WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL

Fourteenth Sunday OT/Decimo Cuarto Domingo TO

Today we hear about how Jesus sent out his disciples with this mission: to bring in the great harvest of souls. The only instruction he gave them was to take nothing with them and accept whatever hospitality people offered. He was asking them to step out in faith. Mother Angelica once spoke about what stepping out means. As he sent out the disciples, Jesus told them to say, "The Kingdom of God is at hand." It is important for us to ask: What exactly is the Kingdom of God? In his book Jesus of Nazareth, Pope Benedict gives an in-depth analysis of that phrase. "When Jesus speaks of the Kingdom of God, he is quite simply proclaiming God, and proclaiming him to be the living God, who is able to act concretely in the world and in history and is even now so acting."

God wants us to place our lives in his hands. This Sunday Jesus asks us to trust God and to remember our purpose: to help bring in the great harvest of souls. It is so easy to get bogged down and forget why we are here. Our purpose is to come to God and to bring other with us. I have known people who started out great, but then got discouraged when things didn't go the way they expected. They gave up the work of the Kingdom and crawled into a shell. There's a lesson for us. We have a goal: to share in Jesus victory. Now is the time for the great harvest of souls. We want to be part of that harvest and bring others into it. May nothing keep us from that purpose. The Kingdom of God is at hand. May God Bless you all.

Hoy escuchamos como Jesús envió sus discípulos con esta misión: anunciar el Reino de Dios y recoger la gran cosecha de almas. La única instrucción que les dio era de no llevar nada y aceptar la hospitalidad que le gente ofreciera. Les pido arriesgarse en fe "En cada instante, Dios esperaba que sus discípulos se arriesgar en fe, sin saber lo que iba a suceder, y esto es donde nos fallamos hoy. Lo que mas importa es arriesgarnos con fediscípulos. Los envió sin dinero ni mochila ni sandalias. Querría que dependieran de Dios y del pueblo de Dios. Al enviar sus discípulos, Jesús les dijo que dijera, "Ya se acerca el Reino de Dios." Es importante preguntarnos: Que exactamente es el Reino de Dios? En su libro Jesús de Nazaret, "Cuando Jesús habla del Reino de Dios, esta proclamando Dios, y proclamándolo como el Dios vivo, que puede actuar concretamente en el mundo y en la historia y que aun ahora esta actuando así." Dios quiere que pongamos nuestras vidas en sus manos. Este domingo Jesús no pide poner nuestra confianza en Dios y recordar nuestro propósito: ayudar en recoger la gran cosecha de almas. Es fácil olvidarnos porque estamos aquí. Nuestro propósito es ir a Dios y llevar otros con nosotros. He conocido a personas que comenzaron bien, pero se desanimaron cuando las cosas no fueron como esperaban. Dejan el trabajo de Reino y forman un caparazón. Eso es lo que tu y yo debemos hacer. Recordar nuestra meta: participar en la victoria de Jesús. Ahora es el tiempo para la gran cosecha de almas. Queremos ser parte de esa cosecha. Que nada nos desvíe de ese propósito. Ya se acerca el Reino de Dios. Que Dios los Bendiga.

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” (Luke 10:2)

As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charisms or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God's Church. Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.

Sick and Shut-ins

If you are a parishioner and are not able to come to Mass on Sundays, you can watch a live broadcast of St. Anthony's Masses by going through our website and clicking on the Live Mass link.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are among the missing. Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the sabbatical rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo apóstol de Brasil fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupí, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina. Eventualmente fundó el Colegio Jesuita de São Paulo de Piratininga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el santo volador por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buena nuevas (Isaías 52:7).
