate $300, this will aid in our efforts to accomplish this. If you cannot donate $300, any donation will be greatly appreciated. Thank you and God Bless you and your family.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today is the feast of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales, the first representative body of many Catholics who died for their faith between 1535 and 1679 to be beatified or canonized. Almost all of them died at Tyburn, a place of public execution near today's Marble Arch in Hyde Park, London. The first to suffer were Carthusian monks who refused to swear an oath supporting Henry VIII as supreme head of the Church in England, and the last was Saint Oliver Plunkett, the Primate Archbishop of Ireland. The method of execution was particularly vile, since the condemned were hanged and their living bodies quartered to be displayed around London as a horrific warning. Today, the tree-like gallows provides the design of a religious symbol, the canopy over the altar of the martyrs in Tyburn Convent. There, at the heart of the bustling city, a monastic community of women practices contemplative prayer and "spiritual hospitality" in the Benedictine tradition. Oddly, the community is French in origin; it was expelled from France a century ago when France outlawed contemplative monastic life. England, where the laws against Catholicism had been lifted, invited the community in. In gratitude to their new homeland, and in honor of those who gave their lives for the Catholic faith, the nuns came to Tyburn. In the public crypt, coats of arms stand for each of the 350 martyrs. TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En México y otros países latinoamericanos se están preparando para celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos (1o de noviembre) y el Día de los Fieles Difuntos (2 de noviembre). Estas dos fiestas cristianas fueron mezcladas con antiguos ritos y devociones mesoamericanas. Ellas enfatizan que la muerte es parte normal del ciclo de la vida y que los difuntos no se olvidan de sus seres queridos. Esta es la base de la devoción católica a los santos: Dios es Dios de los vivos y no de los muertos (Mateo 22:32); por eso los muertos siguen vivos en una nueva dimensión. En estos días, las familias pasan tiempo en los cementerios, visitando las tumbas de sus parientes y amistades, lavando las lápidas, poniendo arreglos de zempasuchil y encendiendo veladoras. En casa, muchos latinos construyen y adornan altarcitos dedicándolos a las almas de sus seres queridos que han muerto. En los altares se encuentran papel picado, fotos de los difuntos, artículos religiosos, comida, bebida, cigarritos y otras cosas que los ya muertos disfrutaban durante sus vidas. Para los niños muertos se añaden juguetitos que les gustaban en vida. --Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
